FOREWORD

SCRIPTURAL PROMISE

The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever.
Isaiah 40:8

THE New American Standard Bible has been produced with the conviction that the words of Scripture as originally penned in the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek were inspired by God. Since they are the eternal Word of God, the Holy Scriptures speak with fresh power to each generation, to give wisdom that leads to salvation, that men may serve Christ to the glory of God.

The Editorial Board had a twofold purpose in making this translation: to adhere as closely as possible to the original languages of the Holy Scriptures, and to make the translation in a fluent and readable style according to current English usage.

THE FOURFOLD AIM OF THE LOCKMAN FOUNDATION

1. These publications shall be true to the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.
2. They shall be grammatically correct.
3. They shall be understandable to the masses.
4. They shall give the Lord Jesus Christ His proper place, the place which the Word gives Him; therefore, no translation work will ever be personalized.

PRINCIPLES OF TRANSLATION

MODERN ENGLISH USAGE: The attempt has been made to render the grammar and terminology in contemporary English. When it was felt that the word-for-word literalness was unacceptable to the modern reader, a change was made in the direction of a more current English idiom. In the instances where this has been done, the more literal rendering has been indicated in the notes.

ALTERNATIVE READINGS: In addition to the more literal renderings, notations have been made to include alternate translations, readings of variant manuscripts and explanatory equivalents of the text. Only such notations have been used as have been felt justified in assisting the reader's comprehension of the terms used by the original author.

HEBREW TEXT: In the present translation the latest edition of Rudolf Kittel's BIBLIA HEBRAICA has been employed together with the most recent light from lexicography, cognate languages, and the Dead Sea Scrolls.

HEBREW TENSES: Consecution of tenses in Hebrew remains a puzzling factor in translation. The translators have been guided by the requirements of a literal translation, the sequence of tenses, and the immediate and broad contexts.

THE PROPER NAME OF GOD IN THE OLD TESTAMENT: In the Scriptures, the name of God is most significant and understandably so. It is inconceivable to think of spiritual matters without a proper designation for the Supreme Deity. Thus the most common name for the Deity is God, a translation of the original Elohim. One of the titles for God is Lord, a translation of Adonai. There is yet another name which is particularly assigned to God as His special or proper name, that is, the four letters YHWH (Exodus 3:14 and Isaiah 42:8). This name has not been pronounced by the Jews because of reverence for the great sacredness of the divine name. Therefore, it has been consistently translated LORD. The only exception to this translation of YHWH is when it occurs in immediate proximity to the word Lord, that is, Adonai. In that case it is regularly translated God in order to avoid confusion. It is known that for many years YHWH has been transliterated as Yahweh, however no complete certainty attaches to this pronunciation.

GREEK TEXT: Consideration was given to the latest available manuscripts with a view to determining the best Greek text. In most instances the 23rd edition of Eberhard Nestle's NOVUM TESTAMENTUM GRAECE was followed.

GREEK TENSES: A careful distinction has been made in the treatment of the Greek aorist tense (usually translated as the English past, "He did") and the Greek imperfect tense (rendered either as English past progressive, "He was doing"; or, if inceptive, as "He began to do" or "He started to do"; or else if customary past, as "He used to do").

"Began" is italicized if it renders an imperfect tense, in order to distinguish it from the Greek verb for "begin."

On the other hand, not all aorists have been rendered as English pasts ("He did"), for some of them are clearly to be rendered as English perfects ("He has done"), or even as past perfects ("He had done"), judging from the context in which they occur. Such aorists have been rendered as perfects or past perfects in this translation.

As for the distinction between aorist and present imperatives, translators have usually rendered these imperatives in the customary manner, rather than attempting any such fine distinction as "Begin to do!" (for the aorist imperative), or, "Continually do!" (for the present imperative).

As for sequence of tenses, the translators took care to follow English rules rather than Greek in translating Greek presents, imperfects and aorists. Thus, where English says, "We knew that he was doing," Greek puts it, "We knew that he does"; similarly, "We knew that he had done" is the Greek, "We knew that he did." Likewise, English, "When he had come, they met him," is represented in Greek by: "When he came, they met him." In all cases a consistent translation has been made from the Greek tense in the subordinate clause to the appropriate tense in English.

In the rendering of negative questions introduced by the particle mē (which always expects the answer, "No") the wording has been altered from a mere, "Will he not do this?" to a more accurate, "He will do this, will he?"

Explanation of GENERAL FORMAT

TES AND CROSS REFERENCES are placed in a column adjoining the text on the page and listed under verse numbers to which they refer. Superior numbers refer to literal renderings, alternate translations, or explanations. Superior letters refer to cross references. Cross references in italics are parallel passages.

PARAGRAPHS are designated by a paragraph mark with bold face numbers or letters.

QUOTATION MARKS are used in the text in accordance with modern English usage.

“IOU,” “THEE” AND “THY” are not used in this translation except in the language of prayer when addressing Deity.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS are capitalized when pertaining to Deity.

ITALICS are used in the text to indicate words which are not found in the original Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek but implied by it. Italics are used in the marginal notes to signify alternate readings for the text.

ALL CAPS in the New Testament are used in the text to indicate Old Testament quotations or obvious allusions to Old Testament texts. Variations of Old Testament wording are found in New Testament citations depending on whether the New Testament writer translated from a Hebrew text, used existing Greek or Aramaic translations, or paraphrased the material. It should be noted that modern rules for the indication of direct quotation were not used in biblical times thus allowing freedom for omissions or insertions without specific indication of these.

ASTERISKS are used to mark verbs that are historical presents in the Greek which have been translated with an English past tense in order to conform to modern usage. The translators recognized that in some contexts the present tense seems more unexpected and unjustified to the English reader than a past tense would have been. But Greek authors frequently used the present tense for the sake of heightened vividness, thereby transporting their readers in imagination to the actual scene at the time of occurrence. However, the translators felt that it would be wise to change these historical presents to English past tenses.

GENESIS

The Creation

IN the beginning ^bGod ^ccreated the heavens and the earth.

2 And the earth was ^{1a}formless and void, and ^bdarkness was over the ²surface of the deep; and ^cthe Spirit of God ^dwas ³moving over the ²surface of the waters.

3 Then ^aGod said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

4 And God saw that the light was ^agood; and God ^bseparated the light from the darkness.

5 And ^aGod called the light day, and the darkness He called night. And ^bthere was evening and there was morning, one day.

6 ¶ Then God said, "Let there be ^{1a}an ^aexpanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."

7 And God made the ¹expanse, and separated ^athe waters which were below the ¹expanse from the waters ^bwhich were above the ¹expanse; and it was so.

8 And God called the ¹expanse heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

9 ¶ Then God said, "Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place, and let ^bthe dry land appear"; and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land earth, and the ^agathering of the waters He called seas; and God saw that it was good.

11 Then God said, "Let the earth sprout ^{1a}vegetation, ²plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit after ³their kind, ⁴with seed in them, on the earth"; and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth ¹vegetation, ²plants yielding seed after ³their kind, and trees bearing fruit, ⁴with seed in them, after ³their kind; and God saw that it was good.

13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

14 ¶ Then God said, "Let there be ^{1a}lights in the ^{2b}expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for ^csigns, and for ^dseasons, and for days and years;

15 and let them be for ¹lights in the ²expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth"; and it was so.

16 And God made the two ¹great lights, the ^agreater ²light ³to govern the day, and the lesser ²light ³to govern the night; He made ^bthe stars also.

17 ^aAnd God placed them in the ¹expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth.

18 and ¹to ^agovern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good.

19 And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

20 ¶ Then God said, "Let the waters ¹teem with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth ²in the open ³expanse of the heavens."

21 And God created ^athe great sea monsters, and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind; and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth."

25 And God made the ^abeasts of the earth after ¹their kind, and the cattle after ¹their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind; and God saw that it was good.

26 Then God said, "Let ^aUs make ^bman in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them ^crule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the ¹sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

27 And God created man ^ain His own image, in the image of God He created him; ^bmale and female He created them.

28 And God blessed them; and God said to them, "^aBe fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the ¹sky, and over every living thing that ²moves on the earth."

29 Then God said, "Behold, ^aI have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the ¹surface of all the earth, and every tree ²which has fruit yielding seed; it shall be food for you;

30 and ^ato every beast of the earth and to every bird of the ¹sky and to every thing that ²moves on the earth ³which has life, I have given every green plant for food"; and it was so.

31 And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very ^agood. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2 And by ^athe seventh day God completed His work which He had done; and ^bHe rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done.

3 Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created ¹and made.

4 ¶ ^{1a}This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in ^bthe day that the LORD God made earth and heaven.

5 ^aNow no shrub of the field was yet in the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, ^bfor the LORD God had not sent rain upon the earth; and there was no man to ¹cultivate the ground.

6 But a ¹mist used to rise from the earth and water the whole ²surface of the ground.

7 Then the LORD God formed man of ^adust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and ^bman became a living ¹being.

8 And the LORD God planted a ^agarden toward the east, in Eden; and there He placed the man whom He had formed.

9 And out of the ground the LORD God caused to grow ^aevery tree that is pleasing to the sight and good for food; ^bthe tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 ¶ Now a ^ariver ¹flowed out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four ²ivers.

11 The name of the first is Pishon; it ¹flows around the whole land of ^aHavilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good; the bdellium and the onyx stone are there.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon; it ¹flows around the whole land of Cush.

14 And the name of the third river is ^{1a}Tigris; it ²flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the ^{3b}Euphrates.

15 Then the LORD God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it.

16 And the LORD God ^acommanded the man, saying, "From any tree of the garden you may eat freely;

17 but from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not ¹eat, for in the day that you eat from it ^ayou shall surely die."

18 ¶ Then the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone; ^aI will make him a helper ¹suitable for him."

19 And ^aout of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the ¹sky, and ^bbrought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called a living creature, that was its name.

20 And the man gave names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the ¹sky, and to every beast of the field, but for ²Adam there was not found ^aa helper ³suitable for him.

21 So the LORD God caused a ^adeep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh at that place.

22 And the LORD God ¹fashioned into a woman ^athe rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man.

23 And the man said,

"^aThis is now bone of my bones,

And flesh of my flesh;

¹She shall be called ²Woman,

Because ¹she was taken out of ³Man."

CHAPTER 3

NOW ^athe serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, "Indeed, has God said, 'You shall not eat from ¹any tree of the garden'?"

2 And the woman said to the serpent, "^aFrom the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat;

3 but from the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat from it or touch it, lest you die.'"

4 ^aAnd the serpent said to the woman, "You surely shall not die!

5 ^aFor God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and ^ayou will be like God, knowing good and evil."

6 ^aWhen the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.

7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they ^aknew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves ¹loin coverings.

8 ¶ And they heard the sound of ^athe LORD God walking in the garden in the ¹cool of the day, ^band the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

9 Then the LORD God called to the man, and said to him,

"Where are you?"

10 And he said, "I heard the sound of Thee in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid myself."

11 And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?"

12 And the man said, "The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me, she gave me from the tree, and I ate."

13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

14 And the LORD God said to the serpent,

"Because you have done this,

Cursed are you more than all cattle,

And more than every beast of the field;

On your belly shall you go,
And dust shall you eat

All the days of your life;

15 And I will put enmity
Between you and the woman,

And between your seed and her seed;

He shall bruise you on the head,

And you shall bruise him on the heel."

16 To the woman He said,

"I will greatly multiply
Your pain in childbirth,

In pain you shall bring forth children;

Yet your desire shall be for your husband,

And he shall rule over you."

17 Then to Adam He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat from it';

18 "Both thorns and thistles shall grow for you;

And you shall eat the plants of the field;

19 By the sweat of your face You shall eat bread,

Till you return to the ground,

Because from it you were taken;

For you are dust, And to dust you shall return."

20 Now the man called his wife's name Eve, because she was the mother of all the living.

21 And the LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them.

22 ¶ Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil; and now, lest he stretch out his hand, and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever"—

23 therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to cultivate the ground from which he was taken.

24 So He drove the man out, and at the east of the garden of Eden He stationed the cherubim, and the flaming sword which turned every direction, to guard the way to the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

NOW the man had relations with his wife Eve, and she conceived and gave birth to

Cain, and she said, "I have gotten a manchild with the help of the LORD."

2 And again, she gave birth to his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of flocks, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 So it came about in the course of time that Cain brought an offering to the LORD of the fruit of the ground.

4 And ^aAbel, on his part also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of their fat portions. And ^bthe LORD had regard for Abel and for his offering;

5 but ^afor Cain and for his offering He had no regard. So ^bCain became very angry and his countenance fell.

6 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen?"

7 "If you do well, ¹will not your countenance be lifted up? ²And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; and its desire is for you, ³but you must master it."

8 And Cain ¹told Abel his brother. And it came about when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and ^akilled him.

9 ¶ Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" And he said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

10 And He said, "What have you done? ^aThe voice of your brother's blood is crying to Me from the ground.

11 "And now ^ayou are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

12 "When you cultivate the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you; ^byou shall be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth."

13 And Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is too great to bear!

14 "Behold, Thou hast ^adriven me this day from the face of the ground; and from Thy face I shall be hidden, and ^bI shall be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth, and it will come about that ^cwhoever finds me will kill me."

15 So the LORD said to him, "Therefore whoever kills Cain,

17 And Cain ¹had relations with his wife and she conceived, and gave birth to Enoch; and he built a city, and called the name of the city Enoch, after the name of his son.

18 Now to Enoch was born Irad; and Irad ¹became the father of Mehujael; and Mehujael ¹became the father of Methushael; and Methushael ¹became the father of Lamech.

19 And Lamech took to himself ^atwo wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other, Zillah.

20 And Adah gave birth to Jabel; he was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all those who play the lyre and pipe.

22 As for Zillah, she also gave birth to Tubal-cain, the forger of all implements of bronze and iron; and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said to his wives,

"Adah and Zillah,
Listen to my voice,
You wives of Lamech,
Give heed to my speech,

^aFor I ¹have killed a man for wounding me;
And a boy for striking me;

25 ¶ And ^aAdam ¹had relations with his wife again; and she gave birth to a son, and named him ²Seth, for, she said, "God ³has appointed me another ^aoffspring in place of Abel; ^bfor Cain killed him."

26 And to Seth, to him also ^aa son was born; and he called his name Enosh. Then men began ^bto call ¹upon the name of the LORD.

THIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God created man, He made him ^ain the likeness of God.

31 So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.

32 ¶ And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER 6

NOW it came about, when men began to multiply on the face of the land, and daughters were born to them,

2 that the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose.

3 Then the LORD said, "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, ^{2b}because he also is flesh; nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years."

4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And the LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

7 And the LORD said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping

8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the records of the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his time; Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.

13 ¶ Then God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of them; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth.

14 "Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with rooms, and shall cover it inside and out with pitch.

15 "And this is how you shall make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

16 "You shall make a window for the ark, and finish it to a cubit from the top; and set the door of the ark in the side of it; you shall make it with lower, second, and third decks.

17 "And behold, I, even I am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish.

18 "But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark—you and your sons and your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

19 "And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

20^aOf the birds after their kind, and of the animals after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every kind shall come to you to keep them alive.

21^aAnd as for you, take for yourself some of all ^afood which is edible, and gather it to yourself; and it shall be for food for you and for them."

22 ^aThus Noah did; according to all that God had commanded him, so he did.

CHAPTER 7

THEN the LORD said to Noah, "Enter the ark, you and all your household; for you alone I have seen to be ^arighteous before Me in this ¹time.

2^aYou shall take ¹with you of every ^aclean animal ²by sevens, a male and his female; and of the animals that are not clean two, a male and his female;

3 also of the birds of the ¹sky, ²by sevens, male and female, to keep ³offspring alive on the face of all the earth.

4^aFor after ^aseven more days, I will send rain on the earth ^bforty days and forty nights; and I will blot out from the face of the land ^cevery living thing that I have made."

5 ^aAnd Noah did according to all that the LORD had commanded him.

6 ^c Now Noah was ^asix hundred years old when the flood of water ¹came upon the earth.

7 Then ^aNoah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him entered the ark because of the water of the flood.

8 ^aOf clean animals and animals that are not clean and birds and everything that creeps on the ground,

9 there went into the ark to Noah ¹by twos, male and female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came about after ^ath seven days, that the water of the flood ¹came upon the earth.

11 In the ^asix hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day ^athe fountains of the great deep burst open, and the ¹floodgate of the sky were opened.

12 And ^athe rain ¹fell upon the earth for forty days and forty nights.

13 ¹ On the very same day ^aNoah and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark, 14 they and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after ¹their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, ²all sorts of birds.

15 So they went into the ark to Noah, ^aby twos of all flesh in which was the breath of life.

16 And those that entered male and female of all flesh, entered as God had commanded him; and the LORD closed it behind him.

17 Then the flood ¹came upon the earth for ^aforty days; and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose above the earth.

18 And the water prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark ¹floated on the ²surface of the water.

19 And the water prevailed more and more upon the earth so that all the high mountains ¹everywhere under the heaven were covered.

20 The water prevailed fifteen ¹cubits higher, ^aand the mountains were covered.

21 ^aAnd all flesh that ¹move on the earth perished, birds and cattle and beasts and every swarming thing that swarms upon the earth, and all mankind

22 of all that was on the dry land, all ^ain whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, died.

23 Thus He blotted out ¹every living thing that was upon the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the ²sky, and they were blotted out from the earth; and only ^aNoah was left, together with those that were with him in the ark.

24 ^aAnd the water prevailed upon the earth one hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

BUT ^aGod remembered Noah and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and ^bGod caused a wind to pass over the earth, and the water subsided.

2 Also ^athe fountains of the deep and the ¹floodgates of the sky were closed, and ^bthe rain from the sky was restrained;

3 and the water receded steadily from the earth, and at the end ^aof one hundred and fifty days the water decreased.

4 And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, ^athe ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the water decreased steadily until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

6 ^a Then it came about at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the ^awindow of the ark which he had made;

7 and he sent out a raven, and it ¹flew here and there until the water was dried up ²from the earth.

8 Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the water was abated from the face of the land;

9 but the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark; for the water was on the ¹surface

10 So he waited yet another seven days; and again he sent out the dove from the ark.

11 And the dove came to him toward ¹evening; and behold, in her ²beak was a freshly picked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the water was abated from the earth.

12 Then he waited yet another seven days, and sent out ^athe dove; but she did not return to him again.

13 ^a Now it came about in the ^asix hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the water was dried up ¹from the earth. Then Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the ²surface of the ground was dried up.

14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

15 Then God spoke to Noah, saying.

16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

17 "Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, that they may ¹breed abundantly on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth."

18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out ¹by their families from the ark.

20 ^a Then Noah built ^aan altar to the LORD, and took of every ^bclean animal and of every clean bird and offered ^cburnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD ^asmelled the soothing aroma; and the LORD said ¹to Himself, "I will never again ^bcurse the ground on account of man, for ^cthe ²intent of man's heart is evil from his youth; ^dand I will never again ³destroy every living thing, as I have done.

22 "While the earth remains,

And ^asummer and winter,
And ^bday and night

CHAPTER 9

AND God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "^aBe fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

2 "And the fear of you and the terror of you shall be on every beast of the earth and on every bird of the ¹sky; with everything that creeps on the ground, and all the fish of the sea, into your hand they are given.

12 And God said, "This is ^athe sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for ¹all successive generations;

17 And God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth."

18 ¶ Now the sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem and Ham and Japheth; and ^aHam was the father of Canaan.

19 These three were the sons of Noah; and ^afrom these the whole earth was ¹populated.

20 ¶ Then Noah began ¹farming and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank of the wine and ^abecame drunk, and uncovered himself inside his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, ^asaw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were ¹turned away, so that they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 When Noah awoke from his wine, he knew what his youngest son had done to him.

25 So he said,

"^aCursed be Canaan;

He shall be to his brothers."

26 He also said,

"^aBlessed be the LORD,

The God of Shem;

And let Canaan be ¹his servant.

27 "^aMay God enlarge Japheth,

And let him dwell in the tents of Shem;

And let Canaan be ¹his servant."

28 ¶ And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood.

29 So all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

7 And the sons of Cush were ^aSeba and Havilah and Sabtah and ^bRaamah and Sabteca; and the sons of Raamah were ^bSheba and ^cDedan.

8 Now Cush ¹became the father of Nimrod; he ²became a mighty one on the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD."

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was ^{1a}Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of ^bShinar.

11 From that land he went forth ^ainto Assyria, and built Nineveh and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah.

13 And Mizraim ¹became the father of ^aLudim and Anamim and Lehabim and Naphtuhim

15 ¶ And Canaan ¹became the father of ^aSidon, his first-born, and ^bHeth

16 and ^athe Jebusite and the Amorite and the Girgashite

17 and the Hivite and the Arkite and the Sinite

18 and the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite; and afterward the families of the Canaanite were spread abroad.

19 And ^athe territory of the Canaanite ¹extended from Sidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Gaza; as you go toward ^bSodom and Gomorrah and Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, by their nations.

21 ¶ And also to Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, and the ¹older brother of Japheth, children were born.

22 ^aThe sons of Shem were ^bE-lam and Asshur and ^cArpachshad and ^dLud and Aram.

23 And the sons of Aram were ^aUz and Hul and Gether and Mash.

24 And Arpachshad ¹became the father of ^aShelah; and Shelah ¹became the father of Eber.

25 And ^atwo sons were born to Eber; the name of the one was ¹Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan ¹became the father of Almodad and Sheleph and Hazarmaveth and Jerah

27 and Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah

28 and ¹Obal and Abimael and Sheba

29 and Ophir and Havilah and Jobab; all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 Now their ¹settlement ²extended from Mesha as you go toward Sephar, the hill country of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families, according to their languages, by their lands, according to their nations.

3 And they said to one another "Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly." And they used brick for stone, and they used ^atar for mortar.

4 And they said, "Come, let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top ^awill reach into heaven, and let us make for ourselves ^ba name; lest we ^cbe scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

5 ^aAnd the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.

6 And the LORD said, "Behold, they are one people, and they all have ¹the same language. And this is what they began to do, and now nothing which they purpose to do will be ²impossible for them.

7 "Come, ^alet Us go down and there ^bconfuse their ¹language, that they may not understand one another's ¹speech."

8 So the LORD ¹scattered them abroad from there over the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city.

9 Therefore its name was called ^{1a}Babel, because there the LORD confused the ²language of the whole earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of the whole earth.

10 ¶ ^aThese are the records of the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and ¹became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood;

11 and Shem lived five hundred years after he became the father of Arpachshad, and he had other sons and daughters.

12 ¶ And Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, and became the father of Shelah;

26 ¶ And Terah lived seventy years, and became ^athe father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the records of the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran; and ^aHaran became the father of ^bLot.

30 And ^aSarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife; and they went out ¹together from ^aUr of the Chaldeans in order to enter the land of Canaan; and they went as far as Haran, and ²settled there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER 12

NOW ^athe LORD said to Abram,

"¹Go forth from your country,

And from your relatives
And from your father's house,

To the land which I will show you;

2 And ^aI will make you a great nation,

And ^bI will bless you,
And make your name great;

And so ^{1c}you shall be a blessing;

3 And ^aI will bless those who bless you,

And the one who ¹curse you I will ²curse.

^bAnd in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

4 So Abram went forth as the LORD had spoken to him; and ^aLot went with him. Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew, and all their ^apossessions which they had accumulated, and ^bthe ¹persons which they had acquired in Haran, and they ²set out for the land of Canaan; ^cthus they came to the land of Canaan.

6 And Abram passed through the land as far as the site of ^aShechem, to the ¹oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanite was then in the land.

7 And the LORD ^aappeared to Abram and said, "^bTo your ¹descendants I will give this land." So he built ^can altar there to the LORD who had appeared to him.

8 Then he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with ^aBethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and ^bcalled upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed on, continuing toward ^athe ¹Negev.

10 ¹ Now there was ^aa famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was ^bsevere in the land.

11 And it came about when he ¹came near to Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "See now, I know that you are a ^{2a}beautiful woman;

12 ^aand it will come about when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife'; and they will kill me, but they will let you live.

13 "Please say that you are ^amy sister so that it may go well with me because of you, and that ^{1b}I may live on account of you."

14 And it came about when Abram came into Egypt, the Egyptians ¹saw that the woman was very beautiful.

15 And Pharaoh's officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh; and ^athe woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 Therefore ^ahe treated Abram well for her sake; and ^{1b}gave him sheep and oxen and donkeys and male and female 17 But the LORD ^astruck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, "^aWhat is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

19 "Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her for my wife? Now then, ¹here is your wife, take her and go."

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they ¹escorted him away, with his wife and all that belonged to him.

SO Abram went up from Egypt to ^athe ¹Negev, he and his wife and all that belonged to him; and Lot with him.

2 Now Abram was ^avery rich in livestock, in silver and in gold.

3 And he went ¹on his journeys from the ²Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, ^abetween Bethel and Ai.

4 to the place of the ^aaltar, which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 Now ^aLot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

6 And ^athe land could not ¹sustain them ²while dwelling together; ^bfor their possessions were so great that they were not able to remain together.

7 ^aAnd there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. Now ^bthe Canaanite and the Perizzite were dwelling then in the land.

8 "Then Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, nor between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.

9 "Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me: if to the left, then I will go to the right; or if to the right, then I will go to the left."

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the ¹valley of the Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere—this was before the LORD ^bdestroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—like ^cthe garden of the LORD, ^dlike the land of Egypt as you go to ^eZoar.

11 So Lot chose for himself all the ¹valley of the Jordan; and Lot journeyed eastward. Thus they separated from each other.

12 Abram ¹settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot ¹settled in ^athe cities of the ²valley, and moved his tents as far as Sodom.

13 Now ^athe men of Sodom were wicked ¹exceedingly and ^bsinners against the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, "Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, ^bnorthward and southward and eastward and westward;

15 ^afor all the land which you see, ^bI will give it to you and to your ¹descendants forever.

17 "Arise, ^awalk about the land through its length and breadth; for ^bI will give it to you."

13 ¶ Then ^{1a} a fugitive came and told Abram the ^aHebrew. Now he was ²living by the ^{3b}oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner, and these were ^{4c}allies with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that ^ahis ¹relative had been taken captive, he ²led out his trained men, ^bborn in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and went in pursuit as far as ^cDan.

15 And ^ahe divided ¹his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and ²defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is ³north of ^bDamascus.

16 And he ^abrought back all the goods, and also brought back ^bhis ¹relative Lot with his possessions, and also the women, and the people.

17 ¶ Then after his return from the ¹defeat of Chedorlao-mer and the kings who were with him, ^athe king of Sodom went out to meet him at the valley of Shaveh (that is, ^bthe King's Valley).

18 And ^aMelchizedek king of Salem brought out ^bbread and wine; now he was a ^cpriest of ¹God Most High.

19 And he blessed him and said,

"Blessed be Abram of ¹God Most High,

^{2a}Possessor of heaven and earth;

20 And blessed be ¹God Most High,

Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

^aAnd he gave him a tenth of all.

CHAPTER 15

AFTER these things ^athe word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying,

"^bDo not fear, Abram,

I am ^aa shield to you;

¹Your ^dreward shall be very great."

2 And Abram said, "O Lord ¹God, what wilt Thou give me, since I ²am childless, and the ³heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?"

3 And Abram said, "¹Since Thou hast given no ²offspring to me, ³one ^aborn in my house is my heir."

4 Then behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir; ^abut one who shall come forth from your own ¹body, he shall be your heir."

5 And He took him outside and said, "Now look toward the heavens, and ^acount the stars, if you are able to count them." And He said to him, "^bSo shall you ¹descendants be."

6 ^aThen he believed in the LORD; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness.

7 And He said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you out of ^aUr of the Chaldeans, to ^bgive you this land to ¹possess it."

8 And he said, "O Lord ¹God, ^ahow may I know that I shall ²possess it?"

9 So He said to him, "¹Bring Me a three year old heifer, and a three year old female goat, and a three year old ram, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon."

10 Then he ¹brought all these to Him and ^acut them ²in two, and laid each half opposite the other; but he ^bdid not cut the birds.

11 And the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 ¶ Now when the sun was going down, ^aa deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, ¹terror and great darkness fell upon him.

13 And God said to Abram, "Know for certain that ^ayour ¹descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, ²where ^bthey will be enslaved and oppressed ^cfour hundred years.

14 "But I will also judge the nation whom they will serve; and afterward they will come out ^awith ¹many possessions.

15 "And as for you, ^ayou shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried at a good old age.

16 "Then in ^athe fourth generation they shall return here, for ^bthe iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete."

17 And it came about when the sun had set, that it was very dark, and behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a flaming torch which ^apassed between these pieces.

18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying,

"To your ¹descendants I have given this land,

From ^bthe river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates:

CHAPTER 16

NOW ^aSarai, Abram's wife had borne him no children, and she had ^ban Egyptian maid whose name was Hagar.

2 So Sarai said to Abram, "Now behold, the LORD has prevented me from bearing children. ^aPlease go in to my maid; perhaps I shall ¹obtain children through her." And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And after Abram had ¹lived ^aten years in the land of Canaan, Abram's wife Sarai took Hagar the Egyptian, her maid, and gave her to her husband Abram as his wife.

4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her sight.

5 And Sarai said to Abram, "^aMay the wrong done me be upon you. I gave my maid into your ¹arms; but when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her ²sight. ^bMay the LORD judge between ³you and me."

6 But Abram said to Sarai, "Behold, your maid is in your ¹power; do to her what is good in your ²sight." So Sarai treated her harshly, and ^ashe fled from her presence.

7 ¶ Now ^athe angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to ^bShur.

9 Then the angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself to her authority."

10 Moreover, the angel of the LORD said to her, "I will greatly multiply your descendants so that they shall be too many to count."

11 The angel of the LORD said to her further,

"Behold, you are with child, And you shall bear a son; And you shall call his name Ishmael,

Because the LORD has given heed to your affliction.

His hand will be against everyone,

And everyone's hand will be against him;

13 Then she called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, "Thou art a God who sees"; for she said, "Have I even remained alive here after seeing Him?"

15 ¶ So Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram called the name of his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

3 And Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

5 "No longer shall your name be called Abram, But your name shall be Abraham; For I will make you the father of a multitude of nations.

7 "And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you.

8 "And I will give to you and to your descendants after you, the land of your sojournings, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God."

9 ¶ God said further to Abraham, "Now as for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

12 "And every male among you who is ^aeight days old shall be circumcised throughout your generations, a servant who is born in the house or who is bought with money from any foreigner, who is not of your ¹descendants.

13 "A servant who is born in your house or ^awho is bought with your money shall surely be circumcised; thus shall My covenant be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 "But an uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be ^acut off from his people; he has broken My covenant."

15 ¶ Then God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but ¹Sarah shall be her name.

16 "And I will bless her, and indeed I will give you ^aa son by her. Then I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; ^bkings of peoples shall ¹come from her."

17 Then Abraham ^afell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to a man one hundred years old? And ^bwill Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?"

18 And Abraham said to God, "Oh that Ishmael might live before Thee!"

19 But God said, "No, but Sarah your wife shall bear you ^aa son, and you shall call his name ¹Isaac; and ^bI will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his ²descendants after him.

22 ¶ And when He finished talking with him, ^aGod went up from Abraham.

23 Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all the servants who were ^aborn in his house and all who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the very same day, ^bas God had said to him.

24 Now Abraham was ninety-nine years old when ^ahe was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And ^aIshmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the very same day Abraham was circumcised, and Ishmael his son.

7 Abraham also ran to the herd, and took a tender and ¹choice calf, and gave it to the servant; and he hurried to prepare it.

9 ¶ Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "Behold, in the tent."

10 And he said, "I will surely return to you ¹at this time next year; and behold, Sarah your wife shall have a son." And Sarah was listening at the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now ^aAbraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; Sarah was ^bpast ¹childbearing.

22 ¶ Then ^athe men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, while Abraham was still standing before ^bthe LORD.

23 And Abraham came near and said, "Wilt Thou indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?"

baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Before they lay down, ^athe men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people ¹from every quarter;

5 and they called to Lot and said to him, "^aWhere are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may ¹have relations with them."

6 But Lot went out to them at the doorway, and shut the door behind him.

7 and said, "Please, my brothers, do not act wickedly.

8 "Now behold, ^aI have two daughters who have not ¹had relations with man; please let me bring them out to you, and do to them ²whatever you like; only do nothing to these men, inasmuch as they have come under the ³shelter of my roof."

9 But they said, "Stand aside." Furthermore, they said, "This one came in ¹as an alien, and already ^ahe is acting like a judge; now we will treat you worse than them." So they pressed hard against ²Lot and came near to break the door.

10 But ^athe men reached out their ¹hands and brought Lot into the house ²with them, and shut the door.

11 And ^athey ¹struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves trying to find the doorway.

12 ¹ Then the men said to Lot, "Whom else have you here? A son-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whomever you have in the city, bring them out of the place;

13 for we are about to destroy this place, because ^atheir outcry has become so great before the LORD that ^bthe LORD has sent us to destroy it."

14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who ¹were to marry his daughters, and said, "Up, ^aget out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city." ^bBut he appeared to his sons-in-law ²to be jesting.

15 And when morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Up, take your wife and your two daughters, who are here, lest you be swept away in the ¹punishment of the city."

16 But he hesitated. So the men ^aseized his hand and the hand of his wife and the ¹hands of his daughters, for ^bthe compassion of the LORD was upon him; and they brought him out, and put him outside the city.

17 And it came about when they had brought them outside, that ¹one said, "^aEscape for your life! ^bDo not look behind you, and do not stay ²anywhere in the ^cvalley; escape to ^dthe ³mountains, lest you be swept away."

18 But Lot said to them, "Oh no, my lords!

19 "Now behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your lovingkindness, which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the ¹mountains, lest the disaster overtake me and I die;

20 now behold, this town is near enough to flee to, and it is small. Please, let me escape there (is it not small?) ¹that my life may be saved."

21 And he said to him, "Behold, I grant you this ¹request also, not to overthrow the town of which you have spoken.

22 "Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there." Therefore the name of the town was called ^{1a}Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun had risen over the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

24 Then the LORD ^arained on Sodom and Gomorrah brim-

25 and ^aHe overthrew those cities, and all the ¹valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

26 But his wife, from behind him, ^alooked back; and she became a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ Now Abraham arose early in the morning and went to ^athe place where he had stood before the LORD;

28 and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the ¹valley and he saw, and behold, ^athe smoke of the land ascended like the smoke of a ²furnace.

29 Thus it came about, when God destroyed the cities of the ¹valley, that ^aGod remembered Abraham, and ^bsent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

30 ¶ And Lot went up from Zoar, and ^{1a}stayed in the ²mountains, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to ³stay in Zoar; and he ¹stayed in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 Then the first-born said to the younger, "Our father is old and there is not a man ¹on earth to ^acome in to us after the manner of the earth.

32 "Come, ^alet us make our father drink wine, and let us lie with him, that we may preserve ¹our family through our father."

33 So they made their father drink wine that night, and the first-born went in and lay with her father; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

34 And it came about on the morrow, that the first-born said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve ¹our family through our father."

35 So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

36 Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bore a son, and called his name *Moab; he is the father of the Moabites to this day.

38 And as for the younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi; he is the father of the ¹sons of *Ammon to this day.

CHAPTER 20

NOW Abraham journeyed from ^athere toward the land of ^bthe ¹Negev, and ²settled between Kadesh and Shur; then he sojourned in ^cGerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." So ^bAbimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 "But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, ^byou are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is ¹married."

4 Now Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "Lord, ^awilt Thou slay a nation, even though ¹blameless?"

5 "Did he not himself say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she ^aherself said, 'He is my brother.' In ^bthe integrity of my heart and the innocence of my ¹hands I have done this."

6 Then God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also ^{1a}kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

8 ¶ So Abimelech arose early in the morning and called all his servants and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were greatly frightened.

9 *Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom ^aa great sin? You have done to me ²things that ought not to be done."

10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What have you ¹encountered, that you have done this thing?"

11 And Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely there is no ^afear of God in this place; and ^bthey will kill me because of my wife.

12 "Besides, she actually is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife;

13 and it came about, when *God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is ¹the kindness which you will show to me: ²everywhere we go, ^bsay of me, "He is my brother."'

14 *Abimelech then took sheep and oxen and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and restored his wife Sarah to him.

15 And Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you; ¹settle wherever ²you please."

16 And to Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your ^abrother a thousand pieces of silver; behold, it is ¹your vindication before all who are with you, and before all men you are cleared."

17 And *Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maids, so that they bore children.

18 *For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the household of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER 21

^aTHEN the LORD took note of Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had ¹promised.

2 *So Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at ^bthe appointed time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, *Isaac.

4 Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was ^aeight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 Now Abraham was ^aone hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, "God has made ^alaughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh ¹with me."

7 And she said, "^aWho would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

8 * And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

9 Now Sarah saw ^athe son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, ^{1b}mocking.

10 Therefore she said to Abraham, "^aDrive out this maid and her son, for the son of this maid shall not be an heir ¹with my son Isaac."

11 *And the matter ¹distressed Abraham greatly because of his son.

12 But God said to Abraham, "¹Do not be distressed because of the lad and your maid; whatever Sarah tells you, listen to her, for ^athrough Isaac ²your descendants shall be named.

13" And of ^athe son of the maid I will make a nation also, because he is your ¹descendant."

14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a ¹skin of water, and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and gave her the boy and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beersheba.

15 And the water in the skin was used up, and she ¹left the boy under one of the bushes.

16 Then she went and sat down opposite him, about a bowshot away, for she said, "Do not let me ¹see the boy die." And she sat opposite him, and ^alifted up her voice and wept.

17 And God ^aheard the lad crying; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, "What is the matter with you, Hagar? ^bDo not fear, for God has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18" Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him by ¹the hand; ^afor I will make a great nation of him."

19 Then God ^aopened her eyes and she saw ^aa well of water; and she went and filled the ¹skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.

20 And ^aGod was with the lad, and he grew; and he ¹lived in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And ^ahe ¹lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ Now it came about at that time, that ^aAbimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, "^bGod is with you in all that you do; that I have shown to you, you shall show to me, and to the land in which you have sojourned."

24 And Abraham said, "I swear it."

25 But Abraham ¹complained to Abimelech because of the well of water which the servants of Abimelech ^ahad seized.

26 And Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing; neither did you tell me, nor did I hear of it ¹until today."

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech; and ^athe two of them made a covenant.

28 Then Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, "What do these seven ewe lambs mean, which you have set by themselves?"

30 And he said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand in order that it may be a ^awitness to me, that I dug this well."

31 Therefore he called that place ^aBeersheba; because there the two of them took an oath.

32 So they made a covenant at Beersheba; and Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, arose and returned to the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beersheba, and there ^ahe called on the name of the LORD, the ^bEverlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned ^ain the land of the Philistines for many days.

CHAPTER 22

NOW it came about after these things, that ^aGod tested Abraham, and said to him, "^bAbraham!" And he said, "Here I am."

2 And He said, "Take now ^ayour son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of ^bMoriah; and offer him there as a ^cburnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you."

3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son; and he split wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.

4 On the third day Abraham raised his eyes and saw the place from a distance.

5 And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey, and I and the lad will go yonder; and we will worship and return to you."

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and ^alaid it on Isaac his son, and he took in his hand the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.

7 And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." And he said, "Behold, the fire and the wood, but where is the ^alamb for the burnt offering?"

8 And Abraham said, "God will ¹provide for Himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." So the two of them walked on together.

9 [¶] Then they came to ^athe place of which God had told him; and Abraham built ^bthe altar there, and arranged the wood, and bound his son Isaac, and ^claid him on the altar on top of the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 But ^athe angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am."

12 And he said, "Do not stretch out your hand against the lad, and do nothing to him; for now ^aI know that you ¹fear God, since 13 Then Abraham raised his eyes and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in the thicket by his horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the place of his son.

CHAPTER 23

NOW ¹Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years; these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in ^aKiriath arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham ¹went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 Then Abraham rose from before his dead, and spoke to the ^asons of Heth, saying,

4 "I am ^aa stranger and a sojourner among you; ^bgive me ^aa burial site among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham, saying to him,

6 "Hear us, my lord, you are a ¹mighty prince among us; bury your dead in the choicest of our graves; none of us will refuse you his grave for burying your dead."

7 So Abraham rose and bowed to the people of the land, the sons of Heth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your ¹wish for me to bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and approach ^aEphron the son of Zohar for me,

9 that he may give me the cave of Machpelah which he owns, which is at the end of his field; for the full price let him give it to me in ¹your presence for ²a burial site."

10 Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth; even ^aof all who went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 "No, my lord, hear me; ^aI give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead."

12 And Abraham bowed before the people of the land.

13 And he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If you will only please listen to me; I will give the price of the field, accept it from me, that I may bury my dead there."

14 Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,

15 "My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between me and you? So bury your dead."

16 And Abraham listened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, commercial standard.

17 ¶ So Ephron's field, which was in Machpelah, which faced Mamre, the field and cave which was in it, and all the trees which were in the field, that were within all the confines of its border, were deeded over 18 to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field at Machpelah facing Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

20 So the field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded over to Abraham for a burial site by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER 24

NOW Abraham was old, advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in every way.

2 And Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household, who had charge of all that he owned, "Please place your hand under my thigh,

3 and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live,

4 but you shall go to my country and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

5 And the servant said to him, "Suppose the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land; should I take your son back to the land from where you came?"

6 Then Abraham said to him, "Beware lest you take my son back there!"

7 ¶ The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, "To your descendants I will give this land," He will send His angel before you, and you will take a wife for my son from there.

8 "But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this my oath; only do not take my son back there."

9 So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

10 ¶ Then the servant took ten camels from the camels of his master, and set out with a variety of good things of his master's in his hand; and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.

11 And he made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, "O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today, and show lovingkindness to my master Abraham.

13 "Behold, I am standing by the spring, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water;

14 now may it be that the girl to whom I say, 'Please let down your jar so that I may drink,' and ¹who answers, 'Drink, and I will water your camels also';—may she be the one whom Thou hast appointed for Thy servant Isaac; and by this I shall know that Thou hast shown lovingkindness to my master."

15 And it came about ^abefore he had finished speaking, that behold, ^bRebekah who was born to Bethuel the son of ^cMilcah, the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor, came out with her jar on her shoulder.

16 And the girl was ^avery beautiful, a virgin, and no man had ¹had relations with her; and she went down to the spring and filled her jar, and came up.

17 Then the servant ran to meet her, and said, "^aPlease let me drink a little water from your jar."

18 And ^ashe said, "Drink, my lord"; and she quickly lowered her jar to her hand, and gave him a drink.

19 Now when she had finished giving him a drink, ^ashe said, "I will draw also for your camels until they have finished drinking."

20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, and ran back to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels.

21 ^aMeanwhile, the man was gazing at her ¹in silence, to know whether the LORD had made his journey successful or not.

22 Then it came about, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a ^agold ring weighing a half-shekel and two bracelets for her ¹wrists weighing ten shekels in gold,

23 and said, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room for us to lodge in your father's house?"

26 Then the man ^abowed low and worshiped the LORD.

27 And he said, "^aBlessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken ^bHis lovingkindness and His truth toward my master; as for me, ^cthe LORD has guided me in the way to the house of my master's brothers."

28 ^a Then ^athe girl ran and told her mother's household about these things.

29 Now Rebekah had a brother whose name was ^aLaban; and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring.

30 And it came about that when he saw the ring, and the bracelets on his sister's ¹wrists and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, "²This is what the man said to me," he went to the man; and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.

31 And he said, "^aCome in ^bblessed of the LORD! Why do you stand outside since ^cI have prepared the house, and a place for the camels?"

32 So the man entered the house. Then ^{1a}Laban unloaded the camels, and he gave straw and feed to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

33 But when food was set before him to eat, he said, "I will not eat until I have told my business." And he said, "Speak on."

34 So he said, "I am ^aAbraham's servant.

35 "^aAnd the LORD has greatly ^bblessed my master, so that he has become ¹rich; and He has given him ^bflocks and herds, and silver and gold, and servants and maids, and camels and donkeys.

36 "Now ^aSarah my master's wife bore a son to my master ⁱin her old age; and ^bhe has given him all that he has.

37 "And my master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I ⁱlive;

38 but you shall go to my father's house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.'

39 "And I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman does not follow me.'

41 ^athen you will be free from my oath, when you come to my relatives; and if they do not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.'

42 "So ^aI came today to the spring, and said, 'O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now Thou wilt make my journey on which I go ^bsuccessful;

43 behold, ^aI am standing by the ⁱspring, and may it be that the maiden who comes out to draw, and to whom I say, '^bPlease let me drink a little water from your jar';

44 and she will say to me, "You drink, and I will draw for your camels also"; let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

45 "Before I had finished ^aspeaking in my heart, behold, ^bRebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder, and went down to the spring and drew; and ^cI said to her, 'Please let me drink.'

46 "And she quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder, and said, '^aDrink, and I will water your camels also'; so I drank, and she watered the camels also.

47 "Then I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him'; and I put the ^bbring on her nose, and the bracelets on her ⁱwrists.

48 "And I ^abowed low and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, ^bwho had guided me in the right way to take the daughter of my master's ⁱkinsman for his son.

49 "So now if you are going to ⁱdeal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, let me know, that I may turn to the right hand or the left."

50 ^a Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "^aThe matter comes from the LORD; ^bso we cannot speak to you bad or good.

51 "Behold, Rebekah is before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

52 And it came about when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he ^abowed himself to the ground ⁱbefore the LORD.

53 And the servant brought out ^aarticles of silver and articles of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother.

54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they arose in the morning, he said, "^aSend me away to my master."

55 But her brother and her mother said, "^aLet the girl stay with us a few days, say ten; afterward she may go."

56 And he said to them, "Do not delay me, since ^athe LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."

8 And Abraham breathed his last and died ^ain a ¹ripe old age, an old man and satisfied with life; and he was ^bgathered to his people.

22 But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If it is so, why then am I ¹this way?" So she went to ^ainquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb;

^bAnd two peoples shall be separated from your body;

And one people shall be stronger than the other; And ^cthe older shall serve the younger."

24 When her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

NOW there was ^aa famine in the land, besides the previous famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. So Isaac went to Gerar, to ^bAbimelech king of the Philistines.

8 And it came about, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out through a window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was caressing his wife Rebekah.

9 Then Abimelech called Isaac and said, "Behold, certainly she is your wife! How then did you say, 'She is my sister'?" And Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die on account of her.'"

10 And ^aAbimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."

20 the herdsmen of Gerar ^aquarreled with the herdsmen of Isaac, saying, "The water is ours!" So he named the well ¹Esek, because they contended with him.

21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over it too, so he named it ¹Sitnah.

22 And he moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he named it ¹Rehoboth, for he said, "At last the LORD has made ³room for us, and we shall be ^bfruitful in the land."

23 ^a Then he went up from there to ^aBeersheba.

24 And the LORD ^aappeared to him the same night and said,

"I am the God of your father Abraham;

^cDo not fear, for I am with you.

I ^dwill bless you, and multiply your ¹descendants, For the sake of My servant Abraham."

25 So he built an ^aaltar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

26 ^a Then ^aAbimelech came to him from Gerar ¹with his adviser Ahuzzath, and Phicol the commander of his army.

27 And Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?"

28 And they said, "We see plainly that the LORD has been with you; so we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, even between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you,

29 that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace. You are now the 'blessed of the LORD.'"

30 Then he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

31 And in the morning they arose early and exchanged oaths; then Isaac sent them away and they departed from him in peace.

32 Now it came about on the same day, that Isaac's servants came in and told him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water."

33 So he called it Shibah; therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

34 ¶ And when Esau was forty years old he married Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite;

35 and they brought grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

CHAPTER 27

NOW it came about, when Isaac was old, and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called his bolder son Esau and said to him, "My son." And he said to him, "Here I am."

5 ¶ And Rebekah was listening while Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game to bring home,

6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying,

7 'Bring me some game and prepare a savory dish for me, that I may eat, and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.'

8 "Now therefore, my son, listen to me as I command you.

9 "Go now to the flock and bring me two choice kids from there, that I may prepare them as a savory dish for your father, such as he loves.

10 "Then you shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death."

11 And Jacob answered his mother Rebekah, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man.

12 "Perhaps my father will feel me, then I shall be as a deceiver in his sight; and I shall bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing."

13 But his mother said to him, "Your curse be on me, my son; only obey my voice, and go, get them for me."

14 So he went and got them, and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory food such as his father loved.

15 Then Rebekah took the best garments of Esau her elder son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.

16 And she put the skins of the kids on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

17 She also gave the savory food and the bread, which she had made, ¹to her son Jacob.

18 ¶ Then he came to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

19 And Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your first-born; I have done as you told me. ^aGet up, please, sit and eat of my game, that ^byou may bless me."

20 And Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have it so quickly, my son?" And he said, "Because the LORD your God caused it to happen to me."

21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close, that ^aI may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

22 So Jacob came close to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau."

23 And he did not recognize him, because his hands were ^ahairy like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him.

24 And he said, "Are you really my son Esau?" And he said, "I am."

25 So he said, "Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son's game, that ^aI may bless you." And he brought it to him, and he ate; he also brought him wine and he drank.

26 Then his father Isaac said to him, "Please come close and kiss me, my son."

27 So he came close and kissed him; and when he smelled the smell of his garments, he ^ablessed him and said,

30 ¶ Now it came about, as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had hardly gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 Then he also made savory food, and brought it to his father; and he said to his father, "^aLet my father arise, and eat of his son's game, that ^byou may bless me."

32 And Isaac his father said to him, "^aWho are you?" And he said, "I am your son, ^byour first-

33 Then Isaac ¹trembled violently, and said, "^aWho was he then that hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate of all of it before you came, and blessed him? ^bYes, and he shall be blessed."

34 When Esau heard the words of his father, ^ahe cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, O my father!"

35 And he said, "^aYour brother came deceitfully, and has taken away your blessing."

36 Then he said, "¹Is he not rightly named ^aJacob, for he has supplanted me these two times?
He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing." And he said,
"Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

37 But Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Behold, I have made him ^ayour master, and all his ¹relatives I have given to him ²as servants; and with grain and new wine I have sustained him. Now as for you then, what can I do, my son?"

38 And Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father." So Esau lifted his voice and ^awept.

39 Then ^aIsaac his father answered and said to him,

"Behold, ¹away from the ²fertility of the earth shall be your dwelling, And ¹away from the dew of heaven from above.

40 "And by your sword you shall live,

And your brother ^ayou shall serve;

But it shall come about ^bwhen you become restless,

That you shall ¹break his yoke from your neck."

41 So Esau ^abore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him; and Esau said ¹to himself, "^bThe days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

42 Now when the words of her elder son Esau were reported to Rebekah, she sent and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, "Behold your brother Esau is consoling himself concerning you, by planning to kill you.

43 "Now therefore, my son, ^aobey my voice, and arise, ¹flee to ^bHaran, to my brother ^cLaban!

Isaac, "I am tired of ¹living because of ^athe daughters of Heth; ^bif Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these, from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

CHAPTER 28

SO Isaac called Jacob and ^ablessed him and charged him, and said to him, "^bYou shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan.

2 "Arise, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of ^aBethuel your mother's father; and from there take to yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

3 "And may ¹aGod Almighty ^bbless you and ^cmake you fruitful and ^amultiply you, that you may become a ^acompany of peoples.

4 "May He also give you the ^ablessing of Abraham, to you and to your ¹descendants with you; that you may ^bpossess the land of your ^csojournings, which God gave to Abraham."

5 Then ^aIsaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram to Laban, son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram, to take to himself a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he charged him, saying, "^aYou shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan."

7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan-aram.

8 So Esau saw that ^athe daughters of Canaan displeased ¹his father Isaac;

9 and Esau went to Ishmael, and ¹married, ^abesides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth.

10 ¶ Then Jacob departed from ^aBeersheba and went toward ^bHaran.

11 And he ¹came to ^{2a} ^acertain place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and put it ³under his head, and lay down in that place.

12 And ^ahe had a dream, and behold, a ladder was set on the earth with its top reaching to heaven; and behold, ^bthe angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

13 And behold, ^athe LORD stood ¹above it and said, "I am the LORD, ^bthe God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie, I will give it ^cto you and to ^dyour ²descendants.

14 "Your ¹descendants shall also be like ^athe dust of the earth, and you shall ²spread out ^bto the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and ^cin you and in your ¹descendants shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 "And behold, ^aI am with you, and ^bwill keep you wherever you go, and ^cwill bring you back to this land; for ^dI will not leave you until I have done what I have ¹promised you."

16 Then Jacob ^aawoke from his sleep and said, "^bSurely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it."

17 And he was afraid and said, "^aHow awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

18 ¶ So Jacob rose early in the morning, and took ^athe stone that he had put ¹under his head and set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on its top.

19 And he called the name of that place ^{1a}Bethel; however, ²previously the name of the city had been ^bLuz.

CHAPTER 29

THEN Jacob ¹went on his journey, and came to the land of ^athe sons of the east.

2 And he looked, and ¹saw ^aa well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there beside it, for from that well they watered the flocks. Now the stone on the mouth of the well was large.

3 When all the flocks were gathered there, they would then roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

4 And Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from ^aHaran."

5 And he said to them, "Do you know Laban the ^ason of Nahor?" And they said, "We know ^{him}."

6 And he said to them, "Is it well with him?" And they said, "It is well, and behold, ^aRachel his daughter is coming with the sheep."

7 And he said, "Behold, it is still high day; it is not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them."

8 But they said, "We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered, and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep."

9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

10 And it came about, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went up, and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 Then Jacob ^akissed Rachel, and lifted his voice and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was a ¹relative of her father and that he was Rebekah's son, and ^bshe ran and told her father.

13 ¶ So it came about, when ^aLaban heard the news of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and ^bembraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Then he related to Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, "Surely you are ^amy bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him a month.

15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my ¹relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall ^ayour wages be?"

16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 And Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was ^abeautiful of form and ¹face.

18 Now Jacob ^aloved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

19 And Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man; stay with me."

21 ¶ Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my ¹time is completed, that I may ^ago in to her."

22 And Laban gathered all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 Now it came about in the evening that he took his daughter Leah, and brought her to him; and Jacob went in to her.

24 Laban also gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah as a maid.

25 So it came about in the morning that, behold, it was Leah! And he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served with you? Why then have you ^bdeceived me?"

26 But Laban said, "It is not ¹the practice in our place, to ²marry off the younger before the first-born.

27 "Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which ^ayou shall serve with me for another seven years."

28 And Jacob did so and completed her week, and he gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

29 Laban also gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maid.

30 So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and indeed ^ahe loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served with ¹Laban for ^banother seven years.

31 ¶ Now the LORD saw that Leah was ¹unloved, and He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bore a son and named him ¹Reuben, for she said, "Because the LORD has ^{2a}seen my affliction; surely now my husband will love me."

33 Then she conceived again and bore a son and said, "Because the LORD has ¹heard that I am ²unloved, He has therefore given me this son also." So she named him Simeon.

34 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, "Now this time my husband will become ¹attached to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore he was named ³Levi.

35 And she conceived again and bore a son and said, "This time I will ¹praise the LORD." Therefore she named him ²Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

CHAPTER 30

NOW when Rachel saw that ^ashe bore Jacob no children, ¹she became jealous of her sister; and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I die."

2 Then Jacob's anger burned against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in the place of God, who has ^awithheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

3 And she said, "Here is my maid Bilhah, go in to her, that she may ^bbear on my knees, that ¹through her I too may have children."

4 So ^ashe gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob went in to her.

5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

6 Then Rachel said, "God has ¹avindicated me, and has indeed heard my voice and has given me a son." Therefore she named him ²Dan.

7 And Rachel's maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

8 So Rachel said, "With ¹mighty wrestlings I have ²wrestled with my sister, and I have indeed prevailed." And she named him Naphtali.

her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

10 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

11 Then Leah said, "How fortunate!" So she named him ²Gad.

12 And Leah's maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

13 Then Leah said, "Happy am I! For women ^awill call me happy." So she named him ²Asher.

14 ¶ Now in the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found ^amandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

15 But she said to her, "Is it a small matter for you to take my husband? And would you take my son's mandrakes also?" So Rachel said, "Therefore he may lie with you tonight in return for your son's mandrakes."

16 When Jacob came in from the field in the evening, then Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that night.

17 And God gave heed to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

18 Then Leah said, "God has given me my ¹wages, because I gave my maid to my husband." So she named him Issachar.

19 And Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

20 Then Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good gift; now my husband ¹will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.

21 And afterward she bore a daughter and named her Dinah.

22 Then ^aGod remembered Rachel, and God gave heed to her and ^bopened her womb.

23 So she conceived and bore a son and said, "God has ^ataken away my reproach."

24 And she named him Joseph, saying, "^aMay the LORD ¹give me another son."

25 ¶ Now it came about when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, "^aSend me away, that I may go to my own place and to my own country.

26 "Give me my wives and my children ^afor whom I have served you, and let me depart; for you yourself know my service which I have ¹rendered you."

27 But Laban said to him, "If now ¹it pleases you, stay with me; I have divined ^athat the LORD has blessed me on your account."

28 And he ¹continued, "^aName me your wages, and I will give it."

29 But he said to him, "^aYou yourself know how I have served you and how your cattle have ¹fared with me.

30 "For you had little before ¹I came, and it has ²increased to a multitude; and the LORD has blessed you ³wherever I turned. But now, when shall I provide for my own household also?"

31 So he said, "What shall I give you?" And Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will again pasture and keep your flock:

32 let me pass through your entire flock today, removing from there every ^aspeckled and spotted sheep, and every black ¹one among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such shall be my wages.

34 And Laban said, "¹Good, let it be according to your word."

35 So he removed on that day the striped and spotted male goats and all the speckled and spotted female goats, every one with white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the ¹care of his sons.

36 And he put a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ Then Jacob ¹took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white stripes in them, exposing the white which was ²in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had peeled in front of the flocks in the gutters, even in the watering troughs, where the flocks came to drink; and they ¹mated when they came to drink.

39 So the flocks ¹mated by the rods, and the flocks brought forth striped, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob separated the lambs, and ¹made the flocks face toward the striped and all the black in the flock of Laban; and he put his own herds apart, and did not put them with Laban's flock.

41 Moreover, it came about whenever the ¹stronger of the flock ²were mating, that Jacob would place the rods in the sight of the flock in the gutters, so that they might ³mate by the rods;

42 but when the flock was feeble, he did not put them in; so the feeble were Laban's and the ¹stronger Jacob's.

43 So ^athe man ¹became exceedingly prosperous, and had large flocks and female and male servants and camels and donkeys.

NOW ¹Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what belonged to our father he has made all this ²wealth."

2 And Jacob saw the ¹attitude of Laban, and behold, it was not friendly toward him as formerly.

3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and ^bhe will be with you."

4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to his flock in the field,

5 and said to them, "I see your father's ¹attitude, that it is not friendly toward me as formerly, but ^bthe God of my father has been with me.

8 "If ^ahe spoke thus, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth speckled; and if he spoke thus, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock brought forth striped.

9 "Thus God has ^ataken away your father's livestock and given them to me.

10 "And it came about at the time when the flock were ¹mating that I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which were ²mating were striped, speckled, and mottled.

11 "Then ^athe angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.'

NOW as Jacob went on his way, ^athe angels of God met him.

2 And Jacob said when he saw them, "This is God's ¹camp." So he named that place ^{2a}Mahana-im.

3 ¶ Then Jacob ^asent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of ^bSeir, the ¹country of ^cEdom.

6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We came to your brother Esau, and furthermore ^ahe is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."

7 Then Jacob was ^agreatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and the herds and the camels, into two companies;

8 for he said, "If Esau comes to the one company and ¹attacks it, then the company which is left will escape."

9 And Jacob said, "O ^aGod of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who didst say to me, ^bReturn to your country and to your relatives, and I will ¹prosper you,"

13 ¶ So he spent the night there. Then he selected from what he had with him a present for his brother Esau:

14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

15 thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass on before me, and put a space between droves."

17 And he commanded the one in front, saying, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, saying, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these animals in front of you belong?'

18 then you shall say, 'These belong to your servant Jacob; it is a present sent to my lord Esau. And behold, he also is behind us.' "

19 Then he commanded also the second and the third, and all those who followed the droves, saying, "After this manner you shall speak to Esau when you find him;

20 and you shall say, 'Behold, your servant Jacob also is behind us.' " For he said, "I will appease him with the present that goes before me. Then afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me."

24 Then Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

25 And when he saw that he had not prevailed against him, he touched the socket of his thigh; so the socket of Jacob's thigh was dislocated while he wrestled with him.

26 Then he said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking." But he said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

27 So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob."

28 And he said, "Your name shall no longer be Jacob, but Israel; for you have striven with God and with men and have prevailed."

29 Then Jacob asked him and said, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And he blessed him there.

30 So Jacob named the place Peniel, for he said, "I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been preserved."

31 Now the sun rose upon him just as he crossed over Penuel, and he was limping on his thigh.

17 And Jacob journeyed to ¹Succoth; and built for himself a house, and made booths for his livestock, therefore the place is named Succoth.

18 ¶ Now Jacob came safely to the city of ¹Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from ²Paddan-aram, and camped before the city.

19 And ¹he bought the piece of land where he had pitched his tent from the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred ²pieces of money.

20 Then he erected there an altar, and called it ¹El-Elohe Israel.

CHAPTER 34

NOW ¹Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to ²visit the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor ¹the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her ²by force.

3 And ¹he was deeply attracted to Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and ²spoke tenderly to her.

4 So Shechem ¹spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this young girl for a wife."

5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; but his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob kept silent until they came in.

6 Then Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.

7 Now the sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard it; and the men were grieved, and they were very angry because he had done a ¹disgraceful thing in Israel ²by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him ¹in marriage.

9 "And intermarry with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

10 "Thus you shall ¹live with us, and ²the land shall be open before you; ³live and ⁴trade in it, and ⁵acquire property in it."

11 Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "If I find favor in your sight, then I will give whatever you say to me.

12 "Ask me ever so much bridal payment and gift, and I will give according as you say to me; but give me the girl ¹in marriage."

13 But Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor, with deceit, and spoke to them, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to ¹one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.

15 "Only on this condition will we consent to you: if you will become like us, in that every male of you be circumcised, 16 then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will ¹live with you and become one people.

us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

18 ¶ Now their words seemed ¹reasonable to Hamor and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 And the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was more respected than all the household of his father.

20 So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the ¹gate of their city, and spoke to the men of their city, saying, 21 "These men are ¹friendly with us; therefore let them ²live in the land and trade in it, for behold, the land is ³large enough for them. Let us take their daughters ⁴in marriage, and give our daughters to them.

22 "Only on this condition will the men consent to us to ¹live with us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 "Will not their livestock and their property and all their animals be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will ¹live with us."

24 And ¹all who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

25 Now it came about on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of Jacob's sons, ¹Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came upon the city unawares, and killed every male.

26 And they killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Shechem's house, and went forth.

27 Jacob's sons came upon the slain and looted the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their flocks and their herds and their donkeys, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field;

29 and they captured and looted all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives, even all that was in the houses.

30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have ^abrought trouble on me, by ^bmaking me odious among the inhabitants of the land, among ^cthe Canaanites and the Perizzites; and ^dmy men being few in number, they will gather together against me and ^eattack me and I shall be destroyed, I and my household."

31 But they said, "Should he ^ftreat our sister as a harlot?"

CHAPTER 35

THEN God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to ^aBethel, and ^blive there; and make an altar there to ^cGod, who appeared to you ^dwhen you fled ^efrom your brother Esau."

2 So Jacob said to his ^ahousehold and to all who were with him, "Put away ^bthe foreign gods which are among you, and ^cpurify yourselves, and change your garments;

3 and let us arise and go up to Bethel; and I will make ^aan altar there to God, ^bwho answered me in the day of my distress, and ^chas been with me ^dwherever I have gone."

4 So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which ¹they had, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the ²oak which was near Shechem.

5 ¶ As they journeyed, there was ^{1a}a great terror upon the cities which were around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

6 So Jacob came to ^aLuz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.

7 And ^ahe built an altar there and called the place ¹El-bethel because there God had revealed Himself to him, when he fled ²from his brother.

8 Now ^aDeborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; was named ¹Allon-bacuth.

9 ¶ Then God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram, and He ^ablessed him.

10 And ^aGod said to him,

"Your name is Jacob;

¹You shall no longer be called Jacob,

But Israel shall be your name."

Thus He called ²him Israel.

11 God also said to him,

"I am ^{1a}God Almighty;

^bBe fruitful and multiply; A nation and a ^ccompany of nations shall ²come from you,

And ^dkings shall ²come forth from ³you.

12 "And ^athe land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you,

And I will give the land to your ¹descendants after you."

13 Then ^aGod went up from him in the place where He had spoken with him.

14 And Jacob set up ^aa pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured out a ¹libation on it; he also poured oil on it.

15 So Jacob named the place where God had spoken with him ^{1a}Bethel.

16 ¶ Then they journeyed from Bethel; and when there was still some distance to go to ^aEphrath, Rachel began to give birth and she ¹suffered severe labor.

17 And it came about when she was in severe labor that the mid

18 And it came about as her soul was departing (for she ^{died}), that she named him ¹Ben-ⁿⁱ; but his father called him ^(Benjamin).

19 So ^aRachel died and was buried on the way to ^bEphrath (that is, Bethlehem).

20 And Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; that is the ^apillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

21 Then Israel journeyed on and pitched his tent beyond the ^atower of ²Eder.

22 And it came about while Israel was dwelling in that land, that ^aReuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine; and Israel heard of it.

23 Now there were twelve sons of Jacob—

23 ^athe sons of Leah: Reuben, Jacob's first-born, then Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun;

24 ^athe sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin;

25 and ^athe sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maid: Dan and Naphtali;

26 and ^athe sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

27 And Jacob came to his father Isaac at ^aMamre of ^bKiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned.

28 ^aNow the days of Isaac were ^aone hundred and eighty years.

29 And Isaac breathed his last and died, and was ^agathered to his people, an ^bold man ¹of ripe age; and ^chis sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

4 And Adah bore ^aEliphaz to Esau, and Basemath bore Reuel,

5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush and Jalam and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

6 ^aThen Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all ¹his household, and his livestock and all his cattle and all his goods which he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went to another land away from his brother Jacob.

7 ^aFor their property had become too great for them to ¹live together, and the ^bland where they ^csojourned could not sustain them because of their livestock.

8 So Esau lived in the hill country of ^aSeir; Esau is ^bEdom.

9 These then are the records of the generations of Esau the father of ¹the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

10 ^aThese are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz the son of Esau's wife Adah, Reuel the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

CHAPTER 37

NOW Jacob lived in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the records of the generations of Jacob.

3 Joseph, when seventeen years of age, was pasturing the flock with his brothers while he was still a youth, along with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

4 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age; and he made him a varicolored tunic.

5 And his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers; and so they hated him and could not speak to him on friendly terms.

6 Then Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

7 And he said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have had;

8 for behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf rose up and also stood erect; and behold, your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf."

9 Then his brothers said to him, "Are you actually going to reign over us? Or are you really going to rule over us?" So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

10 Now he had still another dream, and related it to his brothers, and said, "Lo, I have 20 And his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the saying in mind.

21 Then his brothers went to pasture their father's flock in Shechem.

22 And Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "I will go."

23 Then he said to him, "Go now and see about the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock; and bring word back to me." So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

24 And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field; and the man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

25 And he said, "I am looking for my brothers; please tell me where they are pasturing the flock."

26 Then the man said, "They have moved from here; for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

27 When they saw him from a distance and before he came close to them, they plotted against him to put him to death.

28 And they said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer!

29 Now then, come and let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; and ^awe will say, 'A wild beast devoured him.' Then let us see what will become of his dreams!"

21 But ^aReuben heard this and rescued him out of their hands and said, "Let us not ¹take his life."

22 Reuben further said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay hands on him"—that he might rescue him out of their hands, to restore him to his father.

23 So it came about, when Joseph ¹reached his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his ²tunic, the varicolored tunic that was on him;

24 and they took him and threw him into the pit. Now the pit was empty, without any water in it.

25 ¶ Then they sat down to eat ¹a meal. And as they raised their eyes and looked, behold, a caravan of ^aIshmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing ^{2b}aromatic gum and ^{3c}balam and ⁴myrrh, ⁵on their way to bring them down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it for us to kill our brother and ^acover up his blood?"

27 ^a"Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; for he is our brother, our own flesh." And his brothers listened to him.

28 Then some ^aMidianite traders passed by, so they pulled him up and lifted Joseph out of the pit, and ^bsold ¹him to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. Thus ^cthey brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 ¶ Now Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit; so he ^atore his garments.

33 Then he ¹examined it and said, "It is my son's tunic. ^aA wild beast has devoured him; ^bJoseph has surely been torn to pieces!"

34 So Jacob ^atore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 Then all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, "Surely I will ^ago down to Sheol in mourning for my son." So his father wept for him.

36 Meanwhile, the ¹Midianites ^asold him in Egypt to Potiphar, Pharaoh's officer, the captain of the bodyguard.

CHAPTER 38

AND it came about at that time, that Judah ¹departed from his brothers, and ²visited a certain ^aAdullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was ^aShua; and he took her and went in to her.

3 So she conceived and bore a son and he named him ^aEr.

4 Then she conceived again and bore a son and named him ^aOnan.

5 And she bore still another son and named him ^aShelah; and it was at Chezib ¹that she bore him.

6 ¶ Now Judah took a wife for Er his first-born, and her name was Tamar.

7 But ^aEr, Judah's first-born, as evil in the sight of the LORD, ^bthe LORD took his life.

8 Then Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform your duty as a brother-in-law to her, and raise ^coffspring for your brother."

9 And Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so it came about that when he went in to his brother's wife, he ^dwasted his seed on the ground, in order not to give ^eoffspring to his brother.

10 But what he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD; ^fhe ^gtook his life also.

11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Remain a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up"; for he ^hthought, "I am afraid that he too may die like his brothers." So Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

12 ⁱNow after a considerable time Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died; and when the time of mourning was ended, Judah went up to his sheepshearers at ^jTimnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told to Tamar, "Behold, your father-in-law is going up to ^kTimnah to shear his sheep."

14 So she ^lremoved her widow's garments and ^mcovered herself with a ⁿveil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the gateway of Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah had grown up, and ^oshe had not been given to him as a wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, for she had covered her face.

16 So he turned aside to her by the road, and said, "Here now, let me come in to you"; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said,

18 And he said, "What pledge shall I give you?" And she said, "Your seal and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand." So he gave ^{ag}them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19 Then she arose and departed, and ^{ah}removed her ^{ai}veil and put on her widow's garments.

20 ⁱWhen Judah sent the ^{aj}kid by his friend the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, he did not find her.

21 And he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the temple prostitute who was by the road at Enaim?" But they said, "There has been no temple prostitute here."

22 So he returned to Judah, and said, "I did not find her; and furthermore, the men of the place said, 'There has been no temple prostitute here.'"

23 Then Judah said, "Let her ^{ak}keep them, lest we become a laughingstock. ^{al}After all, I sent this kid, but you did not find her."

24 ^{am}Now it was about three months later that Judah was informed, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has played the harlot, and behold, she is also with child by harlotry." Then Judah said, "Bring her out and ^{an}let her be burned!"

25 It was while she was being brought out that she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "I am with child by the man to whom these things belong." And she said, "Please examine and see, whose signet ring and cords and staff are these?"

26 And Judah recognized them, and said, "She is more righteous than I, inasmuch as ^{b1} he did not give her to my son Shelah." And he did not ¹have relations with her again.

27 ¶ And it came about at the time she was giving birth, that behold, there were ^atwins in her womb.

28 Moreover, it took place while she was giving birth, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, "This one came out first."

29 But it came about as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out. Then she said, "What a breach you have made for yourself!" So he was named ^{1a}Perez.

30 And afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand; and he was named ^{1a}Zerah.

CHAPTER 39

NOW Joseph had been taken down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an Egyptian officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the bodyguard, bought him ¹from the ^aIshmaelites, who had taken him down there.

2 And ^athe LORD was with Joseph, so he became a ¹successful man. And he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian.

3 Now his master ^asaw that the LORD was with him and how the LORD ^bcaused all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Joseph ^afound favor in his sight, and ¹became his personal servant; and he made him overseer over his house, and ^ball that he owned he put in his ²charge.

5 And it came about that from the time he made him overseer in his house, and over all that he owned, the LORD ^ablessed the Egyptian's house on account of 6 So he left everything he owned in Joseph's ¹charge; and with him there he did not ²concern himself with anything except the ³food which he ⁴ate. Now Joseph was ^ahandsome in form and appearance.

7 ¶ And it came about after these events ^athat his master's wife ¹looked with desire at Joseph, and she said, "^bLie with me."

8 But ^ahe refused and said to his master's wife, "Behold, with me here, my master ¹does not concern himself with anything in the house, and he has put all that he owns in my ²charge.

9"^{1a}There is no one greater in this house than I, and he has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great evil, and ^bsin against God?"

10 And it came about as she spoke to Joseph day after day that he did not listen to her to lie beside her, or be with her.

11 Now it happened ¹one day that he went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the household was there inside.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me!" And he left his garment in her hand and fled, and went outside.

13 ¹When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had fled outside,

14 she called to the men of her household, and said to them, "See, he has brought in a ¹Hebrew to us to make sport of us; he came in to me to lie with me, and I ²screamed.

15" And it came about when he heard that I raised my voice and ¹screamed, that he left his garment beside me and fled, and went outside."

16 So she ¹left his garment beside her until his master came home.

17 Then she ^aspoke to him with these words, ²"The Hebrew slave, whom you brought to us, came in to me to make sport of me;

18 and it happened as I raised my voice and ¹screamed, that he left his garment beside me and fled outside."

19 ^a Now it came about when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, ¹"This is what your slave did to me," that ^ahis anger burned.

20 So Joseph's master took him and ^aput him into the jail, the place where the king's prisoners were confined; and he was there in the jail.

21 But ^athe LORD was with Joseph and extended kindness to him, and ^bgave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer.

22 And the chief jailer ^acommitted to Joseph's ¹charge all the prisoners who were in the jail; so that whatever was done there, he was ²responsible for it.

23 ^aThe chief jailer did not supervise anything under ¹Joseph's charge because ^bthe LORD was with him; and whatever he did, ^athe LORD made to prosper.

CHAPTER 40

THEN it came about after these things ^athe cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt offended their lord, the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was ^afurious with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

3 So he put them in confinement in the house of the ^acaptain of the bodyguard, in the jail, the same place where Joseph was imprisoned.

them, and he ¹took care of them; and they were in confinement for ²some time.

5 Then the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in jail, both had a dream the same night, each man with his own dream and each dream with its own interpretation.

6 ¹When Joseph came to them in the morning and observed them, ²behold, they were dejected.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in confinement in his master's house, ¹"Why are your faces so sad today?"

8 Then they said to him, ¹"We have ¹had a dream and there is no one to interpret it." Then Joseph said to them, ²"Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell it to me, please."

9 ^a So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, ¹"In my dream, ¹behold, there was a vine in front of me;

10 and on the vine were three branches. And as it was budding, its blossoms came out, and its clusters produced ripe grapes.

11 "Now Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; so I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh's ¹hand."

12 Then Joseph said to him, ¹"This is the ^ainterpretation of it: the three branches are three days;

13 within three more days Pharaoh will ¹lift up your head and restore you to your ²office; and you will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand according to your former custom when you were his cupbearer.

14 "Only ¹keep me in mind when it goes well with you, and please ^ado me a kindness ²by mentioning me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house.

15 "For ^aI was in fact kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing that they should have put me into the ¹dungeon."

16 ¶ When the chief baker saw that he had interpreted favorably, he said to Joseph, "I also saw in my dream, and behold, there were three baskets of white bread on my head;

17 and in the top basket there were some of all ¹sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

18 Then Joseph answered and said, "This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;

19 within three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh off you."

20 ¶ Thus it came about on the third day, which was ^aPharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants; ^band he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief cupbearer to his ¹office, and ^ahe put the cup into Pharaoh's ²hand; they stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

22 but ^ahe hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but ^aforgot him.

4 And the ugly and ¹gaunt cows ate up the seven sleek and ¹fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he fell asleep and dreamed a second time; and behold, seven ears of grain came up on a single stalk, plump and good.

6 Then behold, seven ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them.

7 And the thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. Then Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.

8 Now it came about in the morning that ^ahis spirit was troubled, so he sent and called for all the ¹magicians of Egypt and all its ^cwise men. And Pharaoh told them his ²dreams, but ^dthere was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I would make mention today of ^amy own ¹offenses.

10 "Pharaoh was ^afurious with his servants, and ^bhe put me in confinement in the house of the captain of the bodyguard, both me and the chief baker.

11 "And ^awe had a dream ¹for the same night, ²he and I; each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.

12 "Now a Hebrew youth was with us there, a ^aservant of the captain of the bodyguard, and we related them to him, and ^bhe interpreted our dreams for us. To each one he interpreted according to his own dream.

13 "And it came about that just ^aas he interpreted for us, so it happened; he restored me in my ¹office, but he hanged him."

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh sent and ^acalled for Joseph, and they ^bhurriedly brought him out of the dungeon; and when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came to Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it; and I have heard ¹it said about you, that ²when you hear a dream you can interpret it."

16 Joseph then answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will ²give Pharaoh a favorable answer."

17 So Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, I was standing on the bank of the Nile;

18 and behold, seven cows, fat and sleek came up out of the Nile; and they grazed in the marsh grass.

19 And lo, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt, such as I had never seen for ugliness in all the land of Egypt;

20 and the lean and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows.

21 Yet when they had devoured them, it could not be detected that they had devoured them; for they were just as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

22 I saw also in my dream, and behold, seven ears, full and good, came up on a single stalk;

23 and lo, seven ears, withered, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them;

24 and the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. Then I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

25 Now Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dreams are one and the same; God has told to Pharaoh what He is about to do.

26 The seven good cows are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one and the same.

27 And the seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven thin ears scorched by the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 It is as I have spoken to Pharaoh: God has shown to Pharaoh what He is about to do.

29 Behold, seven years of great abundance are coming in all the land of Egypt;

30 and after them seven years of famine will come, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine will ravage the land.

31 So the abundance will be unknown in the land because of that subsequent famine; for it will be very severe.

32 Now as for the repeating of the dream to Pharaoh twice, it means that the matter is determined by God, and God will quickly bring it about.

33 And now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh take action to appoint overseers in charge of the land, and let him exact a fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven years of abundance.

35 Then let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and store up the grain for food in the cities under Pharaoh's authority, and let them guard it.

36 And let the food become as a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish during the famine."

37 Now the proposal seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his servants.

38 Then Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this, in whom is a divine spirit?"

39 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has informed you of all this, there is no one so discerning and wise as you are.

40 "You shall be over my house, and according to your ¹command all my people shall ²do homage; only in the throne I will be greater than you."

41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See I have set you ^aover all the land of Egypt."

42 Then Pharaoh ^atook off his signet ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph's hand, and clothed him in garments of fine linen, and ^bput the gold necklace around his neck.

43 And he had him ride in ¹his second chariot; and they proclaimed before him, "²Bow the knee!" And he set him over all the land of Egypt.

44 Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Though I am Pharaoh, yet ^awithout ¹your permission no one shall raise his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."

45 Then Pharaoh named Joseph ¹Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of ^{2a}On, as his wife. And Joseph went forth over the land of Egypt.

46 ¶ Now Joseph was ^athirty years old when he ¹stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went through all the land of Egypt.

47 And during the seven years of plenty the land brought forth ¹abundantly.

48 So he gathered all the food of these seven years which occurred in the land of Egypt, and placed the food in the cities; he placed in every city the food from its own surrounding fields.

49 Thus Joseph stored up grain ¹in great abundance like the sand of the sea, until he stopped ²measuring it, for it was ³beyond measure.

50 ¶ Now before the year of famine came, ^atwo sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of ¹On, bore to him.

52 And he named the second ¹Ephraim, "For," he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

53 ¶ When the seven years of plenty which had been in the land of Egypt came to an end, 54 and ^athe seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said, then there was famine in all the lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 So when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried out to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; whatever he says to you, you shall do."

56 When the famine was spread over all the face of the earth, then Joseph opened all ¹the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians; and the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

57 And the people of all the earth came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because ^athe famine was severe in all the earth.

CHAPTER 42

NOW ^aJacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why are you staring at one another?"

2 And he said, "Behold, ^aI have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down there and buy some for us ¹from that place, ^bso that we may live and not die."

3 Then ten brothers of Joseph went down to buy grain from Egypt.

4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother ^aBenjamin with his brothers, for he said, "^{1b}I am afraid that harm may befall him."

5 So the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who were coming, ^afor the famine was in the land of Canaan also.

6 Now ^aJoseph was the ruler over the land; he was the one who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and ^bbowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

7 When Joseph saw his brothers he recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and ^aspoke to them harshly. And he said to them, "Where have you come from?" And they said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

8 ¶ But Joseph had recognized his brothers, although they did not recognize him.

9 And Joseph ^aremembered the dreams which he ¹had about them, and said to them, "You are spies; you have come to look at the ²undefended parts of our land."

10 Then they said to him, "No, ^amy lord, but your servants have come to buy food.

11 "We are all sons of one man; we are ^ahonest men, your servants are not spies."

12 Yet he said to them, "No, (but you have come to look at the ¹undefended parts of our land!"

13 But they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers in all, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is with ^aour father today, and ^bone is no more."

14 And Joseph said to them, "It is as I said ¹to you, you are spies;

15 by this you will be tested: ^aby the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go from this place unless your youngest brother comes here!

16 "Send one of you that he may get your brother, while you remain confined, that your words may be tested, whether there is ^atruth in you. But if not, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies."

18 ¶ Now Joseph said to them on the third day, "Do this and live, for ^aI fear God:

20 and ^abring your youngest brother to me, so your words may be verified, and you will not die." And they did so.

21 Then they said to one another, "^aTruly we are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, yet we would not listen; therefore this distress has come upon us."

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, "^aDid I not tell ¹you, 'Do not sin against the boy'; and you would not listen? ^{2b}Now comes the reckoning for his blood."

23 They did not know, however, that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them.

24 And he turned away from them and ^awept. But when he returned to them and spoke to them, he ^btook Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ ^aThen Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain and to restore every man's money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. And thus it was done for them.

26 So they loaded their donkeys with their grain, and departed from there.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his ^amoney; and behold, it was in the mouth of his sack.

28 Then he said to his brothers, "My money has been returned, and behold, it is even in my sack." And their hearts ¹sank, and they turned ²trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"

29 ¶ When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying,

30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly with us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 "But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies.

32 'We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

33 "And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I shall know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me and take grain for the famine of your households, and go.

34 'But bring your youngest brother to me that I may know that you are not spies, but honest men. I will give your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.'"

35 ¶ Now it came about as they were emptying their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack; and when they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed.

36 And their father Jacob said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and you would take Benjamin; all these things are against me."

37 Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you; put him in my care, and I will return him to you."

38 But Jacob said, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should befall him on the journey you are taking, then you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow."

CHAPTER 43

^aNOW the famine was severe in the land.

2 So it came about when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, "Go back, buy us a little food."

3 Judah spoke to him, however, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

4 "If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.

5 "But if you do not send him, we will not go down; for the man said to us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

6 Then Israel said, "Why do you treat me so badly by telling the man whether you still have another brother?"

7 But they said, "The man questioned particularly about us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?' So we answered his questions. Could we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

8 And Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the lad with me and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, we as well as you and our little ones.

9 "I myself will be surety for him; you may hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame before you forever.

10 "For if we had not delayed surely by now we could have returned twice."

11 ¶ Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and carry down to the man as a present, a little balsam and a little honey, ³aromatic gum and ⁴myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

12 "And take double the money in your hand, and take back in your hand ^athe money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; perhaps it was a mistake.

13 "Take your brother also, and arise, return to the man;

14 and may ^{1a}God Almighty ^bgrant you compassion in the sight of the man, that he may release to you ^cyour other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, ^dif I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."

15 So the men took ^athis present, and they took double the money in their hand, and Benjamin; then they arose and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

16 ¶ When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to his ^ahouse steward, "Bring the men into the house, and slay an animal and make ready; for the men are to dine with me at noon."

17 So the man did as Joseph said, and ^bbrought the men to Joseph's house.

18 Now the men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house; and they said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time that we are being brought in, that he may ¹seek occasion against us and fall upon us, and take us for slaves with our donkeys."

19 So they came near to Joseph's house steward, and spoke to him at the entrance of the house,

20 and said, "Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food,

22 "We have also brought down other money in our hand to buy food; we do not know who put our money in our sacks."

23 And he said, "¹Be at ease, do not be afraid. ^aYour God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks; ²I had your money." Then ^bhe brought Simeon out to them.

24 Then the man brought the men into Joseph's house and ^agave them water, and they ^bwashed their feet; and he gave them donkeys fodder.

25 So they prepared ^athe present ¹for Joseph's coming at noon; for they had heard that they were to eat ²a meal there.

26 ¶ When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present which was in their hand and ^abowed to the ground before him.

27 Then he asked them about their welfare, and said, "^aIs your old father well, of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

28 And they said, "Your servant our father is well; he is still alive." ^aAnd they bowed down ¹in homage.

29 As he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he said, "Is this ^ayour youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "^bMay God be gracious to you, my son."

30 And Joseph hurried out for ^{1a}he was deeply stirred over his brother, and he sought a place to weep; and he entered his chamber and ^bwept there.

31 Then he washed his face, and came out; and he ^acontrolled himself and said, "¹Serve the meal."

32 So they served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians, who ate with him, by themselves; because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is ¹loathsome to the Egyptians.

33 Now they ¹were seated before him, ^athe first-born according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment.

34 And he took portions to them from ¹his own table; ^abut Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

CHAPTER 44

^aTHEN he commanded his house steward, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack.

2 "And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his money for the grain." And he did ¹as Joseph had told him.

3 ¹As soon as it was light, the men were sent away, they with their donkeys.

4 They had just gone out of ^athe city, and were not far off, when Joseph said to his house steward, "Up, follow the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?

5 'Is not this the one from which my lord drinks, and which he indeed uses for ^adivination? You have done wrong in doing this.' "

6 ¶ So he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

7 And they said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing.

8 "Behold, ^athe money which we found in the mouth of our sacks we have brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?

10 So he said, "Now let it also be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my slave, and the rest of you shall be innocent."

11 Then they hurried, each man lowered his sack to the ground, and each man opened his sack.

12 And he searched, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and ^athe cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they ^atore their clothes, and when each man loaded his donkey, they returned to ^bthe city.

14 ¶ When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there, and ^athey fell to the ground before him.

15 And Joseph said to them "What is this deed that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can indeed practice ^adivination?"

16 So Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? And how can we justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants; behold, we are my lord's ^aslaves both we and the one in whose ¹possession the cup has been found."

17 But he said, "Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose ¹possession the cup has been found, he shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

18 ¶ Then Judah approached him, and said, "Oh my lord, may your servant please speak a word in my lord's ears, and ¹do not be angry with your servant for ^byou are equal to Pharaoh.

22 "But we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.'

23 "You said to your servants, however, '^aUnless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall not see my face again.'

24 "Thus it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

CHAPTER 45

THEN Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried, "Have everyone go out from me." So there ¹was no man with him ^awhen Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

2 And ^ahe ¹wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard of it.

3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "^aI am Joseph! ^bIs my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, for ^athey were dismayed at his presence.

4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come ¹closer to me." And they came ¹closer. And he said, "I am your brother Joseph, whom you ^asold into Egypt.

5 "And now do not be grieved or angry ¹with yourselves, because ^ayou sold me here; for ^bGod sent me before you to preserve life.

6 "For the famine has been in the land ^athese two years, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.

7 "And ^aGod sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to keep you alive by a great ¹deliverance.

8 "Now, therefore, it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a ^afather to Pharaoh and lord of all his household and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

9 "Hurry and go up to my father, and ^asay to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, "God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay.

10 "And you shall ¹live in the land of ^aGoshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children and your flocks and your herds and all that you have.

11 "There I will also ^aprovide for you, for there are still five years of famine to come, lest you and your household and all that you have be impoverished."

12 "And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see, that it is my mouth which is speaking to you.

13 "Now you must tell my father of all my splendor in Egypt, and all that you have seen; and you must hurry and ^abring my father down here."

14 Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and ^awept; and Benjamin wept on his neck.

15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept on them, and afterward his brothers talked with him.

16 ¶ Now when ^athe ¹news was heard in Pharaoh's house ²that Joseph's brothers had come, it ³pleased Pharaoh and his servants.

17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: load your beasts and ¹go to the land of Canaan,

18 and take your father and your households and come to me, and ^aI will give you the ¹best of the land of Egypt and you shall eat the fat of the land.'

19 "Now you are ordered, 'Do this: ¹take ^awagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father and come.

20 'And do not ¹concern yourselves with your goods, for the ²best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

21 ¶ Then the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them ^awagons according to the ¹command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.

22 To ¹each of them he gave ^achanges of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and ^bfive changes of garments.

23 And to his father he sent ¹as follows: ten donkeys loaded with the ²best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and sustenance for his father ³on the journey.

24 So he sent his brothers away, and ¹as they departed, he said to them, "Do not ²quarrel on the journey."

25 Then they went up from Egypt, and came to the land of Canaan to their father Jacob.

26 And they told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and indeed he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." But ¹he was stunned, for ^ahe did not believe them.

27 When they told him all the words of Joseph that he had spoken to them, and when he saw the ^awagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

28 Then Israel said, "It is enough; my son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

CHAPTER 46

SO Israel set out with all that he had, and came to ^aBeer-sheba, and offered sacrifices to the ^bGod of his father Isaac.

2 And ^aGod spoke to Israel ¹in visions of the night and said, "^bJacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here I am."

3 And He said, "^aI am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will ^bmake you a great nation there.

4 "^aI will go down with you to Egypt, and ^bI will also surely bring you up again; and ^cJoseph will ¹close your eyes."

5 Then Jacob arose from Beersheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob and their little ones and their wives, in the ^awagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their livestock and their property, which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and ^acame to Egypt, Jacob and all his ¹descendants with him:

7 his sons and his grandsons with him, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his ¹descendants he brought with him to Egypt.

8 ¶ Now these are the ^anames of the sons of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who went to Egypt: Reuben, Jacob's first-born.

9 And the sons of Reuben: Hanoch and Pallu and Hezron and Carmi.

10 And the ^asons of Simeon: ¹Jemuel and Jamin and Ohad and ²Jachin and ³Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

11 And the sons of Levi: ¹Ger-shon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah: Er and Onan and Shelah and Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan). And the ^asons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar: Tola and ¹Puvvah and ²Iob and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sered and Elon and Jahleel.

15 These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, with his daughter Dinah; ¹all his sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three.

16 And the ^asons of Gad: ¹Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and ²Ezbon, Eri and ³Arodi and Areli.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and she bore to Jacob these sixteen persons.

19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

20 ^aNow to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.

21 And the ^asons of Benjamin: Bela and Becher and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, ¹Ehi and Rosh, ²Muppm and ³Huppm and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob; there were fourteen persons in all.

23 And the sons of Dan: ¹Hu-shim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali: ¹Jahzeel and Guni and Jezer and ²Shillem.

25 These are the ^asons of Bilhah, whom ^bLaban gave to his daughter Rachel, and she bore these to Jacob; there were seven persons in all.

26 ^aAll the persons belonging to Jacob, who came to Egypt, ¹his direct descendants, not including the wives of Jacob's sons, were sixty-six persons in all.

27 and the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt were ¹two; ^aall the persons of the house of Jacob, who came to Egypt, were seventy.

28 ¶ Now he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to point out the way before him to ^aGoshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Joseph ¹prepared his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel; as soon as he appeared ²before him, he fell

32 and the men are shepherds, for they have been ¹keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.'

33 "And it shall come about when Pharaoh calls you and says, '^aWhat is your occupation?'

34 that you shall say, 'Your servants have been ¹keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' that you may ²live in the land of ^bGoshen; for every shepherd is ³loathsome to the Egyptians."

CHAPTER 47

THEN ^aJoseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of ^bGoshen."

2 And he took five men from among his brothers, and ^apresented them to Pharaoh.

3 Then Pharaoh said to his brothers, "^aWhat is your occupation?" So they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are ^bshepherds, both we and our fathers."

4 And they said to Pharaoh, "^aWe have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for ^bthe famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, therefore, please let your servants ¹live in the land of Goshen."

5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

6 "The land of Egypt is ¹at your disposal; ²settle your father and your brothers in ^athe best of the land, let them ³live in the land of Goshen; and if you know any ^bcapable men among them, then ^aput them in charge of my live stock."

7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and ¹presented him to Pharaoh; and Jacob ^ablessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob "How many ¹years have you lived?"

9 So Jacob said to Pharaoh "The ¹years of my sojourning are one hundred and ²thirty; few and ³unpleasant have been the ¹years of my life, nor have they ⁴attained ^bthe ¹years ⁵that my fathers lived during the days of their sojourning."

10 And Jacob ^ablessed Pharaoh, and went out from ¹his presence.

11 So Joseph ¹settled his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in ^athe best of the land, in the land of ^bRameses, as Pharaoh had ordered.

12 And Joseph ^aprovided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with ¹food, according to their little ones.

13 ¶ Now there was no ¹food in all the land, because the famine was very severe, so that ^athe land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

14 And ^aJoseph gathered all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when the money was

13 ¹Or, bread ^aGen. 41:30; Acts 7:11
14 ^aGen. 41:56

all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money is gone."

16 Then Joseph said, "Give up your livestock, and I will give you food for your livestock, since your money is gone."

17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses and the flocks and the herds and the donkeys; and he fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

18 And when that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord that our money is all spent, and the cattle are my lord's. There is nothing left for my lord except our bodies and our lands."

19 "Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be slaves to Pharaoh. So give us seed, that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate."

20 ¶ So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was severe upon them. Thus the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to the cities from one end of Egypt's border to the other.

22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived off the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.

23 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have today bought you and your land for 24 "And at the harvest you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own for seed of the field and for your food and for those of your households and as food for your little ones."

25 So they said, "You have saved our lives! Let us find favor in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's slaves."

26 And Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt valid to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth; only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh's.

27 ¶ Now Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in Goshen, and they acquired property in it and were fruitful and became very numerous.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the length of Jacob's life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

29 When the time for Israel to die drew near, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "Please, if I have found favor in your sight, place now your hand under my thigh and deal with me in kindness and faithfulness. Please do not bury me in Egypt."

30 but when I lie down with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I will do as you have said."

31 And he said, "Swear to me." So he swore to him. Then Israel bowed in worship at the head of the bed.

CHAPTER 48

NOW it came about after these things that Joseph was told, "Behold, your father is sick." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him.

18 And Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the first-born. Place your right hand on his head."

19 But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know; he also shall become a people and he also shall be great. However, his younger brother shall be greater than he, and ^ahis ¹descendants shall become a ²multitude of nations."

20 And ^ahe blessed them that day, saying,

"By you Israel shall pronounce blessing, saying,

'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!'"

21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am about to die, but ^aGod will be with you, and ^bbring you back to the land of your fathers.

22 "And I give you one ¹portion more than your brothers, ^awhich I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and my bow."

CHAPTER 50

THEN Joseph fell on his father's face, and wept over him and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians ^aembalmed Israel.

3 Now forty days were ¹required for ²it, for ³such is the period required for embalming. And the Egyptians ^awept for him seventy days.

4 ^a And when the days of ¹mourning for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please speak ²to Pharaoh, saying,

5 ^aMy father made me swear, saying, "Behold, I am about to die; in my grave ^bwhich I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me." Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father; then I will return."

6 And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."

7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 and all the household of Joseph and his brothers and his father's household; they left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen.

9 There also went up with him both chariots and horsemen; and it was a very great company.

10 When they came to the ¹threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they ^alamented there with a very great and ²sorrowful lamentation; and he ³observed seven days mourning for his father.

11 Now when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at ¹the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a ²grievous ³mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore it was named ^aAbel-mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

12 And thus his sons did for him as he had charged them;

13 for his sons carried him to the land of Canaan, and buried him in ^athe cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre, which Abraham had bought along with the field for a ¹burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

14 And after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

15 ^a When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "^aWhat if Joseph should bear a grudge against us and pay us back in full for all the wrong which we did to him!"

16 So they ¹sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father charged before he died, saying, 17 'Thus you shall say to Joseph, "Please forgive, I beg you, the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did you wrong." ' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

18 Then his brothers also came and ^afell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your servants."

19 But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in God's place?

20 "And as for you, ^ayou meant evil against me, but God meant it for good in order to bring about ¹this present result, to preserve many people alive.

21 "So therefore, do not be afraid; ^aI will provide for you and your little ones." So he comforted them and spoke ¹kindly to them.

EXODUS

Israel Multiplies in Egypt

NOW these are the ^anames of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob; they came each one ¹with his household:

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah;

3 Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin;

4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

5 And all the ¹persons who came from the loins of Jacob were ^aseventy ²in number, but Joseph was already in Egypt.

6 And ^aJoseph died, and all his brothers and all that generation.

7 But the sons of Israel ^awere fruitful and ¹increased greatly, and multiplied, and became exceedingly ²mighty, so that the land was filled with them.

8 ¶ Now a new ^aking arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

9 And ^ahe said to his people, "Behold, the people of the sons of Israel are ¹more and mightier than we.

12 But the more they afflicted them, ^athe more they multiplied and the more they ¹spread out, so that they were in dread of the sons of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians compelled the sons of Israel ^ato labor rigorously;

14 and they made ^atheir lives bitter with hard labor in mortar and bricks and at all kinds of labor in the field, all their labors which they rigorously ¹imposed on them.

15 ¶ Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom ¹was named Shiphrah, and the other ¹was named Puah;

16 and he said, "When you are helping the Hebrew women to give birth and see them upon the birthstool, ^aif it is a son, then you

18 So the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and let the boys live?"

19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous, and they give birth before the midwife ¹can get to them."

20 So ^aGod was good to the midwives, and ^bthe people multiplied, and became very ¹mighty.

21 And it came about because the midwives ¹feared God, that He ²established ³households for them.

22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "Every son who is born ¹you are to cast into ^bthe Nile, and every daughter you are to keep alive."

NOW a man from ^athe house of Levi went and ¹married a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw ¹that he was ^{2a}beautiful, she hid him for three months.

7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call ^aa nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go ahead." So the girl went and called the child's mother.

9 Then Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me and I shall give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and ^ahe became her son. And she named him ¹Moses, and said, "Because I ²drew him out of the water."

18 When they came to ^aReuel their father, he said, "Why have you come back so soon today?"

19 So they said, "An Egyptian delivered us from the hand of the shepherds; and what is more, he even drew the water for us and watered the flock."

20 And he said to his daughters, "Where is he then? Why is it that you have left the man behind? Invite him ¹to have something to eat."

THEN Moses answered and said, "What if they will not believe me, or ^alisten ¹to what I say? For they may say, '^bThe LORD has not appeared to you.'"

2 And the LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" And he said, "A staff."

3 Then He said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw it on the ground, and ^ait became a serpent; and Moses fled from it.

6 And the LORD furthermore said to him, "Now put your hand into your bosom." So he put his hand into his bosom, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was ^aleprous like snow.

7 Then He said, "Put your hand into your bosom again." So he put his hand into his bosom again; and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, ^ait was restored like the rest of his flesh.

10 ¶ Then Moses said to the LORD, "Please, Lord, ^aI have never been ¹eloquent, neither ²recently nor in time past, nor since Thou hast spoken to Thy servant; for I am ³slow of speech and ³slow of tongue."

11 And the LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or ^awho makes him dumb or deaf, or seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?"

12 "Now then go, and ^aI, even I, will be with your mouth, and ^bteach you what you are to say."

18 ¶ Then Moses departed and returned to Jethro ^ahis father-in-law, and said to him, "Please, let me go, that I may return to my brethren who are in Egypt, and see if they are still alive." And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

19 Now the LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go ¹back to Egypt, for ^aall the men who were seeking your life are dead."

20 So Moses took his wife and his ^asons and mounted them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took the ^bstaff of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said to Moses, "When you go ¹back to Egypt see that you perform before Pharaoh all ^athe wonders which I have put in your ²power; but ^bI will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

28 And ^aMoses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which He had sent him, and ^ball the signs that He had commanded him to do.

29 Then Moses and Aaron went and ^aassembled all the elders of the sons of Israel;

30 and ^aAaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses. He then performed the ^bsigns in the sight of the people.

31 So ^athe people believed; and when they heard that the LORD ^bwas concerned about the sons of Israel and that He had seen their affliction, then ^cthey bowed low and worshiped.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, "^aThus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ^bLet My people go that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness."

2 But Pharaoh said, "^aWho is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and besides, ^bI will not let Israel go."

3 Then they said, "^aThe God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please, let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

5 Again Pharaoh said, "Look, ^athe people of the land are now many, and you would have them cease from their labors!"

6 So the same day Pharaoh commanded ^athe taskmasters over the people and their ^bforemen, saying,

7 "You are no longer to give the people straw to make brick as previously; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 "But the quota of bricks which they were making previously, you shall impose on them; you are not to reduce any of it. Because they are ^alazy, therefore they cry out, '¹Let us go and sacrifice to our God.'

9 "Let the labor be heavier on the men, and let them work at it that they may pay no attention to false words."

10 ¶ So ^athe taskmasters of the people and their foremen went out and spoke to the people, saying, "Thus says Pharaoh, 'I am not going to give you any straw.

11 'You go and get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it; but none of your labor will be reduced.'"

12 So the people scattered through all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.

13 And the taskmasters pressed them, saying, "Complete your ¹work quota, ²your daily amount, just as when ³you had straw."

14 Moreover, ^athe foremen of the sons of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, ^bwere beaten ¹and were asked, "Why have you not completed your required amount either yesterday or today in making brick as previously?"

15 ¶ Then the foremen of the sons of Israel came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants?"

16 "There is no straw given to your servants, yet they keep saying to us, 'Make bricks!' And behold, your servants are being beaten; but it is the fault of your own people."

17 But he said, "You are ^alazy, very lazy; therefore you say, 'Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'"

18 "So go now and work; for you shall be given no straw, yet you must deliver the quota of bricks."

19 And the foremen of the sons of Israel saw that they were in trouble ¹because they were told, "You must not reduce ²your daily amount of bricks."

20 When they left Pharaoh's presence, they met Moses and Aaron as they were ¹waiting for them.

21 And ^athey said to them, "^bMay the LORD look upon you and judge you, for you have ^cmade ¹us odious in Pharaoh's sight and in the sight of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us."

22 ¶ Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, "^aO Lord, why hast Thou brought harm to this people? Why didst Thou ever send me?"

23 "Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Thy name, he has done harm to this people; ^aand Thou hast not delivered Thy people at all."

THEN the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh; for ^{1a}under compulsion he shall let them go, and ¹under compulsion he shall drive them out of his land."

6 So Moses and Aaron did it; ^aas the LORD commanded them, thus they did.

7 And Moses was ^aeighty years old and Aaron ¹eighty-three, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8 ^a Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 "When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, '¹Work a miracle,' then you shall say to Aaron, '^bTake your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, that it may become a serpent.' "

10 So Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and thus they did just as the LORD had commanded; and Aaron threw his staff down before Pharaoh and ¹his servants, and it ^abecame a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also ^acalled for the wise men and the sorcerers, and they also, the ^{1b}magicians of Egypt, did ²the same with ^atheir secret arts.

12 For each one threw down his staff and they turned into serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

13 Yet ^aPharaoh's heart was ¹hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

14 ^a Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is ¹stubborn; he refuses to let the people go.

15 "Go to Pharaoh in the morning ¹as ^ahe is going out to the water, and station yourself to meet him on the bank of the Nile; and you shall take in your hand ^bthe staff that was turned into a serpent.

16 "And you will say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you, saying, '^bLet My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness. But behold, you have not listened until now.' "

1 THEN the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

2"But if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite your whole territory with frogs.

3"And the Nile will swarm with frogs, which will come up and go into your house and into your bedroom and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and on your people, and into your ovens and into your kneading bowls.

4"So the frogs will come up on you and your people and all your servants."

5 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, over the streams and over the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.'"

6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did the same with their secret arts, making frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, "Entreat the LORD that He remove the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD."

9 And Moses said to Pharaoh, "The honor is yours to tell me: when shall I entreat for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, that they may be left only in the Nile?"

10 Then he said, "Tomorrow." So he said, "May it be according to your word, that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

11" And the frogs will depart from you and your houses and your servants and your people; they will be left only in the Nile."

12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs which He had inflicted upon Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, the courts, and the fields.

14 So they piled them in heaps, and the land became foul.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

16 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become gnats through all the land of Egypt.'"

17 And they did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were gnats on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats through all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians tried with their secret arts to bring forth gnats, but they could not; so there were gnats on man and beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

20 Now the LORD said to Moses, "Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he comes out to the water, and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

21" For if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of insects on you and on your servants and on your people and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of insects, and also the ground on which they dwell.

22^a But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are ¹living, so that no swarms of insects will be there, in order that you may know that ^{2b}I, the LORD, am in the midst of the land.

23^a And I will ¹put a division between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall occur. . . .

24 Then the LORD did so. And there came ¹great swarms of insects into the house of Pharaoh and the houses of his servants and the land was ^alaid waste because of the swarms of insects in all the land of Egypt.

25 ^a And Pharaoh ^acalled for Moses and Aaron and said, ^b"Go, sacrifice to your God within the land."

26 But Moses said, "It is not right to do so, for we shall sacrifice to the LORD our God ¹what is ^aan abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice ¹what is an abomination to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not then stone us?"

27^a We must go a ^athree days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He ¹commands us."

28 And Pharaoh said, ^a"I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away. ^bMake supplication for me."

29 Then Moses said, "Behold, I am going out from you, and I shall make supplication to the LORD that the swarms of insects may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow; only do not let Pharaoh ^adeal deceitfully again in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD.

31 And the LORD did ¹as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of insects from Pharaoh, from his servants and from his people; not one remained.

32 But Pharaoh ¹hardened his heart this time also, and ^ahe did not let the people go.

CHAPTER 9

THEN the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and speak to him, ¹Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, ^a"Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

2^a For ^aif you refuse to let them go, and ¹continue to hold them,

3 behold, ^athe hand of the LORD ¹will come with a very severe pestilence on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks.

4^a But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that ^bnothing will die of all that belongs to the sons of Israel. . . .

5 And the LORD set a definite time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land."

6 So the LORD did this thing on the morrow, and ^aall the livestock of Egypt died; ^bbut of the livestock of the sons of Israel, not one died.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not even one of the livestock of Israel dead. But ^athe heart of Pharaoh was ¹hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ^a Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take for yourselves handfuls of soot from a kiln, and let Moses throw it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 "And it will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will become ^aboils breaking out with sores on man and beast through all the land of Egypt."

10 So they took soot from a kiln, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses threw it toward the sky, and it became boils breaking out with sores on man and beast.

11 ^aAnd the ¹magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians ²as well as on all the Egyptians.

12 And ^athe LORD ¹hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

13 ¹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "^aRise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, "^bLet My people go, that they may serve Me.

14 "For this time I will send all My plagues ¹on you and your servants and your people, so that ^ayou may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

15 "For ⁱf by now I had put forth My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, you would then have been cut off from the earth.

16 "But, indeed, ^afor this cause I have allowed you to ¹remain, in order to show you My power, and in order to proclaim My name through all the earth.

17 "Still you exalt yourself against My people ¹by not letting them go.

18 "Behold, about this time tomorrow, ^aI will ¹send a very heavy hail, such as has not been seen in Egypt from the day it was founded ²until now.

19 "Now therefore send, bring ^ayour livestock and whatever you have in the field to safety. ^bEvery man and beast that is found in the field and is not brought home, when the hail comes down on them, will die." "

20 ^aThe one among the servants of Pharaoh who ¹feared the word of the LORD made his servants and his livestock flee into the houses;

21 but he who ¹paid no regard to the word of the LORD ²left his servants and his livestock in the field.

22 ¹ Now the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that ¹hail may fall on all the land of Egypt, on man and on beast and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."

23 And Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, and the LORD ¹sent ²thunder and ^ahail, and fire ran down to the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire ¹flashing continually in the midst of the hail, very severe, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And ^athe hail struck all that was in the field through all the land of Egypt, both man and beast; the hail also struck every plant of the field and shattered every tree of the field.

26 ^aOnly in the land of Goshen, where the sons of Israel were, there was no hail.

27 ¹ Then Pharaoh ¹sent for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "^bI have sinned this time; the LORD is the righteous one, and I and my people are the wicked ones.

28 "^aMake supplication to the LORD, for there has been enough of God's ¹thunder and hail; and ^bI will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."

29 And Moses said to him, "As soon as I go out of the city, I will ^aspread out my ¹hands to the LORD; the ²thunder will cease,

6 'Then ^ayour houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, ^{something} which neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day that they ¹came upon the earth until this day.' " And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And ^aPharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be ^aa snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not ¹realize that Egypt is destroyed?"

8 So Moses and Aaron ^awere brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "^bGo, serve the LORD your God! 'Who are the ones that are going?'"

9 And Moses said, "^aWe shall go with our young and our old; with our sons and our daughters, ^bwith our flocks and our herds we will go, for we ¹must hold a feast to the LORD."

10 Then he said to them, "Thus may the LORD be with you, ¹if ever I let you and your little ones go! Take heed, for evil is ²in your mind.

11 "Not so! Go now, the men ^{among} you, and serve the LORD, for ¹that is what you desire." So ^athey were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "^aStretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and ^beat every plant of the land, even all that the hail has left."

13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD directed an east wind on the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled in all the territory of Egypt; they were very numerous. There had never been so many locusts, nor would there be so many again.

15 For they covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Thus nothing green was left on tree or plant of the field through all the land of Egypt.

16 Then Pharaoh hurriedly called for Moses and Aaron, and he said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

17 Now therefore, please forgive my sin only this once, and make supplication to the LORD your God, that He would only remove this death from me."

18 And he went out from Pharaoh and made supplication to the LORD.

19 So the LORD shifted the wind to a very strong west wind which took up the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not one locust was left in all the territory of Egypt.

20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go.

21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even a darkness which may be felt."

22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.

23 They did not see one another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days, but all the sons of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24 Then Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, "Go, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be detained. Even your little ones may go with you."

25 But Moses said, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice them to the LORD our God.

26 Therefore, our livestock, too, will go with us; not a hoof will be left behind, for we shall take some of them to serve the LORD our God. And until we arrive there, we ourselves do not know with what we shall serve the LORD."

27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

28 Then Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Beware, do not see my face again, for in the day you see my face you shall die!"

29 And Moses said, "You are right; I shall never see your face again!"

CHAPTER 11

NOW the LORD said to Moses, "One more plague I will bring on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely drive you out from here completely.

2 Speak now in the hearing of the people that each man ask from his neighbor and each woman from her neighbor for articles of silver and articles of gold."

3 And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Furthermore, the man Moses himself was greatly esteemed in the land of Egypt, both in the sight of Pharaoh's servants and in the sight of the people.

10 And ^aMoses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; yet ^bthe LORD ¹hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the sons of Israel go out of his land.

7 'Moreover, they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel ¹of the houses in which they eat it.

8 'And they shall eat the flesh ^athat same night, ^bbroasted with fire, and they shall eat it with ^cunleavened bread ¹and bitter herbs.

11 'Now you shall eat it in this manner: with your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste—it is ^athe LORD's Passover.

12 'For ^aI will go through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike down all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and ^bagainst all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments—^cI am the LORD.

13 'And ^athe blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you ¹live; and when I see the blood I will pass over you, and no

28 Then the sons of Israel went and did so; just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

29 ¶ Now it came about at ^amidnight that ^bthe LORD struck all ^cthe first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the first-born of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the first-born of ^dcattle.

32 "Take ^aboth your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and bless me also."

33 And ^athe Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, "We shall all be dead."

34 So the people took ^atheir dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls bound up in the clothes on their shoulders.

35 ^aNow the sons of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, for they had requested from the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing;

36 and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have their request. Thus they ^aplundered the Egyptians.

37 ¶ Now the ^asons of Israel journeyed from ^bRameses to Succoth, about ^csix hundred thousand men on foot, aside from children.

38 And a ^amixed multitude also went up with them, ¹along with flocks and herds, a ^bvery large number of livestock.

39 And they baked the dough which they had brought out of Egypt into cakes of unleavened bread. For it had not become leavened, since they were ^adriven out of Egypt and could not delay, nor had they ¹prepared any provisions for themselves.

42 ^aIt is a night ¹to be observed for the LORD for having brought them out from the land of Egypt; this night is for the LORD, ¹to be observed ²by all the sons of Israel throughout their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of ^athe Passover: no ^{1b}foreigner is to eat of it;

44 but every man's ^aslave purchased with money, after you have circumcised him, then he may eat of it.

45 ^aA sojourner or a hired servant shall not eat of it.

46 "It is to be eaten in a single house; you are not to bring forth any of the flesh outside of the house, ^anor are you to break any bone of it.

47 ^aAll the congregation of Israel are to ¹celebrate this.

48 "But ^aif a ¹stranger sojourns with you, and ²celebrates the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near to ³celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat of it.

49 ^aThe same law shall ²apply to the native as to the ³stranger who sojourns among you."

50 Then all the sons of Israel did so; they did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

51 And it came about on that same day that ^athe LORD brought the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt ^{1b}by their hosts.

both of man and beast; it belongs to Me."

3 ¶ And Moses said to the people, "Remember this day in which you went out from Egypt, from the house of ¹slavery; for ^bby ^{2a} a powerful hand the LORD brought you out from this place. ^cAnd nothing leavened shall be eaten.

4 "On this day in the ^amonth of Abib, you are about to go forth.

5 "And it shall be when the LORD ^abrings you to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, which ^bHe swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, ^cthat you shall ¹observe this rite in this month.

6 "For ^aseven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 "Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and ^anothing leavened shall be seen ¹among you, nor shall any leaven be seen ¹among you in all your borders.

8 "And you shall tell your son on that day, saying, 'It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

9 "And ^ait shall ¹serve as a sign to you on your hand, and as a reminder ²on your forehead, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with ^aa powerful hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

10 "Therefore, you shall ^akeep this ordinance at its appointed time from ¹year to year.

11 ¶ Now it shall come about when ^athe LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanite, as ^bHe swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you,

12 that ^ayou shall ¹devote to the LORD the first ²offspring of every womb, and ³the first offspring of every beast that you own; the males belong to the LORD.

13 "But ^aevery first ¹offspring of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and ^bevery first-born of man among your sons you shall redeem.

14 "And it shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' then you shall say to him, ^bWith a ¹powerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of ²slavery.

15 And it came about, when Pharaoh was stubborn about letting us go, that the ^aLORD killed every first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man and the first-born of beast. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD the males, the first ¹offspring of every womb, but every first-born of my sons I redeem."

16 "So ^ait shall ¹serve as a sign on your hand, and as ²phylacteries ³on your forehead, for with a ^apowerful hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

17 ¶ Now it came about when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, even though it was near, for God said, "Lest the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt."

18 Hence God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the ¹Red Sea; and the sons of Israel went up ^ain martial array from the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took ^athe bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear, saying, "God shall surely ¹take care of you; and you shall carry my bones from here with you."

20 Then they set out from ^aSuccoth and camped in Etham on the edge of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 14

NOW the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.

2 "Tell the sons of Israel to turn back and camp before ^aPi-hahiroth, between ^bMigdol and the sea; you shall camp in front of Baal-zephon, opposite it, by the sea.

3 "For Pharaoh will say of the sons of Israel, 'They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.'

4 "Thus ^aI will ¹harden Pharaoh's heart, and ^bhe will chase after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and all his army, and ^cthe Egyptians will know that I am the LORD." And they did so.

5 ^a When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, ¹Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?"

6 So he made his chariot ready and took his people with him;

7 and he took six hundred select chariots, and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

8 And ^athe LORD ¹hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he chased after the sons of Israel as the sons of Israel were going out ^{2b}boldly.

9 Then ^athe Egyptians chased after them with all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen and his army, and they overtook them camping by the sea, ^bbeside Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

10 ^a And as Pharaoh drew near, the sons of Israel ¹looked, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they became very frightened; ^aso the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD.

11 Then ^athey said to Moses, "Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this way, ¹bringing us out of Egypt?"

12 ^a "Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

13 But Moses said to the people, ^a "Do not fear! ¹Stand by and see ^bthe salvation of the LORD which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again forever.

14 ^a "The LORD will fight for you while ^byou keep silent."

15 ^a Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward.

19 And ^athe angel of God, who had been going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

20 So it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud ¹along with the darkness, yet it gave light at night. Thus the one did not come near the other all night.

21 ^aThen Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD ¹swept the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into ^bdry land, so ^cthe waters were divided.

22 ^aAnd the sons of Israel ¹went through the midst of the sea on the dry land, and ^bthe waters were like a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

23 Then ^athe Egyptians took up the pursuit, and all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots and his horsemen went in after them into the midst of the sea.

24 And it came about at the morning watch, that ^athe LORD looked down on the ¹army of the Egyptians ²through the pillar of fire and cloud and brought the ¹army of the Egyptians into confusion.

25 And He ¹caused their chariot wheels to swerve, and He made them drive with difficulty; so the Egyptians said, "Let ²us flee from Israel, ^afor the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians."

26 ^aThen the LORD said to Moses, "^aStretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen."

daybreak, while the Egyptians were fleeing ¹right into it; then the LORD ^{2b}overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, ¹even Pharaoh's entire army that had gone into the sea after them; ^anot even one of them remained.

29 But the sons of Israel walked on ^adry land through the midst of the sea, and the waters were like a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

30 ^aThus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel ^bsaw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

31 And when Israel saw the great ¹power which the LORD had ²used against the Egyptians, the people ³feared the LORD, and ^athey believed in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

CHAPTER 15

^aTHEN Moses and the sons of Israel sang this song to the LORD, ¹and said, ^{2b}¹ will sing to the LORD, for He ³is highly exalted; ^cThe horse and its rider He has hurled into the sea.

2 ¹^aThe LORD is my strength and song,

And He has become my salvation;

^bThis is my God, and I will praise Him;

^cMy father's God, and I will ^dextol Him.

3 ^a^aThe LORD is a warrior;

^{1b}The LORD is His name.

4 ^a^aPharaoh's chariots and his army He has cast into the sea;

And the choicest of his officers are ¹drowned in the ²Red Sea.

4 ¶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, ^aI will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may ^btest them, whether or not they will walk in My ¹instruction.

5 "And it will come about ^aon the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily."

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the sons of Israel, "At evening ¹you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt;

7 and in the morning ¹you will see ^athe glory of the LORD, for ^bHe hears your grumblings against the LORD; and ^cwhat are we, that you grumble against us?"

9 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, ^aCome near before the LORD, for He has heard your grumblings."

10 And it came about as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the sons of Israel, that they ¹looked toward the wilderness, and behold, ^athe glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

14 ^aWhen the layer of dew ¹evaporated, behold, on the ²surface of the wilderness ^bthere was a fine flake-like thing, fine as the frost on the ground.

15 When the sons of Israel saw it, they said to one another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, "It is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.

16 "This is ¹what the LORD has commanded, 'Gather of it every man ²as much as he should eat; you shall take ³an omer apiece according to the number of persons each of you has in his tent.' "

17 And the sons of Israel did so, and some gathered much and some little.

18 When they measured it with an omer, ^ahe who had gathered much had no excess, and he who had gathered little had no lack; every man gathered ¹as much as he should eat.

19 And Moses said to them, "Let no man leave any of it until morning."

20 But they did not listen to Moses, and some left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul; and Moses was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it morning by morning, every man ¹as much as he should eat; but when the sun grew hot, it would melt.

22 ¶ ^aNow it came about on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. When all the ^bleaders of the congregation came and told Moses,

23 then he said to them, "This is what the LORD ¹meant: ^aTo-morrow is a sabbath observance, a holy sabbath to the LORD.

26 "Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the sabbath, there will be ¹none."

27 And it came about on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather, but they found none.

28 Then the LORD said to Moses, "How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My ¹instructions?

29 "See, ¹the LORD has given you the sabbath; therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Remain every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day."

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

33 And Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar and put an omerful of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations."

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before ^athe Testimony, to be kept.

35 ^aAnd the sons of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land; they ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 17

THEN all the congregation of the sons of Israel journeyed by ¹stages from the wilderness of ^aSin, according to the ²command of the LORD, and camped at ^bRephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Therefore the people ^aquarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water that we may drink." And Moses said to them, "^bWhy do you quarrel with me? ^cWhy do you test the LORD?"

3 But the people thirsted there for water; and ¹they ^agrumbled against Moses and said, "Why, now, have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill ²us and ³our children and ⁴our livestock with thirst?"

4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "What shall I do to this people? A ^alittle more and they will stone me."

5 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pass before the people and take with you some of ^athe elders of Israel; and take in your hand your staff with which ^byou struck the Nile, and go.

6 "Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at ^aHoreb; and ^byou shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

I will station myself on the top of the hill with ^bthe staff of God in my hand."

10 And Joshua did as Moses ¹told him, ²and fought against Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and ^aHur went up to the top of the hill.

11 So it came about when Moses held his hand up, that Israel prevailed, and when he let his hand ¹down, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy. Then they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur ^asupported his hands, one on one side and one on the other. Thus his hands were steady until the sun set.

13 So Joshua ¹overwhelmed Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 ^aThen the LORD said to Moses, "^aWrite this in ^{1a}a book as a memorial, and ²recite it to Joshua, ³that ^bI will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."

15 And Moses built an ^aaltar, and named it ^bThe LORD is My Banner;

16 and he said, "^{1a}The LORD has sworn; the LORD will have war against Amalek from generation to generation."

CHAPTER 18

NOW ^aJethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel His people, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Moses' wife ^aZipporah, after he had sent her away.

3 and her ^atwo sons, of whom ¹one was named Gershom, for he said, "I have been ^aa ²sojourner in a foreign land."

4 And ¹the other was named ^{2a}Eliezer, for he said, ^b"The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh."

5 Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses ¹in the wilderness where he was camped, at ^athe mount of God.

6 And he ¹sent word to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her."

7 Then Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and ^ahe bowed down and ^bkissed him; and they ^casked each other of their welfare, and went into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians ^afor Israel's sake, all the ^bhardship that had befallen them on the journey, and how ^cthe LORD had delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced over all ^athe goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, ¹in delivering ²them from the hand of the Egyptians.

10 So Jethro said, ^a"Blessed be the LORD who delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and who delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians."

11 "Now I know that ^athe LORD is greater than all the gods; ¹indeed, ^bit was proven when they dealt proudly against ²the people."

12 ^aThen Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat ¹a meal with Moses' father-in-law before God.

13 ¶ And it came about the next day that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood about Moses from the morning until the evening.

14 Now when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge and all the people stand about you from morning until evening?"

15 And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me ^ato inquire of God."

16 "When they have a ^{1a}dispute, it comes to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and make known the statutes of God and His laws."

17 And Moses' father-in-law said to him, "The thing that you are doing is not good."

18 ^a"You will surely wear out, both yourself and ¹these people who are with you, for the ²task is too heavy for you; ^byou cannot do it alone."

24 ¶ So Moses listened ¹to his father-in-law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose ^aable men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, leaders of thousands, ¹of hundreds, ¹of fifties and ¹of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all times; ^athe difficult ¹dispute they would bring to Moses, but every minor ¹dispute they themselves would judge.

27 Then Moses ¹bade his father-in-law farewell, and he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER 19

^uIN the third month after the sons of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, ¹on that very day they came into the wilderness of ^bSinai.

2 When they set out from ^aRephidim, they came to the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; and there Israel camped in front of ^bthe mountain.

3 And Moses went up to God, and ^athe LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the sons of Israel:

4 ^a"You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on ^bbeagles' wings, and brought you to Myself.

8 ^aAnd all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do!" And Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

9 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I shall come to you in ^aa thick cloud, in order that the ^bpeople may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe in you forever." Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

10 The LORD also said to Moses, "Go to the people and ^aconsecrate them today and tomorrow, and let them ^bwash their garments;

11 and let them be ready for the third day, for on ^athe third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people, and they washed their garments.

15 And he said to the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman."

16 ¶ ^aSo it came about on the third day, when it was morning, that there were ¹thunder and lightning flashes and a thick cloud upon the mountain and a very loud trumpet sound, so that 18 ^aNow Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it ^bin fire; and its smoke ascended like ^cthe smoke of a furnace, and ^dthe whole mountain ¹quaked violently.

19 When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and ^aGod answered him with ¹thunder.

20 ^aAnd the LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain; and the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Go down, ¹warn the people, lest ^athey break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them ²perish.

22 ^aAnd also let the ^apriests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them."

23 And Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for Thou didst ¹warn us, saying, ^a'Set bounds about the mountain and consecrate it.'"

24 Then the LORD said to him, ¹"Go down and come up again, ^ayou and Aaron with you; but do not let the ^bpriests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest He break forth upon them."

25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

CHAPTER 24

THEN He said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, ^bNadab and Abihu and ^cseventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship at a distance.

2 "Moses alone, however, shall come near to the LORD, but they shall not come near, nor shall the people come up with him."

3 Then Moses came and recounted to the people all the words of the LORD and all the ¹ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which the LORD has spoken we will do!"

4 And ^aMoses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Then he arose early in the morning, and built an ^baltar ¹at the foot of the mountain with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the sons of Israel, ^aand they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD.

6 And ^aMoses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and the other half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 Then he took ^athe book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient!"

8 So ^aMoses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "Behold ^bthe blood of the covenant, which the LORD has ¹made with you ²in accordance with all these words."

9 ¶ Then Moses went up ¹with Aaron, ^aNadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel,

10 and ^athey saw the God of Israel; and under His feet ¹there appeared to be a pavement of sapphire, ²as clear as the sky itself.

18 "And you shall offer up in smoke the whole ram on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD: ^ait is a soothing aroma, an offering by fire to the LORD.

19 "Then ^ayou shall take the ¹other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram.

20 "And you shall slaughter the ram, and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the lobes of his sons' right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet, and sprinkle the ^arest of the blood around on the altar.

21 "Then you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the ^aanointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments, and on his sons and on his sons' garments with him; so he and his garments shall be consecrated, as well as his sons and his sons' garments with him.

22 "You shall also take the fat from the ram and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails and the ¹lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ²ordination),

25 "And ^ayou shall take them from their hands, and offer them up in smoke on the altar on the burnt offering for a soothing aroma before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

26 ¶ "Then you shall take ^athe breast of Aaron's ram of ¹ordination, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

27 "And you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the heave offering which was waved and which was ¹offered from the ram of ²ordination, from the one which was for Aaron and from the one which was for his sons.

28 "And it shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the sons of Israel, for it is a heave offering; and it shall be a heave offering from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their heave offering to the LORD.

29 ¶ "And ^athe holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, ¹that in them they may be anointed and ordained.

10 "And Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once a year; he shall make atonement on it with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once a year throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD."

11 ¶ The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying,

12 "When you take a census of the sons of Israel to number them, then each one of them shall give a ransom for himself to the LORD, when you number them, that there may be no plague among them when you number them.

13 "This is what everyone who is numbered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as a contribution to the LORD.

14 "Everyone who is numbered, from twenty years old and over, shall give the contribution to the LORD.

15 "The rich shall not pay more, and the poor shall not pay less than the half shekel, when you give the contribution to the LORD to make atonement for yourselves.

16 "And you shall take the atonement money from the sons of Israel, and shall give it for the service of the tent of meeting, that it may be a memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD, to

17 ¶ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

21 "So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they may not die; and ^ait shall be a perpetual statute for them, for ¹Aaron and his ²descendants throughout their generations."

22 ¶ Moreover, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

^a NOW the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "See, I have called by name Bezalel, the ^ason of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

3 "And I have ^afilled him with the Spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of ¹craftsmanship,

17 ³"It is a sign between Me and the sons of Israel forever; ⁴for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day He ceased ⁵from labor, and was refreshed."

18 ⁶And when He had finished speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, He gave Moses ⁷the two tablets of the testimony, tablets of stone, ⁸written by the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32

NOW when the people saw that Moses ¹delayed to come down from the mountain, the people assembled about Aaron, and said to him, "Come, ²make us ³a god who will go before us; as for ⁴this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

2 And Aaron said to them, ¹"Tear off the gold rings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring ²them to me."

3 Then all the people tore off the gold rings which were in their ears, and brought ¹them to Aaron.

4 And he took ¹this from their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, and made it into a ²molten calf; and they said, ³"This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

5 Now when Aaron saw ¹this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation and said, ²"Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD."

6 So the next day they rose early and ¹offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.

8 "They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt!'"

9 And the LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and behold, they are an obstinate people.

10 "Now then let Me alone, that My anger may burn against them, and that I may destroy them; and I will make of you a great nation."

11 Then Moses entreated the LORD his God, and said, "O LORD, why doth Thine anger burn against Thy people whom Thou hast brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

12 "Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, 'With evil intent He brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth'? Turn from Thy burning anger and change Thy mind about doing harm to Thy people.

13 "Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Thy servants to whom Thou didst swear by Thyself, and didst say to them, 'I will multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens, and all this land of which I have spoken I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'"

14 So the LORD changed His mind about the harm which He said He would do to His people.

15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets which were written on both sides; they were written on one side and the other.

16 And the tablets were God's work, and the writing was God's writing engraved on the tablets.

17 Now when Joshua heard the sound of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a sound of war in the camp."

18 But he said,

"It is not the sound of the cry of triumph,

Nor is it the sound of the cry of defeat;

But the sound of singing I hear."

19 And it came about, as soon as Moses came near the camp that he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses' anger burned, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.

20 And he took the calf which they had made and burned it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it over the surface of the water, and made the sons of Israel drink it.

21 Then Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought such great sin upon them?"

22 And Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn; you know the people yourself, that they are prone to evil.

23 "For they said to me, 'Make a god for us who will go before us; for this Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.'

24 "And I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them tear it off.' So they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."

25 Then now when Moses saw that the people were out of con-rol—for Aaron had ^alet them get out of control to be a derision among ³their enemies—

26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me!" And all the sons of Levi gathered together to him.

27 And he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Every man of you put his sword upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor."

28 So ^athe sons of Levi did ^{1a}as Moses instructed, and about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

29 Then Moses said, "Dedicate yourselves today to the LORD—for every man has been against his son and against his brother—in order that He may bestow a blessing upon you today."

30 ¶ And it came about on the next day that Moses said to the people, "You yourselves have committed a great sin; and now I am going up to the LORD, perhaps I can ^bmake atonement for your sin."

31 Then Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Alas, this people has ¹committed a great sin, and they have made ^{2a} a god of gold for themselves.

32 "But now, if Thou wilt, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out from Thy ^abook which Thou hast written!"

33 And the LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, ^aI will blot him out of My book.

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land of which ^aI swore to Abraham, ^bIsaac, and ^cJacob, saying, '^dTo your ¹descendants I will give it.'

3 "Go up to a land ^aflowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in your midst, because you are ^{1b}an obstinate people, lest ^cI destroy you on the way."

4 When the people heard this ¹sad word, ^athey went into mourning, and none of them put on his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the sons of Israel, 'You are ^{1a}an obstinate people; should I go up in your midst for one moment, I would destroy you. Now therefore, put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what I will do with you.'"

6 So the sons of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments from Mount Horeb onward.

7 ¶ Now Moses used to take ^athe tent and pitch it outside the camp, a good distance from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. And it came about, that ^beveryone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp.

8 And it came about, whenever Moses went out to the tent, that all the people would arise and stand, each at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses until he entered the tent.

9 And it came about, whenever Moses entered the tent, ^athe pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent; ^band ¹the LORD would speak with Moses.

10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would arise and worship, each at the entrance of his tent.

11 Thus ^athe LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When ¹Moses returned to the camp, ^bhis servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent.

12 ¶ Then Moses said to the LORD, "See, Thou dost say to me, '^aBring up this people!' But Thou Thyself hast not let me know ^bwhom Thou wilt send with me. ^cMoreover, Thou hast said, 'I have known you by name, and you have also found favor in My sight.'

13 "Now therefore, I pray Thee, if I have found favor in Thy sight, ^alet me know Thy ways, that I may know Thee, so that I may find favor in Thy sight. ^bConsider too, that this nation is Thy people."

14 And He said, "^aMy presence shall go with you, and ^bI will give you rest."

15 Then he said to Him, "^aIf Thy presence does not go with us, do not lead us up from here.

16 "For how then can it be known that I have found favor in Thy sight, I and Thy people? Is it not by Thy going with us, so that ^awe, I and Thy people, may be distinguished from all the other people who are upon the face of the ¹earth?"

17 ¶ And the LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing of which you have spoken; ^afor you have found favor in My sight, and I have known you by name."

19 And He said, "^aI Myself will make all My goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you and ^bI will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show compassion on whom I will show compassion."

20 But He said, "You cannot see My face, ^afor no man can see Me and live!"

21 Then the LORD said, "Behold, there is a place ¹by Me, and ^ayou shall stand there on the rock;

22 and it will come about while My glory is passing by that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and ^acover you with My hand until I have passed by.

CHAPTER 34

NOW the LORD said to Moses, "Cut out for yourself ^atwo stone tablets like the former ones, and ^bI will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered.

2 "So be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to ^aMount Sinai, and ¹present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain.

3 "And ^ano man is to come up with you, nor let any man be seen anywhere on the mountain even the flocks and the herd: may not graze in front of the mountain."

4 So he cut out ^atwo stone tablets like the former ones, and Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, and he took two stone tablets in his hand.

5 And ^athe LORD descended in the cloud and stood there with him as ¹he called upon the name of the LORD.

6 Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, ^acompassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in loving-kindness and ¹truth;

7 who ^akeeps lovingkindness for thousands, who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He ^bwill by no means leave the guilty unpunished, ^cvisiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations."

8 And Moses made haste ^{1a}to bow low toward the earth and worship.

9 And he said, "If now I have found favor in Thy sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go along in our midst, even though ^{1b}the people are so obstinate; and do Thou ^cpardon our iniquity and our sin, and ^dtake us as Thine own ²possession."

10 ¶ Then ¹God said, "Behold, I am going to make a covenant. Before all your people ¹I will perform miracles which have not been ²produced in all the earth, nor among any of the nations; and all the people ³among whom you live will see the working of the LORD, for it is a fearful thing that I am going to perform with you.

11 "Be sure to observe what I am commanding you this day: behold, ^aI am going to drive out the Amorite before you, and the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite.

12 "Watch yourself that you make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land into which you are going, lest it become a snare in your midst.

27 ¶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write ¹down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made ^ba covenant with you and with Israel."

28 So he was there with the LORD ^aforty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread or drink water. And ^bhe wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, ^cthe Ten ¹Commandments.

29 ¶ And it came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai (and the ^atwo tablets of the testimony were in Moses' hand as he was coming down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that ^bthe skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him.

30 So when Aaron and all the sons of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and ^athey were afraid to come near him.

31 Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers in the congregation returned to him; and Moses spoke to them.

32 And afterward all the sons of Israel came near, and he commanded them to do everything that the LORD had spoken ¹to him on Mount Sinai.

34 But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, ^ahe would take off the veil until he came out; and whenever he came out and spoke to the sons of Israel what he had been commanded, 35 ^athe sons of Israel would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. So Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

CHAPTER 35

THEN Moses assembled all the congregation of the sons of Israel, and said to them, "These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to ¹do.

2 "For six days work may be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy day, ^aa sabbath of complete rest to the LORD; ^cwhoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

3 "You shall not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the sabbath day."

4 ¶ And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying,

5 "Take from among you a ¹contribution to the LORD; whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as the LORD's ¹contribution: gold, silver, and ²bronze,

6 and ¹blue, purple and scarlet material, fine linen, goats' hair,

24 Everyone who could make a ¹contribution of silver and ²bronze brought the LORD's ¹contribution; and every man, ³who had in his possession acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.

29 The ¹Israelites, all the men and women, whose heart ²moved them to bring material for all the work, which the LORD had commanded through Moses to be done, brought a ¹freewill offering to the LORD.

30 "Then Moses said to the sons of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

35 "He has filled them with ¹skill to perform every work of an engraver and of a designer and of an embroiderer, in ²blue and in purple and in scarlet material, and in fine linen, and of a weaver, as performers of every work and makers of designs.

CHAPTER 36

“NOW Bezalel and Oholiab, and every ¹skillful person in whom the LORD has put ²skill and understanding to know how to perform all the work ³in the construction of the sanctuary, shall perform in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded.”

2 Then Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every ¹skillful person in ²whom the LORD had put ³skill, ^aeveryone whose heart stirred him, to come to the work to perform it.

3 And they received from Moses all the ¹contributions which the sons of Israel had brought ²to perform the work ³in the construction of the sanctuary. And they still continued bringing to him freewill offerings every morning.

4 And all the ¹skillful men who were performing all the work of the sanctuary came, each from ²the work which ³he was performing.

5 and they said to ¹Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for the ²construction work which the LORD commanded us to ³perform.”

6 So Moses issued a command, and a ¹proclamation was circulated throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman any longer perform work for the ²contributions of the sanctuary.” Thus the people were restrained from bringing any more.

ing the work made the ²tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twisted linen and ³blue and purple and scarlet material, with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman, ⁴Bezalel made them.

9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight ¹cubits, and the width of each curtain four ¹cubits; all the curtains had ²the same measurements.

10 And he ¹joined five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he ¹joined to one another.

11 And he made loops of ¹blue on the edge of the ²outermost curtain in the first ³set; he did likewise on the edge of the curtain that was ²outermost in the second ³set.

13 And he made ^afifty clasps of gold, and ¹joined the curtains to one another with the clasps, so the tabernacle was ²a unit.

14 ¶ Then ^ahe made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains ¹in all.

15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the width of each curtain; the eleven curtains had ¹the same measurements.

16 And he ¹joined five curtains by themselves, and the other six curtains by themselves.

17 Moreover, he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the first ¹set, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was outermost in the second ¹set.

18 And he made fifty clasps of ¹bronze to ²join the tent together, that it might be ³a unit.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins ¹died red, and a covering of porpoise skins above.

20 ¶ Then he made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing upright.

21 Ten cubits was the length of each board, and one and a half cubits the width of each board.

22 There were two tenons for each board, fitted to one another; thus he did for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side;

24 and he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

25 Then for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, 26 and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the rear of the tabernacle, to the west, he made six boards.

28 And he made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle at the rear.

29 And they were double beneath, and together they were complete to its top to the first ring; thus he did with both of them for the two corners.

30 And there were eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two under every board.

31 ¶ Then he made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle, 32 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the rear side to the west.

33 And he made the middle bar to pass through in the center of the boards from end to end.

gold as holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ Moreover, he made the veil of blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen; he made it with cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.

36 And he made four pillars of acacia for it, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold; and he cast four sockets of silver for them.

37 And he made a screen for the doorway of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, the work of a weaver;

38 and he made its five pillars with their hooks, and he overlaid their tops and their bands with gold; but their five sockets were of bronze.

CHAPTER 37

NOW Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; its length was two and a half cubits, and its width one and a half cubits, and its height one and a half cubits;

2 and he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a gold molding for it all around.

3 And he cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet; even two rings on one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it.

4 And he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry it.

6 And he made a mercy seat of pure gold, two and a half cubits long, and one and a half cubits wide.

7 And he made two cherubim of gold; he made them of hammered work, at the two ends of the mercy seat;

8 one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end; he made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat ¹at the two ends.

9 And the cherubim had their wings spread upward, covering the ¹mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward each other; the faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

10 ⁶ Then he made the table of acacia wood, two ¹cubits ²long and a cubit ³wide and one and a half cubits ⁴high.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding for it all around.

12 And he made a rim for it of a handbreadth all around, and made a gold molding for its rim all around.

13 And he cast four gold rings for it and put the rings on the four corners that were on its four feet.

14 Close by the rim were the rings, the holders for the poles to carry the table.

15 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.

16 And he made the utensils which were on the table, its ¹dishes and its pans and its ²bowls and its jars, with which to pour out libations, of pure gold.

17 ⁹ Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work, its base and its shaft; its cups, its ¹bulbs and its flowers were of one piece with it.

18 And there were six branches going out of its sides; three branches of the lampstand from the one side of it, and three branches of the lampstand from the ¹other side of it;

19 three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ¹bulb and a flower in one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, a ¹bulb and a flower in the other branch—so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

20 And in the lampstand there were four cups shaped like al-

21 and a ¹bulb was under the first pair of branches coming out of it, and a ¹bulb under the second pair of branches coming out of it, and a ¹bulb under the third pair of branches coming out of it for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

22 Their ¹bulbs and their branches were of one piece with it; the whole of it was a single hammered work of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps with its snuffers and its ¹trays of pure gold.

24 He made it and all its utensils from a talent of pure gold.

25 ⁹ Then he made the altar of incense of acacia wood: a cubit ¹long and a cubit ²wide square, and two cubits ³high; its horns were of one piece with it.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, its top and its ¹sides all around, and its horns; and he made a gold molding for it all around.

27 And he made two golder rings for it under its molding, or its two sides—on opposite sides—as holders for poles with which to carry it.

28 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

29 ⁶ And he made the holy anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense of spices, the work of a perfumer.

CHAPTER 38

^a THEN he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, five ¹cubits ²long, and five cubits ³wide, square, and three cubits ⁴high.

2 And he made its horns on its four corners, its horns ¹being of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with ²bronze.

3 And he made all the utensils of the altar, the pails and the shovels and the basins, the flesh hooks and the firepans; he made all its utensils of bronze.

4 And he made for the altar a grating of bronze network beneath, under its ledge, reaching halfway up.

5 And he cast four rings on the four ends of the bronze grating as holders for the poles.

6 And he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

7 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

8 * Moreover, he made the laver of bronze with its base of bronze, ¹from the mirrors of the serving women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

9 * Then he made the court: ¹for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits;

10 their twenty pillars, and their twenty ¹sockets, made of bronze; the hooks of the pillars and their ²bands were of silver.

11 And for the north side there were one hundred cubits; their twenty pillars and their twenty ¹sockets were of bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their ²bands were of silver.

12 And for the west side there were hangings of fifty cubits with their ten pillars and their ten ¹sockets; the hooks of the pillars and their ²bands were of silver.

13 And for the ¹east side fifty cubits.

14 The hangings for the one ¹side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three ²sockets.

15 and so for the ¹other ²side. ¹On both sides of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three ⁴sockets.

16 All the hangings of the court all around were of fine twisted linen.

17 And the ¹sockets for the pillars were of ²bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their ³bands, of silver; and the overlaying of their tops, of silver. And all the pillars of the court were furnished with silver ³bands.

18 And the screen of the gate of the court was the work of the ¹weaver, of ²blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen. And the length was twenty cubits and the ³height was five cubits, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

19 And their four pillars and their four ¹sockets were of bronze; their hooks were of silver, and the overlaying of their tops and their ²bands were of silver.

20 And all the pegs of the ¹tabernacle and of the court all around were of bronze.

21 * This is the number of the things for the ²tabernacle, the ²tabernacle of the testimony, as they were ³numbered according to the ⁴command of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

22 Now *Bezalel, the son of Uri the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the Lord had commanded Moses.

23 And with him was *Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skillful workman and a ¹weaver in ²blue and in purple and in scarlet material, and fine linen.

24 * All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the wave offering, was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to ⁴the shekel of the sanctuary.

27 And the hundred talents of silver were for casting the ¹sockets of the sanctuary and the ¹sockets of the veil; one hundred ¹sockets for the hundred talents, a talent for a ¹socket.

28 And of the 1,775 shekels, he made hooks for the pillars and overlaid their tops and made ¹bands for them.

29 And the bronze of the wave offering was 70 talents, and 2,400 shekels.

30 And with it he made the ¹sockets to the doorway of the tent of meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the utensils of the altar,

MOREOVER, from the ¹blue and purple and scarlet material, they made finely ^bwoven garments for ministering in the holy place, ²as well as the holy garments which were for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

2 ^aAnd he made the ephod of gold, and of ¹blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen.

3 Then they hammered out gold sheets and cut them into threads ¹to be woven in with the ²blue and the purple and the scarlet material, and the fine linen, the work of a skillful workman.

4 They made attaching shoulder pieces for ¹the ephod; it was attached at its two upper ends

5 And the skillfully woven band which was on it was like ¹workmanship, ¹of the same material: of gold and of ²blue and purple and scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

6 ^aAnd ^athey made the onyx stones, set in gold filigree settings; they were engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

7 And ^ahe placed them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

8 ^aAnd he made the breastpiece, the work of a skillful workman, like the workmanship of the ephod: of gold and of ¹blue and purple and scarlet material and fine twisted linen.

9 It was square; they made the breastpiece folded double, span ¹long and a span ²wide when folded double.

10 And they ¹mounted four rows of stones on it. The first row was a row of ruby, topaz, and emerald;

11 and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire and a diamond;

12 and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They were set in gold filigree settings where they were ¹mounted.

14 And the stones were corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were twelve corresponding to their names engraved with the engravings of a signet, each with its name for the twelve tribes.

15 And they made on the breastpiece chains like cords, of twisted cordage work in pure gold.

Making the Priestly Garments.

16 And they made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastpiece.

17 Then they put the two gold cords in the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

18 And they put the other two ends of the two cords on the two filigree settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

19 And they made two gold rings and placed them on the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inner edge which was next to the ephod.

20 Furthermore, they made two gold rings and placed them on the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, on the front of it, close to the place where it joined, above the woven band of the ephod.

21 And they bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, that it might be on the woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece might not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Then he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue;

23 and the opening of the robe was at the top in the center, as the opening of a coat of mail, with a binding all around its opening, that it might not be torn.

24 And they made pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet material and twisted linen on the hem of the robe.

25 They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the hem of the robe.

26 Alternating a bell and a pomegranate all around on the hem of the robe, for the service, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

27 ¶ And they made the tunics of finely woven linen for Aaron and his sons.

28 and the turban of fine linen, and the decorated caps of fine linen, and the linen breeches of fine twisted linen.

29 and the sash of fine twisted linen, and blue and purple and scarlet material, the work of the weaver, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and inscribed it like the engravings of a signet, "Holy to the LORD."

31 And they fastened a blue cord to it, to fasten it on the turban above, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was completed; and the sons of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

33 And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars and its sockets;

34 and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of porpoise skins, and the screening veil;

35 the ark of the testimony and its poles and the mercy seat;

36 the table, all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

37 the pure gold lampstand, with its arrangement of lamps and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

38 and the gold altar, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the veil for the doorway of the tent;

39 the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the laver and its stand;

40 the hangings for the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords and its pegs and all the ²equipment for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

41 the woven garments for ministering in the holy place and the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.

42 So the sons of Israel did all the work according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

43 And Moses ¹examined all the work and behold, they had done it; just as the LORD had commanded, this they had done. So Moses ^ablessed them.

CHAPTER 40

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.

16 Thus Moses did; according to all that the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

17 ¶ Now it came about ^ain the first month ¹of the second year on the first day of the month, that the ²tabernacle was erected.

18 And Moses erected the tabernacle and ¹laid its ²sockets and set up its boards, and ¹inserted its bars and erected its pillars.

14 ^a "Now this is the law of the grain offering: the sons of Aaron shall present it before the LORD in front of the altar.

15 ^a "Then one of them shall lift up from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, ¹with its oil and all the incense that is on the grain offering, and he shall offer it up in smoke on the altar, a soothing aroma, as its memorial offering to the LORD.

16 ^aAnd what is left of it Aaron and his sons are to eat. It shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; they are to eat it in the court of the tent of meeting.

17 ^aIt shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their share from My offerings by fire; ^bit is most holy, like the sin offering and ^cthe guilt offering.

18 ^aEvery male among the sons of Aaron may eat it; it is a permanent ordinance throughout your generations, from the offerings by fire to the LORD. ^bWhoever touches them shall become consecrated.' "

19 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

20 "This is the offering which Aaron and his sons are to present to the LORD on the day when he is anointed; the tenth of an ^aephah of fine flour as ^ba ¹regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

21 "It shall be prepared with oil on a ^agriddle. When it is well stirred, you shall bring it. You shall present the grain offering in baked pieces as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

22 "And the anointed priest who will be in his place ¹among his sons shall ²offer it. By a permanent ordinance it shall be entirely offered up in smoke to the LORD.

23 "So every grain offering of the priest shall be burned entirely. It shall not be eaten."

24 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

25 "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, 'This is the law of the sin offering: ^ain the place where the burnt offering is slain the sin offering shall be slain before the LORD; it is most holy.

26 ^aThe priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tent of meeting.

CHAPTER 7

^aNOW this is the law of the ^aguilt offering; it is most holy.

2 ^aIn ^athe place where they slay the burnt offering they are to slay the guilt offering, and he shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar.

3 ^aThen he shall offer from it all its fat: the ^afat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,

4 and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the lobe on the liver he shall remove ^awith the kidneys.

5 ^aAnd the priest shall offer them up in smoke on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.

6 ^aEvery male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

7 ^aThe guilt offering is like the ^asin offering, there is one law for them; the ^bpriest who makes atonement with it ¹shall have it.

8 ^aAlso the priest who presents any man's burnt offering, ¹that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has presented.

9 ^aLikewise, every grain offering that is baked in the oven, and everything prepared in a ¹pan or on a ²griddle, ³shall belong to the priest who presents it.

10 ¹And every grain offering mixed with oil, or dry, shall ¹belong to all the sons of Aaron, ²to all alike.

11 ¹Now this is the law of the ¹sacrifice of peace offerings which shall be presented to the LORD.

12 ¹If he offers it by way of ¹thanksgiving, then along with the sacrifice of thanksgiving he shall offer ¹unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers ¹spread with oil, and cakes of well stirred fine flour mixed with oil.

13 ¹With the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving, he shall present his offering with cakes of ¹leavened bread.

14 ¹And of ¹this he shall present one of every offering as a ²contribution to the LORD; ⁴it shall ³belong to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings.

15 ¹Now as for the flesh of the sacrifice of his thanksgiving peace offerings, it shall be eaten on the day of his offering; he shall not leave any of it over until morning.

16 ¹But if the sacrifice of his offering is a ¹votive or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice; and on the ¹next day what is left of it may be eaten;

17 ¹but what is left over from the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned with fire.

18 ¹So if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings should ever be eaten on the third day, he who offers it shall not be accepted, and it shall not be reckoned to his benefit. It shall be an ¹offensive thing, and the person who eats of it shall bear his own iniquity.

28 ¹Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

30 ¹His own hands are to bring offerings by fire to the LORD. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the ¹breast may be ¹presented as a wave offering before the LORD.

32 'And you shall give ^athe right thigh to the priest as a ¹contribution from the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 'The one among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat, the right thigh shall be his as his portion.

34 'For I have taken ^athe breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the ¹contribution from the sons of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as their due forever from the sons of Israel.

35 ¶ 'This is ¹that which is consecrated to Aaron and ¹that ^awhich is consecrated to his sons from the offerings by fire to the LORD, in that day when he presented them to serve as priests to the LORD.

36 'These the LORD had commanded to be given them from the sons of Israel in the day that He ^aanointed them. It is their due forever throughout their generations.' "

37 ¶ This is the law of the burnt offering, the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering and ^athe ordination offering and the sacrifice of peace offerings,

3 and assemble all the congregation at the doorway of the tent of meeting."

4 So Moses did just as the LORD commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

5 Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to do."

6 ¶ Then ^aMoses had Aaron and his sons come near, and ^bwashed them with water.

7 And he ^aput the tunic on him and girded him with the sash, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him; and he girded him with the artistic band of the ephod, ¹with which he tied it to him.

8 He then placed the ¹breast-piece on him, and in the ¹breast-piece he put ^{2a}the Urim and the Thummim.

9 He also placed the turban on his head, and on the turban, at its front, he placed ^athe golden plate, the holy crown, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

10 ¶ Moses then took ^athe anointing oil and anointed the ¹tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.

11 And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, to ^aconsecrate them.

12 Then he poured some of the ^aanointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

13 ^aNext Moses had Aaron's sons come near and clothed them with tunics, and girded them with sashes, and bound ¹caps on them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

14 ¶ Then he brought ^athe bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.

15 Next ¹Moses slaughtered it and took the blood and with his finger ^aput some of it around on the horns of the altar, and purified the altar. Then he poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

16 He also ^atook all the fat that was on the entrails and the ¹lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat; and Moses offered it up in smoke on the altar.

17 ^aBut the bull and its hide and its flesh and its refuse, he burned in the fire outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

18 ¶ Then he presented ^athe ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

19 And ¹Moses slaughtered it and sprinkled the blood around on the altar.

20 When he had cut the ram into its pieces, Moses ^aoffered up the head and the pieces and the suet in smoke.

21 After he had washed the entrails and the legs with water, Moses ^aoffered up the whole ram in smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

22 ¶ Then he presented the second ram, ^athe ram of ¹ordination; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.

23 And ¹Moses slaughtered it and took some of its blood and ^aput it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

24 He also had Aaron's sons come near; and Moses put some of the blood on the lobe of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big

25 And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the ¹lobe of the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right thigh.

26 And ^afrom the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake and one cake of bread mixed with oil and one wafer, and placed them on the portions of fat and on the right thigh.

27 He then ^aput all these on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons, and presented them as a wave offering before the LORD.

28 Then Moses ^atook them from their hands and offered them up in smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. They were an ordination offering for ^ba soothing aroma; it was an offering by fire to the LORD.

29 Moses also took ^athe breast and presented it for a wave offering before the LORD; it was ^bMoses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

30 ¶ So Moses ^atook some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he consecrated Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

31 ¶ Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and eat it there together with the bread which is in the basket of the ordination offering, just as I commanded, ^bsaying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.'

32 "And ^athe remainder of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn in the fire.

33^a "And you shall not go outside the doorway of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day that the period of your ordination is fulfilled; for he will ¹ordain you through seven days.

34^a "The LORD has commanded to do as has been done this day, to make atonement on your behalf.

35^a "At the doorway of the tent of meeting, moreover, you shall remain day and night for seven days, and ^akeep the charge of the LORD, that you may not die, for so I have been commanded."

36 Thus Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD had commanded through Moses.

CHAPTER 9

NOW it came about ^aon the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel;

2 and he said to Aaron, "^aTake for yourself a calf, a bull, for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both without defect, and offer them before the LORD.

3 "Then to the sons of Israel you shall speak, saying, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both one year old, without defect, for a burnt offering,

4 and an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil; for today ^athe LORD shall appear to you.' "

5 So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the tent of meeting, and the whole congregation came near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD has commanded you to do, that ^athe glory of the LORD may appear to you."

7 Moses then said to Aaron, "Come near to the altar and ^{1a}offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, that you may 8 ¶ ^aSo Aaron came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering which was for himself.

9 ^aAnd Aaron's sons presented the blood to him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and ^bput some on the horns of the altar, and poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

10 The fat and the kidneys and the ¹lobe of the liver of the sin offering, he then offered up in smoke on the altar just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

12 ¶ Then he slaughtered the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar.

13 And they handed the burnt offering to him in ¹pieces with the head, and he offered them up in smoke on the altar.

14 He also washed the entrails and the legs, and offered them up in smoke with the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ Then he presented the people's offering, and took the ^agoat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slaughtered it and offered it for sin, like the first.

16 He also presented the burnt offering, and ¹offered it according to ^athe ordinance.

17 Next he presented ^athe grain offering, and filled his ¹hand with some of it and offered it up in smoke on the altar, ^bbesides the burnt offering of the morning.

18 ¶ Then ^ahe slaughtered the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings which was for the people; and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he sprinkled it around on the altar.

19 As for the portions of fat from the ox and from the ram, the fat tail, and the fat ^acovering, and the kidneys and the ¹lobe of the liver.

20 they now placed the portions of fat on the breasts; and he offered ¹them up in smoke on the altar.

21 But ^athe breasts and the right thigh Aaron ¹presented as a wave offering before the LORD, just as Moses had commanded.

22 ¶ Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and ^ablessed them, and he stepped down after making the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting. When they came out and blessed the people, ^athe glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

24 ^aThen fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the portions of fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER 10

NOW ^aNadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took their respective ^bfirepans, and after putting fire in them, placed incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He had not commanded them.

2 ^aAnd fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said to Aaron, "It is what the LORD spoke, saying,

'By those who ^acome near Me I ^{1b}will be treated as holy.

And before all the people I will ^cbe honored.' "

So Aaron, therefore, kept silent.

4 Moses called also to ^aMishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, "Come forward, carry your ¹relatives away from the front of the sanctuary to the outside of the camp."

5 So they came forward and carried them still in their ^atunics to the outside of the camp, as Moses had said.

6 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "^aDo not ¹uncover your heads nor tear your clothes, so that you may not die, and that He may not ^bbecome wrathful against all the congregation. But your ²kinsmen, the whole house of Israel, shall bewail the burning which the LORD has ³brought about.

7 "You shall not even go out from the doorway of the tent of meeting, lest you die; for ^athe LORD's anointing oil is upon you." So they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ The LORD then spoke to Aaron, saying,

9 "^aDo not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you may not die—it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations—

10 and ^aso as to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean,

11 and ^aso as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses."

12 ¶ Then Moses spoke to Aaron, and to his surviving sons, ^aEleazar and Ithamar, "^bTake the grain offering that is left over from the LORD's offerings by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy.

13 "You shall eat it, moreover, in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due out of the LORD's offerings by fire; for thus I have been commanded.

14 "The breast of the wave offering, however, and the thigh of the offering you may eat in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you; for they have been given as your due and your sons' due out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the sons of Israel.

15 "The thigh offered by lifting up and the breast offered by waving, they shall bring along with the offerings by fire of the portions of fat, to present as a wave offering before the LORD; so it shall be a thing perpetually due you and your sons with you, just as the LORD has commanded."

16 ¶ But Moses searched carefully for the ^agoat of the sin offering, and behold, it had been burned up! So he was angry with Aaron's surviving sons Eleazar and Ithamar, saying, 17 "Why ^adid you not eat the sin offering at the holy place? For it is most holy, and ¹He gave it to you to bear away ^bthe guilt of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD.

18 "Behold, ^asince its blood had not been brought inside, into the sanctuary, you should certainly have ^bbeaten it in the sanctuary, just as I commanded."

19 But Aaron spoke to Moses, "Behold, this very day they ^apresented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. When things like these happened to me, if I had eaten a sin offering today, would it have been good in the sight of the LORD?"

20 And when Moses heard that, it seemed good in his sight.

2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'These are the creatures which you may eat from all the animals that are on the earth.

3 'Whatever divides a hoof, thus making split hoofs, and chews the cud, among the animals, that you may eat.

4 'Nevertheless, ^ayou are not to eat of these, among those which chew the cud, or among those which divide the hoof: the camel, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you.

5 'Likewise, the rock badger, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you;

6 the ¹rabbit also, for though it chews cud, it does not divide the hoof, it is unclean to you;

7 and the pig, for though it divides the hoof, thus making a split hoof, it does not chew cud, it is unclean to you.

8 'You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ ^a'These you may eat, whatever is in the water: all that have fins and scales, those in the water, in the seas or in the rivers, you may eat.

10 ^a'But whatever is in the seas and in the rivers, that do not have fins and scales among all the teeming life of the water, and among all the living creatures that are in the water, they are detestable things to you,

11 and they shall be ¹abhorrent to you; you may not eat of their flesh, and their carcasses you shall detest.

12 'Whatever in the water does not have fins and scales is ¹abhorrent to you.

13 ¶ 'These, moreover, ^ayou shall detest among the birds; they are ¹abhorrent, not to be eaten: the ²eagle and the vulture and the ³buzzard,

14 and the kite and the falcon in its kind,

15 every raven in its kind,
16 and the ostrich and the owl and the sea gull and the hawk in its kind.

17 and the little owl and the cormorant and the ¹great owl,

18 and the white owl and the ¹pelican and the carrion vulture.

19 and the stork, the heron in its kinds, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

20 ¶ ¹All the ¹winged insects that walk on all fours are detestable to you.

21 Yet these you may eat among all the ¹winged insects which walk on all fours: those which have above their feet jointed legs with which to jump on the earth.

22 These of them you may eat:
the locust in its kinds, and the devastating locust in its kinds, and the cricket in its kinds, and the grasshopper in its kinds.

23 But all other ¹winged insects which are four-footed are detestable to you.

24 ¶ By these, moreover, you will be made unclean: whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening.

25 and ^awhoever picks up any of their carcasses shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

26 Concerning all the animals which divide the hoof, but do not make a split hoof, or which do not chew cud, they are unclean to you: whoever touches them becomes unclean.

27 Also whatever walks on its paws, among all the creatures that walk on all fours, are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcasses becomes unclean until evening.

28 and the one who picks up their carcasses shall wash his earth: the mole, and the mouse, and the ¹great lizard in its kinds,

30 and the gecko, and the ¹crocodile, and the lizard, and the ²sand reptile, and the chameleon.

31 These are to you the unclean among all the swarming things; whoever touches them when they are dead becomes unclean until evening.

32 Also anything on which one of them may fall when they are dead, becomes unclean, including any wooden article, or clothing, or a skin, or a sack—any article ¹of which use is made—it shall be put in the water and be unclean until evening, then it becomes clean.

33 As for any ^aearthenware vessel into which one of them may fall, whatever is in it becomes unclean and you shall break ¹the vessel.

34 Any of the ¹food which may be eaten, on which water comes, shall become unclean; and any ¹liquid which may be drunk in every vessel shall become unclean.

35 Everything, moreover, on which part of their carcass may fall becomes unclean; an oven or a ¹stove shall be smashed; they are unclean and shall continue as unclean to you.

36 Nevertheless a spring or a cistern ¹collecting water shall be clean, though the one who touches their carcass shall be unclean.

37 And if a part of their carcass falls on any seed for sowing which is to be sown, it is clean.

38 Though if water is put on the seed, and a part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

39 ¶ Also if one of the animals dies which you have for food, the one who touches its carcass becomes unclean until evening.

40 He too, who eats some of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; and the one who picks up its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening.

41 ¶ ^aNow every swarming thing that swarms on the earth is detestable, not to be eaten.

42 'Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on all fours, whatever has many feet, in respect to every swarming thing that swarms on the earth, you shall not eat them, for they are detestable.

43 'Do not render ¹yourselves detestable through any of the swarming things that swarm; and you shall not make yourselves unclean with them so that you become unclean.

44 'For ^aI am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and ^bbe holy; for I am holy. And you shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm on the earth.

45 'For I am the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt, to be your God; thus ^byou shall be holy for I am holy.' "

46 ¶ This is the law regarding the animal, and the bird, and every living thing that moves in the waters, and everything that swarms on the earth, 47 ^ato make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the edible creature and the creature which is not to be eaten.

CHAPTER 13

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 "When a man has on the skin of his ¹body a swelling or a scab or a bright spot, and it becomes ²an infection of leprosy on the skin of his ¹body, ^athen he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests.

3 "And the priest shall look at the mark on the skin of the ¹body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his ¹body, it is an infection of leprosy; when the priest has looked at him, he shall pronounce him unclean.

4 "But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his ¹body, and ²it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair on it has not turned white, then the priest shall ³isolate him who has the infection for seven days.

5 "And the priest shall look at him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the infection ¹has not changed, and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall ²isolate him for seven more days.

6 "And the priest shall look at him again on the seventh day; and if the infection has faded, and the mark has not spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab. And he shall ^{*}wash his clothes and be clean.

7 "But if the scab spreads farther on the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again to the priest.

8 "And the priest shall look, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.

9 "When the infection of leprosy is on a man, then he shall be brought to the priest.

10 "The priest shall then look, and if there is a ^{*}white swelling in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,

11 it is ¹a chronic leprosy on the skin of his ²body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not ³isolate him, for he is unclean.

12 "And if the leprosy breaks out farther on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of him who has the infection from his head even to his feet, ¹as far as the priest can see, covered all his ¹body, he shall pronounce clean him who has the infection; it has all turned white and he is clean.

14 "But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

15 "And the priest shall look at the raw flesh, and he shall pronounce him unclean; the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.

16 "Or if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, then he shall ^{*}come to the priest.

17 and the priest shall look at him, and behold, if the infection has turned to white, then the priest shall pronounce clean him who has the infection; he is clean.

18 "And when the ¹body has a boil on its skin, and it is healed,

19 and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white, bright spot, then it shall be shown to the priest;

20 and the priest shall look, and behold, if ¹it appears to be lower than the skin, and the hair on it has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the infection of leprosy, it has broken out in the boil.

21 "But if the priest looks at it, and behold, there are no white hairs in it and it is not lower than the skin and is faded, then the priest shall ¹isolate him for seven days;

22 and if it spreads farther on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection.

23 "But if the bright spot remains in its place, and does not spread, it is only the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 "Or if the ¹body sustains in its skin a burn by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white,

25 then the priest shall look at it. And if the hair in the bright spot has ^aturned white, and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy; it has broken out in the burn. Therefore, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

26 "But if the priest looks at it, and indeed, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no ¹deeper than the skin, but is dim, then the priest shall ²isolate him for seven days;

27 and the priest shall look at him on the seventh day. If it spreads farther in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infection of leprosy.

28 "But if the bright spot remains in its place, and has not spread in the skin, but is dim, it is the swelling from the burn; and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is only the scar of the burn.

29 "Now if a man or woman has an infection on the head or on the beard, 30 then the priest shall look at the infection, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin, and there is thin yellowish hair in it, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scale, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard.

31 "But if the priest looks at the infection of the scale, and indeed, it appears to be no deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall ¹isolate the person with the scaly infection for seven days.

32 "And on the seventh day the priest shall look at the infection, and if the scale has not spread, and no yellowish hair has ¹grown in it, and the appearance of the scale is no deeper than the skin, 33 then he shall shave himself, but he shall not shave the scale; and the priest shall ¹isolate the person with the scale seven more days.

35 "But if the scale spreads farther in the skin after his cleansing, 36 then the priest shall look at him, and if the scale has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellowish hair; he is unclean.

37 "If in his sight the scale has remained, however, and black hair has grown in it, the scale has healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ And when a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the ¹body, even white bright spots, 39 then the priest shall look, and if the bright spots on the skin of their ¹bodies are a faint white, it is ²eczema that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

40 ¶ Now if a ¹man loses the hair of his head, he is ^abald; he is clean.

41 "And if his head becomes bald at the ¹front and sides, he is bald on the forehead; he is clean.

42 "But if on the bald head or the bald forehead, there occurs a reddish-white infection, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or on his bald forehead.

43 "Then ^athe priest shall look at him; and if the swelling of the infection is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the ¹body, 44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean. The priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his infection is on his head.

45 ¶ As for the leper who has the infection, his clothes shall be torn, and ^athe hair of his head shall be ¹uncovered, and he shall bcover his mustache and cry,

"Unclean! Unclean!"

46 "He shall remain unclean all the days during which he has the infection; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

47 "When a garment has a mark of leprosy in it, whether it is a wool garment or a linen garment,

48 whether in warp or woof, of linen or of wool, whether in leather or in any article made of leather, 49 if the mark is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, or in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is a leprous mark and shall be shown to the priest.

50 "Then the priest shall look at the mark, and shall quarantine the article with the mark for seven days.

51 "He shall then look at the mark on the seventh day; if the mark has spread in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in the leather, whatever the purpose for which the leather is used, the mark is a leprous malignancy, it is unclean.

52 "So he shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or any article of leather in which the mark occurs, for it is a leprous malignancy; it shall be burned in the fire.

53 ¶ But if the priest shall look, and indeed, the mark has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, 54 then the priest shall order them to wash the thing in which the mark occurs, and he shall quarantine it for seven more days.

has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire, whether an eating away has produced bareness on the top or on the front of it.

56 ¶ Then if the priest shall look, and if the mark has faded after it has been washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment or out of the leather, whether from the warp or from the woof;

57 and if it appears again in the garment, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, it is an outbreak; the article with the mark shall be burned in the fire.

58 "And the garment, whether the warp or the woof, or any article of leather from which the mark has departed when you washed it, it shall then be washed a second time and shall be clean."

59 ¶ This is the law for the mark of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, whether in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of leather, for pronouncing it clean or unclean.

CHAPTER 14

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. Now he shall be brought to the priest,

3 and the priest shall go out to the outside of the camp. Thus the priest shall look, and if the infection of leprosy has been healed in the leper,

4 then the priest shall give orders to take two live clean birds and cedar wood and a scarlet string and hyssop for the one who is to be cleansed.

5 "The priest shall also give orders to slay the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water.

6 "As for the live bird, he shall take it, together with the cedar wood and the scarlet string and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird that was slain over the ²running water.

7^a He shall then sprinkle seven times the one who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the live bird go free over the open field.

8^a The one to be cleansed shall then wash his clothes and shave off all his hair, and bathe in water and ^bbe clean. Now afterward, he may enter the camp, but he ^cshall stay outside his tent for seven days.

9^a And it will be on the seventh day that he shall shave off all his hair: he shall shave his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair. He shall then wash his clothes and bathe his ^bbody in water and ^abe clean.

10 ^a Now on the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without defect, and a yearling ewe lamb without defect, and three-tenths of an ^bephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one ²log of oil;

19^a The priest shall next offer the ^asin offering and make atone-ment for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Then af-terward, he shall slaughter the burnt offering.

20^a And the priest shall offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him, and ^ahe shall be clean.

21 ^a But if he is poor, and his ^bmeans are insufficient, then he is to take one male lamb for a ^bguilt offering as a wave offering to make atonement for him, and one-tenth of an ²ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a ³log of oil.

22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons which ¹are within his means, ^athe one shall be a ^bsin offering and the other a burnt of-fering.

23^a Then the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleans-ing to the priest, at the doorway of the tent of meeting, before the LORD.

24^a And the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall offer them for a wave offering before the LORD.

25 "Next he shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering; and the priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

26 "The priest shall also pour some of the oil into his left palm;

27 and with his right-hand finger the priest shall sprinkle some of the oil that is in his left palm seven times before the LORD.

28 "The priest shall then put some of the oil that is in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering.

29 "Moreover, the rest of the oil that is in the priest's palm he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement on his behalf before the LORD.

30 "He shall then offer one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, which are within his means.

31 "He shall offer what he can afford, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. So the priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.

32 "This is the law for him in whom there is an infection of leprosy, whose means are limited for his cleansing."

33 "The LORD further spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

34 "When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a mark of leprosy on a house in the land of your possession,

35 then the one who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, 'Something like a 36 "The priest shall then order that they empty the house before the priest goes in to look at the mark, so that everything in the house need not become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to look at the house.

37 "So he shall look at the mark, and if the mark on the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions, and appears deeper than the surface;

38 then the priest shall come out of the house, to the doorway, and quarantine the house for seven days.

39 "And the priest shall return on the seventh day and make an inspection. If the mark has indeed spread in the walls of the house, 40 then the priest shall order them to tear out the stones with the mark in them and throw them away at an unclean place outside the city.

41 "And he shall have the house scraped all around inside, and they shall dump the plaster that they scrape off at an unclean place outside the city.

42 "Then they shall take other stones and replace those stones; and he shall take other plaster and replaster the house.

43 "If, however, the mark breaks out again in the house, after he has torn out the stones and scraped the house, and after it has been replastered,

44 then the priest shall come in and make an inspection. If he sees that the mark has indeed spread in the house, it is a malignant mark in the house; it is unclean.

45 "He shall therefore tear down the house, its stones, and its timbers, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall take them outside the city to an unclean place.

46"Moreover, whoever goes into the house during the time that he has ¹quarantined it, becomes ^aunclean until evening.

47"Likewise, whoever lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 ¶"If, on the other hand, the priest comes in and ¹makes an inspection, and the mark has not indeed spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the mark has ²not reappeared.

49"To cleanse the house then, he shall take ^atwo birds and cedar wood and a ¹scarlet string and hyssop, 50 and he shall slaughter the one bird in an earthenware vessel over ¹running water.

51"Then he shall take the cedar wood and the ^ahyssop and the ¹scarlet string, with the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, as well as in the ²running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52"He shall thus cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the ¹running water, along with the live bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the ²scarlet string.

53"However, he shall let the live bird go free outside the city into the open field. So he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean."

54 ¶ This is the law for any mark of leprosy—even for a ^ascale,

55 and for the ^aleprous garment or house,

56 and ^afor a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot—

57 to teach ¹when they are unclean, and ²when they are clean. This is the law of leprosy.

5 "Anyone, moreover, who touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water and be unclean until evening;

CHAPTER 16

NOW the LORD spoke to Moses after ^athe death of the two sons of Aaron, when they had approached the presence of the LORD and died.

2 And the LORD said to Moses, "Tell your brother Aaron that he shall not enter ^aat any time into the holy place inside the veil, before the ¹mercy seat which is on the ark, lest he die; for ^bI will appear in the cloud over the ¹mercy seat.

3 "Aaron shall enter the holy place with this: with a ¹bull for a ^asin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 "He shall put on the ^aholy linen tunic, and the linen undergarments shall be next to his ¹body, and he shall be girded with the linen sash, and attired with the linen turban (these are holy garments). Then he shall ^bbathe his ¹body in water and put them on.

5 "And he shall take from the congregation of the sons of Israel ^atwo male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 "Then ^aAaron shall offer the bull for the sin offering which is for himself, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household.

7 "And he shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

16 "And ^ahe shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the impurities of the sons of Israel, and because of their transgressions, in regard to all their sins; and thus he shall do for the tent of meeting which abides with them in the midst of their impurities.

17 "When he goes in to make atonement in the holy place, no one shall be in the tent of meeting until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself and for his household and for all the assembly of Israel.

18"Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat, and *put it on the horns of the altar on all sides.

19"And *with his finger he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times, and cleanse it, and from the impurities of the sons of Israel consecrate it.

20 ¶"When he finishes atoning for the holy place, and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall offer the live goat.

21"Then Aaron shall lay both of his hands on the head of the live goat, and *confess over it all the iniquities of the sons of Israel, and all their transgressions ¹in regard to all their sins; and he shall lay them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who stands in readiness.

22"And the goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a solitary land; and he shall release the goat in the wilderness.

23 ¶"Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting, and take off *the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

24"And *he shall bathe his ¹body with water in a holy place and put on ²his clothes, and come forth and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people.

25"Then he shall offer up in smoke the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26"And the one who released the goat as the ¹scapegoat *shall wash his clothes and bathe his ²body with water; then afterward he shall come into the camp.

27"But the bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, *whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp, and they shall burn their hides, their flesh, and their refuse in the fire.

28"Then the *one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body with water, then afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶"And this shall be a permanent statute for you: *in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble your souls, and not ²do any work, whether the native, or the alien who sojourns among you; 30 for it is on this day that ¹atonement shall be made for you to *cleanse you; you shall be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31"It is to be a sabbath of solemn rest for you, that you may *humble your souls; it is a permanent statute.

32"So the priest who is anointed and ¹ordained to serve as priest in his father's place shall make atonement: he shall thus put on *the linen garments, the holy garments,

33 and make atonement for the holy sanctuary; and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar. He shall also make atonement for *the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

34"Now you shall have this as a *permanent statute, to ²make atonement for the sons of Israel for all their sins once every year." And just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so he did.

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

7 'So if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an offense; it will not be accepted.

8 'And everyone who eats it will bear his iniquity, for he has profaned the holy thing of the LORD; and that person shall be cut off from his people.

9 ^a'Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

16 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

17 "Speak to Aaron, saying, 'No man of your offspring throughout their generations who has a defect shall approach to offer the bread of his God.

18 'For no one who has a defect shall approach: a blind man, or a lame man, or he who has a disfigured face, or any deformed limb, 24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the sons of Israel.

CHAPTER 22

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.

3 "Say to them, 'If any man among all your ¹descendants throughout your generations approaches the holy gifts which the sons of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from before Me. I am the LORD.

THE LORD spoke again to Moses, saying,

2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, ^aThe LORD's appointed times which you shall ^bproclaim as holy convocations—My appointed times are these:

3 ^aFor six days work may be done; but on the seventh day there is a sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation. You shall not do any work; it is a sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 ¶ These are the ^aappointed times of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim at the times appointed for them.

5 ^aIn the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month ¹at twilight is the LORD's Passover.

6 ¹Then on the fifteenth day of the same month there is the ^aFeast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

7 ¹On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall ^anot do any laborious work.

8 ¹But for seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On the seventh day is a holy convocation; you shall not do any laborious work.' "

9 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

10 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, 'When you enter the land which I am going to give to you and ^areap its harvest, then you shall bring in the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest.

11 ¹And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD for you to be accepted; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 ¹Now on the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb one year old without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD.

13 'Its ^agrain offering shall then be two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire to the LORD for a soothing aroma, with its libation, a fourth of a ^hhin of wine.

14 'Until this same day, until you have brought in the offering of your God, ^ayou shall eat neither bread nor roasted grain nor new growth. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

15 ¶ ^aYou shall also count for yourselves from the day after the sabbath, from the day when you brought in the sheaf of the wave offering; there shall be seven complete sabbaths.

16 'You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh sabbath; then you shall present a ^anew grain offering to the LORD.

17 'You shall bring in from your dwelling places two loaves of bread for a wave offering, made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of a fine flour, baked ^awith leaven as first fruits to the LORD.

18 'Along with the bread, you shall present seven one year old male lambs without defect, and a bull of the herd, and two rams; they are to be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their libations, an offering by fire of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

19 'You shall also offer ^aone male goat for a sin offering and two male lambs one year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 'The priest shall then wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering with two lambs before the LORD; they are to be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 'On this same day you shall ^amake a proclamation as well; you are to have a holy convocation. You shall do no laborious ^bwork. It is to be a perpetual stat-

23 ¶ Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

24 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'In the seventh month on the first of the month, you shall have a ^hrest, a ^hreminder by blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.

25 'You shall ^anot do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD.' "

26 ¶ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

27 "On exactly ^athe tenth day of this seventh month is ^bthe day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you, and you shall humble your souls and present an offering by fire to the LORD.

28 "Neither shall you do any work on this same day, for it is a ^aday of atonement, ^bto make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.

29 "If there is any ^hperson who will not humble himself on this same day, ^ahe shall be cut off from his people.

30 "As for any person who does any work on this same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.

31 "You shall do no work at all. It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

32 "It is to be a sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall humble your souls; on the ninth of the month at evening, from evening until evening you shall keep your sabbath."

33 ¶ Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

34 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'On ^athe fifteenth of this seventh month is the ^bFeast of Booths for seven days to the LORD.

35 'On the first day is a holy convocation; you shall do ^ano laborious work of any kind.

36 ^a'For seven days you shall present an offering by fire to the LORD. On ^bthe eighth day you shall have a holy convocation and present an offering by fire to the LORD; it is an assembly. You shall do no laborious work.

37 ¹ 'These are ^athe appointed times of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations, to present offerings by fire to the LORD—burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and libations, ^beach day's matter on its own day—

39 ¹ 'On exactly the fifteenth day of the seventh month, ^awhen you have gathered in the crops of the land, you shall celebrate the feast of the LORD for seven days, with a ¹rest on the first day and a ¹rest on the eighth day.

40 'Now on the first day you shall take for yourselves the ¹foliage of beautiful trees, palm branches and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

41 'You shall thus celebrate it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 'You shall ¹live ^ain booths for seven days; all the native-born in Israel shall ¹live in booths, 44 So Moses declared to the sons of Israel ^athe appointed times of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Command the sons of Israel that they bring to you ^aclear oil from beaten olives for the ¹light, to make a lamp ²burn continually.

3 "Outside the veil of testimony in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall keep it in order from evening to morning before the LORD continually; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

4 "He shall keep the lamps in order on the ^apure gold lampstand before the LORD continually.

5 ¹ "Then you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each cake.

6 "And you shall set them in two rows, six to a row, on the ^apure gold table before the LORD.

7 "And you shall put pure frankincense on each row, that it may be ^aa memorial portion for the bread, even an offering by fire to the LORD.

8 "Every sabbath day he shall set it in order before the LORD ^bcontinually; it is an everlasting covenant ¹for the sons of Israel.

9 "And it shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy to him from the LORD's offerings by fire, his portion forever."

10 ¹ Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the sons of Israel; and the Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel struggled with each other in the camp.

11 And the son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the ^aName and cursed. So they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

12 And they put him in custody ²so that ^athe command of the LORD might be made clear to them.

13 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

14 "Bring the one who has cursed outside the camp, and let all who heard him ^alay their hands on his head; then ^blet all the congregation stone him.

15 "And you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, "If anyone curses his God, then he shall bear his sin.

16 "Moreover, the one who ^ablasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him. The alien as well as the native, when he blasphemes the Name, shall be put to death.

17 ¶ "And if a man ¹takes the life of any human being, he shall surely be put to death.

18 "And ^athe one who ¹takes the life of an animal shall make it good, life for life.

19 "And if a man ¹injures his neighbor, just as he has done, so it shall be done to him:

20 ^afracture for fracture, ^beye for eye, tooth for tooth; just as he has ¹injured a man, so it shall be ²inflicted on him.

21 "Thus the one who ¹kills an animal shall make it good, but ^athe one who ¹kills a man shall be put to death.

22 "There shall be ^aone ¹standard for you; it shall be for the stranger as well as the native, for I am the LORD your God."

23 Then Moses spoke to the sons of Israel, and they brought the one who had cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones. Thus the sons of Israel did, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

THE LORD then spoke to Moses ¹at Mount Sinai, saying,

2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, "When you come into the land which I shall give you, then the land shall have a sabbath to the LORD.

3 ^aSix years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its crop,

4 but during ^athe seventh year the land shall have a sabbath rest, a sabbath to the LORD; you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

5 "Your harvest's ¹aftergrowth you shall not reap, and your grapes of untrimmed vines you shall not gather; the land shall have a sabbatical year.

6 ^aAnd all of you shall have the sabbath products of the land for food; yourself, and your male and female slaves, and your hired man and your foreign resident, those who live as aliens with you.

7 "Even your cattle and the animals that are in your land shall have all its crops to eat.

8 ¶ "You are also to count off seven sabbaths of years for yourself, seven times seven years, so that you have the time of the seven sabbaths of years, namely, forty-nine years.

9 "You shall then sound a ram's horn abroad on ^athe tenth day of the seventh month; on the day of atonement you shall sound a horn all through your land.

10 "You shall thus consecrate the fiftieth year and ^aproclaim ¹a release through the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, ²and ^beach of you shall return to his own property, ²and each of you shall return to his family.

11 "You shall have the fiftieth year as a jubilee; you shall not sow, nor reap its aftergrowth, nor gather in from its untrimmed vines.

12 'For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat its crops out of the field.

13 ¶ 'On this year of jubilee each of you shall return to his own property.

14 'If you make a sale, moreover, to your friend, or buy from your friend's hand, you shall not wrong one another.

15 'Corresponding to the number of years after the jubilee, you shall buy from your friend; he is to sell to you according to the number of years of crops.

16 'In proportion to the extent of the years you shall increase its price, and in proportion to the fewness of the years, you shall diminish its price; for it is a number of crops he is selling to you.

17 'So you shall not wrong one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ 'You shall thus observe My statutes, and keep My judgments, so as to carry them out, that you may live securely on the land.

19 'Then the land will yield its produce, so that you can eat your fill and live securely on it.

20 'But if you say, "What are we going to eat on the seventh year if we do not sow or gather in our crops?"

21 then I will so order My blessing for you in the sixth year that it will bring forth the crop for three years.

22 'When you are sowing the eighth year, you can still eat old things from the crop, eating the old until the ninth year when its crop comes in.

23 ¶ 'The land, moreover, shall not be sold permanently, for the land is Mine; for you are but aliens and sojourners with Me.

24 'Thus for every piece of your property, you are to provide for the redemption of the land.

25 'If a fellow countryman of yours becomes so poor he has to sell part of his property, then his nearest kinsman is to come and buy back what his relative has sold.

26 'Or in case a man has no kinsman, but so recovers his means as to find sufficient for its redemption, 27 then he shall calculate the years since its sale and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and so return to his property.

28 'But if he has not found sufficient means to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hands of its purchaser until the year of jubilee; but at the jubilee it shall revert, that he may return to his property.

29 ¶ 'Likewise, if a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then his redemption right remains valid until a full year from its sale; his right of redemption lasts a full year.

30 'But if it is not bought back for him within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city passes permanently to its purchaser throughout his generations; it does not revert in the jubilee.

31 'The houses of the villages, however, which have no surrounding wall shall be considered as open fields; they have redemption rights and revert in the jubilee.

32 'As for cities of the Levites, the Levites have a permanent right of redemption for the houses of the cities which are their possession.

33 'What, therefore, belongs to the Levites may be redeemed and a house sale in the city of this possession reverts in the jubilee, for the houses of the cities and be your God, and you shall be My people.

13 ¹I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt so that you should not be their slaves, and ²I broke the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

14 ¹But if you do not obey Me and do not carry out all these commandments,

15 if, instead, you ¹reject My statutes, and if your soul abhors My ordinances so as not to carry out all My commandments, and so ²break My covenant,

16 I, in turn, will do this to you: I will appoint over you a ¹sudden terror, consumption and fever that shall waste away the eyes and cause the ²soul to pine away; also, ³you shall sow your seed uselessly, for your enemies shall eat it up.

17 ¹And I will set My face against you so that you shall be struck down before your enemies; and ²those who hate you shall rule over you, and ³you shall flee when no one is pursuing you.

18 ¹If also after these things, you do not obey Me, then I will punish you ²seven times more for your sins.

19 ¹And I will also ²break down your pride of power; I will also make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze.

20 ¹And ²your strength shall be spent uselessly, for your land shall not yield its produce and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

21 ¹If then, you ²act with hostility against Me and are unwilling to obey Me, I will increase the plague on you ³seven times according to your sins.

22 ¹And ²I will let loose among you the beasts of the field, which shall bereave you of your children and destroy your cattle and

23 ¶ ^a'And if by these things you are not turned to Me, but act with hostility against Me, 24 then I will ^aact with hostility against you; and I, even I, will strike you ^bseven times for your sins.

25 'I will also bring upon you a sword which will execute ^avengeance for the covenant; and when you gather together into your cities, I will send ^bpestilence among you, so that you shall be delivered into enemy hands.

26 ^a'When I break your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will bring back your bread ⁱn rationed amounts, so that you will ^beat and not be satisfied.

27 ¶ 'Yet if in spite of this, you do not obey Me, but act with hostility against Me, 28 then ^aI will act with wrathful hostility against you; and I, even I, will punish you seven times for your sins.

29 'Further, ^ayou shall eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters you shall eat.

30 'I then ^awill destroy your high places, and cut down your ^bincense altars, and heap your ⁱremains on the ⁱremains of your idols; for My soul shall abhor you.

31 'I will ⁱlay ^awaste your cities as well, and will make your ^bsanctuaries desolate; and I will not ^csmell your soothing aromas.

32 'And I will make ^athe land desolate ^bso that your enemies who settle in it shall be appalled over it.

35 'All the days of ⁱits desolation it will observe the rest which it did not observe on your sabbaths, while you were living on it.

36 'As for those of you who may be left, I will also bring ^aweakness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a driven leaf will chase them and even when no one is pursuing, they will flee ⁱas though from the sword, and they will fall.

41 I also was acting with hostility against them, to bring them into the land of their enemies—
^aor if their uncircumcised heart becomes humbled so that ^bthey then make amends for their iniquity,

42 then I will remember ^aMy covenant with Jacob, and I will remember also ^bMy covenant with Isaac, and ^cMy covenant with Abraham as well, and I will remember the land.

43 ^a'For the land shall be abandoned by them, and shall make up for its sabbaths while it is made desolate without them.

They, meanwhile, shall be making amends for their iniquity, ¹because they rejected My ordinances and their ²soul abhorred My statutes.

44 'Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I so ³abhor them as ⁴to destroy them, ⁵breaking My covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

45 'But I will remember for them the ⁶covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that ⁷I might be their God. I am the LORD.' "

AGAIN, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 'Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, 'When a man makes a difficult vow, he shall be valued according to your valuation of persons belonging to the LORD.

3 'If your valuation is of the male from twenty years even to sixty years old, then your valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after ⁴the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 'Or if it is a female, then your valuation shall be thirty shekels.

5 'And if it be from five years even to twenty years old then your valuation for the male shall be twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 'But if they are from a month even up to five years old, then your valuation shall be ⁷five shekels of silver for the male, and for the female your valuation shall be three shekels of silver.

8 'But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he shall be placed before the priest, and the priest shall value him; ⁹according to ¹the means of the one who vowed, the priest shall value him.

9 'Now if it is an animal of the kind which ¹men can present as an offering to the LORD, any such that one gives to the LORD shall be holy.

10 'He shall not replace it or exchange it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; or if he does exchange animal for animal, then both it and its substitute shall become holy.

11 'If, however, it is any unclean animal of the kind which ¹men do not present as an offering to the LORD, then he shall place the animal before the priest.

12 'And the priest shall value it ¹as either good or bad; as you, the priest, value it, so it shall be.

13 'But if he should ever wish to redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of it to your valuation.

14 ¶ 'Now if a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, then the priest shall value it ¹as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.

15 'Yet if the one who consecrates it should wish to redeem his house, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may be his.

16 ¶ 'Again, if a man consecrates to the LORD part of the fields of his own property, then your valuation shall be ¹proportionate to the seed needed for it: a homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver.

17 'If he consecrates his field as of the year of jubilee, according to your valuation it shall stand.

18 'If he consecrates his field after the jubilee, however, then the priest shall calculate the price for ¹him ²proportionate to the years that are left until the year of jubilee; and it shall be deducted from your valuation.

19 'And if the one who consecrates it should ever wish to redeem the field, then he shall add one-fifth of your valuation price to it, so that it may pass to him.

20 'Yet if he will not redeem the field, ¹but has sold the field to another man, it may no longer be redeemed;

21 and when it ¹reverts in the jubilee, the field shall be holy to the LORD, like a field ²set apart; ³it shall be for the priest as his ³property.

22 'Or if he consecrates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not a part of the field of his own ¹property, 23 then the priest shall calculate for ¹him the amount of your valuation up to the year of jubilee; and he shall on that day give your valuation as holy to the LORD.

24 'In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom he bought it, to whom the possession of the land belongs.

25 'Every valuation of yours, moreover, shall be after ³the shekel of the sanctuary. The shekel shall be twenty gerahs.

26 ¶ 'However, a first-born among animals, which as a first-born belongs to the LORD, no man may consecrate it; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.

34 ¶ 'These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses for the sons of Israel at Mount Sinai.

The Census of Israel's Warriors

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the sons of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, every male, head by head

3 from twenty years old and upward, whoever is able to go out to war in Israel, you and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 "With you, moreover, there shall be a man of each tribe, each one head of his father's household.

5 "These then are the names of the men who shall stand with you: of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

6 of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

7 of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

8 of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

9 of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

10 of the sons of Joseph: of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

11 of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon;

12 of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

13 of Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran;

14 of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

15 of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.

16 "These are they who were called of the congregation, the leaders of their fathers' tribes; they were the heads of divisions of Israel."

17 So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name.

18 and they assembled all the congregation together on the first of the second month. Then they registered by ancestry in their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, head by head, 19 just as the LORD had commanded Moses. So he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 ¶ Now the sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, 21 their numbered men, of the tribe of Reuben, were 46,500.

22 ¶ Of the sons of Simeon, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, their numbered men, according to the number of names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, 23 their numbered men, of the tribe of Simeon, were 59,300.

24 ¶ Of the sons of Gad, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, 25 their numbered men, of the tribe of Gad, were 45,650.

26 ¶ Of the sons of Judah, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

27 their numbered men, of the tribe of Judah, were 74,600.

28 ¶ Of the sons of Issachar, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

29 their numbered men, of the tribe of Issachar, were 54,400.

30 ¶ Of the sons of Zebulun, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

31 their numbered men, of the tribe of Zebulun, were 57,400.

32 ¶ Of the sons of Joseph, namely, of the sons of Ephraim, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

33 their numbered men, of the tribe of Ephraim, were 40,500.

34 ¶ Of the sons of Manasseh, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

35 their numbered men, of the tribe of Manasseh, were 32,200.

36 ¶ Of the sons of Benjamin, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war, 37 their numbered men, of the tribe of Benjamin, were 35,400.

38 ¶ Of the sons of Dan, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

39 their numbered men, of the tribe of Dan, were 62,700.

40 ¶ Of the sons of Asher, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

41 their numbered men, of the tribe of Asher, were 41,500.

42 ¶ Of the sons of Naphtali, their genealogical registration by their families, by their fathers' households, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war.

43 their numbered men, of the tribe of Naphtali, were 53,400.

44 ¶ These are the ones who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, with the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each of whom was of his father's household.

45 So all the numbered men of the sons of Israel by their fathers' households, from twenty years old and upward, whoever was able to go out to war in Israel, 46 even all the numbered men were 603,550.

47 ¶ The Levites, however, were not numbered among them by their fathers' tribe.

48 For the LORD had spoken to Moses, saying,

49"Only the tribe of Levi ^ayou shall not number, nor shall you take their ¹census among the sons of Israel.

50"But you shall ^aappoint the Levites over the ¹tabernacle of the testimony, and over all its furnishings and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings, and they shall take care of it; they shall also camp around the ¹tabernacle.

51"^aSo when the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encamps, the Levites shall set it up. But ^bthe ¹layman who comes near shall be put to death.

52"^aAnd the sons of Israel shall camp, each man by his own camp, and each man by his own standard, according to their armies.

53"^aBut the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, that there may be ^bno wrath on the congregation of the sons of Israel. ^cSo the Levites shall keep charge of the tabernacle of the testimony."

54 Thus the sons of Israel did; according to all which the LORD had commanded Moses, so they did.

CHAPTER 2

NOW the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2"^aThe sons of Israel shall camp, each by his own standard, with the ¹banners of their fathers' households; they shall camp around the tent of meeting ²at a distance.

3"Now those who camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the standard of the camp of Judah, by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Judah: ^aNahshon the son of Amminadab, 9"The total of the ¹numbered men of the camp of Judah: 186,400, by their armies. ^aThey shall set out first.

10 ^a"On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Reuben: ^aE-lizur the son of Shedeur, 11 and his army, even their ¹numbered men, 46,500.

12"And those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon, and the leader of the sons of Simeon: ^aShelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, 13 and his army, even their ¹numbered men, 59,300.

14"Then comes the tribe of Gad, and the leader of the sons of Gad: ^aEliasaph the son of ¹Deuel,

15 and his army, even their ¹numbered men, 45,650.

16"The total of the ¹numbered men of the camp of Reuben: 151,450 by their armies. And ^athey shall set out second.

17 ^a"Then the tent of meeting shall set out with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; just as they camp, so they shall set out, every man in his place, by their standards.

18 ^a"On the west side shall be the standard of the camp of ^aEphraim by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Ephraim shall be ^bElishama the son of Ammihud,

19 and his army, even their ¹numbered men, 40,500.

20"And next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh, and the leader of the sons of Manasseh:

*Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, 21 and his army, even their numbered men, 32,200.

22 "Then comes the tribe of *Benjamin, and the leader of the sons of Benjamin: ^bAbidan the son of Gideoni, 23 and his army, even their numbered men, 35,400.

24 "The total of the numbered men of the camp of Ephraim: 108,100, by their armies. And *they shall set out third.

25 ¶ "On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan by their armies, and the leader of the sons of Dan: *Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, 26 and his army, even their numbered men, 62,700.

27 "And those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher, and the leader of the sons of Asher: *Pagiel the son of Ochran, 28 and his army, even their numbered men, 41,500.

29 "Then comes the tribe of *Naphtali, and the leader of the sons of Naphtali: ^bAhira the son of Enan,

30 and his army, even their numbered men, 53,400.

31 "The total of the numbered men of the camp of Dan, was 157,600. *They shall set out last by their standards."

32 ¶ These are the numbered men of the sons of Israel by their fathers' households; the total of the numbered men of the camps by their armies, ^a603,550.

33 *The Levites, however, were not numbered among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

34 Thus the sons of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they camped by their standards, and so they set out, every one by his family, according to his father's household.

CHAPTER 3

^a NOW these are the records of the generations of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

2 *These then are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the first-born, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the ^aanointed priests, whom he ^bordained to serve as priests.

4 *But Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai; and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests ^bin the lifetime of their father Aaron.

5 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

6 "Bring the tribe of Levi near and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.

7 "And they shall perform the duties for ^bhim and for the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the ^aservice of the tabernacle.

8 "They shall also keep all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, along with the duties of the sons of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 "You shall thus ^agive the Levites to Aaron and to his sons; they are wholly given to him from among the sons of Israel.

10 "So you shall appoint Aaron and his sons that ^athey may keep their priesthood, but ^bthe ^blayman who comes near shall be put to death."

11 ¶ Again the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

12 "Now, behold, I ^ahave taken the Levites from among the sons of Israel instead of every ^bfirst-born, the first issue of the womb among the sons of Israel. So the Levites shall be Mine.

13 "For ^aall the first-born are Mine; on the day that I struck down all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the first-born in Israel, from man to beast. They shall be Mine; I am the LORD."

14 ^e Then the LORD spoke to Moses ^ain the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 "Number the sons of Levi by their fathers' households, by their families; every male from a month old and upward you shall number."

16 So Moses numbered them according to the ¹word of the LORD, just as he had been commanded.

17 ^aThese then are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon and Kohath and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the ^asons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei;

19 and the sons of Kohath by their families: Amram and Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel;

20 and the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households.

21 ^e Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites.

22 Their numbered men, in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, even their numbered men were 7,500.

23 The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the ¹tabernacle westward, 24 and the leader of the fathers' households of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael.

25 Now ^athe duties of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting involved the tabernacle and ^bthe tent, its covering, and ^cthe screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting.

26 and ^athe hangings of the court, and ^bthe screen for the doorway of the court, which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords, according to all the service ¹concerning them.

27 ^e And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites and the family of the Izharites and the family of the Hebronites and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, there were 8,600, performing the duties of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the southward side of the tabernacle, 30 and the leader of the fathers' households of the Kohathite families was ¹Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 Now ^atheir duties involved ^bthe ark, ^cthe table, ^dthe lampstand, ^ethe altars, and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all the service ¹concerning them;

32 and Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was the chief of the leaders of Levi, and had the oversight of those who perform the duties of the sanctuary.

33 ^e Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari.

34 Their numbered men in the numbering of every male from a month old and upward, were 6,200.

35 And the leader of the fathers' households of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They were to ^acamp on the northward side of the tabernacle.

36 Now the appointed duties of the sons of Merari involved the frames of the tabernacle, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, all its equipment, and the service concerning them.

37 and the pillars around the court with their sockets and their pegs and their cords.

38 ¶ Now those who were to ^acamp before the tabernacle eastward, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, are Moses and Aaron and his sons, performing the duties of the sanctuary for the obligation of the sons of Israel; but ^bthe layman coming near was to be put to death.

39 All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the ¹command of the LORD by their families, every male from a month old and upward, were ^a22,000.

40 ¶ Then the LORD said to Moses, ^a"Number every first-born male of the sons of Israel from a month old and upward, and ¹make a list of their names.

41 "And you ^ashall take the Levites for Me, I am the LORD, instead of all the first-born among the sons of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the first-born among the cattle of the sons of Israel."

42 So Moses numbered all the first-born among the sons of Israel, just as the LORD had commanded him;

43 and all the first-born males by the number of names from a month old and upward, for their numbered men were ^a22,273.

44 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

45 "Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the sons of Israel and the cattle of the Levites. And the Levites shall be Mine; I am the LORD.

46 "And for the ransom of the 273 of the first-born of the sons of Israel who are in excess beyond the Levites,

47 you shall take ^afive shekels apiece, per head; you shall take them in ^bterms of the shekel of

49 So Moses took the ransom money from those who were in excess, beyond those ransomed by the Levites;

50 from the first-born of the sons of Israel he took the money in terms of the shekel of the sanctuary, 1,365.

51 Then Moses gave the ransom money to Aaron and to his sons, at the ¹command of the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 4

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

2 "Take ¹a census of the ²descendants of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families, by their fathers' households,

3 from ^athirty years and upward, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the tent of meeting.

4 "This is the work of the ¹descendants of Kohath in the tent of meeting, concerning the most holy things.

5 "When the camp sets out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and they shall take down ^athe veil of the screen and cover the ^bark of the testimony with it;

6 and they shall lay a ^acovering of porpoise skin on it, and shall spread over it a cloth of pure ¹blue, and shall insert its poles.

7 "Over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall also spread a cloth of ¹blue and put on it the dishes and the pans and the sacrificial bowls and the jars for the libation, and ^athe continual bread shall be on it.

8 "And they shall spread over them a cloth of scarlet material, and cover the same with a covering of porpoise skin, and they shall insert its poles.

9"Then they shall take a ¹blue cloth and cover the ¹lampstand for the light, ²along with its lamps and its snuffers, and its ²trays and all its oil vessels, by which they serve it;

10 and they shall put it and all its utensils in a covering of porpoise skin, and shall put it on the carrying bars.

11"And over the golden altar they shall spread a ¹blue cloth and cover it with a covering of porpoise skin, and shall insert its poles;

12 and they shall take all the utensils of service, with which they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a ¹blue cloth and cover them with a covering of porpoise skin, and put them on the carrying bars.

13"Then they shall take away the ¹ashes from the ²altar, and spread a purple cloth over it.

14"They shall also put on it all its utensils by which they serve in connection with it: the firepans, the forks and shovels and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread a cover of porpoise skin over it and insert its poles.

15"And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy objects and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is to set out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them, so that they may not touch the holy objects ²and die. These are the ¹things in the tent of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

16"And the responsibility of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest is ²the oil for the light and the ²fragrant incense and ²the continual grain offering and ²the anointing oil—the responsibility of all the ¹tabernacle and of all that is in it, with the sanctuary and its furnishings."

17 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,

18"Do not let the tribe of the families of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites.

19"But do this to them that they may live and ²not die when they approach the most holy objects: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each of them to his work and to his load;

20 but ²they shall not go in to see the holy objects even for a moment, lest they die."

21 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

22"Take ¹a census of the sons of Gershon ²also, by their fathers' households, by their families;

23 from ²thirty years and upward to fifty years old, you shall ¹number them; all who enter to perform the service to do the work in the tent of meeting.

24"This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in carrying:

25 they shall carry ²the curtains of the tabernacle and the tent of meeting with its covering and ²the covering of porpoise skin that is on top of it, and the screen for the doorway of the tent of meeting.

26 and ²the hangings of the court, and the screen for the doorway of the gate of the court which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords and all the equipment for their service; and all that is to be done, ¹they shall perform.

27"All the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their loads and in all their work, shall be performed at the ¹command of Aaron and his sons; and you shall assign to them as a duty all their loads.

28"This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the tent of meeting, and their duties shall be ¹under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

29 ¶ As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers' households;

30 from ^athirty years and upward even to fifty years old, you shall number them, everyone who enters the service to do the work of the tent of meeting.

31 Now this is the duty of their loads, for all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle and its bars and its pillars and its ¹sockets,

32 and the pillars around the court and their ¹sockets and their pegs and their cords, with all their equipment and with all their service; and you shall assign each man by name the items ²he is to carry.

33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tent of meeting, ¹under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest."

34 ¶ So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by their fathers' households, 35 from ^athirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered the service for work in the tent of meeting.

36 And their numbered men by their families were 2,750.

37 These are the numbered men of the Kohathite families, everyone who was serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the ¹commandment of the LORD ²through Moses.

40 And their numbered men by their families, by their fathers' households, were 2,630.

41 These are the numbered men of the families of the sons of Gershon, everyone who was serving in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the ¹commandment of the LORD.

42 ¶ And the numbered men of the families of the sons of Merari by their families, by their fathers' households,

44 And their numbered men by their families were 3,200.

45 These are the numbered men of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the ¹commandment of the LORD ²through Moses.

46 ¶ All the numbered men of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families and by their fathers' households, 47 from thirty years and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who could enter to do the work of service and the work of carrying in the tent of meeting.

48 And their numbered men were ^a8,580.

49 According to the ¹commandment of the LORD ²through Moses, they ^awere numbered, everyone by his serving or carrying; thus these were his numbered men, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

CHAPTER 5

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Command the sons of Israel that they ^asend away from the camp every leper and everyone having a ^bdischarge and every one who is ^cunclean because of a dead person.

3 "You shall send away both male and female; you shall send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp where I dwell ^ain their midst."

4 And the sons of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp; just as the LORD had spoken to Moses, thus the sons of Israel did.

5 ^a Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

6 "Speak to the sons of Israel, ^a"When a man or woman commits any of the sins of mankind, acting unfaithfully against the LORD, and that person is guilty,

7 then ¹he shall ^aconfess ²his sins which ³he has committed, and he ^bshall make restitution in full for his wrong, and add to it one-fifth of it, and give it to him whom he has wronged.

8 ^a But if the man has no ¹relative to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution which is made for the wrong must go to the LORD for the priest, besides the ram of atonement, by which atonement is made for him.

9 ^a Also every ¹contribution pertaining to all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, which they offer to the priest, shall be his.

10 ^a So every man's holy gifts shall be his; whatever any man gives to the priest, it ^abecomes his."

11 ^a Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

12 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, ^a"If any man's wife ^agoes astray and is unfaithful to him,

13 and a man has ^aintercourse with her and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and she is ¹undetected, although she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act,

14 ^a If a spirit of ^ajealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has defiled herself, or if a spirit of jealousy comes over him and he is jealous of his wife when she has not defiled herself,

15 the man shall then bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring as ¹an offering for her one-tenth of an ²ephah of barley meal; he shall not pour oil on it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of memorial, ^aa reminder of iniquity.

16 ^a Then the priest shall bring her near and have her stand before the LORD, 17 and the priest shall take holy water in an earthenware vessel; and ¹he shall take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

18 ^a The priest shall then have the woman stand before the LORD and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and place the grain offering of memorial ¹in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy, and in the hand of the priest is to be the water of bitterness that brings a curse.

19 ^a And the priest shall have her take an oath and shall say to the woman, "If no man has lain with you and if you have not ^agone astray into uncleanness, being under the authority of your husband, be ¹immune to this water of bitterness that brings a curse;

20 if you, however, have ^agone astray, being under the authority of your husband, and if you have defiled yourself and a man other than your husband has had intercourse with you" make the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest shall apply all this law to her.

31 ^{af}Moreover, the man shall be free from ¹guilt, but that woman shall ^abear her ¹guilt."

CHAPTER 6

AGAIN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 ^{ag}"Speak to the sons of Israel, and say to them, 'When a man or woman makes a ¹special vow, the vow of ^aa ²Nazirite, to ³dedicate himself to the LORD,

3 he shall ^aabstain from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar, whether made from wine or strong drink, neither shall he drink any grape juice, nor eat fresh or dried grapes.

4 ^{ah}All the days of his ¹separation he shall not eat anything that is produced by the grape vine, from the seeds even to the skin.

5 ^{ai} ¹All the days of his vow of separation ^ano razor shall pass over his head. He shall be holy until the days are fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD; he shall let the locks of hair on his head grow long.

6 ^{aj} ¹All the days of his separation to the LORD he shall not go near to a dead person.

7 ^{ak}He ^ashall not make himself unclean for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister, when they die, because his separation to God is on his head.

8 ^{al}All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

9 ^{am} ¹But if a man dies very suddenly beside him and he defiles his dedicated head of hair, then ^ahe shall shave his head on the day when he becomes clean; ^bhe shall shave it on the seventh day.

10 ^{an}Then on the eighth day he shall bring ^atwo turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

11 'And the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him ¹concerning his sin because of the ²dead person. And that same day he shall consecrate his head.

12 and shall dedicate to the LORD his days ¹as a ²Nazirite, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a guilt offering; but the former days shall be void because his separation was defiled.

13 ¶ Now this is the law of the Nazirite ¹when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall bring ¹the offering to the doorway of the tent of meeting.

14 'And he shall present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering and one ¹ewe-lamb a year old without defect for a sin offering and one ram without defect for a peace offering.

15 and a basket of ¹unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers spread with oil, along with ¹their grain offering and their libations.

16 Then the priest shall present them before the LORD and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 'He shall also offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, together with the basket of unleavened cakes; the priest shall likewise offer its grain offering and its libation.

18 'The Nazirite shall then shave his dedicated head of hair at the doorway of the tent of meeting, and take the dedicated hair of his head and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.

19 'And the priest shall take the ram's shoulder when it has been boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the ¹hands of the Nazi-

22 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

CHAPTER 7

NOW it came about on ¹the day that Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, he ²anointed it and consecrated it with all its furnishings and the altar and all its utensils; he anointed them and consecrated them also.

2 Then ¹the leaders of Israel, the heads of their fathers' households, ²made an offering (they were the leaders of the tribes; they were the ones who ¹were over the ²numbered men).

3 When they brought their offering before the LORD, six ¹covered carts and twelve oxen, a cart for every two of the leaders and an ox for each one, then they presented them before the tabernacle.

4 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

5 "Accept these things from them, that they may be ¹used in the service of the tent of meeting, and you shall give them to the Levites, to each man according to his service."

6 So Moses took the carts and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

7 Two carts and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to ^atheir service,

8 and four carts and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to ^atheir service, under the ¹direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

9 But he did not give any to the sons of Kohath because theirs was ^athe service of the holy objects, which they carried on the shoulder.

10 And the leaders offered the dedication offering ¹for the altar ²when ^ait was anointed, so the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

11 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Let them present their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar."

12 ¶ Now the one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah;

13 and his offering was one silver ^{1a}dish whose weight was one hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, ^baccording to ²the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 *Speak to Aaron and say to him, *When you ¹mount the lamps, the seven lamps will ^agive light in the front of the lampstand. "

3 Aaron therefore did so; he ¹mounted its lamps at the front of the lampstand, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

of the womb, the first-born of all the sons of Israel.

17^a For every first-born among the sons of Israel is Mine, among the men and among the animals; on the day that I struck down all the first-born in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself.

18^a But I have taken the Levites instead of every first-born among the sons of Israel.

19^a And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the sons of Israel, to perform the service of the sons of Israel at the tent of meeting, and to make atonement on behalf of the sons of Israel, that there may be no plague among the sons of Israel by their coming near to the sanctuary."

20 ¶ Thus did Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the sons of Israel to the Levites; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the sons of Israel did to them.

21^a The Levites, too, purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; and Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD. Aaron also made atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 Then after that the Levites went in to perform their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons; just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

23 ¶ Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

24^a This is what applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall enter to perform service in the work of the tent of meeting.

25^a But at the age of fifty years they shall retire from service in the work and not work any more.

26^a They may, however, assist their brothers in the tent of meeting, to keep an obligation; but

CHAPTER 9

THUS the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2^a Now, let the sons of Israel observe the Passover at its appointed time.

3^a On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall observe it at its appointed time; you shall observe it according to all its statutes and according to all its ordinances."

4 So Moses told the sons of Israel to observe the Passover.

5 And they observed the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did.

6 But there were some men who were unclean because of the dead person, so that they could not observe Passover on that day; so they came before Moses and Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said to him, "Though we are unclean because of the dead person, why are we restrained from presenting the offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the sons of Israel?"

8 Moses therefore said to them, "Wait, and I will listen to what the LORD will command concerning you."

9 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

10^a Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, "If any one of you or of your generations becomes unclean because of a dead person, or is on a distant journey, he may, however, observe the Passover to the LORD.

11 'In the second month on the ^afourteenth day at twilight, they shall observe it; they ^bshall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 'They ^ashall leave none of it until morning, ^bnor break a bone of it; according to all the statute of the Passover they shall observe it.

13 '^aBut the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and yet ¹neglects to observe the Passover, that ²person shall then be cut off from his people, for he did not present the offering of the LORD at its appointed time. That man ^bshall bear his sin.

14 '^aAnd if an alien sojourns among you and ¹observes the Passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the Passover and according to its ordinance, so he shall do; you shall have ^bone statute, both for the alien and for the native of the land.' "

15 ¶ Now on ^athe day that the tabernacle was erected ^bthe cloud covered the tabernacle, the ^ctent of the testimony, and ^din the evening it was like the appearance of fire over the tabernacle, until morning.

16 So it was continuously; ^athe cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 '^aAnd whenever the cloud was lifted from over the tent, afterward the sons of Israel would then set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the sons of Israel would camp.

18 At the ¹command of the LORD the sons of Israel would set out, and at the ¹command of the LORD they would camp; ^aas long as the cloud settled over the tabernacle, they remained camped.

19 Even when the cloud lingered over the tabernacle for many days, ¹the sons of Israel would keep the LORD's charge and not set out.

20 If ¹sometimes the cloud remained a few days over the tabernacle, ^aaccording to the ²command of the LORD they remained camped. Then according to the ²command of the LORD they set out.

21 If ¹sometimes the cloud ²remained from evening until morning, when the cloud was lifted in the morning, they would move out; or if it remained in the daytime and at night, whenever the cloud was lifted, they would set out.

22 Whether it was two days or a month or a year that the cloud lingered over the tabernacle, staying above it, the sons of Israel remained camped and did not set out; but ^awhen it was lifted, they did set out.

23 '^aAt the ¹command of the LORD they camped, and at the ¹command of the LORD they set out; they kept the LORD's charge, according to the ¹command of the LORD through Moses.

CHAPTER 10

THE LORD spoke further to Moses, saying,

2"Make yourself two trumpets of silver, of hammered work you shall make them; and you shall use them for ^asummoning the congregation and for having the camps set out.

3"And ^awhen both are blown, all the congregation shall gather themselves to you at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

4"Yet if only one is blown, then the ^aleaders, the heads of the ¹divisions of Israel, shall assemble before you.

5"But when you blow an alarm, the camps that are pitched ^aon the east side shall set out.

6"And when you blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are pitched on ^athe south side shall set out; an alarm is to be blown for them to set out.

7 "When convening the assembly, however, you shall blow without ^asounding an alarm.

8 "The priestly sons of Aaron, moreover, shall blow the trumpets; and ¹this shall be for you a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

9 "And when you go to war in your land against the adversary who ^aattacks you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that you may be ^bremembered before the LORD your God, and be saved from your enemies.

10 "Also in the day of your gladness and in your appointed ¹feasts, and on the first days of your months, ^ayou shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be as a reminder of you before your God. I am the LORD your God."

11 ¶ Now it came about in ^athe second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, that the cloud was lifted from over the ¹tabernacle of the testimony;

12 and the sons of Israel set out on ^atheir journeys from the wilderness of Sinai. Then the cloud settled down in the ^bwilderness of Paran.

13 ^aSo they moved out for the first time according to the ¹commandment of the LORD through Moses.

14 And the standard of the camp of the sons of Judah, according to their armies, ^aset out first, with Nahshon the son of Amminadab, over its army.

15 and Nethanel the son of Zuar, over the tribal army of the sons of Issachar;

16 and Eliab the son of Helon over the tribal army of the sons of Zebulun.

18 Next ^athe standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies, set out with Elizur the son of Shedeur, over its army.

19 and Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai over the tribal army of the sons of Simeon, 20 and Eliasaph the son of Deuel was over the tribal army of the sons of Gad.

21 ¶ ^aThen the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy objects; and ^bthe tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

22 ^aNext the standard of the camp of the sons of Ephraim, according to their armies, was set out, with Elishama the son of Ammihud over its army.

23 and Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur over the tribal army of the sons of Manasseh;

24 and Abidan the son of Gideoni over the tribal army of the sons of Benjamin.

25 ¶ ^aThen the standard of the camp of the sons of Dan, according to their armies, which formed the ^brear guard for all the camps, set out, with Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai over its army.

26 and Pagiel the son of Ochran over the tribal army of the sons of Asher;

27 and Ahira the son of Enan over the tribal army of the sons of Naphtali.

28 ¹This was the order of march of the sons of Israel by their armies as they set out.

29 ¶ Then Moses said to ^aHobab the son of ^bReuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; ^ccome with us and we will do you good, for the LORD ^ehas ¹promised good concerning Israel."

30 But he said to him, "^aI will not come, but rather will go to my own land and relatives."

31 Then he said, "Please do not leave us, inasmuch as you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you ^awill be as eyes for us.

32 "So it will be, if you go with us, it will come about that ^{1a}whatever good the LORD ²does for us, ^bwe will ³do for you."

33 ¶ ^aThus they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey, with ^bthe ark of the covenant of the LORD journeying in front of them for the ¹three days, to seek out ^ca resting place for them.

34 ^aAnd the cloud of the LORD was over them by day, when they set out from the camp.

35 ¶ Then it came about when the ark set out that Moses said,
 "Rise up, O LORD!

And let Thine enemies be scattered,

And let those ^bwho hate Thee flee ¹before Thee."

36 And when it came to rest, he said,

"Return Thou, O LORD
To the myriad ^bthousands of Israel."

CHAPTER 11

NOW the people became like ^athose who complain of adversity ^bin the hearing of the LORD; and when the LORD heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

2 ^aThe people therefore cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire ¹died out.

3 So the name of that place was called ^{1a}Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

wept again and said, "^bWho will give us ²meat to eat?

5 ^a"We remember the fish which we used to eat free in Egypt, the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic,

6 but now ^aour ¹appetite is gone. There is nothing at all ²to look at except this manna."

7 ^aNow the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of ^bbdellium.

8 The people would go about and gather it and grind it ¹between two millstones or beat it in the mortar, and boil it in the pot and make cakes with it; and its taste was as the taste of ²cakes baked with oil.

9 ^aAnd when the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna would fall ¹with it.

10 ¶ Now Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, each man at the doorway of his tent; and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly, and ¹Moses was displeased.

11 ^aSo Moses said to the LORD, "Why hast Thou ¹been so hard on Thy servant? And why have I not found favor in Thy sight, that Thou hast laid the burden of all this people on me?

12 "Was it I who conceived all this people? Was it I who brought them forth, that Thou shouldest say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom as a ^{1a}nurse carries a nursing infant, to the land which ^bThou didst swear to their fathers'?

13 "Where am I to get meat to give to ^aall this people? For they weep before me, saying, 'Give us meat that we may eat!'

14 "I alone am not able to carry all this people, because it is too ¹burdensome for me.

15 ^a"So if Thou art going to deal thus with me, please kill me at once, if I have found favor in Thy sight, and do not let me see my wretchedness."

16 ¶ The LORD therefore said to Moses, "Gather for Me ^aseventy men from the elders of Israel, ^bwhom you know to be the elders of the people and their officers and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with you.

17 "Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of ^bthe Spirit who is upon you, and will put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you shall not bear it all alone.

18 "And say to the people, "Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wept ^bin the ears of the LORD, saying, "Oh that someone would give us meat to eat! For we were well-off in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you meat and you shall eat.

19 'You shall eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

20 ¹but a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you; because ^ayou have rejected the LORD who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, "Why did we ever leave Egypt?" "

21 But Moses said, "The people, among whom I am, are 600,000 on foot; yet Thou hast said, 'I will give them meat in order that they may eat for a whole month.'

22 "Should flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or should all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?"

23 And the LORD said to Moses, "Is ^athe LORD's ¹power limited? Now you shall see whether ^bMy word will ²come true for you or not."

24 ¶ So Moses went out and ^atold the people the words of the LORD. Also, he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and stationed them around the tent.

25 ^aThen the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him; and He took of the Spirit who was upon him and placed Him upon the seventy elders. And it came about that when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do it again.

26 ¶ But two men had remained in the camp; the name of one was Eldad and the name of the ¹other Medad. And ^athe Spirit rested upon them (now they were among those who had been registered, but had not gone out to the tent), and they prophesied in the camp.

27 So a young man ran and told Moses and said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

28 Then ^aJoshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses from his youth, answered and said, "^bMoses, my lord, restrain them."

29 But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? ^aWould that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!"

30 Then Moses ¹returned to the camp, both he and the elders ¹of Israel.

31 ¶ ^aNow there went forth a wind from the LORD, and it brought quail from the sea, and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and ¹about two ²cubits deep on the surface of the ground.

32 And the people ¹spent all day and all night and all the next day, and gathered the quail (he who gathered least gathered ten ²homers) and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33 ^aWhile the meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very severe plague.

34 So the name of that place was called ^{1a}Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had been greedy.

35 From Kibroth-hattaavah ^athe people set out for Hazeroth, and they ¹remained at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER 12

THEN Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had married a ^aCushite woman);

2 ^aand they said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only through Moses? Has He not spoken through us as well?" And the LORD heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was ^avery humble, more than any man who was on the face of the earth.)

4 And suddenly the LORD said to Moses and Aaron and to Miriam, "You three come out to the tent of meeting." So the three of them came out.

5 ^aThen the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the doorway of the tent, and He called ^{1a}Aaron and Miriam. When they had both come forward,

6 He said,

"Hear now My words:

To speak against My servant, against Moses?"

9 ^a So the anger of the LORD burned against them and ^aHe departed.

10 But when the cloud had withdrawn from over the tent, behold, ^aMiriam was leprous, as ^bwhite as snow. As Aaron turned toward Miriam, behold, she was leprous.

11 Then Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, I beg you, ^ado not account this sin to us, in which we have acted foolishly and in which we have sinned.

12 "Oh, do not let her be like one dead, whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes from his mother's womb!"

13 And Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "O God, ^aheal her, I pray!"

14 But the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but ^aspit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut up for seven days ^boutside the camp, and afterward she may be received again."

15 So ^aMiriam was shut up outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until Miriam was received again.

16 ^a Afterward, however, the people moved out from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAPTER 13

THEN ^athe LORD spoke to Moses saying,

2 ^a"Send out for yourself men so that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I am going to give to the sons of Israel; you shall send a man from each of their fathers' tribes, every one a leader among them."

3 So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran at the ¹command of the LORD, all of them men who were heads of the sons of Israel.

4 These then were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Sham-mua the son of Zaccur;

5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

6 from the tribe of Judah, ^aCaleb the son of Jephunneh;

7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

8 from the tribe of Ephraim, ^aHoshea the son of Nun;

9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

11 from the tribe of Joseph, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gad-di the son of Susi;

12 from the tribe of Dan, Am-miel the son of Gemalli;

13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land; but Moses called ^aHoshea the son of Nun, Joshua.

17 ¶ When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he said to them, "Go up ¹there into ^athe ²Negev; then go up into the hill country.

18 "And see what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many.

not? ¹Make an effort then to get some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

21 ¶ So they went up and spied out the land from ^athe wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, ¹at Lebo-hamath.

22 When they had gone up into ^athe Negev, ¹they came to Hebron where ^bAhiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the ²descendants of ^cAnak were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before ^dZoan in Egypt.)

23 ¶ Then they came to the valley of ^{2a}Eshcol and from there cut down a branch with a single cluster of grapes; and they carried it on a pole between two men, with some of the pomegranates and the figs.

24 That place was called the valley of ¹Eshcol, because of the cluster which the sons of Israel cut down from there.

25 ¶ When they returned from spying out the land, at the end of forty days, 26 they proceeded to come to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the sons of Israel ¹in the wilderness of Paran, at ^aKadesh; and they brought back word to them and to all the congregation and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 Thus they told him, and said, "We went in to the land where you sent us; and ^ait certainly does flow with milk and honey, and ^bthis is its fruit.

28 "Nevertheless, ^athe people who live in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large; and moreover, we saw ^bthe ¹descendants of Anak there.

29 "Amalek is living in the land of ^athe Negev and the Hittites and the Jebusites and ^bthe Amorites are living in the hill country, and ^cthe Canaanites are living by the sea and by the side of the Jordan."

30 ¶ Then Caleb quieted the people ¹before Moses, and said, "We should by all means go up and take possession of it, for we shall surely overcome it."

31 But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are too strong for us."

32 So they gave out to the sons of Israel ^aa bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone, in spying it out, is ^ba land that devours its ¹inhabitants; and ^call the people whom we saw in it are men of great size."

33 "There also we saw the ^aNephilim (the sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim); and ^bwe became like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight."

CHAPTER 14

THEN all the congregation ¹lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept ²that night.

2 And all the sons of Israel ^agrumbled against Moses and Aaron; and the whole congregation said to them, "^bWould that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness!

3 "And why is the LORD bringing us into this land, ^ato fall by the sword? ^bOur wives and our little ones will become plunder; would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?"

4 So they said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt."

5 ¶ Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces in the presence of all the assembly of the congregation of the sons of Israel.

6 And Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes;

7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the sons of Israel,

9 "Only ^ado not rebel against the LORD; and do not ^bfear the people of the land, for they shall be our ¹prey. Their ²protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them."

10 ^aBut all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then ^bthe glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people spurn Me? And how long will ^bthey not believe in Me, despite all the signs which I have performed in their midst?"

12 "I will smite them with ¹pestilence and dispossess them, and I ^bwill make you into a nation greater and mightier than they."

13 ¶ And Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Thy strength Thou didst bring up this people from their midst,"

14 and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that Thou, O LORD, art in the midst of this people, for ^aThou, O LORD, art seen eye to eye, while Thy cloud stands over them; and Thou dost go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 "Now if Thou dost slay this people as one man, ^athen the nations who have heard of Thy fame will ¹say,

16 'Because the LORD ^acould not bring this people into the land which He promised them by oath, therefore He slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

17 "But now, I pray, let the power of the Lord be great, just as Thou hast ¹declared,

18 ^aThe LORD is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but ^bHe will by no means clear the guilty, ^cvisiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children ¹to the third and the fourth generations.'

19 ^aPardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Thy lovingkindness, just as Thou also hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now."

20 ¶ So the LORD said, "I have pardoned them according to your word;

21 but indeed, ^aas I live, ¹I'll fill the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 "Surely ^aall the men who have seen My glory and My signs, which I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet ^bhave put Me to the test these ten times and have not listened to My voice, 23 ^ashall by no means see the land which I swore to their fathers, nor shall any of those who spurned Me see it.

24 "But My servant Caleb, ^abecause he has had a different spirit and has followed Me fully, ¹I will bring into the land ²which he entered, and his ³descendants shall take possession of it.

25 ^aNow the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys; turn tomorrow and set out to the wilderness by the way of the ¹Red Sea."

26 ¶ And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

27 "How long shall I bear with this evil congregation who are ^agrumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel, which they are ¹making against Me.

31 ^aYour children, however, whom you said would become a prey—I will bring them in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.

32 ^aBut as for you, your corpses shall fall in this wilderness.

33 ¹And your sons shall be shepherds for ^aforty years in the wilderness, and they shall ¹suffer for your ²unfaithfulness, until your corpses ³lie in the wilderness.

34 ¹According to the ^anumber of days which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day you shall bear your ¹guilt a year, even forty years, and you shall know My opposition.

35 ^aI, the LORD, have spoken, surely this I will do to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. In this wilderness they shall be destroyed, and there they shall die."

36 ¶ ^aAs for the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land and who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing out a bad report concerning the land,

37 even ^athose men who brought out the very bad report of the land died by a ^bplague before the LORD.

38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive out of those men who went to spy out the land.

39 ¶ And when Moses spoke ^athese words to all the sons of Israel, ^bthe people mourned greatly.

40 In the morning, however, they rose up early and went up to the ¹ridge of the hill country, saying, "Here we are; ²we have indeed sinned, but we will go up to the place which the LORD has promised."

41 But Moses said, "Why then are you transgressing the ¹commandment of the LORD, when it will not succeed?

42 "Do not go up, lest you be struck down before your enemies, for the LORD is not among you.

43 "For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will be there in front of you, and you will fall by the sword, inasmuch as you have turned back from following the LORD. And the LORD will not be with you."

44 But they went up heedlessly to the ¹ridge of the hill country; neither ^athe ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses left the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down, and struck them and beat them down as far as ^aHormah.

17 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

32 ¶ Now while the sons of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man ^agathering wood on the sabbath day.

33 And those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to all the congregation;

34 and they put him in ¹custody ^abecause it had not been ²declared what should be done to him.

36 So all the congregation brought him outside the camp, and stoned him ¹to death with stones, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

37 ¶ The LORD also spoke to Moses, saying, and that they shall put on the tassel of each corner a cord of blue.

39 "And it shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, so as to do them and not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you played the harlot.

CHAPTER 16

NOW Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took action.

2 and they rose up before Moses, together with some of the sons of Israel, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, chosen in the assembly, men of renown.

3 And they assembled together against Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "You have gone far enough, for all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is in their midst; so why do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

4 ¶ When Moses heard this, he fell on his face;

5 and he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show who is His, and who is holy, and will bring him near to Himself; even the one whom He will choose, He will bring near to Himself.

the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the one who is holy. 1a You have gone far enough, you sons of Levi!"

8 ¶ Then Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi,

9 is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to Himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them;

10 and that He has brought you near, Korah, and all your brothers, sons of Levi, with you? And are you seeking for the priesthood also?

11 "Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD; but as for Aaron, who is he that you grumble against him?"

12 ¶ Then Moses sent a summons to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; but they said, "We will not come up.

13 "Is it not enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to have us die in the wilderness, but you would also lord it over us?

14 "Indeed, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor have you given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up!"

15 ¶ Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, "Do not regard their offering! I have not taken a single donkey from them, nor have I done harm to any of them."

16 And Moses said to Korah, "You and all your company be present before the LORD tomorrow, both you and they along with Aaron.

17 "And each of you take his firepan and put incense on it, and each of you bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty firepans; also you and Aaron shall each bring his firepan."

18 So they each took his own censer and put fire on ¹it, and laid incense on ¹it; and they stood at the doorway of the tent of meeting, with Moses and Aaron.

19 Thus Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the doorway of the tent of meeting. And ^athe glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.

20 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,

21 "Separate yourselves from among this congregation, ^bthat I may consume them instantly."

22 But they fell on their faces, and said, "O God, ^aThou God of the spirits of all flesh, ^bwhen one man sins, wilt Thou be angry with the entire congregation?"

23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

24 "Speak to the congregation, saying, 'Get back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.'"

25 ¶ Then Moses arose and went to Dathan and Abiram, with the elders of Israel following him,

26 and he spoke to the congregation, saying, "^aDepart now from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing that belongs to them, ^blest you be swept away in all their sin."

27 So they got back from around the dwellings of Korah, Dathan and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the doorway of their tents; along with their wives and ^atheir sons and their little ones.

28 And Moses said, "By this you shall know that ^athe LORD has sent me to do all these deeds; for this is not ¹my doing.

31 ¶ Then it came about as he finished speaking all these words, that the ground that was under them split open;

32 and ^athe earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up and their households, and ^ball the men who belonged to Korah with their possessions.

33 So they and all that belonged to them went down alive to ¹Sheol; and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

41 ¶ But on the next day all the congregation of the sons of Israel ^agrumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You are the ones who have caused the death of the LORD's people."

42 It came about, however, when the congregation had assembled against Moses and Aaron, that they turned toward the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it and ^athe glory of the LORD appeared.

43 Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting.

44 and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

45 "Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them instantly." Then they fell on their faces.

46 And Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer and put in it fire from the altar, and lay incense on it; then bring it quickly to the congregation and ^amake atonement for them, for ^bwrath has gone forth from the LORD, the plague has begun!"

47 Then Aaron took it as Moses had spoken, and ran into the midst of the assembly, for behold, the plague had begun among the people. ^aSo he put on the incense and made atonement for the people.

48 And he took his stand between the dead and the living, so that the plague was checked.

49 ^aBut those who died by the plague were 14,700, besides those who ^bdied on account of Korah.

1 THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying.

2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, and get from them a rod for each father's household: twelve rods, from all their leaders according to their fathers' households. You shall write each name on his rod.

3 and write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi; for there is one rod for the head of each of their fathers' households.

4 "You shall then deposit them in the tent of meeting in front of ^athe testimony, where I meet with you.

5 "And it will come about that the rod of ^athe man whom I choose will sprout. Thus I shall lessen from upon Myself the grumblings of the sons of Israel, who are grumbling against you."

6 Moses therefore spoke to the sons of Israel, and all their leaders gave him a rod apiece, for each leader according to their fathers' households, twelve rods, with the rod of Aaron among their rods.

7 So Moses deposited the rods before the LORD in ^athe tent of the testimony.

8 ¶ Now it came about on the next day that Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, ^athe rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted and put forth buds and produced blossoms, and it bore ripe almonds.

9 Moses then brought out all the rods from the presence of the LORD to all the sons of Israel; and they looked, and each man took his rod.

10 But the LORD said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron ^abefore the testimony ^bto be kept as a sign against the ^crebels, that you may put an end to their grumblings against Me, so that they should not die."

11 Thus Moses did; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did.

12 ¶ Then the sons of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Behold, we perish, we are dying, we are all dying!"

13 "Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, must die. Are we to perish completely?"

CHAPTER 18

SO the LORD said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your father's household with you shall bear the guilt in connection with the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the guilt in connection with your priesthood."

2 "But bring with you also your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may be joined with you and serve you, while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony."

3 "And they shall thus attend to your obligation and the obligation of all the tent, but they shall not come near to the furnishings of the sanctuary and the altar, lest both they and you die."

4 "And they shall be joined with you and attend to the obligations of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; but an outsider may not come near you."

5 "So you shall attend to the obligations of the sanctuary and the obligations of the altar, that there may no longer be wrath on the sons of Israel."

6 "And behold, I Myself have taken your fellow Levites from among the sons of Israel; they are a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service for the tent of meeting."

7 "But you and your sons with you shall attend to your priesthood for everything concerning the altar and inside the veil, and you are to perform service. I am giving you the priesthood as a

8 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, "Now behold, I Myself have given you charge of My offerings, even all the holy gifts of the sons of Israel, I have given them to you as a portion, and to your sons as a perpetual allotment."

9 "This shall be yours from the most holy gifts, reserved from the fire; every offering of theirs, even every grain offering and every sin offering and every guilt offering, which they shall render to Me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons."

10 "As the most holy gifts you shall eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you."

11 "This also is yours, the offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the sons of Israel; I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual allotment. Everyone of your household who is clean may eat it."

12 "All the best of the fresh oil and all the best of the fresh wine and of the grain, the first fruits of those which they give to the LORD, I give them to you."

13 "The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone of your household who is clean may eat it."

14 "Every devoted thing in Israel shall be yours."

15 "Every first issue of the womb of all flesh, whether man or animal, which they offer to the LORD, shall be yours; nevertheless the first-born of man you shall surely redeem, and the first-born of unclean animals you shall redeem."

16 "And as to their redemption price, from a month old you shall redeem them, by your valuation, five shekels in silver, according to the ¹shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 "But ^athe first-born of an ox or the first-born of a sheep or the first-born of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. ^bYou shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and shall offer up their fat in smoke as an offering by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD.

18 "And their ¹meat shall be yours; it shall be yours like the ^abreast of a wave offering and like the right thigh.

19 "All the offerings of the holy gifts, which the sons of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given to you and your sons and your daughters with you, as a perpetual allotment. It is ^aan everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD to you and your ¹descendants with you."

20 Then the LORD said to Aaron, "You shall have no inheritance in their land, nor own any portion among them; ^bI am your portion and your inheritance among the sons of Israel.

21 "And to the sons of Levi, behold, I have given all the ^atithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they perform, the service of the tent of meeting.

22 "And ^athe sons of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting again, lest they bear sin and die.

23 "Only the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall ^abear their iniquity; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, and among the sons of Israel ^bthey shall have no inheritance.

24 "For the tithe of the sons of Israel, which they offer as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said concerning them, ^a'They shall have no inheritance among the sons of Israel.'

2 "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying, 'Speak to the sons of Israel that they bring you an ^aunblemished red heifer in which is no defect, and ^bon which a yoke has never ¹been placed.

3 'And you shall give it to ^aEleazar the priest, and it shall ^bbe brought outside the camp and be slaughtered in his presence.

4 'Next Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and ^asprinkle some of its blood toward the front of the tent of meeting seven times.

5 'Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; ^aits hide and its flesh and its blood, with its refuse, shall be burned.

6 'And the priest shall take ^acedar wood and hyssop and scarlet material, and cast it into the midst of the ¹burning heifer.

7 'The priest ^ashall then wash his clothes and bathe his ¹body in water, and afterward come into the camp, but the priest shall be unclean until evening.

8 'The one who burns it shall also wash his clothes in water and bathe his ¹body in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

9 'Now a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and ¹the congregation of the sons of Israel shall keep it as ^awater to remove impurity; it is ²purification from sin.

10 'And the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer ^ashall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening; and it shall be a perpetual statute to the sons of Israel and to the alien who sojourns among them.

16 'Also, anyone who in the open field touches one who has been slain with a sword or who has died naturally, or a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean for seven days.

20 ¶ 'But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself from uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has ^adefiled the sanctuary of the LORD; the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean.

21 'So it shall be a perpetual statute for them. And he ^awho sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

22 "Furthermore, anything that the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the person who touches it shall be unclean until evening."

CHAPTER 20

THEN the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to the wilderness of Zin in the first month; and the people stayed at Kadesh. Now Miriam died there and was buried there.

2 ¶ "And there was no water for the congregation; and they assembled themselves against Moses and Aaron.

3 "The people thus contended with Moses and spoke, saying, "If only we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD!

4 "Why then have you brought the LORD's assembly into this wilderness, for us and our beasts to die here?

5 "And why have you made us come up from Egypt, to bring us in to this wretched place? It is not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, nor is there water to drink."

6 Then Moses and Aaron came in from the presence of the assembly to the doorway of the tent of meeting, and fell on their faces. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to them;

7 and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

8 "Take the rod; and you and your brother Aaron assemble the congregation and speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may yield its water. You shall thus bring forth water for them out of the rock and let the congregation and their beasts drink."

9 So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, just as He had commanded him;

10 and Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock. And he said to them, "Listen now, you rebels; shall we bring forth water for you out of this rock?"

11 Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod; and water came forth abundantly, and the congregation and their beasts drank.

12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you have not believed Me, to treat Me as holy in the sight of the sons of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

13 Those were the waters of Meribah, because the sons of Israel contended with the LORD, and He proved Himself holy among them.

14 ¶ From Kadesh Moses then sent messengers to the king of Edom: "Thus your brother Israel has said, 'You know all the hardship that has befallen us;

15 that our fathers went down to Egypt, and we stayed in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our fathers badly.

16 'But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out from Egypt; now behold, we are at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

17 'Please let us pass through your land. We shall not pass through field or through vineyard; we shall not even drink water from a well. We shall go along the king's highway, not turning to the right or left, until we pass through your territory.'

18 "Edom, however, said to him, "You shall not pass through us, lest I come out with the sword against you."

20 But he said, "^aYou shall not pass through." And Edom came out against him with a heavy ¹force, and with a strong hand.

21 ^aThus Edom refused to allow Israel to pass through his territory; ^bso Israel turned away from him.

22 ¶ Now when they set out from ^aKadesh, the sons of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

23 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron at ^aMount Hor by the border of the land of Edom, saying, 24 "Aaron shall be ^agathered to his people; for he shall not enter the land which I have given to the sons of Israel, because ^byou rebelled against My ¹command at the waters of Meribah.

25 "Take Aaron and his son ^aEleazar, and bring them up to Mount Hor;

26 and strip Aaron of his garments and put them on his son Eleazar. So Aaron will be ^agathered to his people, and will die there."

27 So Moses did just as the LORD had commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And after Moses had stripped Aaron of his garments and ^aput them on his son Eleazar, ^bAaron died there on the mountain top. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty ^adays.

CHAPTER 21

WHEN the Canaanite, the king of ^aArad, who lived in the ¹Negev, heard that Israel was coming by the way of ²Atharim, then he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive.

2 So ^aIsrael made a vow to the LORD, and said, "If Thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will ¹utterly destroy their cities."

3 And the LORD heard the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; then they ¹utterly destroyed them and their cities. Thus the name of the place was called ^{2a}Hormah.

4 ¶ Then they set out from Mount Hor by the way of the ¹Red Sea, to ^ago around the land of Edom; and the ²people became impatient because of the journey.

5 And the people spoke against God and Moses, "^aWhy have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no ¹food and no water, and ^{2b}we loathe this miserable food."

6 ^aAnd the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people and ^bthey bit the people, so that ^cmany people of Israel died.

7 ^aSo the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and you; ^bintercede with the LORD, that He may remove the serpents from us." And Moses interceded for the people.

8 Then the LORD said to Moses, "¹Make a ^afiery serpent, and set it on a standard; and it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, he shall live."

9 And Moses made a ^abronze serpent and set it on the standard; and it came about, that if a serpent bit any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived.

10 ¶ Now the sons of Israel moved out and camped in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and camped at Iyeab-arim, in the wilderness which is opposite Moab, to the east.

12 From there they set out and camped in Wadi Zered.

13 From there they journeyed and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites, for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD,

"Waheb in Suphah,

And the wadis of the Arnon,

15 And the slope of the wadis That extends to the site of Ar,

And leans to the border of Moab."

16 And from there they continued to Beer, that is the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Assemble the people, that I may give them water."

17 ¶ Then Israel sang this song:

"Spring up, O well! Sing to it!

18 "The well, which the leaders sank,

Which the nobles of the people dug,

With the scepter and with their staffs."

And from the wilderness they continued to Mattanah,

19 and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

20 and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the land of Moab, at the top of Pisgah which overlooks the wasteland.

21 ¶ Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,

22 "Let me pass through your land. We will not turn off into field or vineyard; we will not drink water from wells. We will go by the king's highway until we have passed through your border."

23 But Sihon would not permit Israel to pass through his border. So Sihon gathered all his people and went out against Israel in the wilderness, and came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.

24 Then Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as the sons of Ammon; for the border of the sons of Ammon was Jazer.

25 And Israel took all these cities and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all her villages.

26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.

27 Therefore those who use proverbs say,

"Come to Heshbon! Let it be built!

So let the city of Sihon be established.

A flame from the town of Sihon;

30 And the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I ever been accustomed to do so to you?" And he said, "No."

64 ^aBut among these there was not a man of those who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the sons of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the LORD had said ¹of them, "They shall surely die in the wilderness." And not a man was left of them, ^bexcept Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 27

THEN ^athe daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, came near; and these are ^bthe names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah and Milcah and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses and before Eleazar the priest and before the leaders and all the congregation, at the doorway of the tent of meeting, saying,

3 "Our father ^adied in the wilderness, yet he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and ^bhe had no sons.

4 "Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers."

5 ^aAnd Moses brought their case before the LORD.

6 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

7 "The daughters of Zelophehad are right in their statements. You shall surely give them a hereditary possession among their father's brothers, and you shall transfer the inheritance of their father to them.

8 "Further, you shall speak to the sons of Israel, saying, 'If a man dies and has no son, then you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter.

9 "And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 "And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers.

11 "And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his own family, and he shall possess it; and it shall be a ^astatutory ordinance to the sons of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses." "

12 ¶ "Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up to this ^bmountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the sons of Israel.

13 "And when you have seen it, you too ^ashall be gathered to your people, ^bas Aaron your brother ¹was;

14 for in the wilderness of Zin, during the strife of the congregation, ^ayou rebelled against My ¹command ²to treat Me as holy before their eyes at the water." (These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

15 ¶ Then Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

16 "May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, 17 who ^awill go out ¹and come in before them, and who will lead them out and ²bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be ^blike sheep which have no shepherd."

18 So the LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man ^ain whom is the Spirit, and ^blay your hand on him;

19 and have him stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation; and ^acommission him in their sight.

CHAPTER 28

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Command the sons of Israel and say to them, 'You shall ¹be careful to present My offering, My ^afood for My offerings by fire, of a soothing aroma to Me, at their appointed time.'

3 "And you shall say to them, 'This is the offering by fire which you shall offer to the LORD; two male lambs one year old without defect as a continual burnt offering every day.

40 And Moses spoke to the sons of Israel in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

THEN Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the word which the LORD has commanded.

CHAPTER 31

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Take full vengeance for the sons of Israel on the Midianites; afterward you will be gathered to your people."

3 And Moses spoke to the people, saying, "Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian.

4 "A thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Israel you shall send to the war."

5 So there were furnished from the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them, a thousand from each tribe, to the war, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war with them, and the holy vessels and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand.

7 So they made war against Midian, just as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they killed every male.

8 And they killed the kings of Midian along with the rest of their slain: Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian; they also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword.

9 And the sons of Israel captured the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their cattle and all their flocks and all their goods, they plundered.

10 Then they burned all their cities where they lived and all their camps with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil and all the prey, both of man and of beast.

12 And they brought the captives and the prey and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest and to the congregation of the sons of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the congregation went out to meet them outside the camp.

14 And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

15 And Moses said to them, "Have you ¹spared ^aall the women?"

16 "Behold, these ¹caused the sons of Israel, through the ²counsel of ^bBalaam, to ³trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, so the plague was among the congregation of the LORD.

17 "Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man ¹intimately.

18 "But all the ¹girls who have not known man ²intimately, ³spare for yourselves.

19 "And you, camp outside the camp seven days; whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves, you and your captives, on the third day and on the seventh day.

20 "And you shall purify for yourselves every garment and every article of ¹leather and all the work of goats' ¹hair, and all articles of wood."

21 ¶ Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle, "This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded Moses:

27 and ^adivide the booty between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.

30 "And from the sons of Israel's half, you shall take one drawn out of every fifty of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys and of the sheep, from all the animals, and give them to the Levites who ^akeep charge of the tabernacle of the LORD."

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Now the booty that remained from the spoil which the ¹men of war had plundered was 675,000 sheep,

33 and 72,000 cattle,

34 and 61,000 donkeys,

35 and of human beings, of the women who had not known man ¹intimately, all the persons were 32,000.

36 And the half, the portion of those who went out to war, was as follows: the number of sheep was 337,500, 38 and the cattle were 36,000, from which the LORD's levy was 72.

54 So Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it to the tent of meeting as ^aa memorial for the sons of Israel before the LORD.

CHAPTER 32

NOW the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad had an ^aexceedingly large number of livestock. So when they saw the land of ^bJazer and the land of Gilead, that ¹it was indeed a place suitable for livestock,

2 the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

3 ^a"Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon,

4 the land ^awhich the LORD ¹conquered before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock."

5 And they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants as a possession; do not take us across the Jordan."

6 ¶ But Moses said to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben, "Shall your brothers go to war while you yourselves sit here?

7 ^a"Now why are you ¹discouraging the sons of Israel from crossing over into the land which the LORD has given them?

8 ¹"This is what your fathers did when I sent them from ^aKadesh-barnea to see the land.

9 "For when they went up to ^athe ¹valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they ²discouraged the sons of Israel so that they did not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 "So the LORD's anger burned in that day, and He swore, saying,

11 "None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob; for they did not follow Me fully,

12 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have followed the LORD fully.

13 "So the LORD's anger burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the entire generation of those who had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed.

14 "Now behold, you have risen up in your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to add still more to the burning anger of the LORD against Israel.

15 "For if you turn away from following Him, He will once more abandon them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all these people."

16 ¶ Then they came near to him and said, "We will build here sheepfolds for our livestock and cities for our little ones;

17 but we ourselves will be armed ready to go before the sons of Israel, until we have brought them to their place, while our little ones live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 "We will not return to our homes until every one of the sons of Israel has possessed his inheritance.

19 "For we will not have an inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Jordan toward the east."

20 ¶ So Moses said to them, "If you will do this, if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for the war.

21 and all of you armed yourselves over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven His enemies out from before Him.

22 "and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you shall return and be free of obligation toward the LORD and toward Israel, and this land shall be yours for a possession before the LORD.

23 "But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.

24 "Build yourselves cities for your little ones, and sheepfolds for your sheep; and do what you have promised."

25 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben spoke to Moses saying, "Your servants will do just as my lord commands.

26 "Our little ones, our wives, our livestock and all our cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead;

27 while your servants, everyone who is armed for war, will cross over in the presence of the LORD to battle, just as my lord says."

28 ¶ So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' households of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

29 And Moses said to them, "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben, everyone who is armed for battle, will cross with you over the Jordan in the presence of the LORD, and the land will be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession;

30 but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

31 And the sons of Gad and the sons of Reuben answered, saying. "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do.

32 "We ourselves will cross over armed in the presence of the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us across the Jordan."

33 ¶ "So Moses gave to them, to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Joseph's son Manasseh, the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, the land with its cities with their territories, the cities of the surrounding land.

34 And the sons of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer, 35 and Atroth-shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah, 36 and Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran as fortified cities, and sheepfolds for sheep.

37 And the sons of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim, 38 and Nebo and Baal-meon—their names being changed—and Sibmah, and they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 And the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40 So Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it.

41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns, and called them Havvoth-jair.

42 And Nobah went and took Kenath and its villages, and called it Nobah after his own name.

50 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying,

51 "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and ^adestroy all their figured stones, and destroy all their molten images and demolish all their high places;

53 ^aand you shall take possession of the land and live in it, for I have given the land to you to possess it.

54 ^aAnd you shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the larger you shall give more inheritance, and to the smaller you shall give less inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to anyone, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

55 'But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall come about that those whom you let remain of them will become ^aas pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land in which you live.

56 'And it shall come about that as I plan to do to them, so I will do to you.' "

CHAPTER 34

THEN the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 "Command the sons of Israel and say to them, 'When you enter ^athe land of Canaan, this is the land that shall fall to you as an inheritance, even the land of Canaan according to its borders.

Josh 14.1-5

3 ^aYour southern ¹sector shall ²extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom, and your southern border shall ²extend from the end of the Salt Sea ^beastward.

4 'Then your border shall turn direction from the south to the ascent of Akrabbim, and ¹continue to Zin, and its ²termination shall be to the south of ^aKadesh-barnea; and it shall ³reach Hazaraddar, and ¹continue to Azmon.

5 'And the border shall turn direction from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and its termination shall be at ^athe sea.

6 ¶ 'As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea, that is, its ¹coastline; this shall be your west border.

7 ¶ ^aAnd this shall be your north border: you shall draw your border line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor.

8 'You shall draw a line from Mount Hor to ^athe ¹Lebo-hamath, and the termination of the border shall be at Zedad;

9 and the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and its termination shall be at Hazar-enan. This shall be your north border.

10 ¶ 'For your eastern border you shall also draw a line from Hazar-enan to Shepham, 11 and the border shall go down from Shepham to ^aRiblah on the east side of Ain; and the border shall go down and reach to the ¹slope on the east side of the Sea of ^bChinnereth.

12 'And the border shall go down to the Jordan and its termination shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land according to its borders all around.' "

13 ¶ So Moses commanded the sons of Israel, saying, "This is the land that you are to apportion by lot among you as a possession, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes.

14" *For the tribe of the sons of Reuben have received theirs according to their fathers' households, and the tribe of the sons of Gad according to their fathers' households, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their possession.

15" The two and a half tribes have received their possession across the Jordan opposite Jericho, eastward toward the sunrising."

16 ¶ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

17" *These are the names of the men who shall apportion the land to you for inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

18" And you shall take one leader of every tribe to apportion the land for inheritance.

19" And these are the names of the men: of the tribe of *Judah, *Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

20" And of the tribe of the sons of *Simeon, Samuel the son of Ammihud.

21" Of the tribe of *Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22" And of the tribe of the sons of Dan a leader, Bukki the son of Jogli.

23" Of the sons of Joseph: of the tribe of the sons of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel the son of Ephod.

24" And of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim a leader, Kemuel the son of Shiphtan.

25" And of the tribe of the sons of Zebulun a leader, Elizaphan the son of Parnach.

26" And of the tribe of the sons of Issachar a leader, Paltiel the son of Azzan.

27" And of the tribe of the sons of Asher a leader, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28" And of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali a leader, Pedahel the son of Ammihud."

29 These are those whom the LORD commanded to apportion the inheritance to the sons of Israel in the land of Canaan.

CHAPTER 35

NOW the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying,

2" Command the sons of Israel that they give to the Levites from the inheritance of their possession, cities to live in; and you shall give to the Levites pasture lands around the cities.

3" And the cities shall be theirs to live in; and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle and for their herds and for all their beasts.

4 ¶ "And the pasture lands of the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall extend from the wall of the city outward a thousand cubits around.

5" You shall also measure out side the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, with the city in the center. This shall become theirs as pasture land for the cities.

6" And the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be the *six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to; and in addition to them you shall give forty-two cities.

7" All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be *forty-eight cities, ¹together with their pasture lands.

8" *As for the cities which you shall give from the possession of the sons of Israel, you shall take more from the larger and you shall take less from the smaller; each shall give some of his cities to the Levites in proportion to his possession which he inherits."

CHAPTER 36

AND the heads of the fathers' households of the family of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel,

2 and they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land by lot to the sons of Israel as an inheritance, and my lord ^awas commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.

3 "But if they ¹marry one of the sons of the other tribes of the sons of Israel, their inheritance will be withdrawn from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they belong; thus it will be withdrawn from our allotted inheritance.

5 ¶ Then Moses commanded the sons of Israel according to the ¹word of the LORD, saying, "The tribe of the sons of Joseph are right in their statements.

6 "This is ¹what the LORD has commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, 'Let them marry ²whom they wish; only they must marry within the family of the tribe of their father.'

7 "Thus ^ano inheritance of the sons of Israel shall ¹be transferred from tribe to tribe, for the sons of Israel shall each ²hold to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 "And every daughter who comes into possession of an inheritance of any tribe of the sons of Israel, shall be wife to one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the sons of Israel each may possess the inheritance of his fathers.

9 "Thus no inheritance shall ¹be transferred from one tribe to another tribe, for the tribes of the sons of Israel shall each ²hold to his own inheritance."

10 ¶ Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zelophehad did:

11 ^aMahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad married their uncles' sons.

12 They married those from the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance ¹remained with the tribe of the family of their father.

13 ¶ ^aThese are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded to the sons of Israel through Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Israel's History after the Exodus

THESE are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab.

2 It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.

3 And it came about in the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had commanded him to give to them.

4 after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

5 Across the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law, saying,

6 "The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

7 Turn and set your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country and in the lowland and in the Negev and by the sea-coast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 See, I have placed the land before you; go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to them and their descendants after them."

9 "And I spoke to you at that time, saying, 'I am not able to bear the burden of you alone.

11 "May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand-fold more than you are, and bless you, just as He has promised you!

12 "How can I alone bear the load and burden of you and your strife?

13 "Choose wise and discerning and experienced men from your tribes, and I will appoint them as your heads."

14 "And you answered me and said, 'The thing which you have said to do is good.'

15 "So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and appointed them heads over you, leaders of thousands, and of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and officers for your tribes.

16 "Then I charged your judges at that time, saying, 'Hear the cases between your fellow countrymen, and judge righteously between a man and his fellow countryman, or the alien who is with him.

17 "You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not fear man, for the judgment is God's. And the case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it."

18 "And I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

19 "Then we set out from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, just as the LORD our God had commanded us; and we came to ^aKadesh-barnea.

20 "And I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites which the LORD our God is about to give us.'

21 'See, the LORD your God has placed the land before you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you. ^a'Do not fear or be dismayed.'

22 "Then all of you approached me and said, 'Let us send men before us, that they may search out the land for us, and bring back to us word of the way by which we should go up, and the cities which we shall enter.'

23 "And the thing pleased me and I took twelve of your men, one man for each tribe.

24 "And they turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and spied it out.

25 "Then they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us; and they brought us back a report and said, 'It is a good land which the LORD our God is about to give us.'

26 "Yet you were not willing to go up, but ^brebelled against the ^ccommand of the LORD your God;

27 and ^ayou grumbled in your tents and said, 'Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us.'

28 'Where can we go up? Our brethren have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are bigger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified to heaven. And besides, we saw ^a'the sons of the Anakim there.'"

29 "Then I said to you, 'Do not be shocked, nor fear them.'

32 "But ^afor all this, you did not trust the LORD your God.

33 ^a'who goes before you on your way, ^bto seek out a place for you to encamp, in fire by night and cloud by day, to show you the way in which you should go.'

34 "Then the LORD heard the sound of your words, and He was angry and ^a'took an oath, saying,

35 ^a'Not one of these men, this evil generation, shall see the good land which I swore to give your fathers,

36 except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and ^a'to him and to his sons I will give the land on which he has set foot, because he has followed the LORD fully.'

37 "The LORD was angry with me also on your account, saying, ^b'Not even you shall enter there.'

38 'Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, ^a'he shall enter there; encourage him, for ^b'he shall cause Israel to inherit it.'

39 'Moreover, ^a'your little ones who you said would become a prey, and your sons, who this day have ^b'no knowledge of good or evil, shall enter there, and I will give it to them, and they shall possess it.'

40 'But as for you, ^a'turn around and set out for the wilderness by the way to the ^c'Red Sea.'

41 "Then you answered and said to me, 'We have sinned against the LORD; we will indeed go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' And every man of you girded on his weapons of war, and regarded it as easy to go up into the hill country.

42^a "And the LORD said to me, 'Say to them, "Do not go up, nor fight, for I am not among you; lest you be ¹defeated before your enemies."'

43^a "So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead ^ayou rebelled against the ¹command of the LORD, and acted presumptuously and went up into the hill country.

44^a "And the Amorites who ¹lived in that hill country came out against you, and chased you ^bas bees do, and crushed you from Seir to Hormah.

45^a "Then you returned and wept before the LORD; but the ^aLORD did not listen to your voice, nor give ear to you.

46^a "So you remained in ^aKadesh many days, ¹the days that you spent there.

CHAPTER 2

66^a THEN we turned and set out for the wilderness by the way to the ¹Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and circled ^bMount Seir for many days.

2^a "And the LORD spoke to me, saying,

3^a "You have circled this mountain long enough. Now turn north,

4^a "and command the people, saying, "You will pass through the ^bterritory of your brothers the sons of Esau who live in Seir; and ^cthey will be afraid of you. So be very careful;

5^a do not ¹provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land, even as little as a ²footstep ^abecause I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

6^a "You shall buy food from them with money so that you may eat, and you shall also purchase water from them with money so that you may drink.

7^a "For the LORD your God has blessed you in all ¹that you have done; He has known your ²wanderings through this ^agreat wilderness. These ^bforty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have not lacked a thing."

8^a "So we passed beyond our brothers the sons of Esau, who live in Seir, away from the ^aArabah road, away from Elath and ^bfrom Ezion-geber. And we turned and passed through by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9^a "Then the LORD said to me, 'Do not harass Moab, nor provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of ¹their land as a possession, because I have given ^aAr to ^bthe sons of Lot as a possession.

10 (The ^aEmim lived there formerly, a people as great, numerous, and tall as the Anakim.

11 Like the Anakim, they are also regarded as ^aRephaim, but the Moabites call them Emim.

12 ^aThe Horites formerly lived in Seir, but the sons of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them and settled in their place, ^bjust as Israel did to the land of ¹their possession which the LORD gave to them.)

13^a "Now arise and cross over the ¹brook Zered yourselves.' So we crossed over the ¹brook Zered.

14^a "Now the ¹time that it took for us to come from Kadesh-barnea, until we crossed over the ²brook Zered, was ^athirty-eight years; until ^ball the generation of the men of war perished from within the camp, as ^cthe LORD had sworn to them.

15^a "Moreover the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from within the camp, until they all perished.

16^a "So it came about when ^aall the men of war had finally perished from among the people,

17 that the LORD spoke to me, saying,

CHAPTER 3

66 ^aTHEN we turned and went up the road to Bashan, and Og, king of Bashan,

1 with all his people came out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

2 "But the LORD said to me, 'Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him just as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.'

3 "So the LORD our God delivered Og also, king of Bashan, with all his people into our hand, and we smote them until no survivor was left.

4 "And we captured all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 "All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates and bars, besides a great many unwalled towns.

6 "And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women and children of every city.

7 "But all the animals and the spoil of the cities we took as our booty.

8 "Thus we took the land at that time from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of Arnon to Mount Hermon.

9 (Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir);

10 all the cities of the tableland and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 (For only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaim. Behold, his bedstead was an iron bedstead; it is in Rabbah of the sons of Ammon. Its length was nine cubits and its width four cubits by ordinary cubit.)

12 "So we took possession of this land at that time. From Aro-

21 "And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, 'Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD shall do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross.

22 'Do not fear them, for the LORD your God ^ais the one fighting for you.'

23 'I also pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying,

24 'O Lord ¹God, Thou hast begun to show Thy servant ^aThy greatness and Thy strong hand; for what ^bgod is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as Thine?

25 'Let me, I pray, cross over and see the ^afair land that is beyond the Jordan, ¹that good hill country and Lebanon.'

26 'But ^athe LORD was angry with me on your account, and would not listen to me; and the LORD said to me, 'Enough! Speak to Me no more of this matter.

27 'Go up to the top of ^aPisgah and lift up your eyes to the west and north and south and east, and see it with your eyes, ^bfor you shall not cross over this Jordan.

“NOW this is the commandment, the statutes and the judgments which the LORD your God has commanded me to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you are going over to possess it,

2 so that you and your son and your grandson might ^afear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments, which I command you ^ball the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

3 ^aO Israel, you should listen and ^bbe careful to do it, that ^amay be well with you and that you may multiply greatly, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you, ^bin ^bland flowing with milk and honey.

4 ^aHear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the ^bLORD is one!

5 ^aAnd ^ayou shall love the LORD your God ^bwith all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

6 ^aAnd ^athese words, which I am commanding you today shall be on your heart;

7 and ^ayou shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

8 ^aAnd you shall bind them as sign on your hand and they shall be as ¹frontals ²on your forehead.

9 ^aAnd you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

10 ^aThen it shall come about when the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you ^agreat and splendid cities which you did not build, things which you did not fill, and hewn cisterns which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you shall eat and be satisfied.

13 "You shall fear only the LORD your God; and you shall worship Him, and swear by His name.

14 "You shall not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who surround you.

15 for the LORD your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; otherwise the anger of the LORD your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you off the face of the earth.

16 "You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah.

17 "You should diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you.

18 "And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to give your fathers.

19 by driving out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

20 "When your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What do the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments mean which the LORD our God commanded you?'

21 then you shall say to your son, 'We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt; and the LORD brought us from Egypt with a mighty hand.

CHAPTER 7

66 "WHEN the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you are entering to possess it, and shall clear away many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than you,

2 and when the LORD your God shall deliver them before you, and you shall defeat them, then you shall utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them and show no favor to them.

3 Furthermore, you shall not intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor shall you take their daughters for your sons.

4 "For they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods; then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and He will quickly destroy you.

5 "But thus you shall do to them: you shall tear down their altars, and smash their sacred pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 "For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be ^{ba} people for His ¹own possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the ²earth.

7^a "The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any of the peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples,

8 but because the LORD loved you and kept the ^aoath which He swore to your forefathers, ^bthe LORD brought you out by a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of ¹slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9^a "Know therefore that the LORD your God, ^aHe is God, ^bthe faithful God, ^cwho keeps ¹His covenant and ¹His lovingkindness to a thousandth generation with those who ^dlove Him and keep His commandments;

10 but ^arepays those who hate Him to ¹their faces, to destroy ²them; He will not delay ³with him who hates Him, He will repay him to his face.

11^a "Therefore, you shall keep the commandment and the statutes and the judgments which I am commanding you today, to do them.

12 ¶ ^aThen it shall come about, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you ¹His covenant and ¹His lovingkindness which He swore to your forefathers.

13^a "And He will ^alove you and bless you and ^bmultiply you; He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock, ¹in the land which He swore to your forefathers to give you.

6^a ALL the commandments that I am commanding you today you shall be careful to do, that you ^amay live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your forefathers.

2^a And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has ^bled you in the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you, ^ctesting you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not.

3^a And He humbled you and let you be hungry, and fed you with manna which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you ^bunderstand that ^aman does not live by bread alone, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD.

4^a Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

5^a Thus you are to know in your heart that the LORD your God was disciplining you just as a man disciplines his son.

6^a Therefore, you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to ^bfear Him.

good land to possess, for you are ^aa stubborn people.

7 "Remember, do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; ^afrom the day that you left the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 "Even ^aat Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that He would have destroyed you.

9 "When I went up to the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD had made with you, then I remained on the mountain forty days and nights; ^aI neither ate bread nor drank water.

10 "And the LORD gave me two tablets of stone ^awritten by the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD had spoken with you at the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

11 "And it came about ^aat the end of forty days and nights that the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.

12 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have acted corruptly. They have ^bquickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them; they have made a molten image for themselves.'

13 "The LORD spoke further to me, saying, 'I have seen this people, and indeed, it is a ¹stubborn people.'

14 "Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and ^bblot out their name from under heaven; and will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.'

15 "So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 "And I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God. You had made for yourselves a molten calf; you had turned aside quickly from the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 "And I took hold of the two tablets and threw them from my hands, and smashed them before your eyes.

18 "And I fell down before the LORD, ^{bas} at the first, forty days and nights; ^c I neither ate bread nor drank water, ^d because of all your sin which you had committed in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger.

19 "For ^a I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was wrathful against you in order to destroy you, ^b but the LORD listened to me that time also.

20 "And the LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him; so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time.

21 "And I took your ¹ sinful thing, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it very small until it was as fine as dust; and I threw its dust into the brook that came down from the mountain.

22 "Again at ^a Taberah and at ^b Massah and at ^c Kibroth-hattavaah you provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 "And when the LORD sent you from ^a Kadesh-barnea, saying, ^b Go up and possess the land which I have given you, ^c then you rebelled against the ¹ command of the LORD your God; ^d you neither believed Him nor listened to His voice.

24 "You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day I knew you.

25 "So I fell down before the LORD the forty days and nights,

CHAPTER 10

66 AT that time the LORD said to me, ^a Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to Me on the mountain, and ^b make an ark of wood for yourself.

2 'And ^a I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets which you shattered, and ^b you shall put them in the ark.'

3 "So ^a I made an ark of acacia wood and ^b cut out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

4 "And He wrote on the tablets, like the former writing, ^a the Ten ¹ Commandments ^b which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire ^c on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

5 "Then I turned and ^a came down from the mountain, and ^b put the tablets in the ark which I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me."

6 ¶ (Now the sons of Israel set out from ¹Beeroth ²Bene-jaakan to Moserah. ³There Aaron died and there he was buried and Eleazar his son ministered as priest in his place.

7 ¶ From there they set out to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water.

8 ¶ At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD ¹to serve Him and to bless in His name until this day.

9 ¶ Therefore, Levi does not have a portion or inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, just as the LORD your God spoke to him.)

10 ¶ "I, moreover, stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights like the first time, and the LORD listened to me that time also; the LORD was not willing to destroy you.

11 ¶ Then the LORD said to me, 'Arise, proceed on your journey ahead of the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

12 ¶ "And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require from you, but to ¹fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and ²love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with ³all your heart and with all your soul, 13 and to keep the LORD's commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good?

6 "WHEN the LORD your God cuts off the nations, whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you dispossess them and settle in their cities and in their houses,

2 ^ayou shall set aside three cities for yourself in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to ¹possess.

3 "You shall prepare the ¹roads for yourself, and divide into three parts the territory of your land, which the LORD your God will give you as a possession,² so that any manslayer may flee there.

4 ¶¹Now this is the case of the manslayer who may flee there and live: when he¹ kills his friend unintentionally,² not hating him previously—

5 as when a man goes into the forest with his friend to cut wood, and his hand¹ swings the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron head slips off the² handle and³ strikes his friend so that he dies—he may flee to one of these cities and live;

6 lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer¹ in the heat of his anger, and overtake him, because the way is long, and² take his life, though he was not deserving of death, since he had not hated him previously.

7¹Therefore, I command you, saying, 'You shall set aside three cities for yourself.'

8¹And if the LORD your God² enlarges your territory, just as He has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which He¹ promised to give your fathers—

9 if you¹ carefully observe all this commandment, which I command you today, ²to love the LORD your God, and to walk in His ways always—³then you shall add three more cities for yourself, besides these three.

10¹So innocent blood will not be shed in the midst of your land which the LORD your God gives you as an inheritance, and² bloodguiltiness be on you.

11 ¶¹But² if there is a man who hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and rises up against him and strikes¹ him so that he dies, and he flees to one of these cities,

66 IF a slain person is found lying in the open country in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess, and it is not known who has struck him,

2 then your elders and your judges shall go out and measure the distance to the cities which are around the slain one.

3 "And it shall be that the city which is nearest to the slain man, that is, the elders of that city, shall take a heifer of the herd, which has not been worked and which has not pulled in a yoke;

4 and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which has not been plowed or sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.

5 "Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve Him and to bless in the name of the LORD; and every dispute and every assault shall be settled by them.

6 "And all the elders of that city which is nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;

7 and they shall answer and say, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it.

8 "Forgive Thy people Israel whom Thou hast redeemed, O LORD, and do not place the guilt of innocent blood in the midst of Thy people Israel.' And the bloodguiltiness shall be forgiven them.

9 "So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

10 "When you go out to battle against your enemies, and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands, and you take them away captive, 11 and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire for her and would take her as a wife for yourself.

12 then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails.

13 "She shall also remove the clothes of her captivity and shall remain in your house, and mourn her father and mother a full month; and after that you may go in to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife.

14 "And it shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you shall let her go wherever she wishes; but you shall certainly not sell her for money, you shall not mistreat her, because you have humbled her.

15 "If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and the unloved have borne him sons, if the first-born son belongs to the unloved,

16 then it shall be in the day he wills what he has to his sons, he cannot make the son of the loved the first-born before the son of the unloved, who is the first-born.

17 "But he shall acknowledge the first-born, the son of the unloved, by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength; to him belongs the right of the first-born.

27 [¶]The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt and with ^btumors and with the scab and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed.

28^aThe LORD will smite you with madness and with blindness and with bewilderment of heart;

29 and you shall ^{1a}grope at noon, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways; but you shall only be oppressed and robbed continually, with none to save you.

commanded Moses to make with the sons of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the ^bcovenant which He had made with them at Horeb.

2 ¶ ^aAnd Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh and all his servants and all his land;

3 ^athe great trials which your eyes have seen, those great signs and wonders.

4"Yet to this day ^athe LORD has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear.

9"^aSo keep the words of this covenant to do them, ^bthat you may prosper in all that you do.

CHAPTER 31

SO Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel.

2 And he said to them, "I am a hundred and twenty years old today; I am no longer able to come and go, and the LORD has

3 "It is the LORD your God who will cross ahead of you; He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. ^bJoshua is the one who will cross ahead of you, just as the LORD has spoken.

4 "And the LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them.

5 "And ^athe LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 "Be strong and courageous, ^bdo not be afraid or tremble at them, for ^cthe LORD your God is the one who goes with you. ^dHe will not fail you or forsake you."

7 Then Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you shall give it to them as an inheritance.

8 "And ^athe LORD is the one who goes ahead of you; He will be with you. ^bHe will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear, or be dismayed."

9 "So Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi ^awho carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

10 Then Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, at the time of ^athe year of remission of debts, at the ^bFeast of Booths, 15 ^aAnd the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the doorway of the tent.

16 And the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, ^ayou are about to lie down with your fathers; and ^bthis people will arise and play the harlot with the strange gods of the land, into the midst of which they are going, and ^cwill forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them.

17 "Then My anger will be kindled against them in that day, and ^bI will forsake them and ^chide My face from them, and they shall be consumed, and many evils and troubles shall come upon them; so that they will say in that day, ^dIs it not because our God is not among us that these evils have come upon us?"

18 "But I will surely hide My face in that day because of all the evil which they will do, for they will turn to other gods.

19 "Now therefore, ^awrite this song for yourselves, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it ¹on their lips, in order that this song may be a witness for Me against the sons of Israel.

20^a "For when I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and are satisfied and ^bbecome ¹prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and spurn Me and break My covenant.

21^a "Then it shall come about, ^awhen many evils and troubles have come upon them, that this song will testify before them as a witness (for it shall not be forgotten from the ¹lips of their descendants); for ^{b1} I know their intent which they are ²developing today, before I have brought them into the land which I swore."

22 ^aSo Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the sons of Israel.

23 ^a "Then He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, ^b"Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and ^{c1} I will be with you."

24 ^a And it came about, when Moses finished writing the words of this law in a book until they were complete,

25 that Moses commanded the Levites ^awho carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26^a "Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may ¹remain there as a witness against you.

27^a "For I know ^ayour rebellion and ^byour ¹stubbornness; behold, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; how much more, then, after my death?

28^a "Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and ^acall the heavens and the earth to witness against them.

7 Although Moses was ^aone hundred and twenty years old when he died, ^bhis eye was not dim, nor his vigor abated.

8 So the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses came to an end.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

God's Charge to Joshua

NOW it came about after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' ¹servant, saying,

2 "Moses ^aMy servant is dead; now therefore arise, ^bcross this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the sons of Israel.

3 "Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I have given it to you, just as I spoke to Moses.

4 "From the wilderness and this Lebanon, even as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and as far as the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun, will be your territory.

5 "No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you; ^bI will not fail you or forsake you.

6 "Be strong and courageous, for you shall give this people

7 "Only be strong and very courageous; ^{1a}be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may ²have success wherever you go.

8 "This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may ^{1b}be careful to do according to all that is written in it; ^bfor then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will ²have success.

9 "Have I not commanded you? ^aBe strong and courageous! ^bDo not tremble or be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within ^athree days you are to cross this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, to possess it.' "

12 ¶ ^aAnd to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua ¹said,

13 "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, '^aThe LORD your God gives you rest, and will give you this land.'

14 "Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you shall cross before your brothers in battle array, all your valiant warriors, and shall help them,

15 until the LORD gives your brothers rest, as He gives you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God is giving them. ^aThen you shall return to ¹your own land, and possess ²that which Moses ^bthe servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

17 "Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you; only ^amay the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses.

18 "Anyone who rebels against your ¹command and does not obey your words in all that you command him, shall be put to death; only be strong and courageous."

CHAPTER 2

THEN Joshua the son of Nun sent two men as spies secretly from ^aShittim, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." So they went and came into the house of ^ba harlot whose name was Rahab, and ¹lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, "Behold, men from the sons of Israel have come here tonight to search out the land."

3 And the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land."

4 But the ^awoman had taken the two men and hidden them, and she said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

5 "And it came about when it was time to shut the gate, at dark, that the men went out; I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them."

6 But ^ashe had brought them up to the roof and hidden them in the stalks of flax which she had laid in order on the roof.

7 So the men pursued them on the road to the Jordan to the fords; and as soon as those who were pursuing them had gone out, they shut the gate.

8 ¶ Now before they lay down, ¹she came up to them on the roof,

9 and said to the men, "^aI know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the ^bterror of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have ¹melted away before you.

10 "^aFor we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the ¹Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and ^bwhat you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you ²utterly destroyed.

11 "And when we heard it, ^aour hearts melted and no ¹courage remained in any man any longer because of you; for the ^bLORD your God, He is God in heaven above and on earth beneath.

12 "Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's household, and give me a ^apledge of ¹truth, 13 and ¹spare my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters, with all who belong to them, and deliver our ²lives from death."

14 So the men said to her, "Our ¹life ²for yours if you do not tell this business of ours; and it shall come about when the LORD gives us the land that we will ^adeal kindly and ³faithfully with you."

15 ^c Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall, so that she was living on the wall.

16 And she said to them, "^aGo to the hill country, lest the pursuers happen upon you, and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers return. Then afterward you may go on your way."

17 And the men said to her, "^aWe shall be free from this oath ¹to you which you have made us swear, 18 ¹unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and ^agather to yourself into the house your father and your mother and your brothers and all your father's household.

20 "But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be free from the oath which you have made us swear."

22 ¶ And they departed and came to the hill country, and remained there for three days until the pursuers returned. Now the pursuers had sought them ¹all along the road, but had not found them.

23 Then the two men returned and came down from the hill country and crossed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and they related to him all that had happened to them.

24 And they said to Joshua, "Surely the LORD has given all the land into our hands, and ^aall the inhabitants of the land, moreover, have ¹melted away before us."

CHAPTER 3

THEN Joshua rose early in the morning; and he and all the sons of Israel set out from ^aShittim and came to the Jordan, and they lodged there before they crossed.

2 And it came about ^aat the end of three days that the officers went through the midst of the camp;

3 and they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ^aark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levitical priests carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it.

4 "However, there shall be between you and it a distance of about 2,000 ¹cubits by measure. Do not come near it, that you may know the way by which you shall go, for you have not passed this way before."

5 ¶ Then Joshua said to the people, "^aConsecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

6 And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, "Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over ahead of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

7 ¶ Now the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that just as I have been with Moses, I will be with you.

8 "You shall, moreover, command the priests who are carrying the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.' "

9 Then Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God."

10 And Joshua said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will assuredly dispossess from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite.

11 "Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you into the Jordan.

12 "Now then, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe.

13 "And it shall come about when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, and the waters which are flowing down from above shall stand in one heap."

14 ¶ So it came about when the people set out from their tents to cross the Jordan with the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people,

15 and when those who carried the ark came into the Jordan, and the feet of the priests carrying the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the days of harvest).

16 that the waters which were flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those which were flowing down toward the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. So the people crossed opposite Jericho.

17 And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan while all Israel crossed on dry ground, until all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan.

CHAPTER 4

NOW it came about when all the nation had finished crossing the Jordan, that the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe,

3 and command them, saying, 'Take up for yourselves twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet are standing firm, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the lodging place where you will lodge tonight.' "

4 So Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel, one man from each tribe;

5 and Joshua said to them, "Cross again to the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

6 "Let this be a sign among you, so that when your children ask later, saying, 'What do these stones mean to you?'

7 then you shall say to them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of 8 ^c And thus the sons of Israel did, as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to ^athe lodging place, and put them down there.

9 Then Joshua set up twelve ^astones in the middle of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant were standing, and they are there to this day.

10 For the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and crossed;

11 and it came about when all the people had finished crossing, that the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed before the people.

12 ^aAnd the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle array before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them; that they come up from the Jordan."

17 So Joshua commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan."

18 And it came about when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were ¹lifted up to the dry ground, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and went over all its banks as before.

19 ¶ Now the people came up from the Jordan on the ^atenth of the first month and camped at Gilgal on the eastern edge of Jericho.

20 ^aAnd ¹those twelve stones which they had taken from the Jordan, Joshua set up ^bat Gilgal.

21 And he said to the sons of ¹Israel, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, 'What are these stones?'

22 then you shall inform your children, saying, 'Israel crossed this Jordan on ^adry ground.'

23 "For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed, just as the LORD your God had done to the ¹Red Sea, ^awhich He dried up before us until we had crossed;

24 that ^aall the peoples of the earth may know that the ^bhand of the LORD is mighty, so that you may ¹fear the LORD your God ²forever."

CHAPTER 5

NOW it came about when all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the ^aCanaanites who were by the sea, ^bheard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel until ¹they had crossed, that their hearts melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer, because of the sons of Israel.

2 ¶ At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise again the sons of Israel the second time."

3 So Joshua made himself flint knives and circumcised the sons of Israel at ¹Gibeath-haaraloth.

4 And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: ^aall the people who came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness along the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people who came out were circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised.

6 For the sons of Israel walked ^aforty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, that is, the men of war who came out of Egypt, ¹perished because they did not listen to the voice of the LORD, ^bto whom the LORD had sworn that He would not let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

7 And their children whom He raised up in their place, Joshua ¹circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them along the way.

8 Now it came about when they had finished circumcising all the nation, that they remained in their places in the camp until they were ¹healed.

9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away ^athe reproach of Egypt from you." So the name of that place is called ¹Gilgal to this day.

10 While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal, ^athey observed the Passover on the evening of the ^bfourteenth day of the

5 "And it shall be that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down ¹flat, and the people will go up every man straight ²ahead."

6 ¶ So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."

7 Then ¹he said to the people, "Go forward, and march around the city, and let the armed men go on before the ark of the LORD."

8 And it was so, that when Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets, and ^athe rear guard came after the ark, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

10 But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard, nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout!"

11 So he had the ark of the LORD ¹taken around the city, circling it once; then they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp.

12 ¶ Now Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

13 And ^athe seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew the trumpets; and the armed men went before them, and ^bthe rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while they continued to blow the trumpets.

14 Thus the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp; they did so for six days.

15 ¶ Then it came about on the seventh day that they rose early at the dawning of the day and marched around the city in the same manner seven times; only on that day they marched around the city seven times.

16 And it came about at the seventh time, when the priests blew the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "'Shout! For the LORD has given you the city.

17 "And the city shall be ^aunder the ban, it and all that is in it belongs to the LORD; only Rahab the harlot ¹and all who are with her in the house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.

18 "But as for you, only keep yourselves from the things under the ban, lest you ¹covet them and ^atake some of the things under the ban, so you would make the camp of Israel accursed and bring trouble on it.

19 ^a"But all the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD."

20 So the people shouted, and ¹priests blew the trumpets; and it came about, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, that the people shouted with a great shout and the ^awall fell down ²flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight ³ahead, and they took the city.

21 ^aAnd they ¹utterly destroyed everything in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22 ¶ And Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the harlot's house and bring the woman and all she has out of there, as you have sworn to her."

23 So the young men who were spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all she had; they also brought out all her relatives, and placed them outside the camp of Israel.

24 And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 However, Rahab the harlot and her father's household and all she had, Joshua spared; and she has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 ¶ Then Joshua made them take an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city Jericho; with the loss of his first-born he shall lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son he shall set up its gates."

27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

CHAPTER 7

BUT the sons of Israel acted unfaithfully in regard to the things under the ban, for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some of the things under the ban, therefore the anger of the LORD burned against the sons of Israel.

2 ¶ Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, "Go up and spy out the land." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up; only about two or three thousand men need go up to Ai; do not make all the people toil up there, for they are few."

4 So about three thousand men from the people went up there, but they fled from the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of their men, and pursued them from the gate as far as Shebarim, and struck them down on the descent, so the hearts of the people melted and became as water.

6 ¶ Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, both he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

7 And Joshua said, "Alas, O Lord God, why didst Thou ever bring this people over the Jordan, only to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been willing to dwell beyond the Jordan!"

8 "O Lord, what can I say since Israel has turned their back before their enemies?"

9 "For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what wilt Thou do for Thy great name?"

10 ¶ So the LORD said to Joshua, "Rise up! Why is it that you have fallen on your face?"

11 "Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken some of the things under the ban and have both stolen and deceived. Moreover, they have also put them among their own things.

12 "Therefore the sons of Israel cannot stand before their enemies; they turn their backs before their enemies, for they have become accursed. I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy the things under the ban from your midst.

13 "Rise up! ^aConsecrate the people and say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for thus the LORD, the God of Israel, has said, "^bThere are things under the ban in your midst, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you have removed the things under the ban from your midst."

14 'In the morning then you shall come near by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which ^athe LORD takes by lot shall come near by families, and the family which the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household which the LORD takes shall come near man by man.

15 'And ^ait shall be that the one who is taken with the things under the ban shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he ^bhas committed a disgraceful thing in Israel.' "

16 ^c So Joshua arose early in the morning and brought Israel near by ¹tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

17 And he brought the family of Judah near, and he took the family of the Zerahites; and he brought the family of the Zerahites near man by man, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he brought his household near man by man; and ^aAchan, son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, I implore you, ^agive glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him; and tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me."

20 So Achan answered Joshua and said, "Truly, I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and ¹this is what I did:

21 when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold fifty shekels in weight, then I ^acoveted them and took them; and behold, they are concealed in the earth inside my tent with the silver underneath it."

22 ¹ So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and behold, it was concealed in his tent with the silver underneath it.

23 And they took them from inside the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel, and they poured them out before the LORD.

24 Then Joshua and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the mantle, the bar of gold, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent and all that belonged to him; and they brought them up to ^athe valley of ²Achor.

25 And Joshua said, "Why have you ^atroubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day." And all Israel stoned ¹them with stones; and they burned them with fire ²after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones that stands to this day, and the LORD turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called ^athe valley of ¹Achor to this day.

CHAPTER 8

NOW the LORD said to Joshua, "^aDo not fear or be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you and arise, go up to Ai; see, ^bI have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.

9 So Joshua sent them away, and they went to the place of ambush and remained between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua spent that night among the people.

¹⁶ ^aJudg. 20:31

10 ¶ Now Joshua ^arose early in the morning and mustered the people, and he went up with the elders of Israel before the people to Ai.

¹⁷ ¹La., open

11 Then all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near and arrived in front of the city, and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai.

¹⁶ ^aEx. 14:16, 17:9.
13. Josh. 8:26

12 And he took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between ^aBethel and Ai, on the west side of the ¹city.

13 So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north side of the city, and its rear guard on the west side of the city, and Joshua spent that night in the midst of the valley.

14 And it came about when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hurried and rose up early and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed place before the desert plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them, and fled ^aby the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua, and ^awere drawn away from the city.

17 So not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who had not gone out after Israel, and they left the city ¹unguarded and pursued Israel.

18 ¶ Then the LORD said to Joshua, "^aStretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

19 And the men in ambush rose quickly from their place, and when he had stretched out his hand, they ran and entered the city and captured it; and they quickly set the city on fire.

20 When the men of Ai turned ¹back and looked, behold, the smoke of the city ascended to the sky, and they had no place to flee this way or that, for the people who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned against the pursuers.

21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, they turned back and ¹slew the men of Ai.

22 And ¹the others came out from the city to encounter them, so that they were trapped in the midst of Israel, ²some on this side and some on that side; and they ³slew them until ^ano one was left ⁴of those who survived or escaped.

23 But they took alive the king of Ai and brought him to Joshua.

24 ¶ Now it came about when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and all of them were fallen by the edge of the sword until they were destroyed, then all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword.

25 ^aAnd all who fell that day, both men and women, were 12,000—all the ¹people of Ai.

26 For Joshua ^adid not withdraw his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had ¹utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 ^aIsrael took only the cattle and the spoil of that city as plunder for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua.

28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it ^aa heap forever, a desolation until this day.

29 ^aAnd he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at sunset Joshua gave command and they took his body down from the tree, and threw it at the entrance of the city gate, and raised over it a great heap of stones that stands to this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, in ^aMount Ebal.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel ^awith the women and the little ones and the strangers who were ¹living among them.

CHAPTER 9

NOW it came about when ^aall the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country and in the lowland and on all the ^bcoast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, ^cthe Hittite and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, heard of it.

2 that they gathered themselves together with ¹aone accord to fight with Joshua and with Israel.

3 ¶ When the inhabitants of ^aGibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

4 they also acted craftily and ¹set out as envoys, and took worn-out sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and ²mended,

5 and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes on themselves; and all the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbled.

6 And they went to Joshua to the ^acamp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country; now therefore, make a covenant with us."

7 And the men of Israel said to the ^aHivites, "Perhaps you are living ¹within our land; ^bhow then shall we make a covenant with you?"

8 But they said to Joshua, "^aWe are your servants." Then Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

9 And they said to him, "Your servants have come from ^aa very far country because of the ¹fame of the LORD your God; for ^bwe have heard the report of Him and all that He did in Egypt,

10 and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan who was at Ash-taroth.

11 "So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them and say to them, "^aWe are your servants; now then, make a covenant with us."'

12 "This our bread was warm when we took it for our provisions out of our houses on the day that we left to come to you; but now behold, it is dry and has become crumbled.

out because of the very long journey."

14 So the men of Israel took some of their provisions, and ^adid not ask for the ¹counsel of the LORD.

15 ^aAnd Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.

16 ^a And it came about at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were neighbors and that they were living ¹within their land.

17 Then the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were ^aGibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim.

18 And the sons of Israel did not strike them because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD the God of Israel. And the whole congregation grumbled against the leaders.

19 But all the leaders said to the whole congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we cannot touch them.

20 "This we will do to them, even let them live, lest wrath be upon us for the oath which we swore to them."

21 And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became ^ahewers of wood and drawers of water for the whole congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them.

22 ^a Then Joshua called for them and spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' ^awhen you are living ¹within our land?"

23 "Now therefore, you are ^acursed, and ¹you shall never cease being slaves, both hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God."

24 So they answered Joshua and said, "Because it was certainly told your servants that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; therefore we feared greatly for our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 "And now behold, we are in your hands; do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us."

26 Thus he did to them, and delivered them from the hands of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them.

27 But Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose.

CHAPTER 10

NOW it came about when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured Ai, and had utterly destroyed it (just as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king), and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were within their land,

2 that he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

3 Therefore Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hopham king of Hebron and to Piram king of Jarmuth and to Japhia king of Lachish and to Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 "Come up to me and help me, and let us attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel."

5 So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they with all their armies, and camped by Gibeon and fought against it.

6 ¶ Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites that live in the hill country have assembled against us."

7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the valiant warriors.

8 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands; not one of them shall stand before you."

9 So Joshua came upon them suddenly by marching all night from Gilgal.

10 And the LORD confounded them before Israel, and He slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and pursued them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

11 And it came about as they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth-horon, that the LORD threw large stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword.

12 ¶ Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel,

"O sun, stand still at Gibeon,
And O moon in the valley of Aijalon."

13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, Until the nation avenged themselves of their enemies.

Is it not written in ^bthe book of Jashar? And ^cthe sun stopped in the middle of the sky, and did not hasten to go down for about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, when the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for ^athe LORD fought for Israel.

15 Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp to Gilgal.

16 ^a Now these ^afive kings had fled and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah."

18 And Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and assign men by it to guard them.

19 but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies and ¹attack them in the rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand."

20 And it came about when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished ¹slaying them with a very great slaughter, ^auntil they were destroyed, and the survivors who remained of them ²had entered the fortified cities, 21 that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. No one ¹uttered a word against any of the sons of Israel.

22 ^a Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring these five kings out to me from the cave."

23 And they did so, and ^abrought these five kings out to him from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came about when they brought these kings out to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, "Come near, ^aput your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came near and put their feet on their necks.

25 Joshua then said to them, "^aDo not fear or be dismayed! Be strong and courageous, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies with whom you fight."

26 So afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he ^ahanged them on five trees; and they hung on the trees until evening.

27 And it came about at ¹sunset that Joshua commanded, and ^athey took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and put large stones over the mouth of the cave, to this very day.

28 [¶] Now Joshua captured Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; ^ahe ¹utterly destroyed ²it and every ³person who was in it. He left no survivor. Thus he did to the king of Makkedah ^bjust as he had done to the king of Jericho.

29 [¶] Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to ^aLibnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the LORD gave it also with its king into the hands of Israel, and he struck it and every person who was in it with the edge of the sword. He left no survivor in it. Thus he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

31 [¶] And Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, and they camped by it and fought against it.

time, because ^athe LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

43 So Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

CHAPTER 11

THEN it came about, when Jabin king of ^aHazor heard of it, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph, ² and to the kings who were of the north in the hill country, and in the ^aArabah—south of ¹Chinneroth and in the lowland and on the ²heights of Dor on the west—

³ to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Jebusite in the hill country, and ^athe Hivite ¹at the foot of ^bHermon in the land of ^cMizpeh.

4 And they came out, they and all their armies with them, ^aas many people as the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

5 So all of these kings having agreed to meet, came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ Then the LORD said to Joshua, ^a"Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow at this time I will deliver all of them slain before Israel; you shall ^bhamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

7 So Joshua and all the people of war with him came upon them suddenly by the waters of Merom, and attacked them.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, so that they ¹defeated them, and pursued them as far as Great Sidon and ^aMisrephoth-maim and the valley of ^bMizpeh to the east; and they struck them until no survivor was left to them.

9 And Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him; he ^ahamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ Then Joshua turned back at that time, and captured ^aHazor and struck its king with the sword; for Hazor formerly was the head of all these kingdoms.

11 ^aAnd they struck every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, ¹utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed. And he burned Hazor with fire.

12 And Joshua captured all the cities of these kings, and all their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; just ^aas Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

13 However, Israel did not burn any cities that stood on their mounds, except Hazor alone, which Joshua burned.

14 ^aAnd all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the sons of Israel took as their plunder; but they struck every man with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They left no one who breathed.

15 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

16 ¶ Thus Joshua took all that land: ^athe hill country and all the ¹Negev, all that land of Goshen, the lowland, ^bthe Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowland

17 from ^aMount Halak, that rises toward Seir, even as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon ¹at the foot of Mount Hermon. And he captured ^ball their kings and struck them down and put them to death.

18 Joshua waged war a long time with all these kings.

19 There was not a city which made peace with the sons of Israel except ^athe Hivites living in Gibeon; they took them all in battle.

¹harden their hearts, to meet Israel in battle in order that he might ^butterly destroy them, that they might ²receive no mercy, but that he might destroy them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

21 ¶ Then Joshua came at that time and cut off ^athe Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab and from all the hill country of Judah and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities.

22 There were no Anakim left in the land of the sons of Israel; only in Gaza, in ^aGath, and in ^bAshdod some remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and ^aJoshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. ^bThus the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 13

NOW ^aJoshua was old and advanced in years when the LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and very much of the land remains to be possessed.

2 "This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and all those of the ^aGeshurites;

3 from the Shihor which is ¹east of Egypt, even as far as the border of Ekron to the north (it is counted as Canaanite); the ^afive lords of the Philistines: the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, the Ekronite; and the Avvite

4 ¹to the south, all the land of the Canaanite, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, as far as ^aAphek, to the border of the ^bAmorite;

5 and the land of the ^aGebalite, and all of Lebanon, toward the ¹east, ^bfrom Baal-gad below Mount Hermon as far as ²Lebo-hamath.

6 "All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon as far as ^aMisrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians, I will ¹drive them out from before the sons of Israel; ^bonly allot it to Israel for an inheritance as I have commanded you.

7 "Now therefore, apportion this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and the half-tribe of Manasseh."

8 ^a ¶ With ¹the other half-tribe, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance which

Moses gave them ^abeyond the Jordan to the east, just as Moses the servant of the LORD gave to them;

9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, with the city which is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba, as far as Dibon;

10 and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the sons of Ammon;

11 and ^aGilead, and the ¹territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salecah;

12 all the kingdom of ^aOg in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses ^bstruck them and dispossessed them.

13 But the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites or the Maacathites; for Geshur and Maacath live among Israel until this day.

14 ^aOnly to the tribe of Levi he did not give an inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are ¹their inheritance, as He spoke to him.

15 ^a So Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the sons of Reuben according to their families.

16 And their ¹territory was ^afrom Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, with the city which is in the middle of the valley and all the plain by Medeba;

17 Heshbon, and all its cities which are on the plain: Dibon and Bamoth-baal and Beth-baal-meon,

18 and ^aJahaz and Kedemoth and Mephaath,

19 and ^aKiriathaim and Sibmah and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley,

20 and Beth-peor and the slopes of Pisgah and Beth-jeshimoth,

21 even all the cities of the plain and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, ^aEvi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.

22 The sons of Israel also killed ^aBalaam the son of Beor, the diviner, with the sword among the rest of their slain.

23 And the border of the sons of Reuben was the ¹Jordan. This was the inheritance of the sons of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their villages.

24 ^a Moses also gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the sons of Gad, according to their families.

25 And their territory was ^aJazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the sons of Ammon, as far as Aroer which is before Rabbah;

26 and from Heshbon as far as Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim as far as the border of ¹Debir;

27 and in the valley, Beth-haram and Beth-nimrah and Succoth and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan ¹as a border, as far as the lower end of the Sea of ^{2a}Chinnereth beyond the Jordan to the east.

28 This is the inheritance of the sons of Gad according to their families, the cities and their villages.

29 ^a Moses also gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; and it was for the half-tribe of the sons of Manasseh according to their families.

30 And their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all ^athe ¹towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

31 also half of Gilead, with ^aAshtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh, for half of the sons of Machir according to their families.

32 ¶ These are the territories which Moses apportioned for an inheritance in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho to the east.

33 But ^ato the tribe of Levi, Moses did not give an inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He had ¹promised to them.

CHAPTER 14

NOW these are the territories which the sons of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which ^aEleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the ¹households of the tribes of the sons of Israel apportioned to them for an inheritance.

2 by the ^alot of their inheritance, as the LORD commanded ¹through Moses, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

3 For ^aMoses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Jordan; but ^bhe did not give an inheritance to the Levites among them.

4 For the sons of Joseph were two tribes, ^aManasseh and Ephraim, and they did not give a portion to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their pasture lands for their livestock and for their property.

5 Thus the sons of Israel did just ^aas the LORD had commanded Moses, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the sons of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal, and ^aCaleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the word which the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning ¹you and me in Kadesh-barnea.

7 "I was forty years old when ^aMoses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought word back to him as it was in my heart.

8 "Nevertheless my brethren who went up with me made the heart of the people ¹melt with fear; but ^aI followed the LORD my God fully.

9 "So Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely ^athe land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have followed the LORD my God fully.'

10 "And now behold, the LORD has let me live, just as He spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness; and now behold, I am eighty-five years old today.

11 "I am still as strong today as I was in the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for war and for ^bgoing out and coming in.

12 "Now then, give me this hill country about which the LORD spoke on that day, for you heard on that day that ^aAnakim were there, with great fortified cities; perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I shall ¹drive them out as the LORD has spoken."

13 ¶ So Joshua ^ablessed him, and ^bgave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

14 Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite until this day, because he followed the LORD God of Israel fully.

15 Now the name of Hebron was formerly ¹Kiriath-arba; for Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. ^aThen the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER 15

NOW ^athe lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families ¹reached the ^bborder of Edom, southward to the ^cwilderness of Zin at the extreme south.

2 And their south border was from the lower end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that turns to the south.

3 Then it proceeded southward to the ascent of Akrabbim and continued to Zin, then went up by the south of Kadesh-barnea and continued to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned about to Karka.

4 And it ^acontinued to Azmon and proceeded to the ^{1b}brook of Egypt; and the ^{2b}border ended at the sea. This shall be your south border.

5 And the ^aeast border was the Salt Sea, as far as the ^bmouth of the Jordan. And the ^bborder of the north side was from the bay of the sea at the ^bmouth of the Jordan.

6 Then the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and continued on the north of Beth-arabah, and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

7 And the border went up to Debir from the valley of Achor, and turned northward toward Gilgal which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south of the valley; and the border continued to the waters of En-shemesh, and it ended at En-rogel.

8 Then the border went up the valley of Ben-hinnom to the slope of the Jebusite on the south (that is, Jerusalem); and the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before the valley of Hinnom to the west, which is at the end of the valley of Rephaim toward the north.

10 And the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and continued to the slope of Mount Jearim on the north (that is, Chesalon), and went down to Beth-shemesh and continued through *Timnah.

11 And the border proceeded to the side of Ekron northward. Then the border curved to Shikeron and continued to Mount Baalah and proceeded to Jabneel, and the 'border ended at the sea.

12 And the west border was ^aat the Great Sea, even its ¹coast-line. This is the border around the sons of Judah according to their families.

13 ¶ Now ^ahe gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion ^bamong the sons of Judah, according to the ¹command of the LORD to Joshua, namely, ²Kiriath-arba, Arba being the father of Anak (that is, Hebron).

14 And ^aCaleb ^bdrove out from there the three ^bsons of Anak: Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 Then ^ahe went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher.

16 And Caleb said, "The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, ²¹I will give him Achsah my daughter as a wife."

17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter as a wife.

18 "And it came about that when she came to him, she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. So she alighted from the donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you want?"

19 Then she said, "Give me a blessing; since you have given me the land of the ¹Negev, give me also springs of water." So he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20 ¶ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah according to their families.

NOW this was the lot for the tribe of ^aManasseh, for he was the first-born of Joseph. To Machir the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, ¹was allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war.

2 So the lot was made for the rest of the sons of Manasseh according to their families: for the sons of Abiezer and for the sons of Helek and for the sons of Asriel and for the sons of Shechem and for the sons of Hephher and for the sons of Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families.

3 However, ^aZelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun and before the leaders, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers." So ^aaccording to the ¹command of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers.

5 Thus there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan.

6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. And the ^aland of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh.

7 ¶ And the border of Manasseh ¹ran from Asher to Michmethath which was east of Shechem; then the border went ²southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but ^aTappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the sons of Ephraim.

9 And the ^aborder went down to the ¹brook of Kanah, southward of the ¹brook (these cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh), and the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the ¹brook, and ²it ended at the sea.

10 The south side belonged to Ephraim and the north side to Manasseh, and the sea was ¹their border; and they reached to Asher on the north and to Issachar on the east.

11 And in Issachar and in Asher, ^aManasseh had Bethshean and its towns and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns, the third is ^bNapheth.

12 ^aBut the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of these cities, because the Canaanites persisted in living in that land.

13 And it came about when the sons of Israel became strong, ^athey put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not ¹drive them out completely.

14 ^a Then the ^asons of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me only one lot and one portion for an inheritance, since I am a numerous people whom the LORD has thus far blessed?"

17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, saying, "You are a numerous people and have great power; you shall not have one lot only,

CHAPTER 18

THEN the whole congregation of the sons of Israel assembled themselves at ^aShiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance.

3 So Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "^aHow long will you put off entering to take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

4 "Provide for yourselves three men from ¹each tribe that I may send them, and that they may arise and walk through the land and write a description of it according to their inheritance; then they shall ²return to me.

5 "And they shall divide it into seven portions; ^aJudah shall stay in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay in their territory on the north.

6 "And you shall describe the land in seven divisions, and bring the description here to me. And I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

7 "For ^athe Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of the LORD is ¹their inheritance. Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh also have received their inheritance eastward beyond the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."

8 "Then the men arose and went, and Joshua commanded those who went to describe the land, saying, "Go and walk through the land and describe it, and return to me; then I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in ^aShiloh."

9 So the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities in seven divisions in a book; and they came to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.

10 And ^aJoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD, and there Joshua divided the land to the sons of Israel according to their divisions.

11 "Now the lot of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin came up according to their families, and the territory of their lot ¹lay between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph.

at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the sons of Judah. This was the west side.

15 Then the ^asouth side was from the edge of Kiriath-jearim, and the border went westward and went to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah.

16 And the border went down to the edge of the hill which is in the ^avalley of Ben-hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward; and it went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the slope of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En-rogel.

17 And it extended northward and went to En-shemesh and went to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, and it went down to the ^astone of Bo-han the son of Reuben.

18 And it continued to the side in front of the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah.

19 And the border continued to the side of Beth-hoglah northward; and the ¹border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border.

20 Moreover, the Jordan was its border on the east side. This was the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin, according to their families and according to its borders all around.

21 ¶ Now the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-keziz,

22 and Beth-arabah and Zemaraim and Bethel,

23 and Avvim and Parah and Ophrah,

24 and Chephar-ammoni and Ophni and ^aGeba; twelve cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon and Ramah and Beeroth,

26 and Mizpeh and Chephirah and Mozhah,

27 and Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah.

28 and ^aZelah, Haeleph and the Jebusite (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the ^bsons of Benjamin according to their families.

CHAPTER 19

THEN the second lot ¹fell to Simeon, to the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families, and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah.

2 So they had as their inheritance Beersheba and ¹Sheba and Moladah,

3 and Hazar-shual and Balah and Ezem,

4 and Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah,

5 and Ziklag and Beth-marca-both and Hazar-susah,

6 and Beth-lebaoth and Sharuh-en, thirteen cities with their villages;

7 Ain, Rimmon and Ether and Ashan, four cities with their villages;

8 and all the villages which were around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the ¹Negev. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Simeon according to their families.

9 The inheritance of the sons of Simeon was taken from the portion of the sons of Judah, for the share of the sons of Judah was too large for them; so the sons of Simeon received an inheritance in the midst of ¹Judah's inheritance.

10 ^a Now the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun according to their families. And the territory of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

11 Then their border went up to the west and to Maralah, it then ¹touched Dabbesheth, and reached to the ²brook that is before Jokneam.

12 Then it turned from Sarid to the east toward the sunrise as far as the border of Chisloth-tabor; and it proceeded to Daberath and ¹up to Japhia.

13 And from there it continued eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and it proceeded to Rimmon ¹which stretches to Neah.

14 And the border circled around it on the north to Hannathon, and ¹it ended at the valley of Iphtahel.

15 Included also were Kattah and Nahalal and Shimron and Idalah and Bethlehem; twelve cities with their villages.

16 This was the inheritance of the sons of Zebulun according to their families, these cities with their villages.

17 ¶ The fourth lot ¹fell to Issachar, to the sons of Issachar according to their families.

18 And their territory was to Jezreel and included Chesulloth and ^aShunem,

19 and Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath,

20 and Rabbith and Kishion and Ebez,

21 and Remeth and En-gannim and En-haddah and Beth-pazzez.

22 And the border reached to ^aTabor and Shahazumah and Beth-shemesh, and ¹their border ended at the Jordan; sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Issachar according to their families, the cities with their villages.

24 ¶ Now the fifth lot ¹fell to the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families.

25 And their territory was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Achshaph, 26 and Allammelech and Amad and Mishal; and it reached to Carmel on the west and to Shihor-libnath.

29 And the border turned to Ramah, and to the fortified city of Tyre; then the border turned to Hosah, and ¹it ended at the sea by the region of ^aAchzib.

30 Included also were Ummah, and Aphek and Rehob; twenty-two cities with their villages.

31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot ¹fell to the sons of Naphtali; to the sons of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their border was from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim and Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and ¹it ended at the Jordan.

34 Then the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor, and proceeded from there to Hukkok; and it reached to Zebulun on the south and ¹it touched Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan toward the ²east.

35 And the fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer and ^aHammath, Rakkath and ^bChinnereth,

36 and Adamah and Ramah and Hazor,

37 and Kedesh and Edrei and En-hazor,

38 and Yiron and Migdal-el, Horem and Beth-anath and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali according to their families, the cities with their villages.

40 ¶ The seventh lot ¹fell to the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families.

43 and Elon and Timnah and Ekron,

44 and Eltekeh and Gibbethon and Baalath,

45 and Jehud and Bene-berak and Gath-rimmon,

46 and Me-jarkon and Rakkon, with the territory over against ¹Joppa.

47 And the territory of the ^asons of Dan proceeded ¹beyond them; for the sons of Dan went up and fought with Leshem and captured it. Then they struck it with the edge of the sword and possessed it and ²settled in it; and they called ^{3b}Leshem Dan after the name of Dan their father.

48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 ¶ When they finished apportioning the land for inheritance by its borders, the sons of Israel gave an inheritance in their midst to Joshua the son of Nun.

50 In accordance with the ¹command of the LORD they gave him the city for which he asked, ^aTimnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. So he built the city and ²settled in it.

51 ¶ ^aThese are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ¹households of the tribes of the sons of Israel distributed by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the doorway of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

CHAPTER 20

THEN the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

2 "Speak to the sons of Israel, saying, ¹Designate ^athe cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you² through Moses.

3 that the manslayer who¹ kills any person unintentionally, without premeditation, may flee there, and they shall become your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 'And he shall flee to one of these cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the^a gate of the city and state his case in the hearing of the elders of that city; and they shall¹ take him into the city to them and give him a place, so that he may dwell among them.

5 'Now^a if the avenger of blood pursues him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor without premeditation and did not hate him beforehand.

6 'And he shall dwell in that city^a until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the one who is high priest in those days. Then the manslayer shall¹ return to his own city and to his own house, to the city from which he fled.' "

7 ' So they¹ set apart^a Kedesh in² Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in^b the hill country of Judah.

8 And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they¹ designated Bezer in the wilderness on the plain from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.

9 'These were the appointed cities for all the sons of Israel and for the stranger who sojourns among them, that whoever¹ kills any person unintentionally may flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the congregation.

CHAPTER 21

THEN the heads of¹ house holds of^a the Levites approached Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of¹ households of the tribes of the sons of Israel.

2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan saying, "'The LORD commanded¹ through Moses to give us cities to live in, with their pasture lands for our cattle."

3 So the sons of Israel gave the Levites from their inheritance these cities with their pasture lands, according to the¹ command of the LORD.

4 Then the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. And the sons of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, ¹received thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Judah and from the tribe of the Simeonites and from the tribe of Benjamin.

5 And the rest of the sons of Kohath¹ received ten cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Ephraim and from the tribe of Dan and from the half-tribe of Manasseh.

6 And the sons of Gershon¹ received thirteen cities by lot from the families of the tribe of Issachar and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

7 The sons of Merari according to their families¹ received twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun.

8 Now the^a sons of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their pasture lands, as the LORD had commanded¹ through Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave these cities which are here mentioned by name from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon;

10 and they were for the sons of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, for the lot was theirs first.

11 Thus ^athey gave them Kiriath-arba, Arba being the ^bfather of Anak (that is, Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its surrounding pasture lands.

12 But the fields of the city and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.

13 ¶ So ^ato the sons of Aaron the priest they gave ^bHebron, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, and ^cLibnah with its pasture lands,

14 and ^aJattir with its pasture lands and ^bEshtemoa with its pasture lands,

15 and ¹Holon with its pasture lands and ^aDebir with its pasture lands,

16 and ¹Ain with its pasture lands and ^aJuttah with its pasture lands and ^bBeth-shemesh with its pasture lands; nine cities from these two tribes.

17 And from the tribe of Benjamin, ^aGibeon with its pasture lands, ^bGeba with its pasture lands, 18 Anathoth with its pasture lands and ¹Almon with its pasture lands; four cities.

19 All the cities of the sons of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

20 ¶ Then the cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the ^afamilies of the sons of Kohath, the Levites, even to the rest of the sons of Kohath.

21 And they gave them ^aShechem, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, in the hill country of Ephraim, and Gezer with its pasture lands, 22 and Kibzaim with its pasture lands and Beth-horon with its pasture lands; four cities.

25 And from the half-tribe of Manasseh, they allotted Taanach with its pasture lands and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands; two cities.

26 All the cities with their pasture lands for the families of the rest of the sons of Kohath were ten.

27 ¶ And ^ato the sons of Gershon, one of the families of the Levites, from the half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands, and Be-eshterah with its pasture lands; two cities.

28 And from the tribe of Issachar, they gave Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands, 29 Jarmuth with its pasture lands, En-gannim with its pasture lands; four cities.

30 And from the tribe of Asher, they gave Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands, 31 Helkath with its pasture lands and Rehob with its pasture lands; four cities.

32 And from the tribe of Naphtali, they gave ^aKedesh in Galilee, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands and Hammoth-dor with its pasture lands and Kartan with its pasture lands; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

34 ¶ And to the families of the sons of Merari, the rest of the Levites, they gave from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasture lands and Kartah with its pasture lands.

35 Dimnah with its pasture lands, Nahalal with its pasture lands; four cities.

36 And from the tribe of Reuben, they gave ^aBezer with its pasture lands and Jahaz with its pasture lands.

37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands and Mephaath with its pasture lands; four cities.

38 And from the tribe of Gad, they gave ^aRamoth in Gilead, the city of refuge for the manslayer, with its pasture lands and ^bManahaim with its pasture lands.

39 Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands; four cities in all.

40 All these were the cities of the sons of Merari according to their families, the rest of the families of the Levites; and their lot was twelve cities.

41 ¶ ^aAll the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasture lands.

42 These cities each had its surrounding pasture lands; thus it was with all these cities.

43 ¶ ^aSo the LORD gave Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and ^bthey possessed it and lived in it.

44 And the LORD ^agave them rest on every side, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers, and ^bno one of all their enemies stood before them; ^cthe LORD gave all their enemies into their hand.

have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you.

3 "You have not forsaken your brothers these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 "And now ^athe LORD your God has given rest to your brothers as He spoke to them; therefore turn now and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan.

5 "Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to ^alove the LORD your God and walk in all His ways and keep His commandments and hold fast to Him and serve Him ^bwith all your heart and with all your soul."

6 So Joshua ^ablessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

7 ¶ Now ^ato the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but ^bto the other half Joshua gave a possession among their brothers westward beyond the Jordan. So when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them.

8 and said to ¹them, "Return to your tents with great riches and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron, and with very many clothes; ^adivide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers."

9 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home and departed from the sons of Israel at Shiloh which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the ^aland of Gilead, to the land of their possession which they had possessed, according to the ¹command of the LORD ²through Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came to the region of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar there by the Jordan, a large altar in appearance.

11 And the sons of Israel heard it ¹said, "Behold, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have ^abuilt an altar at the ²frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region of the Jordan, on the side belonging to the sons of Israel."

12 And when the sons of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the sons of Israel gathered themselves at ^aShiloh, to go up against them in war.

13 ^a Then the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, ^aPhinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, 14 and with him ten chiefs, one chief for each father's household from each of the tribes of Israel; and ^aeach one of them was the head of his father's household among the ¹thousands of Israel.

15 And they came to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them saying,

16 "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, 'What is this unfaithful act which you have committed against the God of Israel, turning away from following the LORD this day, by ^abuilding yourselves an altar, to rebel against the LORD this day?

17 'Is not ^athe iniquity of Peor enough for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although a plague came on the congregation of the LORD,

18 that you must turn away this day from following the LORD? And it will come about if you rebel against the LORD to-day, that ^aHe will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow.

20 'Did not ^aAchan the son of Zerah act unfaithfully in the things under the ban, and wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.' "

21 ^a Then the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the ¹families of Israel.

22 "The ^aMighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD! ^bHe knows, and may Israel itself know. If it was in rebellion, or if in an unfaithful act against the LORD do not Thou save us this day!

23 "If we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD, or if to ^aoffer a burnt offering or grain offering on it, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself require it.

24 "But truly we have done this out of concern, ¹for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your sons may say to our ²sons, "What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

25 "For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you sons of Reuben and sons of Gad; you have no portion in the LORD." So your sons may make our sons stop fearing the LORD.'

26 ^a Therefore we said, 'Let us ¹build an altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, that your sons may not say to our sons in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD."

28 "Therefore we said, 'It shall also come about if they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, then we shall say, "See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice; rather it is a witness between us and you."'

29 "Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from following the LORD this day, by ^abuilding an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God which is before His ¹tabernacle."

30 ¶ So when Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the congregation, even the heads of the ¹families of Israel who were with him, heard the words which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the sons of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the sons of Manasseh, "Today we know that the ^aLORD is in our midst, because you have not committed this unfaithful act against the LORD; now you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of the LORD."

32 Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and from the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and brought back word to them.

CHAPTER 23

NOW it came about after many days, when the LORD had given ^arest to Israel from all their enemies ¹on every side, and Joshua was old, advanced in years,

2 that ^aJoshua called for all Israel, for their elders and their heads and their judges and their officers, and said to them, "I am old, advanced in years.

3 "And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you, for ^athe LORD your God is He who has been fighting for you.

4 "See, ^aI have apportioned to you these nations which remain as an inheritance for your tribes, with all the nations which I have cut off, from the Jordan even to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun.

5 "And the LORD your God, He shall thrust them out from before you and ¹drive them from before you; and ^byou shall possess their land, just as the LORD your God ²promised you.

6 "Be very firm, then, to keep and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you may not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left,

7 in order that you may not ¹associate with these nations, these which remain among you, or ^amention the name of their gods, or ^bmake anyone swear by them, or ^cserve them, or bow down to them.

8 "But you are to cling to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

CHAPTER 24

9 "For the LORD has driven out great and strong nations from before you; and as for you, no man has stood before you to this day.

10 "One of your men puts to flight a thousand, for the LORD your God is He who fights for you, just as He promised you.

11 "So take diligent heed to yourselves to love the LORD your God.

12 "For if you ever go back and cling to the rest of these nations, these which remain among you, and intermarry with them, so that you associate with them and they with you,

13 know with certainty that the LORD your God will not continue to drive these nations out from before you; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

14 "Now behold, today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one word of all the good words which the LORD your God spoke concerning you has failed; all have been fulfilled for you, not one of them has failed.

15 "And it shall come about that just as all the good words which the LORD your God spoke to you have come upon you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the threats, until He has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

16 "When you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given you."

THEN Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel and for their heads and their judges and their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'From ancient times your fathers lived beyond the River, namely, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they served other gods.

3 Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him through all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his descendants and gave him Isaac.

4 And to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave Mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

5 Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt by what I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and you came to the sea; and Egypt pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

7 But when they cried out to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness for a long time.

8 Then I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land when I destroyed them before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel, and he sent and summoned Balaam the son of Beor to curse you.

10 'But I ^awas not willing to listen to Balaam. So he had to bless you, and I delivered you from his hand.

11 'And ^ayou crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho; and the citizens of Jericho fought against you, and ^bthe Amorite and the Perizzite and the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Gergashite, the Hivite and the Jebusite. Thus ^cI gave them into your hand.

12 'Then I ^asent the hornet before you and it ^ddrove out the two kings of the Amorites from before you, but ^enot by your sword or your bow.

13 'And ^aI gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you have lived in them; you are eating of vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

14 "'Now, therefore, ¹fear the LORD and serve Him in sincerity and ²truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the ³River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

15 "And if it is disagreeable in your sight to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve: whether the gods which your fathers served which were beyond the River, or ^athe gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD."

16 ¶ And the people answered and said, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;

17 for the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of ¹bondage, and who did these great signs in our sight and preserved us through all the way in which we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed.

18 "And the LORD drove you from before us all the peoples even the Amorites who lived in the land. We also will serve the LORD, for He is our God."

19 ¶ Then Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve the LORD, ^afor He is a holy God. He is ^ba jealous God; ^cHe will not forgive your transgression or your sins.

20 "If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then ^dHe will turn and do you harm and consume you after He has done good to you."

21 And the people said to Joshua, "No, but we will serve the LORD."

22 And Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that ^ayou have chosen for yourselves the LORD, serve Him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

23 "Now therefore, put away the foreign gods which are in your midst, and ^aincline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel."

24 ^aAnd the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and we will ^bobey His voice."

25 ^aSo Joshua made a covenant with the people that day and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua ^awrote the words in the book of the law of the LORD; and he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, ^athis stone shall be for a witness against us, ^bfor it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us; thus it shall be for a witness against you, lest you deny your God."

28 Then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his inheritance.

29 ¶ And it came about

These things that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, did, being one hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of Mount Gaash.

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who survived Joshua, and had known all the deeds of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

Jerusalem Is Captured

NOW it came about after the death of Joshua that the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD, saying, "Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?"

2 And the LORD said, "Judah shall go up; behold, I have given the land into his hand."

3 Then Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me to the territory allotted me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I in turn will go with you into the territory allotted you." So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands; and they defeated ten thousand men at Bezek.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek at Bezek and fought against him, and they defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to gather up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has repaid me." So they brought him to Jerusalem and he died there.

8 ¶ Then the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the sons of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country and in the Negev and in the lowland.

10 ¶ So Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba); and they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Tamai.

11 ¶ Then from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir (now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher).

12 And Caleb said, "The one who attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will even give him my daughter Achsah for a wife."

13 And ^aOthniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, captured it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah for a wife.

14 Then ^ait came about when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. Then she alighted from ¹her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What ²do you want?"

15 And she said to him, "Give me a blessing, since you have given me the land of the ¹Negev, give me also springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16 ¶ And the ¹descendants of ^athe Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, went up from the ^bcity of palms with the sons of Judah, to the wilderness of Judah which is in the south of ^cArad; and they went and lived with the people.

17 Then Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites living in Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. So the name of the city was called ^aHormah.

18 And Judah took ^aGaza with its territory and Ashkelon with its territory and Ekron with its territory.

19 Now the LORD was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill country; but they could not ¹drive out the inhabitants of the valley because they had ^airon chariots.

20 Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, ^aas Moses had ¹promised; and he drove out from there ^bthe three sons of Anak.

21 ^aBut the sons of Benjamin did not drive out the ^bJebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived with the sons of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

22 ¶ Likewise the house of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, ^abut they let the man and all his family go free.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city and named it Luz ¹which is its name to this day.

27 ¶ ^aBut Manasseh did not take possession of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; so ^bthe Canaanites persisted in living in that land.

28 And it came about when Israel became strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out completely.

29 ¶ ^aNeither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer; so the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them.

30 ¶ Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; so the Canaanites lived among them and became subject to forced labor.

31 ¶ Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob.

32 So the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she-mesh, or the inhabitants of Bethanath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; and the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and Beth-anath became forced labor for them.

34 ¶ Then the Amorites forced the sons of Dan into the hill country, for they did not allow them to come down to the valley;

35 yet the Amorites persisted in living in Mount Heres, in Ajalon and in Shaalbim; but when the power of the house of Joseph grew strong, they became forced labor.

36 And the border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Ak-rabbim, from Sela and upward.

CHAPTER 2

NOW the angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. And he said, "I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land which I have sworn to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you,

2 and as for you, you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall tear down their altars.' But you have not obeyed Me; what is this you have done?

3 "Therefore I also said, 'I will not drive them out before you; but they shall become as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you.'"

4 And it came about when the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel, that the people lifted up their voices and wept.

5 So they named that place Bochim; and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

6 ¶ When Joshua had dismissed the people, the sons of Israel went each to his inheritance to possess the land.

survived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD which He had done for Israel.

8 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten.

9 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

10 And all that generation also were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them who did not know the LORD, nor yet the work which He had done for Israel.

11 ¶ Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals, 12 and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; thus they provoked the LORD to anger.

13 So they forsook the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtarothe.

14 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherever they went, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken and as the LORD had sworn to them, so that they were severely distressed.

16 Then the LORD raised up judges who delivered them from the hands of those who plundered them.

17 And yet they did not listen to their judges, for they played the harlot after other gods and bowed themselves down to them. They turned aside quickly from the way ^ain which their fathers had walked in obeying the commandments of the LORD; they did not do as their fathers.

18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, ^athe LORD was with the judge and delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was ^bmoved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and afflicted them.

19 But it came about when the judge died, that they would turn back and act more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them and bow down to them; they did not abandon their practices or their stubborn ways.

20 ^aSo the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, "Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and has not listened to My voice,

21 ^aI also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died,

22 in order to ^atest Israel by them, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it as their fathers ¹did, or not."

23 So the LORD allowed those nations to remain, not driving them out quickly; and He did not give them into the hand of Joshua.

25 And they waited until they ¹became anxious; but behold, he did not open the doors of the roof chamber. Therefore they took the key and opened them, and behold, their master had fallen to the ²floor dead.

26 ¶ Now Ehud escaped while they were delaying, and he passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

27 And it came about when he had arrived, that ^ahe blew the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he was in front of them.

28 And he said to them, "Pursue them, for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hands." So they went down after him and seized ^athe fords of the Jordan opposite Moab, and did not allow anyone to cross.

29 And they struck down at that time about ten thousand Moabites, all robust and valiant men; and no one escaped.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land was undisturbed for eighty years.

31 ¶ And after him came ^aShamgar the son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad; and he also saved Israel.

CHAPTER 4

THEN ^athe sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.

2 And the LORD sold them into the hand of ^aJabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; and the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in ^bHarosheth-hagoyim.

3 And the sons of Israel cried to the LORD; for he had nine hundred ^airon chariots, and he oppressed the sons of Israel severely for twenty years.

4 • Now Deborah, a ¹prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel at that time.

5 And she used to ¹sit under the ^apalm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the sons of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 Now she sent and summoned ^aBarak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-naphtali, and said to him, "Behold, the LORD, the God of Israel, has commanded, 'Go and march to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from the sons of Naphtali and from the sons of Zebulun.'

7 'And I will draw out to you Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his ¹many troops to the river Kishon; and ^aI will give him into your hand.' "

8 Then Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

9 And she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the honor shall not be yours on the journey that you are about to take, ^afor the LORD will sell Sisera into the hands of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called ^aZebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up ^{1b}with him; Deborah also went up with him.

11 ¶ Now Heber ^athe Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, from the sons of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the ¹oak in ^bZaanannim, which is near Kedesh.

12 ¶ Then they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor.

14 And Deborah said to Barak, "Arise! For this is the day in which the LORD has given Sisera into your hands; ¹behold, ^athe LORD has gone out before you." So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

15 ^aAnd the LORD ¹routed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled away on foot.

16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-hagoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; ^anot even one was left.

17 ¶ Now Sisera fled away on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn aside, my master, turn aside to me! Do not be afraid." And he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a ¹rug.

19 ^aAnd he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a ¹bottle of milk and gave him a drink; then she covered him.

20 And he said to her, "Stand in the doorway of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there anyone here?' that you shall say, 'No.' "

21 But Jael, Heber's wife, ^atook a tent peg and ¹seized a hammer in her hand, and went secretly to him and drove the peg into his temple, and it went through into the ground; for he was sound asleep and exhausted. So he died.

22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." And he entered ¹with her, and behold Sisera was lying dead with the tent peg in his temple.

23 ¶ So ^aGod subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel.

24 And the hand of the sons of Israel pressed heavier and heavier upon Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had ¹destroyed Jabin the king of Canaan.

CHAPTER 6

THEN the sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD gave them into the hands of Midian seven years.

2 And the power of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens which were in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds.

3 For it was when Israel had sown, that the Midianites would come up with the Amalekites and the sons of the east and go against them.

4 So they would camp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel as well as no sheep, ox, or donkey.

5 For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, they would come in like locusts for number, both they and their camels were innumerable; and they came into the land to devastate it.

6 So Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and the sons of Israel cried to the LORD.

7 Now it came about when the sons of Israel cried to the LORD on account of Midian,

8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'It was I who brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out from the house of slavery.

10 and I said to you, "I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But you have not obeyed Me."

11 Then the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak that was in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press in order to save it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, O valiant warrior."

13 Then Gideon said to him, "O my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us about, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned us and given us into the hand of Midian."

14 And the LORD looked at him and said, "Go in this your strength and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?"

15 And he said to Him, "O Lord, how shall I deliver Israel? Behold, my family is the least in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father's house."

16 But the LORD said to him, "Surely I will be with you, and you shall defeat Midian as one man."

17 So Gideon said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Thy sight, then show me a sign that it is Thou who speakest with me.

18 "Please do not depart from here, until I come back to Thee, and bring out my offering and lay it before Thee." And He said, "I will remain until you return."

19 ¶ Then Gideon went in and ^aprepared a kid and unleavened bread from an ¹ephah of flour; he put the meat in a basket ²and the broth in a pot, and brought them out to him under the ³oak, and presented them.

20 And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

21 Then the angel of the LORD put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread; and ^afire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of the LORD ¹vanished from his sight.

22 ^aWhen Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD, ¹he said, "Alas, O Lord ²God! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."

23 And the LORD said to him, "Peace to you, do not fear; you shall not die."

24 Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and named it ¹The LORD is Peace. To this day it is still ^ain Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 ¶ Now the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull ¹and a second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal which belongs to your father, and cut down the ^{2a}Asherah that is beside it;

26 and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold in an orderly manner, and take a second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down."

28 ¶ When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was torn down, and the Asherah which was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar which had been built.

29 And they said to one another, "Who did this thing?" And when they searched about and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash did this thing."

30 Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has torn down the altar of Baal, and indeed, he has cut down the Asherah which was beside it."

31 But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal, or will you deliver him? Whoever will ¹plead for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has torn down his altar."

32 Therefore on that day he named him ^aJerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he had torn down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the sons of the east assembled themselves; and they crossed over and camped in ^athe valley of Jezreel.

34 So ^athe Spirit of the LORD ¹came upon Gideon; and he ^bblew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called together to follow him.

⁶ Now the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was 300 men; but all the rest of the people kneeled to drink water.

⁷ And the LORD said to Gideon, "I will deliver you ¹with the 300 men who lapped and will give the Midianites into your hands; so let all the other people go, each man to his ¹home."

⁸ So ¹the 300 men took the people's provisions and their trumpets into their hands. And ²Gideon sent all the other men of Israel, each to his tent, but retained the 300 men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹ ¹ Now the same night it came about that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, ¹for I have given it into your hands."

¹⁰ "But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp."

¹² Now the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the sons of the east were lying in the valley ¹as numerous as locusts; and their camels were without number, ²as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

¹³ When Gideon came, behold, a man was relating a dream to his friend. And he said, "Behold, I ¹had a dream; ²a loaf of

14 And his friend answered and said, "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given Midian and all the camp ^ainto his hand."

15 ¶ And it came about when Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, that he bowed in worship. He returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the LORD has given the camp of Midian into your hands."

16 And he divided the 300 men into three ¹companies, and he put trumpets and empty pitchers into the hands of all of them, with torches inside the pitchers.

17 And he said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise. And behold, when I come to the outskirts of the camp, ¹do as I do.

18 "When I and all who are with me blow the trumpet, then you also blow the trumpets all around the camp, and say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just posted the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 When the three ¹companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers, they held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands for blowing, and cried, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"

23 And the men of Israel were summoned from ^aNaphtali and Asher and all Manasseh, and they pursued Midian.

24 ¶ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down ¹against Midian and ^atake the waters before them, as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they took the waters as far as Beth-barah and the Jordan.

25 And they captured the two leaders of Midian, ^aOreb and Zeeb, and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the wine press of Zeeb, while they pursued Midian; and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon ^bfrom across the Jordan.

THEN the men of Ephraim said to him, "What is this thing you have done to us, not calling us when you went to fight against Midian?" And they contended with him vigorously.

3 "God has given the leaders of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb into your hands; and what was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their ¹anger toward him subsided when he said ²that.

4 ¶ Then Gideon and the 300 men who were with him came ^ato the Jordan and crossed over, weary yet pursuing.

5 And he said to the men of ^aSuccoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who are following me, for they are weary, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

6 And the leaders of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give bread to your army?"

7 And Gideon said, "All right, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thrash your bodies with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

8 And he went up from there to Penuel, and spoke similarly to them; and the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered.

9 So he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I return safely, I will tear down this tower."

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about 15,000 men, all who were left of the entire army of the sons of the east; for the fallen were 120,000 swordsmen.

11 And Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the camp, when the camp was unsuspecting.

12 When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued them and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the whole army.

13 Then Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres.

14 And he captured a youth from Succoth and questioned him. Then the youth wrote down for him the princes of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

15 And he came to the men of Succoth and said, "Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?"

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and he disciplined the men of Succoth with them.

17 And he tore down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?" And they said, "They were like you, each one resembling the son of a king."

19 And he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if only you had let them live, I would not kill you."

20 So he said to Jether his first-born, "Rise, kill them." But the youth did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise up yourself, and fall on us; for as the man, so is his strength." So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments which were on their camels' necks.

22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you and your son, also your son's son, for you have delivered us from the hand of Midian."

23 But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, nor shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you."

24 Yet Gideon said to them, "I would request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his spoil." (For they had gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they said, "We will surely give them." So they spread out a garment, and every one of them threw an earring there from his spoil.

26 And the weight of the gold earrings that he requested was 1,700 shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments and the pendants and the purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the neck bands that were on their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made it into ^aan ephod, and placed it in his city, Ophrah, and all Israel played the harlot with it there, so that it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

28 So Midian was subdued before the sons of Israel, and they did not lift up their heads anymore. And the land was undisturbed for forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ Then ^aJerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

30 Now Gideon had ^aseventy sons who ¹were his direct descendants, for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he ¹named him Abimelech.

32 And Gideon the son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

33 ¶ Then it came about, as soon as Gideon was dead, ^athat the sons of Israel again played the harlot with the Baals, and made ^bBaal-berith their god.

34 Thus the sons of Israel ^adid not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies on every side;

35 ^anor did they show kindness to the household of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon), in accord with all the good that he had done to Israel.

3 And his mother's ¹relatives spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem; and ²they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is ^aour ³relative."

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of ^aBaal-berith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, and they followed him.

5 Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah, and ^akilled his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, ^bseventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem and all ¹Beth-millo assembled together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the ²oak of the pillar which was in Shechem.

7 ¶ Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on the top of ^aMount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and called out. Thus he said to them, "Listen to me, O men of Shechem, that God may listen to you.

8 "Once the trees went forth to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'

12 "Then the trees said to the vine, 'You come, reign over us!'

13 "But the vine said to them, 'Shall I leave my new wine, which cheers God and men, and go to wave over the trees?'

14 "Finally all the trees said to the bramble, 'You come, reign over us!'

15 "And the bramble said to the trees, 'If in ¹truth you are anointing me as king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, may fire come out from the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon.'

16 ¶ "Now therefore, if you have dealt in ¹truth and integrity in making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with ^aJerubbaal and his house, and ²have dealt with him ³as he deserved—

17 for my father fought for you and ¹risked his life and delivered you from the hand of Midian;

19 if then you have dealt in ¹truth and integrity with Jerubbaal and his house this day, rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.

20 "But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume the men of Shechem and ¹Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem and from ¹Beth-millo, and consume Abimelech."

21 Then Jotham escaped and fled, and went to Beer and remained there because of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ Now Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

25 And the men of Shechem set ¹men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who might pass by them along the road; and it was told to Abimelech.

26 ¶ Now Gaal the son of Ebed came with his ¹relatives, and crossed over into Shechem; and the men of Shechem put their trust in him.

27 And they went out into the field and gathered the grapes of their vineyards and trod them, and held a ¹festival; and they went into the house of ^atheir god, and ate and drank and cursed Abimelech.

28 Then Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is Zebul not his ¹lieutenant? Serve the men of ^aHamor the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?"

29 "Would, therefore, that this people were under my authority! Then I would remove Abimelech." And he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out."

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger burned.

31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech ¹deceitfully, saying, "Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his ²relatives have come to Shechem; and behold, they are ³stirring up the city against you.

32 "Now therefore, arise by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

33 "And it shall come about in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, that you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you shall ^{do to them} ^{whatever you can.}"

34 "So Abimelech and all the people who were with him arose by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four ^{companies}.

35 Now Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the city gate; and Abimelech and the people who were with him arose from the ambush.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "^{Look}, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains." But Zebul said to him, "You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

37 And Gaal spoke again and said, "Behold, people are coming down from ^{the} ^{highest part of the land}, and one ^{company} comes by the way of ^{the} ^{diviners'} ^{oak.}"

38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your ^{boasting} now with which you said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Is this not the people whom you despised? Go out now and fight with them!"

39 So Gaal went out before the leaders of Shechem and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many fell wounded up to the entrance of the gate.

41 Then Abimelech remained at Arumah, but Zebul drove out Gaal and his ^{relatives} so that they could not remain in Shechem.

42 ¶ Now it came about the next day, that the people went out to the field, and it was told to Abimelech.

43 So he took ^{his} people and divided them into three ^{companies}, and lay in wait in the field; when he looked and ^{saw} the people coming out from the city, he arose against them and ^{slew} them.

44 Then Abimelech and the ^{company} who was with him dashed forward and stood in the entrance of the city gate; the other two ^{companies} then dashed against all who were in the field and ^{slew} them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and he captured the city and killed the people who were in it; then he ^{razed} the city and sowed it with salt.

46 ¶ When all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the inner chamber of the ^{temple of} ^{El-berith}.

47 And it was told Abimelech that all the leaders of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 So Abimelech went up to Mount ^{Zalmon}, he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took ^{an} axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees, and lifted it and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, hurry and do ^{likewise}."

49 And all the people also cut down each one his branch and followed Abimelech, and put them on the inner chamber and set the inner chamber on fire over those inside, so that all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he camped against Thebez and captured it.

51 But there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the leaders of the city fled there and shut themselves in; and they went up on the roof of the tower.

52 So Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and approached the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 But ^aa certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, crushing his skull.

54 Then ^ahe called quickly to the young man, his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest it be said of me, 'A woman slew him.' " So ¹the young man pierced him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, each departed to his ¹home.

56 Thus ^aGod repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he had done to his father, in killing his seventy brothers.

57 Also God returned all the wickedness of the men of Shechem on their heads, and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came ¹upon them.

7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He ^asold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the sons of Ammon.

8 And they ¹afflicted and crushed the sons of Israel ²that year, for eighteen years they ^aafflicted all the sons of Israel who were beyond the Jordan ³in Gilead in the land of the Amorites.

9 And the sons of Ammon crossed the Jordan to fight also against Judah, Benjamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

10 ¹ Then the ^asons of Israel cried out to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against Thee, for indeed, we have forsaken our God and served the Baals."

11 And the LORD said to the sons of Israel, "Did I not deliver you ^afrom the Egyptians, ^bthe Amorites, ^cthe sons of Ammon, and the Philistines?

12 "Also when the Sidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites ^aoppressed you, you cried out to Me, and I delivered you from their hands.

13 "Yet ^ayou have forsaken Me and served other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more.

14 "Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress."

15 And the sons of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned, ^ado to us whatever seems good to Thee; only please deliver us this day."

16 ^aSo they put away the foreign gods from among them, and served the LORD; and ^{1b}He could bear the misery of Israel no longer.

17 ¶ Then the sons of Ammon were summoned, and they camped in Gilead. And the sons of Israel gathered together, and camped in ^aMizpah.

18 And the people, the leaders of Gilead, said to one another, "Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? He shall become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

CHAPTER 11

NOW ^aJephthah the Gileadite was a ¹valiant warrior, but he was the son of a harlot. And Gilead ²was the father of Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You shall not have an inheritance in our father's house, for you are the son of another woman."

3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of ^aTob; and worthless fellows gathered themselves ¹about Jephthah, and they went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came about after a while that ^athe sons of Ammon fought against Israel.

5 And it happened when the sons of Ammon fought against Israel that the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob;

6 and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our chief that we may fight against the sons of Ammon."

7 Then Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "^aDid you not hate me and drive me from my father's house? So why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?"

8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "For this reason we have now returned to you, that you may go with us and fight with the sons of Ammon and ^abecome head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

9 So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back to fight against the sons of Ammon and the LORD gives them up ¹to me, will I become your head?"

10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "^aThe LORD is ¹witness between us; surely we will do ²as you have said."

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at ^aMizpah.

12 ¶ Now Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, "What is between you and me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"

13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel ^atook away my land when they came up from Egypt, from the Arnon as far as the ^bJabbok and the Jordan; therefore, return them peaceably now."

14 But Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the sons of Ammon, 15 and they said to him, "Thus says Jephthah, 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the sons of Ammon.

16 ¹For when they came up from Egypt, and Israel ^awent through the wilderness to the ¹Red Sea and ^bcame to Kadesh.

19 'And Israel sent ^amessengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, "Please let us pass through your land to our place."

20 'But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people and camped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

21 'And the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they ¹defeated them; so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 ^a"So they possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan.

23 'Since now the LORD, the God of Israel, drove out the Amorites from before His people Israel, are you then to possess it?

24 'Do you not possess what ^aChemosh your god gives you to possess? So whatever the LORD our God has driven out before us, we will possess it.

25 'And now are you any better than ^aBalak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive with Israel, or did he ever fight against them?

26 ^a"While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

27 'I therefore have not sinned against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war against me; ^amay the LORD, the Judge, judge today between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.' "

28 But the king of the sons of Ammon ¹disregarded the message which Jephthah sent him.

29 ^a Now ^athe Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, so that he passed through Gilead and Manasseh; then he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he went on to the sons of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, "If Thou wilt indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand,

31 then it shall be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

32 So Jephthah crossed over to the sons of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.

33 And he struck them with a very great slaughter from Aroer ¹to the entrance of ^aMinnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the sons of Ammon were subdued before the sons of Israel.

34 ^a When Jephthah came to his house at ^aMizpah, behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him ^bwith tambourines and with dancing. Now she was his one and only child; besides her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came about when he saw her, that he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me; for I have ¹given my word to the LORD, and ^aI cannot take it back."

36 So she said to him, "My father, you have ¹given your word to the LORD; ^ado to me ²as you have said, since the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the sons of Ammon."

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 ¶ Now Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel after him.

9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he gave in marriage outside the family, and he brought in thirty daughters from outside for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

11 ¶ Now Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel after him; and he judged Israel ten years.

12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

13 ¶ Now Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel after him.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys; and he judged Israel eight years.

15 Then Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

CHAPTER 13

NOW the sons of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, so that the LORD gave them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of ^aZorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren and had borne no children.

3 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman, and said to her, "Behold now, you are barren and have borne no children, but you shall conceive and give birth to a son."

4 "Now therefore, be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing."

5 ¶ For behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and no razor shall come upon his head, for the boy shall be a ^bNazirite to God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel from the hands of the Philistines."

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. And I did not ask him where he came from, nor did he tell me his name."

7 "But he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive and give birth to a son, and now you shall not drink wine or strong drink nor eat any unclean thing, for the boy shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'"

8 ¶ Then Manoah entreated the LORD and said, "O Lord, please let ^athe man of God whom Thou hast sent come to us again that he may teach us what to do for the boy who is to be born."

9 And God listened to the voice of Manoah; and ^athe angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field, but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 So the woman ran quickly and told her ¹husband, "Behold, ^athe man who ²came the other day has appeared to me."

11 Then Manoah arose and followed his wife, and when he came to the man he said to him, "Are you ^athe man who spoke to the woman?" And he said, "I am."

12 And Manoah said, "Now when your words come to pass, what shall be the boy's mode of life and his vocation?"

13 So ^athe angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Let the woman pay attention ¹to all that I said."

14 "She should not eat anything that comes from the ^avine nor drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing; let her observe all that I commanded."

15 ¶ Then Manoah said to ^athe angel of the LORD, "Please let us detain you so that we may prepare a kid for you."

16 And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, ^aI will not eat your food, but if you prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD." For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that when your words come to pass, we may honor you?"

18 But the angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask my name, seeing it is ^awonderful?"

19 So ^aManoah took the kid with the grain offering and offered it on the rock to the LORD, and He performed wonders while Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came about when the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they ^afell on their faces to the ground.

21 Now the angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah or his wife. ^aThen Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD.

22 So Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God."

23 But his wife said to him, "If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have ^ashown us all these things, nor would He have let us hear things like this at this time."

24 ^a Then the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson; and the ^achild grew up and the LORD blessed him.

25 And ^athe Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in ^{1b}Mahanehdan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14

THEN Samson went down to Timnah and saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 So he came ^{1b}back and told his father and ²mother, "I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines; now therefore, get her for me as a wife."

3 Then his father and his mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your ^{1a}relatives, or among all ²our people, that you go to ^btake a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she ³looks good to me."

4 However, his father and mother did not know that ^ait was of the LORD, for He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

5 ¹ Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came as far as the vineyards of Timnah; and behold, a young lion came roaring toward him.

6 And ^athe Spirit of the LORD ¹came upon him mightily, so that ^bhe tore him as one tears a kid though he had nothing in his hand; but he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

7 So he went down and talked to the woman; and she ¹looked good to Samson.

8 When he returned later to take her, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion; and behold, a swarm of bees and honey were in the body of the lion.

9 So he scraped ¹the honey into his ²hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave ^{some} to them and they ate it; but he did not tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the body of the lion.

10 ¹ Then his father went down to the woman; and Samson made a feast there, for the young men customarily did this.

11 And it came about when they saw him that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 Then Samson said to them, "Let me now ^apropound a riddle to you; if you will indeed tell it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen wraps and thirty ^bchanges of clothes.

13 "But if you are unable to tell me, then you shall give me thirty linen wraps and thirty changes of clothes." And they said to him, "Propound your riddle, that we may hear it."

14 So he said to them,

"Out of the eater came something to eat,
And out of the strong came something sweet."

But they could not tell the riddle in three days.

15 ¹ Then it came about on the ¹fourth day that they said to Samson's wife, "^aEntice your husband, that he may tell us the riddle, ^blest we burn you and your father's house with fire.

CHAPTER 16

NOW Samson went to ^aGaza and saw a harlot there, and went in to her.

2 When it was told to the Gazites, saying, "Samson has come here," they ^asurrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. And they kept silent all night, saying, "Let us wait until the morning light, then we will kill him."

3 Now Samson lay until midnight, and at midnight he arose and took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts and pulled them up along with the bars; then he put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain which is opposite Hebron.

4 ¶ After this it came about that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the ^alords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, "^bEntice him, and see where his great strength lies and ¹how we may overpower him that we may bind him to afflict him. Then we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength is and ¹how you may be bound to afflict you."

7 And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now she had men lying in wait in an inner room. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the cords as a string of tow snaps when it ¹touches fire. So his strength was not discovered.

10 ¶ Then Delilah said to Samson, "Behold, you have deceived me and told me lies; now please tell me, how you may be bound."

11 And he said to her, "If they bind me tightly with new ropes which have not been used, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."

12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" For the men were lying in wait in the inner room. But he snapped the ropes from his arms like a thread.

13 ¶ Then Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have deceived me and told me lies; tell me how you may be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my hair with the web and fasten it with a pin, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."

14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his hair and wove them into the web. And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin of the loom and the web.

15 ¶ Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have deceived me these three times and have not told me where your great strength is."

16 And it came about when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was annoyed to death.

17 So he told her all that was in his heart and said to her, "A razor has never come on my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will leave me and I shall become weak and be like any other man."

18 ¶ When Delilah saw that he had told her all that was in his heart, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up once more, for he has told me all that is in his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his hair. Then she began to afflict him, and his strength left him.

20 And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep and said, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." But he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

21 Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze chains, and he was a grinder in the prison.

22 However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it was shaved off.

23 ¶ Now the lords of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice, for they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hands."

24 When the people saw him, they praised their god, for they said,

"Our god has given our enemy into our hands,

Even the destroyer of our country,

Who has slain many of us."

25 It so happened when they were in high spirits, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may amuse us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he entertained them. And they made him stand between the pillars.

26 Then Samson said to the boy who was holding his hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them."

27 Now the house was full of men and women, and all the lords of the Philistines were there. And about 3,000 men and women were on the roof looking on while Samson was amusing them.

28 ¶ Then Samson called to the LORD and said, "O Lord God, please remember me and please strengthen me just this time, O God, that I may at once be avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes."

29 And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and braced himself against them, the one with his right hand and the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" And he bent with all his might so that the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he killed in his life.

31 Then his brothers and all his father's household came down, took him, brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. ¶ Thus he had judged Israel twenty years.

CHAPTER 17

NOW there was a man of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver which were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse in my hearing, behold, the silver is with me; I took it." And his mother said, "Blessed be my son by the LORD."

3 He then returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, "I wholly dedicate the silver from my hand to the LORD for my son to make a graven image and a molten image; now therefore, I will return them to you."

4 So when he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the silver-smith who made them into a graven image and a molten image, and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had a shrine and he made an ephod and household idols and consecrated one of his sons, that he might become his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

7 ¶ Now there was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he was staying there.

8 Then the man departed from the city, from Bethlehem in Judah, to stay wherever he might find a place; and as he made his journey, he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah.

9 And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" And he said to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to stay wherever I may find a place."

10 Micah then said to him, "Dwell with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, a suit of clothes, and your maintenance." So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite agreed to live with the man; and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

12 So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah.

13 Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, seeing I have a Levite as priest."

CHAPTER 18

IN those days there was no king of Israel; and ^bin those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for themselves to live in, for until that day ¹an inheritance had not ²been allotted to them as a possession among the tribes of Israel.

2 So the sons of Dan sent from their family five men out of their whole number, ¹valiant men from ^aZorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it; and they said to them, "Go, search the land." And they came to ^bthe hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

3 When they were near the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite; and they turned aside there, and said to him, "Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what do you have here?"

4 And he said to them, "Thus and so has Micah done to me, and he has hired me, and ^aI have become his priest."

5 And they said to him, "Inquire of God, please, that we may know whether our way on which we are going will be prosperous."

6 And the priest said to them, "Go in peace; your way in which you are going ¹has the LORD's approval."

7 ¶ Then the five men departed and came to ^aLaish and saw the people who were in it living in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was no ¹ruler humiliating them for anything in the land, and they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.

14 ¶ Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered and said to their kinsmen, "Do you know that there are in these houses ^aan ephod and ¹household idols and a graven image and a molten image? Now therefore, consider what you should do."

15 And they turned aside there and came to the house of the young man, the Levite, to the house of Micah, and asked him of his welfare.

16 And the six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were of the sons of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

17 Now the five men who went to spy out the land went up and entered there, and took ^athe graven image and the ephod and ¹household idols and the molten image, while the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

18 And when these went into Micah's house and took the graven image, the ephod and ¹household idols and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

19 And they said to him, "Be silent, ^aput your hand over your mouth and come with us, and be to us ^{ba} father and a priest. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod and ¹household idols and the graven image, and went among the people.

21 ¶ Then they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the livestock and the valuables in front of them.

22 When they had gone some distance from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house assembled and overtook the sons of Dan.

23 And they cried to the sons of Dan, who turned ¹around and said to Micah, "What is the matter with you, that you have assembled together?"

24 And he said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away, and what do I have besides? So how can you say to me, 'What is the matter with you?' "

25 And the sons of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest ¹fierce men fall upon you and you ²lose your life, with the lives of your household."

26 So the sons of Dan went on their way; and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

27 ¶ Then they took what Micah had made and the priest who had belonged to him, and came to ^aLaish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burned the city with fire.

28 And there was no one to deliver them, because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone, and it was in the valley which is near ^aBeth-rehob. And they rebuilt the city and lived in it.

29 And ^athey called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father who was born in Israel; however, the name of the city formerly was Laish.

30 And the sons of Dan set up for themselves ^athe graven image; and Jonathan, the son of ^bGershom, the son of ¹Manasseh, ^che and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land.

CHAPTER 19

NOW it came about in those days, when ^athere was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite ¹staying in the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah.

2 But his concubine played the harlot against him, and she went away from him to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah, and was there for a period of four months.

3 Then her husband arose and went after her to ^aspeak ¹tenderly to her in order to bring her back, ²taking with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. So she brought him into her father's house, and when the girl's father saw him, he was glad to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the girl's father, detained him; and he remained with him three days. So they ate and drank and lodged there.

5 Now it came about on the fourth day that they got up early in the morning, and he ¹prepared to go; and the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "^aSustain ²yourself with a piece of bread, and afterward you may go."

6 So both of them sat down and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Please be willing to spend the night, and ^alet your heart be merry."

7 Then the man arose to go, but his father-in-law urged him so that he spent the night there again.

8 And on the fifth day he arose to go early in the morning, and the girl's father said, "Please sustain ¹yourself, and wait until ²afternoon"; so both of them ate.

9 When the man arose to go along with his concubine and servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day has drawn ¹to a close; please spend the night. Lo, the day is ²coming to an end; spend the night here that your heart may be merry. Then tomorrow you may arise early for your journey so that you may go ³home."

10 ^a But the man was not willing to spend the night, so he arose and departed and came to a place opposite ^aJebus (that is, Jerusalem). And there were with him a pair of saddled donkeys; his concubine also was with him.

11 When they were near Jebus, the day was almost gone; and ^athe servant said to his master, "Please come, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."

13 And he said to his servant, "Come and let us approach one of these places; and we will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."

14 So they passed along and went their way, and the sun set on them near Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside there in order to enter and lodge in Gibeah. When ¹they entered, ¹they sat down in the open square of the city, for no one took them into his house to spend the night.

16 ^a Then behold, an old man was coming out of the field from his work at evening. Now the man was from ^athe hill country of Ephraim, and he was ¹staying in Gibeah, but the men of the place ^bwere Benjamites.

17 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the traveler in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

18 And he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, for I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem in Judah. But I am now going to ¹my house, and no man will take me into his house.

19 "Yet there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, ¹your maidservant, and ^athe young man who is with your servants; there is no lack of anything."

20 And the old man said, "^aPeace to you. Only let me take care of all your needs; however, do not spend the night in the open square."

21 ^aSo he took him into his house and gave the donkeys fodder, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 ¶ While they were ¹making merry, behold, ^athe men of the city, certain ^{2b}worthless fellows, surrounded the house, pounding the door; and they spoke to the owner of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came into your house that we may have ³relations with him."

23 Then the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my fellows, please do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, ^ado not commit this act of folly.

24 ^a"Here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. Please let me bring them out that you may ravish them and do to them ¹whatever you wish. But do not commit such an act of folly against this man."

25 But the men would not listen to him, so the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them. And they raped her and abused her all night until morning, then let her go at the approach of dawn.

26 ¹As the day began to dawn, the woman came and fell down at the doorway of the man's house where her master was, until full daylight.

27 ¶ When her master arose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, then behold, his concubine was lying at the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, "Get up and let us go," ^abut there was no answer. Then he placed her on the donkey; and the man arose and went to his ¹home.

29 When he entered his house, he took a knife and laid hold of his concubine and ^acut her in twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout the territory of Israel.

this has ever happened or been seen from the day when the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt to this day. Consider it, ^atake counsel and speak up!"

CHAPTER 20

THEN all the sons of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead, came out, and the congregation assembled as one man to the Lord at ^aMizpah.

2 And the ¹chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, took their stand in the assembly of the people of God, 400,000 foot ²soldiers ^awho drew the sword.

3 (Now the sons of Benjamin heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the sons of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wickedness take place?"

4 So the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "I came with my concubine to spend the night at Gibeah which belongs to Benjamin.

5 "But the ^amen of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house at night because of me. They intended to kill me; instead, they ^bravished my concubine so that she died.

6 "And I ^atook hold of my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout the land of Israel's inheritance; for ^bthey have committed a lewd and disgraceful act in Israel.

7 "Behold, all you sons of Israel, ^agive your advice and counsel here."

8 ¶ Then all the people arose as one man, saying, "Not one of us will go to his tent, nor will any of us return to his house.

9 "But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up against it by lot.

10 "And we will take 10 men out of 100 throughout the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of 1,000, and

1,000 out of 10,000 to ¹supply food for the people, that when they come to ²Gibeah of Benjamin, they may ³punish them for all the disgraceful acts that they have committed in Israel."

11 Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united as one man.

12 ¶ Then the tribes of Israel sent men through the entire ¹tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this wickedness that has taken place among you?"

13 "Now then, deliver up the men, the ¹worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and ²remove this wickedness from Israel." But the sons of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel.

14 And the sons of Benjamin gathered from the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the sons of Israel.

15 And from the cities on that day the ¹sons of Benjamin were ¹numbered, 26,000 men who draw the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah who were ¹numbered, 700 choice men.

16 Out of all these people 700 "choice men were left-handed; each one could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

17 ¶ Then the men of Israel besides Benjamin were ¹numbered, 400,000 men who draw the sword; all these were men of war.

18 Now the sons of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and ¹inquired of God, and said, "Who shall go up first for us to battle against the sons of Benjamin?" Then the LORD said, "Judah shall go up first."

19 ¶ So the sons of Israel arose in the morning and camped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel arrayed for battle against them at Gibeah.

22 But the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and arrayed for battle again in the place where they had arrayed themselves the first day.

23 ¹And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and ²inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall we again draw near for battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin?" And the LORD said, "Go up against him."

24 ¶ Then the sons of Israel ¹came against the sons of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went out ¹against them from Gibeah the second day and ²felled to the ground again 18,000 men of the sons of Israel; all these drew the sword.

26 Then ¹all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel and wept; thus they remained there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the sons of Israel ¹inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, Aaron's son, stood before it to minister in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the sons of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up, ¹for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand."

29 ¶ ¹So Israel set men in ambush around Gibeah.

30 And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day and arrayed themselves against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 ^aAnd the sons of Benjamin went out ¹against the people and were drawn away from the city, and they began to strike ²and kill some of the people, as at other times, on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, and in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the sons of Benjamin said, "They are struck down before us, as at the first." But the sons of Israel said, "Let us flee that we may draw them away from the city to the highways."

33 Then all the men of Israel arose from their place and arrayed themselves at Baal-tamar; ^aand the men of Israel in ambush broke out of their place, even out of Maareh-geba.

34 When ten thousand choice men from all Israel came against Gibeah, the battle became ¹fierce; ^abut ²Benjamin did not know that ³disaster was ⁴close to them.

35 And the LORD struck Benjamin before Israel, so that the sons of Israel destroyed 25,100 men of Benjamin that day, all ¹who draw the sword.

36 ¶ So the sons of Benjamin saw that they were ¹defeated. ^aWhen the men of Israel gave ²ground to Benjamin because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.

37 ^athe men in ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah; the men in ambush also deployed and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was ^athat they should make a great cloud of smoke rise from the city.

39 Then the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike ¹and kill about thirty men of Israel, ^afor they said, "Surely they are ²de-

40 But when the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, Benjamin looked ^abehind them; and behold, the whole city was going up in smoke to heaven.

41 Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified; for they saw that ¹a disaster was ²close to them.

42 Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel ^atoward the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them while those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them.

43 ^aThey surrounded Benjamin, pursued them without rest and trod them down opposite Gibeah toward the ¹east.

44 Thus 18,000 men of Benjamin fell; all these were valiant warriors.

45 ¹The rest turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of ^aRimmon, but they ²caught 5,000 of them on the highways and overtook them ³at Gidom and ⁴killed 2,000 of them.

46 So all of Benjamin who fell that day were 25,000 men who draw the sword; all these were valiant warriors.

47 But 600 men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they remained at the rock of Rimmon four months.

48 The men of Israel then turned back against the sons of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city with the cattle and all that they found; they also set on fire all the cities which they found.

CHAPTER 2

NOW Naomi had ¹a kinsman of her husband, a ²man of great wealth, of the family of ¹Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Please let me go to the field and ¹glean among the ears of grain after one in whose sight I may find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter."

3 So she departed and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers; and ¹she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

4 Now behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, "¹May the LORD be with you." And they said to him, "May the LORD bless you."

5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was ¹in charge of the reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

6 And the servant ¹in charge of the reapers answered and said, "She is the young Moabite woman who returned with Naomi from the land of Moab.

7 "And she said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' Thus she came and has remained from the morning until now; she has been sitting in the house for a little while."

8 ¹ Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen carefully, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field; furthermore, do not go on from this one, but stay here with my maids.

9 "Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and go after them. Indeed, I have commanded the servants not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go to the ¹water jars and drink from what the servants draw."

10 Then she ^afell on her face, bowing to the ground and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"

10 ^a Sam. 25:23

11 And Boaz answered and said to her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband has been fully reported to me, and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people that you did not previously know.

20 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "^aMay he be blessed of the LORD who has not withdrawn his kindness to the living and to the dead." Again Naomi said to her, "The man is ¹our relative, he is one of our ²closest relatives."

21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "¹Furthermore, he said to me, 'You should stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.'"

22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maids, lest ^aothers fall upon you in another field."

23 So she stayed close by the maids of Boaz in order to glean until ^athe end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER 3

THEN Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek ¹security for you, that it may be well with you?

2 "And now is not Boaz ^aour ¹kinsman, with whose maids you were? Behold, he winnows barley at the threshing floor tonight.

3 "Wash yourself therefore, and anoint yourself and put on your ^abest clothes, and go down to the threshing floor; ^bbut do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

4 "And it shall be when he lies down, that you shall ¹notice the place where he lies, and you shall go and uncover his feet and lie down; then he will tell you what you shall do."

5 And she said to her, "All that you say I will do."

6 ¶ So she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her.

7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain; and she came secretly, and uncovered his feet and lay down.

8 And it happened in the middle of the night that the man was startled and bent forward; and behold, a woman was lying at his feet.

9 And he said, "Who are you?" And she answered, "I am Ruth your maid. So spread your covering over your maid, for you are a close relative."

10 Then he said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown your last kindness to be better than the first by not going after young men, whether poor or rich.

11 "And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you whatever you ask, for all my people in the city know that you are a woman of excellence.

12 "And now it is true I am a close relative; however, there is a relative closer than I.

13 "Remain this night, and when morning comes, if he will redeem you, good; let him redeem you. But if he does not wish to redeem you, then I will redeem you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until morning."

14 ¶ So she lay at his feet until morning and rose before one could recognize another; and he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor."

15 Again he said, "Give me the cloak that is on you and hold it."

So she held it, and he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her. Then she went into the city.

18 Then she said, "Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter turns out; for the man will not rest until he has settled it today."

CHAPTER 4

NOW Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there, and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz spoke was passing by, so he said, "Turn aside, friend, sit down here." And he turned aside and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city and said, "Sit down here." So they sat down.

3 Then he said to the closest relative, "Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, has to sell the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelech.

4 "So I thought to inform you, saying, 'Buy it before those who are sitting here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if not, tell me that I may know; for there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am after you.'" And he said, "I will redeem it."

5 Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance."

6 And the closest relative said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I²jeopardize my own inheritance. Redeem it for yourself; you may have my right of redemption, for I cannot redeem it."

7 ¶ Now this was ^athe custom in former times in Israel concerning the redemption and the exchange of land to confirm any matter: a man removed his sandal and gave it to another; and this was the manner of attestation in Israel.

8 So the ¹closest relative said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." And he removed his sandal.

9 Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon.

10 "Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased on his inheritance, so ^athat the name of the deceased may not be cut off from his brothers or from the ¹court of his birth place; you are witnesses today."

11 And all the people who were in the ¹court, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home ^alike Rachel and Leah, both of whom built the house of Israel; and may you achieve ²wealth in Ephrathah and ³become famous in Bethlehem.

14 Then the ^awomen said to Naomi, "Blessed is the LORD who has not left you without a ¹redeemer today, and may his name ²become famous in Israel.

15 "May he also be to you a restorer of life and a sustainer of your old age; for your daughter-in-law, who loves you ^{1a}and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him."

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

Elkanah and His Wives

NOW there was a certain man from ^aRamathaim-zophim from the ^bhill country of Ephraim, and his name was ^cElkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

2 And he had ^atwo wives: the name of one was ^bHannah and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 Now this man would go up from his city ^ayearly ^bto worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in ^cShiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas were priests to the LORD there.

4 And when the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he ^awould give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters;

5 but to Hannah he would give a double portion, for he loved Hannah, ^abut the LORD had closed her womb.

6 Her rival, however, ^awould provoke her bitterly to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.

7 And it happened year after year, as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she would provoke her, so she wept and would not eat.

8 Then Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep and why do you not eat and why is your heart sad? ^aAm I not better to you than ten sons?"

9 ^a Then Hannah rose after eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting on 10 And she, ^agreatly distressed, prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly.

12 ^a Now it came about, as she ^bcontinued praying before the LORD, that Eli was watching her mouth.

13 As for Hannah, ^ashe was speaking in her heart, only her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard. So Eli thought she was drunk.

14 Then Eli said to her, "^aHow long will you make yourself drunk? Put away your wine from you."

15 But Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, I am a woman ^boppressed in spirit; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I ^ahave poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 "Do not ^bconsider your maidservant as a worthless woman; for I have spoken until now out of my great concern and ^cprovocation."

17 Then Eli answered and said, "^aGo in peace; and may the God of Israel ^bgrant your petition that you have asked of Him."

18 And she said, "^aLet your maidservant find favor in your sight." So the woman went her way and ate, and ^bher face was no longer sad.

19 ¶ Then they arose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, and returned again to their house in ^aRamah. And Elkanah ¹had relations with Hannah his wife, and ^bthe LORD remembered her.

20 And it came about ¹in due time, after Hannah had conceived, that she gave birth to a son; and she named him Samuel, saying, "Because I have asked him of the LORD."

21 ¶ Then the man Elkanah ^awent up with all his household to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and pay his vow.

22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "I will not go up until the child is weaned; then I will ^abring him, that he may appear before the LORD and ^bstay there forever."

23 And ^aElkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems best ¹to you. Remain until you have weaned him; only ^bmay the LORD confirm His word." So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him.

24 Now when she had weaned him, ^ashe took him up with her, with a three-year-old bull and one ephah of flour and a jug of wine, and brought him to ^bthe house of the LORD in Shiloh, although the child was young.

25 Then ^athey slaughtered the bull, and ^bbrought the boy to Eli.

26 And she said, "Oh, my lord! ^aAs your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you, praying to the LORD.

27 "For this boy I prayed, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him.

28 "So I have also ¹dedicated him to the LORD; as long as he lives he is ¹dedicated to the LORD." And ^bhe worshiped the LORD there.

14 Then he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. Thus they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

LORD, for the men ^adespised the offering of the LORD.

18 ^e Now ^aSamuel was ministering before the LORD, as a boy ¹wearing a linen ephod.

19 And his mother would make him a little ^arobe and bring it to him from year to year when she would come up with her husband to offer ^bthe yearly sacrifice.

20 Then Eli would ^abless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May the LORD give you ¹children from this woman in place of ²the one she ^bdedicated to the LORD." And they went to their own ³home.

21 And ^athe LORD visited Hannah; and she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. And ^bthe boy Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 ^e Now Eli was very old; and he heard ^aall that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with ^bthe women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting.

23 And he said to them, "Why do you do such things, the evil things that I hear from all these people?"

24 "No, my sons; for the report is not good ^awhich I hear ¹the LORD's people circulating.

25 "If one man sins against another, ^aGod will mediate for him; but ^bif a man sins against the LORD, who can intercede for him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for the ^cLORD desired to put them to death.

26 Now the boy ^aSamuel ¹was growing in stature and in favor both with the LORD and with men.

27 ^e Then ^aa man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, ^bDid I not indeed reveal Myself to the house of your 28 'And ^adid I not choose them from all the tribes of Israel to be My priests, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to carry an ephod before Me; and did I not ^bgive to the house of your father all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel?

29 'Why do you ^akick at My sacrifice and at My offering ^bwhich I have commanded in My dwelling, and ^dhonor your sons above Me, by making yourselves fat with the ¹choicest of every offering of My people Israel?

30 'Therefore the LORD God of Israel declares, '^aI did indeed say that your house and the house of your father should walk before Me forever'; but now the LORD declares, '^aFar be it from Me—for ^bthose who honor Me I will honor, and those ^cwho despise Me will be lightly esteemed.

31 'Behold, ^athe days are coming when I will break your ¹strength and the ¹strength of your father's house so that there will not be an old man in your house.

32 'And you will see ^athe distress of My dwelling, in spite of all that ¹I do good for Israel; and an ^bold man will not be in your house forever.

33 'Yet I will not cut off every man of yours from My altar ¹that your eyes may fail from weeping and your soul grieve, and all the increase of your house will die ²in the prime of life.

34 'And this will be ^athe sign to you which shall come concerning your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: ^bon the same day both of them shall die.

CHAPTER 3

NOW ^athe boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD before Eli. And ^bword from the LORD was rare in those days, ¹visions were infrequent.

2 And it happened at that time as Eli was lying down in his place, (now ^ahis eyesight had begun to grow dim and he could not see well),

3 and ^athe lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was,

4 that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, "^aHere I am."

5 Then he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, lie down again." So he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, "Samuel!" So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he ¹answered, "I did not call, my son, lie down again."

7 ^aNow Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor had the word of the LORD yet been revealed to him.

8 So the LORD called Samuel again for the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli discerned that the LORD was calling the boy.

9 And Eli said to Samuel, "Go lie down, and it shall be if He calls you, that you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for Thy servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 ¶ Then the LORD came and stood and called as at other imes, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for Thy servant is listening."

CHAPTER 4

11 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do a thing in Israel at which both ears of everyone who hears it will tingle."

12 "In that day I will carry out against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end."

13 "For I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves and he did not rebuke them."

14 "And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be atoned for by sacrifice or offering forever."

15 ¶ So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. But Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

16 Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here I am."

17 And he said, "What is the word that He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. May God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the words that He spoke to you."

18 So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, "It is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him."

19 ¶ Thus Samuel grew and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fail.

20 And all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD.

21 And the LORD appeared again at Shiloh, because the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

THUS the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out to meet the Philistines in battle and camped beside Ebenezer while the Philistines camped in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines drew up in battle array to meet Israel. When the battle spread, Israel was defeated before the Philistines who killed about four thousand men on the battlefield.

3 When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us take to ourselves from Shiloh the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that it may come among us and deliver us from the power of our enemies."

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts who sits above the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 ¶ And it happened as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, that all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth resounded.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before."

8 "Woe to us! Who shall deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness."

9 "Take courage and be men, O Philistines, lest you become slaves to the Hebrews, ^{bas} they have been slaves to you; therefore, be men and fight."

10 So the Philistines fought and ^aIsrael was ¹defeated, and ^bevery man fled to his tent, and the slaughter was very great; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and ^athe two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

12 ¶ Now a man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh the same day with ^ahis clothes torn and ¹dust on his head.

13 When he came, behold, ^aEli was sitting on his seat ¹by the road eagerly watching, because his heart was trembling for the ark of God. So the man came to tell it in the city, and all the city cried out.

14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he said, "What does the noise of this commotion mean?" Then the man came hurriedly and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and ^ahis eyes were set so that he could not see.

16 And the man said to Eli, "I am the one who came from the battle line. Indeed, I escaped from the battle line today." And he said, "^aHow did things go, my son?"

17 Then the one who brought the news answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines and there has also been a great slaughter among the people, and your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been taken."

18 And it came about when he mentioned the ark of God that ^{1a}Eli fell off the seat backward beside the gate, and his neck was broken and he died, for ²he was old and heavy. Thus he judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was pregnant and about to give birth; and when she heard the news that the ark of God was taken and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she kneeled down and gave birth, for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "^aDo not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son." But she did not answer or pay attention.

21 And she called the boy ¹Ichabod, saying, "^aThe glory has departed from Israel," because ^bthe ark of God was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 And she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God was taken."

CHAPTER 5

NOW the Philistines took the ark of God and ^abrought it from Ebenezer to ^bAshdod.

2 Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to ^athe house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

3 When the Ashdodites arose early the next morning, behold, ^aDagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and ^bset him in his place again.

4 But when they arose early the next morning, behold, ^aDagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold; ¹only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor all who enter Dagon's house ^atread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

6 * Now ^athe hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and ^bHe ravaged them and smote them with ^ctumors, both Ashdod and its territories.

7 When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us, for His hand is severe on us and on Dagon our god."

8 So they sent and ^agathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" And they said, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." And they brought the ark of the God of Israel around.

9 And it came about that after they had brought it around, ^athe hand of the LORD was against the city with very great confusion; and He smote the men of the city, both young and old, so that ^btumors broke out on them.

10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it happened as the ark of God came to Ekron that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel around to ¹us, to kill ¹us and ²our people."

11 They ^asent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not kill ¹us and ²our people." For there was a deadly confusion throughout the city; ^bthe hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men who did not die were smitten with tumors and ^athe cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6

NOW the ark of the LORD had been in the ¹country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And ^athe Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us ¹how we shall send it to its place."

3 And they said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, ^ado not send it empty; but you shall surely ^breturn to Him a guilt offering. Then you shall be healed and it shall be known to you why His hand is not removed from you."

4 Then they said, "What shall be the guilt offering which we shall return to Him?" And they said, "Five golden ^atumors and five golden mice ^baccording to the number of the lords of the Philistines, for one plague was on all of ¹you and on your lords.

5 "So you shall make likenesses of your tumors and likenesses of your mice that ravage the land, and ^ayou shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps ^bHe will ease His hand from you, ^cyour gods, and your land.

6 "Why then do you harden your hearts ^aas the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them, ^bdid they not allow ¹the people to go, and they departed?

7 "Now therefore take and ^aprepare a new cart and two milch cows on which there ^bhas never been a yoke; and hitch the cows to the cart and take their calves home, away from them.

8 "And take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart; and put ^athe articles of gold which you return to Him as ^ba guilt offering in a box by its side. Then send it away that it may go.

9 "And watch, if it goes up by the way of its own territory to ^aBeth-shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then ^bwe shall know that it was not His hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance."

10 ¶ Then the men did so, and took two milch cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

11 And they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the golden mice and the likenesses of their tumors.

12 And the cows took the straight way in the ¹direction of ^aBeth-shemesh; they went along ^bthe highway, lowing as they went, and did not turn aside to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines followed them to the border of Beth-shemesh.

13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley, and they raised their eyes and saw the ark and were glad to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite and stood there where there was a large stone; and they split the wood of the cart and ^aoffered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

15 And ^athe Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was with it, in which were the articles of gold, and put them on the large stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices that day to the LORD.

16 And when the ^afive lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned to Ekron that day.

17 ¶ And ^athese are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

18 and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, ^aboth of fortified cities and of country villages. ^bThe large ¹stone on which they set the ark of the LORD is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite.

mesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck down of all the people, 50,070 men, and the people mourned because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?"

21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of ^aKiriath-jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down and take it up to you."

CHAPTER 7

AND the men of Kiriath-jearim came and took the ark of the LORD and ^abrought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came about from the day that the ark remained at Kiriath-jearim that the time was long, for it was twenty years; and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

3 ¶ Then Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you return to the LORD with all your heart, ^bremove the foreign gods and the ^cAshtaroth from among you and ^ddirect your hearts to the LORD and ^eserve Him alone; and He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines."

4 So the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth and served the LORD alone.

5 ¶ Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to ^aMizpah, and ^bI will pray to the LORD for you."

6 And they gathered to Mizpah, and drew water and ^apoured it out before the LORD, and ^bfasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

7 Now when the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the sons of Israel heard it, ^athey were afraid of the Philistines.

8 Then the sons of Israel said to Samuel, "^aDo not cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that He may save us from the hand of the Philistines."

9 And Samuel took ^aa suckling lamb and offered it for a whole burnt offering to the LORD; and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel and ^bthe LORD answered him.

10 Now Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, and the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But ^athe LORD thundered with a great ¹thunder on that day against the Philistines and ^bconfused them, so that they were ²routed before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as below Beth-car.

12 ¶ Then Samuel ^atook a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it ¹Eben-ezer, saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."

13 ^aSo the Philistines were subdued and ^bthey did not come anymore within the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel delivered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. So there was peace between Israel and ^athe Amorites.

15 ¶ Now Samuel ^ajudged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he used to go annually on circuit to ^aBethel and ^bGilgal and ^cMizpah, and he judged Israel in all these places.

17 Then his return was to ^aRamah, for his house was there, and there he judged Israel; and he ^bbuilt there an altar to the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

AND it came about when Samuel was old that ^ahe appointed his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his first-born was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judging in ^aBeersheba.

3 His sons, however, did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after dishonest gain and ^atook bribes and perverted justice.

4 ¶ Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at ^aRamah;

5 and they said to him, "Behold, you have grown old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now ^aappoint a king for us to judge us like all the nations."

6 But the thing was ¹displeasing in the sight of Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." And ^bSamuel prayed to the LORD.

7 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in regard to all that they say to you, for ^athey have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from being king over them.

8 "Like all the deeds which they have done since the day that I brought them up from Egypt even to this day—in that they have forsaken Me and served other gods—so they are doing to you also.

9 "Now then, listen to their voice; ^ahowever, you shall solemnly ¹warn them and tell them of ^bthe ²procedure of the king who will reign over them."

10 ¶ So Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to ^athe people who had asked of him a king.

11 And he said, "This will be the ¹procedure of the king who will reign over you: ^bhe will take your sons and place them for himself in his chariots and among his horsemen and ^cthey will run before his chariots.

12 "And ^ahe will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and of fifties, and some to ¹do his plowing and to reap his harvest and to make his weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 "He will also take your daughters for perfumers and cooks and bakers.

14 "And ^ahe will take the best of your fields and your vineyards and your olive groves, and give them to his servants.

15 "And he will take a tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give to his officers and to his servants.

16 "He will also take your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys, and ¹use them for his work.

17 "He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his servants.

18 "Then ^ayou will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but ^bthe LORD will not answer you in that day."

19 ¶ Nevertheless, the people ^arefused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, "No, but there shall be a king over us, 20 ^athat we also may be like all the nations, that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles."

21 Now after Samuel had heard all the words of the people, ^ahe repeated them in the LORD's hearing.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and ¹appoint them a king." So Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Go every man to his city."

CHAPTER 9

NOW there was a man of Benjamin whose name was ^aKish the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of ¹val-or.

2 And he had a son whose name was Saul, a ^achoice and handsome man, and there was not a more handsome person than he among the sons of Israel; ^bfrom his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people.

3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take now with you one of the servants, and arise, go search for the donkeys."

4 And he passed through ^athe hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of ^bShalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of ^cShaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

5 ¶ When they came to the land of ^aZuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, ^blest my father cease to be concerned about the donkeys and become anxious for us."

6 And he said to him, "Behold now, there is ^aa man of God in this city, and the man is held in honor; ^ball that he says surely comes true. Now let us go there ^cperhaps he can tell us about our journey on which we have set out."

7 Then Saul said to his servant "But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the breac is gone from our sack and there is ^ano present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

8 And the servant answered Saul again and said, "Behold, I have in my hand a fourth of a shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God and he will ^atell us our way."

9 (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he used to say, "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for he who is called a prophet now was formerly called ^aa seer.)

10 Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said; come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 ⁹ As they went up the slope to the city, ^athey found young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

12 And they answered them and said, "He is; ¹see, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come into the city today, for ^athe people have a sacrifice on ^bthe high place today.

13 "As soon as you enter the city you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat, for the people will not eat until he comes, because ^ahe must bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. Now therefore, go up for you will find him at once."

14 So they went up to the city. As they came into the city, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

15 ⁹ Now a day before Saul's coming, ^athe LORD had ¹revealed this to Samuel saying,

16 "About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and ^ayou shall anoint him to be prince over My people Israel; and he shall deliver My people from the hand of the Philistines. For ^bI have regarded My people, because their cry has come to Me."

17 When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD ¹said to him, "^aBehold, the man of whom I spoke to you! This one shall rule over My people."

18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the gate, and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today; and in the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is on your mind.

20 "And ^aas for your donkeys which were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them, for they have been found. And ^bfor whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's household?"

21 And Saul answered and said, "^aAm I not a Benjamite, of ^bthe smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the ¹tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me in this way?"

22 ⁹ Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those who were invited, who were about thirty men.

23 And Samuel said to the cook, "¹Bring the portion that I gave you, concerning which I said to you, 'Set it ²aside.'"

24 Then the cook ^atook up the leg with what was on it and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Here is what has been reserved! Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you until the appointed time, ¹since I said I have invited the people." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

25 ⁹ When they came down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul ^aon the roof.¹

26 And they arose early; and it came about at daybreak that Samuel called to Saul on the

27 As they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Say to the servant that he might go ahead of us and pass on, but you remain standing now, that I may proclaim the word of God to you."

CHAPTER 10

THEN ^aSamuel took the flask of oil, poured it on his head, ^bkissed him and said, "Has not ^cthe LORD anointed you a ruler over ^dHis inheritance?"

2 "When you go from me today, then you will find two men close to ^aRachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to you, ^bThe donkeys which you went to look for have been found. Now behold, your father has ^cceased to be concerned about the donkeys and is anxious for you, saying, "What shall I do about my son?"

3 "Then you will go on further from there, and you will come as far as the ^aoak of Tabor, and there three men going up ^bto God at Bethel will meet you, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a jug of wine;

4 and they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from their hand.

5 "Afterward you will come to ^athe hill of God where the Philistine garrison is; and it shall be as soon as you have come there to the city, that you will meet ^ba group of prophets coming down from the high place with harp, tambourine, flute, and a lyre before them, and ^cthey will be prophesying.

6 "Then ^athe Spirit of the LORD will come upon you mightily, and ^byou shall prophesy with them and be changed into another man.

7 "And it shall be when these signs come to you, ^ado for yourself what ^bthe occasion requires; for ^bGod is with you.

8 "And ^ayou shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and ^bsacrifice peace offerings. "You shall wait seven days until I come to you and show you what you should do."

9 ¶ Then it happened when he turned his back to leave Samuel, God ^achanged ^bhis heart; and all those signs came about on that day.

10 ^aWhen they came to ^bthe hill there, behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him mightily, so that he prophesied among them.

11 And it came about, when all who knew him previously saw that he prophesied now with the prophets, that the people said to one another, "What has happened to the son of Kish? ^aIs Saul also among the prophets?"

12 And a man there answered and said, "Now, who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "^aIs Saul also among the prophets?"

13 When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ Now ^aSaul's uncle said to him and his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "^bTo look for the donkeys. When we saw that they could not be found, we went to Samuel."

15 And Saul's uncle said "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."

16 So Saul said to his uncle "^aHe told us plainly that the donkeys had been found." But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom which Samuel had mentioned.

17 ¶ Thereafter Samuel called the ^apeople together to the LORD at Mizpah;

18 and he said to the sons of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought Israel up from Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the ¹power of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.'

19 "But you ^atoday rejected your God, who delivers you from all your calamities and your distresses; yet you have ¹said, 'No, but set a king over us!' Now therefore, ^bpresent yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans."

20 Thus Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.

21 Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the Matrite family was taken. And Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they looked for him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore ^athey inquired further of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?" So the LORD said, "Behold, he is hiding himself by the baggage."

23 So they ran and took him from there, and when he stood among the people, ^ahe was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him ^awhom the LORD has chosen? Surely there is no one like him among all the people." So all the people shouted and said, "Long live the king!"

25 Then Samuel told the people ^athe ordinances of the kingdom, and wrote ^{them} in the book and ^bplaced it before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, each one to his house.

26 And Saul also went ^ato his house at Gibeah; and the valiant men whose hearts God had touched went with him.

27 But certain ^{1a}worthless men said, "How can this one deliver us?" And they despised him and ^bdid not bring him any present. But he kept silent.

CHAPTER 11

NOW ^aNahash the Ammonite came up and ¹besieged ^bJabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make ^acovenant with us and we will serve you."

2 But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "I will make it with you on this condition, ^athat I will gouge out the right eye of every one of you, thus I will make it ^areproach on all Israel."

3 And ^athe elders of Jabesh said to him, "Let us alone for seven days, that we may send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to deliver us, we will come out to you."

4 Then the messengers came ^ato Gibeah of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, and all the people ^blifted up their voices and wept.

5 Now behold, Saul was coming from the field ^abehind the oxen; and ¹he said, "What is ^athe matter with the people that they weep?" So they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

6 ¶ Then ^athe Spirit of God came upon Saul mightily when he heard these words, and ¹he became very angry.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen and ^acut them in pieces, and sent ^{them} throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "^bWhoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen." Then the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out ^aas one man.

9 And they said to the messengers who had come, "Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Then the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you."

11 And it happened the next morning that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp at the morning watch, and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of the day. And it came about that those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

12 ¶ Then the people said to Samuel, "Who is he that said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

13 But Saul said, "Not a man shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has accomplished deliverance in Israel."

14 ¶ Then Samuel said to the people, "Come and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there."

15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they also offered sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

are with you. And I have walked before you from my youth even to this day.

3 "Here I am; bear witness against me before the LORD and His anointed. Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed, or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? I will restore it to you."

4 And they said, "You have not defrauded us, or oppressed us, or taken anything from any man's hand."

5 And he said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day that you have found nothing in my hand." And they said, "He is witness."

6 ¶ Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.

7 "So now, take your stand that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did for you and your fathers.

8 "When Jacob went into Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

9 "But they forgot the LORD their God, so He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the king of Moab and they fought against them.

10 "And they cried out to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned because we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baal and the Ashtaroth; but now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve Thee.'

11 "Then the LORD sent Jerub-baal and ^{1b}Bedan and ^cJephthah and ^dSamuel, and delivered you from the hands of your enemies all around, so that you lived in security.

12 "When you saw ^athat Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon came against you, you said to me, ^bNo, but a king shall reign over us,' ^calthough the LORD your God was your king.

13 "Now therefore, ^ahere is the king whom you have chosen, ^bwhom you have asked for, and behold, the LORD has set a king over you.

14 "If you will fear the LORD and serve Him, and listen to His voice and not rebel against the ¹command of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God.

15 "And ^aif you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the ¹command of the LORD, then ^bthe hand of the LORD will be against you, ^cas it was against your fathers.

16 "Even now, ^atake your stand and see this great thing which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 "Is it not the wheat harvest today? ^bI will call to the LORD, that He may send ¹thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that ^cyour wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of the LORD by asking for yourselves a king."

18 So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD sent ¹thunder and rain that day; and ^aall the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 ¶ Then all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, so that we may not die, for we have added to all our sins ^bthis evil by asking for ourselves a king."

20 And Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have committed all this evil, yet ^ado not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

21 "And you must not turn aside, for then you would go after ^afutile things which can not profit or deliver, because they are futile.

22 "For ^athe LORD will not abandon His people ^bon account of His great name, because the LORD ^chas been pleased to make you a people for Himself.

23 "Moreover, as for me, ^afar be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but ^bI will instruct you in the good and right way.

24 "Only ¹fear the LORD and serve Him in truth with all your heart; for consider ^bwhat great things He has done for you.

25 "But if you still do wickedly, ^bboth you and your king ^cshall be swept away."

CHAPTER 13

SAUL was forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-two years over Israel.

2 Now Saul chose for himself 3,000 men of Israel, of which 2,000 were with Saul in ^aMichmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while 1,000 were with Jonathan at ^bGibeah of Benjamin. But he sent away the rest of the people, each to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote ^athe garrison of the Philistines that was in ^bGeba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul ^cblew the trumpet throughout the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear."

4 And all Israel heard ¹the news that Saul had smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel ^ahad become odious to the Philistines. The people were then summoned ²to Saul at Gilgal.

5 ¶ Now the Philistines assembled to fight with Israel, 30,000 chariots and 6,000 horsemen, and ^apeople like the sand which is on the seashore in abundance; and they came up and camped in Michmash, east of ^bBeth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were hard-pressed), then ^athe people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, in cliffs, in cellars, and in pits.

7 Also some of the Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of ^aGad and Gilead. But as for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 ¶ Now ^ahe waited seven days, according to the appointed time set by Samuel, but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the people were scattering from him.

9 So Saul said, "Bring to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings." And ^ahe offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came about as soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, that behold, Samuel came; and ^aSaul went out to meet him and to ¹greet him.

11 But Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you did not come within the appointed days, and that ^athe Philistines were assembling at Michmash, 12 therefore I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not asked the favor of the LORD.' So I forced myself and offered the burnt offering."

13 And Samuel said to Saul, "^aYou have acted foolishly; ^byou have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, for now the LORD would have established your kingdom ¹over Israel ^cforever.

14 "But ^anow your kingdom shall not endure. ^bThe LORD has sought out for Himself a man after His own heart, and the LORD has appointed him as ruler over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you."

15 ¶ Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to ^aGibeath of Benjamin. And Saul ¹numbered the people who were present with him, ^babout six hundred men.

16 Now Saul and his son Jonathan and the people who were present with them were staying in ^aGeba of Benjamin while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

17 And ^athe ¹raiders came from the camp of the Philistine in three ²companies; one ³company turned ⁴toward ^bOphrah, to the land of Shual, 18 and another ¹company turned ²toward ^aBeth-horon and another ¹company turned ²toward the border which overlooks the valley of ^bZeboim toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now ^ano blacksmith could be found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make ^bswords or spears."

20 So all Israel went down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, his mattock, his axe, and his hoe.

21 And the charge was ¹two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares, the mattocks, the forks and the axes, and to fix the hoes.

22 So it came about on the day of battle that ^aneither sword nor spear was found in the hands of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan, but they were found with Saul and his son Jonathan.

10 "But if they ^asay, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up, for the LORD has given them into our hands; and ^athis shall be the sign to us."

11 And when both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines, the Philistines said, "Behold, ^aHebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves."

12 So the men of the garrison ^ahailed Jonathan and his armor bearer and said, "Come up to us and ^awe will tell you something." And Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me, for ^bthe LORD has given them into the hands of Israel."

13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor bearer behind him; and they fell before Jonathan, and his armor bearer put some to death after him.

14 And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made was about twenty men within about half a furrow in an acre of land.

15 And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even the garrison and ^athe raiders trembled, and ^bthe earth quaked so ^cthat it became a ^dgreat trembling.

16 ^a Now Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away; and they went here and there.

17 And Saul said to the people who were with him, "^aNumber now and see who has gone from us." And when they had ^anumbered, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

18 Then Saul said to Ahijah, "^aBring the ark of God here." For the ark of God was at that time with the sons of Israel.

19 And it happened ^awhile Saul talked to the priest, that the commotion in the camp of the Philistines continued and increased; so Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

20 Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and came to the battle; and behold, ^aevery man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion.

21 Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines previously, who went up with them all around in the camp, even ^athey also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 When all the ^amen of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, even they also pursued them closely in the battle.

23 So ^athe LORD delivered Israel that day, and the battle ¹spread beyond ^bBeth-aven.

24 ¶ Now the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day, for Saul had ^aput the people under oath, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food ¹before evening, and until I have avenged myself on my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

25 And all the people of the land entered the forest, and there was honey on the ground.

26 When the people entered the forest, behold, ^athere was a flow of honey; but no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan had not heard when his father put the people under oath; therefore, ^ahe put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, and ^bhis eyes brightened.

28 Then one of the people answered and said, "Your father strictly put the people under oath, saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food today.' " And the people were weary.

29 Then Jonathan said, "^aMy father has troubled the land. See now, how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 "How much more, if only the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great."

31 ¶ And they struck among the Philistines that day from ^aMichmash to ^bAijalon. And the people were very weary.

32 And ^athe people ¹rushecd greedily upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slew them on the ground; and the people ate them ^bwith the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are ^asinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." And he said, "You have acted treacherously; roll a great stone to me today."

34 And Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, 'Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and slaughter it here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.' " So all the people that night brought each one his ox ¹with him, and slaughtered it there.

35 And ^aSaul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

36 ¶ Then Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them." And they said, "Do whatever seems good ¹to you." So ^athe priest said, "Let us draw near to God here."

37 And Saul ^ainquired of God: "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them into the hand of Israel?" But ^bHe did not answer him on that day.

38 And Saul said, "Draw near here, all you ¹chiefs of the people, and investigate and see how this sin has happened today.

39 "For ^aas the LORD lives, who delivers Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." But not one of all the people answered him.

40 Then he said to all Israel, "You shall be on one side and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good ¹to you."

41 Therefore, Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Give a perfect lot." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

43 ¶ Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." So Jonathan told him and said, "I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am, I must die!"

44 And Saul said, "May God do ¹this to me and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan."

45 But the people said to Saul, "Must Jonathan die, who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, ^athere shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for ^bhe has worked with God this day." So the people rescued Jonathan and he did not die.

46 Then Saul went up from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, ^athe sons of Ammon, Edom, ^bthe kings of Zobah, and ^cthe Philistines; and wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment.

48 And he acted valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, and delivered Israel from the hands of ²those who plundered them.

49 ¶ Now ^athe sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi and Malchi-shua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born ^bMerab and the name of the younger ^cMichal.

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. And ^athe name of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 ^aAnd Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 ¶ Now the war against the Philistines was severe all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man or any valiant man, he attached him to ²his staff.

CHAPTER 15

THEN Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel; now therefore, listen to the ¹words of the LORD.

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'I will punish Amalek ^afor what he did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt.

3 "Now go and strike Amalek and utterly destroy all that he has, and do not spare him; but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.' "

4 ¶ Then Saul summoned the people and numbered them in Telaim, 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and set an ambush in the valley.

6 And Saul said to ^athe Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from 11 "I regret that I have made Saul king, for ^bhe has turned back from ¹following Me, and has not carried out My commands." And Samuel was distressed and ^ccried out to the LORD all night.

16 Then Samuel said to Saul "Wait, and let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak!"

17 ¶ And Samuel said, "Is it not true, ^athough you were little in your own eyes, you were ^{made} the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you king over Israel,

18 and the LORD sent you on a ¹mission, and said, ^a"Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are exterminated."

19 "Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, ^abut rushed upon the spoil and did what was evil in the sight of the LORD?"

20 ¶ Then Saul said to Samuel, "I did obey the voice of the LORD, and went on the ¹mission on which the LORD sent me, and have brought back Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 "But ^athe people took ^{some} of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the choicest of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God at Gilgal."

22 And Samuel said,

"Has the LORD as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices

As in obeying the voice of the LORD?

Behold, ^bto obey is better than sacrifice,

And to heed than the fat of rams.

23 "For rebellion is as the sin of ^adivination,

And insubordination is a ^biniquity and idolatry.

Because you have rejected ^cthe word of the LORD,

^cHe has also rejected you from ^{being} king."

24 ¶ Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned; ^bI have indeed transgressed the ¹com-mand of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice.

25 "Now therefore, ^aplease pardon my sin and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

26 But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for ^ayou have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

27 And as Samuel turned to go, ^aSaul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.

28 So Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you."

29 "And also the ^{1a}Glory of Israel ^bwill not lie or change His mind; for He is not a man that He should change His mind."

30 Then he said, "I have sinned; ^abut please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and go back with me, ^bthat I may worship the LORD your God."

31 So Samuel went back following Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

32 ¹ Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag, the king of the Amalekites." And Agag came to him ¹cheerfully. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

33 But Samuel said, "^aAs your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

34 ¹ Then Samuel went to Ramah, but Saul went up to his house at ^bGibeah of Saul.

35 And ^aSamuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death; for Samuel ^bgrieved over Saul. And the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER 16

NOW the LORD said to Samuel, "^aHow long will you grieve over Saul, since ^bI have rejected him from being king over Israel? ^cFill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to ^dJesse the Bethlehemite, for I have ^eselected a king for Myself among his sons."

2 But Samuel said, "How can I go? When Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "^aTake a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'"

3 "And you shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and ^aI will show you what you shall do; and ^byou shall anoint for Me the one whom I ^cdesignate to you."

4 So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to ^aBethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, "^bDo you come in peace?"

5 And he said, "In peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. ^aConsecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." He also consecrated Jesse and his sons, and invited them to the sacrifice.

6 ¹ Then it came about when they entered, that he looked at ^aEliab and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed is before Him."

7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for ^aGod sees not as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, ^bbut the LORD looks at the heart."

8 Then Jesse called ^aAbinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

9 Next Jesse made ^aShammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

10 Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these."

11 And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are these all the children?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he is tending the sheep." Then Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here."

12 So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he."

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

14 Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrorized him.

15 Saul's servants then said to him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God is terrorizing you."

16 "Let our lord now command your servants who are before you. Let them seek a man who is a skillful player on the harp; and it shall come about when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he shall play the harp with his hand, and you will be well."

17 So Saul said to his servants, "Provide for me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

18 Then one of the young men answered and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is a skillful musician, a mighty man of valor, a warrior, one prudent in speech, and a handsome man; and the LORD is with him."

19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me your son David who is with the flock."

20 And Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread and a jug of wine and a young goat, and sent them to Saul by David his son.

21 Then David came to Saul and attended him, and Saul loved him greatly; and he became his armor bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David now stand before me; for he has found favor in my sight."

23 So it came about whenever the evil spirit from God came to Saul, David would take the harp and play it with his hand; and Saul would be refreshed and be well, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

CHAPTER 17

NOW the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; and they were gathered at Socoh which belongs to Judah, and they camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered, and camped in the valley of Elah, and drew up in battle array to encounter the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on the mountain on one side while Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

4 Then a champion came out from the armies of the Philistines named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had a bronze helmet on his head, and he was clothed with scale-armor which weighed five thousand shekels of bronze.

6 He also had bronze greaves on his legs and a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed six hundred shekels of iron; his shield-carrier also walked before him.

8 And he stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, and said to them, "Why do you come out to draw up in battle array? Am I not the Philistine and you ^aservants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me.

9 "If he is able to fight with me and ¹kill me, then we will become your servants; but if I prevail against him and ¹kill him, then you shall become our servants and serve us."

10 Again the Philistine said, "I defy the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man that we may fight together."

11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was ^athe son of ^bthe Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse, and ^che had eight sons. And ²Jesse was old in the days of Saul, advanced in years among men.

13 And the three older sons of Jesse had ¹gone after Saul to the battle. And ^athe names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and the second to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And ^aDavid was the youngest. Now the three oldest followed Saul, 15 ^abut David went back and forth from Saul ^bto tend his father's flock at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine came ¹forward morning and evening for forty days, and took his stand.

17 ¶ Then Jesse said to David his son, "Take now for your brothers an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers.

18 "Bring also these ten cuts of cheese to the commander of

19 "For Saul and they and all the men of Israel are in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines."

20 ¶ So David arose early in the morning and left the flock with a keeper and took ^{the} supplies and went as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the ^acircle of the camp while the army was going out in battle array shouting the war cry.

21 And Israel and the Philistines drew up in battle array, army against army.

22 Then David left his ^abaggage in the ¹care of the baggage keeper, and ran to the battle line and entered in order to greet his brothers.

23 As he was talking with them, behold, the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the army of the Philistines, and he spoke ^athese same words; and David heard ^{them}.

24 When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him and were greatly afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel. And it will be that the king will enrich the man who kills him with great riches and ^awill give him his daughter and make his father's house ¹free in Israel."

26 ¶ Then David spoke to the men who were standing by him, saying, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away ^athe reproach from Israel? For who is this ^buncircumcised Philistine, that he should ^ctaunt the armies of ^athe living God?"

27 And the people ¹answered him in accord with this word, saying, "Thus it will be done for the man who kills him."

28 ¶ Now Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and ^aEliab's anger burned against David and he said, "Why have you come down? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your insolence and the wickedness of your heart; for you have come down in order to see the battle."

29 But David said, "What have I done now? Was it not just a ¹question?"

30 Then he turned ¹away from him to another and ^asaid the same thing; and the people answered the same thing as ²before.

31 ¶ When the words which David spoke were heard, they told them ¹to Saul, and he sent for him.

32 And David said to Saul, "^aLet no man's heart fail on account of him; ^byour servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

33 Then Saul said to David, "^aYou are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are but a youth while he has been a warrior from his youth."

34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant was tending his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb from the flock, 35 I went out after him and ¹attacked him, and ^arescued it from his mouth; and when he rose up against me, I seized him by his beard and ¹struck him and killed him.

36 "Your servant has ¹killed both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has taunted the armies of the living God."

37 And David said, "^aThe LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And

Saul said to David, "^bGo, and may the LORD be with you."

38 Then Saul clothed David with his garments and put a bronze helmet on his head, and he clothed him with armor.

39 And David girded his sword over his armor and tried to walk, for he had not tested them. So David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them." And David took them ¹off.

40 And he took his stick in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones from the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his pouch, and ^ahis sling was in his hand; and he approached the Philistine.

41 ¶ Then the Philistine came on and approached David, with the shield-bearer in front of him.

42 When the Philistine looked and saw David, ^ahe disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ^bruddy, with a handsome appearance.

43 And the Philistine said to David, "^aAm I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And ^bthe Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 The Philistine also said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh ^ato the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field."

45 Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, ^abut I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted.

46 "This day the LORD will deliver you up into my hands, and I will strike you down and remove your head from you. And I will give the ^adead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth, ^bthat all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 and that all this assembly may know that ^athe LORD does not deliver by sword or by spear; ^bfor the battle is the LORD's and He will give you into our hands."

48 Then it happened when the Philistine rose and came and drew near to meet David, that ^aDavid ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand into his bag and took from it a stone and slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead. And the stone sank into his forehead, so that he fell on his face to the ground.

50 ¶ Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David's hand.

51 Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and ^atook his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. ^bWhen the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted and pursued the Philistines ^aas far as the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the slain Philistines lay along the way to ^bShaaraim, even to Gath and Ekron.

53 And the sons of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines and plundered their camps.

54 Then David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his weapons in his tent.

55 ¶ Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is ^athis young man?" And Abner said, "By your life, O king, I do not know."

56 And the king said, "You inquire whose son the youth is."

57 So when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and ^abrought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand.

CHAPTER 18

NOW it came about when he had finished speaking to Saul, that ^athe soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, and ^bJonathan loved him as himself.

2 And Saul took him that day and ^adid not let him return to his father's house.

3 Then ^aJonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.

4 And ^aJonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, with his armor, including his sword and his bow and his belt.

5 So David went out wherever Saul sent him, and ^aprospered; and Saul set him over the men of war. And it was pleasing in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 ¶ And it happened as they were coming, when David returned from killing the Philistine, that ^athe women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy and with ^bmusical instruments.

7 And the women ^asang as they played, and said,

"^bSaul has slain his thousands,

^cAnd David his ten thousands."

8 Then Saul became very angry, for this saying ^adispleased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed thousands. Now ^awhat more can he have but the kingdom?"

9 And Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day on.

10 ^c Now it came about on the next day that ^aan evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, and ^bhe raved in the midst of the house, while David was playing the harp with his hand, ^{1c} as usual; and ^{2d} a spear was in Saul's hand.

11 And ^aSaul hurled the spear for he thought, "I will ¹pin David to the wall." But David ²escaped from his presence twice.

12 Now ^aSaul was afraid of David, ^bfor the LORD was with him but ^chad departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from ¹his presence, and appointed him as his commander of a thousand; and ^ahe went out and came in before the people.

14 And David was ¹prospering in all his ways for ^athe LORD was with him.

15 When Saul saw that he was ¹prospering greatly, he dreaded him.

16 But ^aall Israel and Judah loved David, and he went out and came in before them.

17 ^c Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife, only be a valiant man for me and fight ^bthe LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "My hand shall not be against him, but ^clet the hand of the Philistines be against him."

18 But David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's family in Israel, that I should be the king's son-in-law?"

19 So it came about at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to ^aAdriel ^bthe Meholathite for a wife.

20 ^c Now ^aMichal, Saul's daughter, loved David. When they told Saul, the thing was agreeable ¹to him.

21 And Saul thought, "I will give her to him that she may become a snare to him, and ^athat the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David, "For a second time you may be my son-in-law today."

22 Then Saul commanded his servants, "Speak to David secretly, saying, 'Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; now therefore become the king's son-in-law.'"

23 So Saul's servants spoke these words ¹to David. But David said, "Is it trivial in your sight to become the king's son-in-law since I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?"

24 And the servants of Saul reported to him ¹according to these words which David spoke.

25 Saul then said, "Thus ye shall say to David, 'The king does not desire any dowry except hundred foreskins of the Philistines, ^bto take vengeance on the king's enemies.' " Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 When his servants told David these words, ¹it pleased David to become the king's son-in-law. ^{2a}Before the days had expired

27 David rose up and went, ^ahe and his men, and struck down two hundred men among the Philistines. Then ^bDavid brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king that he might become the king's son-in-law. So Saul gave him Michal his daughter for a wife.

28 When Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him, 29 then Saul was even more afraid of David. Thus Saul was David's enemy continually.

30 ^c Then the commanders of the Philistines ^awent out to battle, and it happened as often as they went out, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul. So his name was highly esteemed.

CHAPTER 19

NOW Saul told Jonathan his son and all his servants to put David to death. But Jonathan, Saul's son, greatly delighted in David.

2 So Jonathan told David saying, "Saul my father is seeking to put you to death. Now therefore, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself.

3 "And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you; if I find out anything, then I shall tell you."

4 Then Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Do not let the king sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds have been very beneficial to you.

5 "For he took his life in his hand and struck the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great deliverance for all Israel; you saw it and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, by putting David to death without a cause?"

6 And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul vowed, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."

7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as formerly.

8 "When there was war again, David went out and fought with the Philistines, and defeated them with great slaughter, so that they fled before him.

9 Now there was an evil spirit from the LORD on Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, and David was playing the harp with his hand.

10 And Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, so that he stuck the spear into the wall. And David fled and escaped that night.

11 Then Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, in order to put him to death in the morning. But Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be put to death."

12 So Michal let David down through a window, and he went out and fled and escaped.

13 And Michal took the household idol and laid it on the bed, and put a quilt of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with clothes.

14 When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

15 Then Saul sent messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on his bed, that I may put him to death."

16 When the messengers entered, behold, the household idol was on the bed with the quilt of goats' hair at its head.

17 So Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I put you to death?'"

18 Now David fled and escaped and came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, "Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah."

20 Then Saul sent messengers to take David, but when they saw ^bthe company of the prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing and presiding over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul; and ^cthey also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.

22 Then he himself went to Ramah, and came as far as the large well that is in Secu; and he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And someone said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah."

23 And he ¹proceeded there to Naioth in Ramah; and ^athe Spirit of God came upon him also, so that he went along prophesying continually until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he also stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel and ¹lay down ²naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "^bIs Saul also among the prophets?"

CHAPTER 20

THEN David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and ^asaid ¹to Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?"

2 And he said to him, "Far from it, you shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small ¹without disclosing it to me. So why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so!"

3 Yet David ^avowed again, ¹saying, "Your father knows well that I have found favor in your sight, and he has said, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly ^bas the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is ²hardly a step between me and death."

4 Then Jonathan said to David "Whatever ¹you say, I will do for you."

5 So David said to Jonathan "Behold, tomorrow is ^athe new moon, and I ought ^bto sit down to eat with the king. But let me go ^cthat I may hide myself in the field until the third evening.

6 "If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to ^aBethlehem his city, because it ^bthe yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.'

7 "If he ¹says, 'It is good,' your servant shall be safe; but if he is very angry, ^aknow that he has decided on evil.

8 "Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for ^ayou have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself; for why the should you bring me to your father?"

9 And Jonathan said, "Far be from you! For if I should indeed learn that evil has been decided by my father to come upon you then would I not tell you about it?"

10 Then David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me ¹if your father answers you harshly?"

11 And Jonathan said to David, "Come, and let us go out into the field." So both of them went out to the field.

12 ¶ Then Jonathan said to David, "The LORD, the God of Israel, be witness! When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if there is good feeling toward David, shall I not then send to you and ¹make known to you?

13 "If it please my father to do you harm, ^amay the LORD do so to Jonathan and more also, if I do not ¹make it known to you and send you away, that you may go in safety. And ^bmay the LORD be with you as He has been with my father.

14 "And if I am still alive, will you not show me the lovingkindness of the LORD, that I may not die?"

15 "And ^ayou shall not cut off your lovingkindness from my house forever, not even when the LORD cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."

16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "May the LORD require it at the hands of David's enemies."

17 And Jonathan made David vow again because of his love for him, because ^ahe loved him as he loved his own life.

18 ¶ Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed because your seat will be empty."

19 "When you have stayed for three days, you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself on that eventful day, and you shall remain by the stone Ezel."

20 "And I will shoot three arrows to the side, as though I shot at a target."

21 "And behold, I will send the lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I specifically say to the lad, 'Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, get them,' then come; for there is safety for you and ¹no harm, as the LORD lives."

22 "But if I ¹say to the youth, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond you,' go, for the LORD has sent you away."

23 "As for the ¹agreement of which you and I have spoken, behold, ^bthe LORD is between you and me forever."

24 ¶ So David hid in the field; and when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.

25 And the king sat on his seat as usual, the seat by the wall; then Jonathan rose up and Abner sat down by Saul's side, but ^aDavid's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul did not speak anything that day, for he thought, "It is an accident, ^ahe is not clean, surely he is not clean."

27 And it came about the next day, the second day of the new moon, that David's place was empty; so Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

28 Jonathan then answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem, 29 for he said, 'Please ¹let me go, since our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to attend. And now, if I have found favor in your sight, please let me get away that I may see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

30 ¶ Then Saul's anger burned against Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

31 "For ¹as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Therefore now, send and bring him to me, for ^ahe ²must surely die."

32 But Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

33 Then ^aSaul hurled his spear at him to strike him down; ^bso Jonathan knew that his father had decided to put David to death.

34 Then Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved over David because his father had dishonored him.

35 ¶ Now it came about in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field for the appointment with David, and a little lad was with him.

36 And he said to his lad, "Run, find now the arrows which I am about to shoot." As the lad was running, he shot an arrow past him.

37 When the lad reached the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the lad, and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

38 And Jonathan called after the lad, "Hurry, be quick, do not stay!" And Jonathan's lad picked up the arrow and came to his master.

39 But the lad was not aware of anything; only Jonathan and David knew about the matter.

40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, "Go, bring them to the city."

41 When the lad was gone, David rose from the south side and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed three times. And they kissed each other and wept together, but David more.

42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in safety, inasmuch as we have sworn to each other in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.'" Then he rose and departed, while Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER 21

THEN David came to Nob to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech became trembling to meet David, and said to him, "Why are you alone and no one with you?"

has said to me, 'Let no one know anything about the matter or which I am sending you and with which I have commissioned you and I have directed the young men to a certain place.'

3 "Now therefore, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found."

4 And the priest answered David and said, "There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women."

5 And David answered the priest and said to him, "Surely women have been kept from us as previously when I set out and the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was an ordinary journey; how much more then today will their vessels be holy?"

6 So the priest gave him consecrated bread; for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence which was removed from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in its place when it was taken away.

7 ¶ Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite the chief of Saul's shepherds.

8 ¶ And David said to Ahimelech, "Now is there not a spear or a sword on hand? For I brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's matter was urgent."

9 Then the priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you would take it for yourself, take it. For there is no other except it here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

10 ¶ Then David arose and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath.

11 But the ^aservants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? ^bDid they not sing of this one as they danced, saying,

'Saul has slain his thousands,

And David his ten thousands?'"

12 And David ^atook these words ¹to heart, and greatly feared Achish king of Gath.

13 So he ^adisguised his sanity before them, and acted insanely in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva run down into his beard.

14 Then Achish said to his servants, "Behold, you see the man behaving as a madman. Why do you bring him to me?"

15 "Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this one to act the madman in my presence? Shall this one come into my house?"

CHAPTER 22

SO David departed from there and ^aescaped to ^bthe cave of Adullam; and when his brothers and all his father's household heard of it, they went down there to him.

2 And everyone who was in distress, and everyone who ¹was in debt, and everyone who was ²discontented, gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Now there were ^aabout four hundred men with him.

3 ^a And David went from there to Mizpah of Moab; and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me."

4 Then he left them with the king of Moab; and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

5 And ^athe prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah." So David departed and went into the forest of Hereth.

6 ^a Then Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been discovered. Now ^aSaul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.

7 And Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Hear now, O Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse also give to all of you fields and vineyards? ^aWill he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?"

8 "For all of you have conspired against me so that there is no one who ¹discloses to me ^awhen my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you ^bwho is sorry for me or ¹discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush, as it is this day."

9 Then ^aDoeg the Edomite, who was ¹standing by the servants of Saul, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to ^aAhimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 "And ^ahe inquired of the LORD for him, ^bgave him provisions, and ^cgave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

11 ^a Then the king sent someone to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's household, the priests who were in Nob; and all of them came to the king.

12 And Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." And he ¹answered, "Here I am, my lord."

13 Saul then said to him, "Why have you and the son of Jesse conspired against me, in that you have given him bread and a sword and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise up against me ^aby lying in ambush as it is this day?"

CHAPTER 23

THEN they told David, saying, "Behold, the Philistines are fighting against ^aKeilah, and are plundering the threshing floors."

2 So David ^ainquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and ¹attack these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go and ¹attack the Philistines, and deliver Keilah."

3 But David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the ranks of the Philistines?"

4 Then David inquired of the LORD once more. And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah, for ^aI will give the Philistines into your hand."

5 So David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines; and he led away their livestock and struck them with ^aa great slaughter. Thus David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 ¶ Now it came about, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech ^afled to David at Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 When it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, "God has ¹delivered him into my hand, for he shut himself in by entering a city with double gates and bars."

8 So Saul summoned all the people for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

9 Now David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him; so he said to ^aAbiathar the priest, "^bBring the ephod here."

10 Then David said, "O LORD God of Israel, Thy servant has heard for certain that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to destroy the city on my account."

11 "Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down just as Thy servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I pray, tell Thy servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down."

12 Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will surrender you."

13 Then David and his men, ^aabout six hundred, arose and departed from Keilah, and they went ^bwherever they could go. When it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, he ¹gave up the pursuit.

14 And David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of ^aZiph. And Saul sought him every day, but ^bGod did not deliver him into his hand.

15 [¶] Now David ¹became aware that Saul had come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

16 And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David at Horesh, and ^{1a}encouraged him in God.

17 Thus he said to him, "^aDo not be afraid, because the hand of Saul my father shall not find you, and you will be king over Israel and I will be next to you; and ^bSaul my father knows that also."

18 So ^athe two of them made a covenant before the LORD; and David stayed at Horesh while Jonathan went to his house.

19 [¶] Then ^aZiphites came up to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on ^bthe hill of Hachilah, which is on the ¹south of ²Jeshimon?"

20 "Now then, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to ¹do so; and ^aour part shall be to surrender him into the king's hand."

21 And Saul said, "May you be blessed of the LORD; ^afor you have had compassion on me."

22 "Go now, make more sure, and investigate and see his place where his ¹haunt is, and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning."

23 "So look, and learn about all the hiding places where he hides himself, and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you; and it shall come about if he is in the land that I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah."

24 [¶] Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of ^aMaon, in the Arabah to the ¹south of ²Jeshimon.

25 When Saul and his men went to seek him, they told David, and he came down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard it, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain; and David was hurrying to get away from Saul, for Saul and his men ^awere surrounding David and his men to seize them.

27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land."

28 So Saul returned from pursuing David, and went to meet the Philistines; therefore they called that place ¹the Rock of Escape.

29 ¹And David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of ^aEngedi.

CHAPTER 24

NOW it came about ^awhen Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, ^bhe was told, saying, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi."

2 Then ^aSaul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel, and went to seek David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

3 And he came to the sheepfolds on the way, where there was a cave; and Saul ^awent in to ^brelieve himself. Now ^bDavid and his men were sitting in the inner recesses of the cave.

4 And the men of David said to him, "Behold, ^athis is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold; ^bI am about to give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good ¹to you.' " Then David arose and cut off the edge of Saul's robe secretly.

5 And it came about afterward that ^aDavid's ¹conscience bothered him because he had cut off the edge of Saul's robe.

6 So he said to his men, "^aFar be it from me because of the LORD that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him, since he is the LORD's anointed."

7 And David ¹persuaded his men with these words and did not allow them to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose, ²left the cave, and went on his way.

8 ^c Now afterward David arose and went out of the cave and called after Saul, saying, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, ^aDavid bowed with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

9 And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men, saying, 'Behold, David seeks ¹to harm you'?"

16 ¶ Now it came about when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "^aIs this your voice, my son David?" Then Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 ^aAnd he said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for ^byou have dealt well with me while I have dealt wickedly with you.

22 And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to ^athe stronghold.

^aTHEN Samuel died; and all Israel gathered together and ^bmourned for him, and ^cburied him at his house in Ramah. And David arose and went down to the ^dwilderness of Paran.

8 'Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on ^aa festive day. Please give whatever you find at hand to your servants and to your son David.' "

9 ¶ When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in David's name; then they waited.

10 But Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "^aWho is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are each breaking away from his master.

11 "Shall I then ^atake my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men ¹whose origin I do not know?"

12 So David's young men retraced their way and went back; and they came and told him according to all these words.

13 And David said to his men, "Each of you gird on his sword." So each man girded on his sword. And David also girded on his sword, and about ^afour hundred men went up behind David while two hundred ^bstayed with the baggage.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers from the wilderness to ¹greet our master, and he scorned them.

15 "Yet the men were very good to us, and we were not ^ainsulted, nor did we miss anything ¹as long as we went about with them, while we were in the fields.

16 "^aThey were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the time we were with them tending the sheep.

17 "Now therefore, know and ¹consider what you should do, for evil is plotted against our master and against all his household; and he is such a ²worthless man that no one can speak to him."

18 ¶ Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread and two jugs of wine and five sheep already prepared and five measures of roasted grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her young men, "Go on before me; behold, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

20 And it came about as she was riding on her donkey and coming down by the hidden part of the mountain, that behold, David and his men were coming down toward her; so she met them.

21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain I have guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; and he has returned me evil for good.

22 "May God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if by morning I leave as much as one male of any who belong to him."

23 ¶ When Abigail saw David, she hurried and dismounted from her donkey, and fell on her face before David, and bowed herself to the ground.

24 And she fell at his feet and said, "On me alone, my lord, be the blame. And please let your maidservant speak to you, and listen to the words of your maidservant.

25 "Please do not let my lord pay attention to this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name and folly is with him; but I your maidservant did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent.

strained you from shedding blood, and from avenging yourself by your own hand, now then let your enemies, and those who seek evil against my lord, be as Nabal.

27 "And now let this gift which your maidservant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who accompany my lord.

28 "Please forgive the transgression of your maidservant; for the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in you all your days.

29 "And should anyone rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, then the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies He will sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

30 "And it shall come about when the LORD shall do for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and shall appoint you ruler over Israel.

31 that this will not cause grief or a troubled heart to my lord, both by having shed blood without cause and by my lord having avenged himself. When the LORD shall deal well with my lord, then remember your maidservant."

32 ¶ Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me, 33 and blessed be your discernment, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodshed, and from avenging myself by my own hand.

34 "Nevertheless, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from harming you, unless you had come quickly to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal until the morning light as much as one male."

35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and he said to her, "Go up to your house in peace. See, I have listened to you and granted your request."

36 Then Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she did not tell him anything at all until the morning light.

37 But it came about in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him so that he became as a stone.

38 And about ten days later, it happened that the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back His servant from evil. The LORD has also returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head." Then David sent a proposal to Abigail, to take her as his wife.

40 When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you, to take you as his wife."

41 And she arose and bowed with her face to the ground and said, "Behold, your maidservant is a maid to wash the feet of my lord's servants."

Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they both became his wives.

44 Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

CHAPTER 26

THEN the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?"

2 So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having with him three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, beside the road, and David was staying in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, 4 David sent out spies, and he knew that Saul was definitely coming.

5 David then arose and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying in the circle of the camp, and the people were camped around him.

6 Then David answered and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping inside the circle of the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him.

8 Then Abishai said to David, "Today God has delivered your enemy into your hand; now therefore, please let me strike him with the spear ¹to the ground with one stroke, and I will not ²strike him the second time."

9 But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him, for ^awho can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed and be without guilt?"

10 David also said, "As the LORD lives, ^asurely the LORD will strike him, or ^bhis day will come that he dies, or ^che will go down into battle and perish.

11 ^aThe LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go."

12 So David took the spear and the jug of water from beside Saul's head, and they went away, but no one saw or knew it, nor did any awake, for they were all asleep, because ^aa sound sleep from the LORD had fallen on them.

13 ¶ Then David crossed over to the other side, and stood on top of the mountain at a distance with a large area between them.

14 And David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you who calls to the king?"

15 So David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king your lord.

16 "This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, all of you ¹must surely die, because you did not guard your lord, the LORD's anointed. And now, see where the king's spear is, and the jug of water that was at his head."

17 ¶ Then Saul recognized David's voice and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord the king."

18 He also said, "Why then is my lord pursuing his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand?"

19 "Now therefore, please let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If ^athe LORD has stirred you up against me, ^blet Him ¹accept an offering; but ^cif it is ²men, cursed are they before the LORD, for ^dthey have driven me out today that I should have no attachment with the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

20 "Now then, do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to search for ^aa single flea, just as one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

21 ¶ Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again because my life was precious in your sight this day. Behold, I have played the fool and have committed a serious error."

22 And David answered and said, "Behold the spear of the king! Now let one of the young men come over and take it.

23 "And ^athe LORD will repay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but ^bI refused to stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 "Now behold, as your life was ^ahighly valued in my sight this day, so may my life be highly valued in the sight of the LORD, and may He ^bdeliver me from all distress."

25 Then Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David; you will both accomplish much and surely prevail." So ^bDavid went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER 27

THEN David said ¹to himself, "Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. ²There is nothing better for me than ³to escape into the land of the Philistines. Saul then will despair of searching for me anymore in all the territory of Israel, and I will escape from his hand."

2 So David arose and crossed over, he and ⁴the six hundred men who were with him, to ⁵Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath.

3 And David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, ⁶each with his household, even David with ⁷his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's ⁸widow.

4 Now it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer searched for him.

5 ⁹ Then David said to Achish, "If now I have found favor in your sight, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?"

6 So Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore ¹⁰Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

7 And the number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was ¹¹a year and four months.

8 ¹² Now David and his men went up and raided ¹³the Geshurites and the Girzites and ¹⁴the Amalekites; for they were the inhabitants of the land from ancient times, as you come to ¹⁵Shur even as far as the land of Egypt.

9 And David ¹⁶attacked the land and did not leave a man or a woman alive, and he ¹⁷took away the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing. Then he returned and came to Achish.

10 Now Achish said, "Where

11 And David did not leave a man or a woman alive, to bring to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell about us, saying, 'So has David done and so has been his practice all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.'"

12 So Achish believed David, saying, "He has surely made himself odious among his people Israel; therefore he will become my servant forever."

CHAPTER 28

NOW it came about in those days that ¹the Philistines gathered their armed camps for war, to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men."

2 And David said to Achish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant can do." So Achish said to David, "Very well, I will make you ²my bodyguard ³for life."

3 ⁴ Now ⁵Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him and buried him ⁶in Ramah his own city. And Saul had removed from the land those who ⁷were mediums and spiritists.

4 So the Philistines gathered together and came and camped ⁸in Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together and they camped in ⁹Gilboa.

5 When Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid and his heart trembled greatly.

6 ¹⁰ When Saul inquired of the LORD, ¹¹the LORD did not answer him, either by ¹²dreams or by ¹³Urim or by prophets.

7 Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Behold, ^athere is a woman who is a medium at ^bEn-dor."

8 ¶ Then Saul ^adisguised himself by putting on other clothes, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, "^bConjure up for me, please, and ^cbring up for me whom I shall ^dname to you."

9 But the woman said to him, "Behold, you know ^awhat Saul has done, how he has cut off those who are mediums and spiritists from the land. Why are you then laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?"

10 And Saul vowed to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, there shall no punishment come upon you for this thing."

11 Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul."

13 And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid; but what do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I see a ^ddivine being coming up out of the earth."

14 And he said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and ^ahe is wrapped with a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and ^bhe bowed with his face to the ground and did homage.

15 ¶ Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Saul answered, "I am greatly distressed; for the Philistines are waging war against me, and ^aGod has departed from me and ^banswers me no more, either through prophets or by dreams; therefore I have called you, that

16 And Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary?"

17 "And the LORD has done ^aaccordingly ^aas He spoke through me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, to David."

18 "As ^ayou did not ^bobey the LORD and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so the LORD has done this thing to you this day."

19 "Moreover the LORD will also give over Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines; therefore tomorrow ^ayou and your sons will be with me. In deed the LORD will give over the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines!"

20 ¶ Then Saul immediately fell full length upon the ground and was very afraid because of the words of Samuel; also there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no ^dfood all day and all night.

21 And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was terrified, and said to him, "Behold, your maidservant has ^bobeyed you, and ^aI have ²taken my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me."

22 "So now also, please listen to the voice of your maidservant and let me set a piece of bread before you that you ^amay eat and have strength when you go on your way."

23 But he refused and said, "^awill not eat." ^bHowever, his servants together with the woman urged him, and he listened to ^dthem. So he arose from the ground and sat on ^cthe bed.

24 And the woman had a ^afat-tened calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it; and she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it. 25 And she brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they arose and went away that night.

CHAPTER 29

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines were proceeding on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were proceeding on in the rear with Achish.

3 Then the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" And Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him from the day he deserted to me to this day?"

4 But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man go back, that he may return to his place where you have assigned him, and do not let him go down to battle with us, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what could this man make himself acceptable to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of these men?"

5 "Is this not David, of whom they sing in the dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, And David his ten thousands?'"

6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army are pleasing in my sight; for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, you are not pleasing in the sight of the lords.

7 "Now therefore return, and go in peace, that you may not displease the lords of the Philistines."

8 And David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day when I came before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

9 But Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are pleasing in my sight, like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He must not go up with us to the battle.'"

10 "Now then arise early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you, and as soon as you have arisen early in the morning and have light, depart."

11 So David arose early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 30

THEN it happened when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev and on Ziklag, and had overthrown Ziklag and burned it with fire;

2 and they took captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great, without killing anyone, and carried them off and went their way.

3 And when David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

5 Now ^aDavid's two wives had been taken captive. Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 Moreover David was greatly distressed because ^athe people spoke of stoning him, for all the people were ¹embittered, each one because of his sons and his daughters. But ^bDavid strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Then ^aDavid said to ^bAbiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

8 And ^aDavid inquired of the LORD, saying, "^bShall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?" And He said to him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them, ^cand you shall surely rescue all."

9 So David went, ^ahe and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those left behind remained.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men, for ^atwo hundred who were too exhausted to cross the brook Besor, remained behind.

12 And they gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and he ate; ^athen his spirit ¹revived. For he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

14 "We made a raid on ^athe Negev of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah and on ^bthe Negev of Caleb, and ^cwe burned Ziklag with fire."

15 Then David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this band."

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were ¹spread over all the land ^aeating and drinking and ²dancing because of ^ball the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

17 And David ¹slaughtered them ^afrom the twilight ²until the evening of ³the next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on ^bcamels and fled.

18 So David ^arecovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and ¹rescued his two wives.

19 But nothing of theirs was missing, whether small or great sons or daughters, spoil or anything that they had taken for themselves; ^aDavid brought it all back.

20 So David had ¹captured all the sheep and the cattle which the people drove ahead of ²the other livestock, and they said "This is David's spoil."

21 ¶ When ^aDavid came to the two hundred men who were too exhausted to follow David, who had also been left at the brook Besor, and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him, then David approached the people and greeted them.

22 Then all the wicked and worthless men among those who went with David answered and said, "Because they did not go with ¹us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away and depart."

23 Then David said, "You must not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us, who has kept us and delivered into our hand the band that came against us.

24 "And who will listen to you in this matter? For ^aas his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike."

25 And so it has been from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

26 ¶ Now when David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Behold, ^aa gift for you from the spoil of ^bthe enemies of the LORD:

THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

David Learns of Saul's Death

NOW it came about after ^athe death of Saul, when David had returned from ^bthe slaughter of the Amalekites, that David remained two days in Ziklag.

2 And it happened on the third day, that behold, ^aa man came out of the camp from Saul, ^bwith his clothes torn and ^cdust on his head. And it came about when he came to David that ^che fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

3 Then David said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

4 And David said to him, "How did things go? Please tell me." And he said, "The people have fled from the battle, and also many of the people have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

5 So David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

6 And the young man who told him said, "By chance I happened to be on ^aMount Gilboa, and behold, ^bSaul was leaning on his spear. And behold, the chariots and the horsemen pursued him closely.

7 "And when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I said, 'Here I am.'

8 "And he said to me, 'Who are

10 "So I stood beside him ^aand killed him, because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. And ^bI took the crown which was on his head and the bracelet which was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

11 ¶ Then ^aDavid took hold of his clothes and tore them, and so also did all the men who were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept and ^afasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan and for the people of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 And David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?" And he ¹answered, "I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite."

14 Then David said to him, "How is it you were not afraid ^ato stretch out your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"

15 And David called one of the young men and said, "Go, ¹cut him down." ^aSo he struck him and he died.

16 And David said to him, "Your blood is on your head, for ^byour mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have killed the LORD's anointed.'"

17 ¶ Then David ^achanted with this lament over Saul and Jonathan his son.

18 and he told them to teach the sons of Judah the song of the bow; behold, it is written in ^athe book of Jashar.

19 "Your beauty, O Israel, is slain on your high places! ^aHow have the mighty fallen!

For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, The shield of Saul, not ^canointed with oil.

^bThe bow of Jonathan did not turn back, And the sword of Saul did not return empty.

And in their death they were not parted;

^aThey were swifter than eagles,

^bThey were stronger than lions.

24 "O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you luxuriously in scarlet,

Who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

Jonathan is slain on your high places.

CHAPTER 2

THEN it came about afterwards that ^aDavid inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up to one of the cities of Judah?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." So David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "^bTo Hebron."

2 So David went up there, and ^ahis two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.

3 And ^aDavid brought up his men who were with him, each with his household; and they lived in the cities of Hebron.

4 Then the men of Judah came and there ^aanointed David king over the house of Judah.

¶ And they told David, saying, "It was ^bthe men of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul."

5 And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, "^aMay you be blessed of the LORD because you have ^bshown this kindness to Saul your lord, and have buried him.

6 "And now ^amay the LORD ^bshow lovingkindness and truth to you; and I also will ^bshow this goodness to you, because you have done this thing.

7 "Now therefore, let your hands be strong, and be ^bvaliant; for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

8 ¶ But ^aAbner the son of Ner, commander of Saul's army, had taken ^bIsh-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to ^bMahanaim.

9 And he made him king over ^aGilead, over the ^bAshurites, over ^cJezreel, over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, even over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he was king for two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

11 And ^athe ¹time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 ¶ Now Abner the son of Ner, went out from Mahanaim to ^aGibeon with the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul.

13 And ^aJoab the son of Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met ¹them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, ²one on the one side of the pool and ²the other on the other side of the pool.

14 Then Abner said to Joab, "Now let the young men arise and ¹hold a contest before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise."

15 So they arose and went over by count, twelve for Benjamin and Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And each one of them seized his ¹opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his ²opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called ³Helkath-haz-zurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And that day the battle was very severe, and ^aAbner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

18 ¶ Now ^athe three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab and Abishai and Asahel; and Asahel was ^bas ¹swift-footed as one of the gazelles which is in the field.

19 And Asahel pursued Abner and did not ¹turn to the right or to the left from following Abner.

Abner and Joab. Asahel Killed.

20 Then Abner looked behind him and said, "Is that you, Asahel?" And he answered, "It is I."

21 So Abner said to him, "¹Turn to your right or to your left, and take hold of one of the young men for yourself, and take for yourself his spoil." But Asahel was not willing to turn aside from following him.

22 And Abner repeated again to Asahel, "Turn ¹aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? ^aHow then could I lift up my face to your brother Joab?"

23 However, he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner struck him in the belly with the butt end of the spear, so that the spear came out at his back. And he fell there and died on the spot. And it came about that all who came to the place where ^aAsahel had fallen and died, stood still.

24 ¶ But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and when the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the sons of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one band, and they stood on the top of a certain hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter in the end? How long will you ¹refrain from telling the people to turn back from following their brothers?"

27 And Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, surely then the people would have gone away in the morning, each from following his brother."

28 So Joab blew the trumpet; and all the people halted and pursued Israel no longer, ^anor did they continue to fight anymore.

29 Abner and his men then went through the Arabah all that night; so they crossed the Jordan, walked all morning, and came to ^aMahanaim.

30 ¶ Then Joab returned from following Abner; when he had gathered all the people together, ¹nineteen of David's servants besides Asahel were missing.

31 But the servants of David had struck down many of Benjamin and Abner's men, so that three hundred and sixty men died.

32 And they took up Asahel and buried him ^ain his father's tomb which was in Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men went all night until the day ¹dawned at Hebron.

CHAPTER 3

NOW ^athere was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; and David grew steadily stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker continually.

2 ¶ ^aSons were born to David at Hebron: his first-born was Amnon, by ^bAhinoam the Jezreelitess;

3 and his second, Chileab, by Abigail the ¹widow of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of ^aMaacah, the daughter of Talmi, king of ^bGe-shur;

4 and the fourth, ^aAdonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David at Hebron.

6 ¶ And it came about while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David that ^aAbner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

7 Now Saul had a concubine whose name was ^aRizpah, the daughter of Aiah; and ¹Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

8 Then Abner was very angry over the words of Ish-bosheth and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hands of David; and yet today you charge me with a guilt concerning the woman.

9 "May God do so to Abner, and more also, if ^bas the LORD has sworn to David, I do not accomplish this for him.

10 ^ato transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, ^bfrom Dan even to Beersheba."

11 And he could no longer answer Abner a word, because he was afraid of him.

12 ¶ Then Abner sent messengers to David in his place, saying, "Whose is the land? Make your covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you to bring all Israel over to you."

13 And he said, "Good! I will make a covenant with you, but I demand one thing of you, ¹namely, ^ayou shall not see my face unless you ^bfirst bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see ²me."

14 So David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, to whom I was betrothed ^afor a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

15 And Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband, from ¹Paltiel the son of Laish.

16 But her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her as far as ^aBahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go, return." So he returned.

17 ¶ Now Abner had ¹consultation with ^athe elders of Israel, saying, "In times past you were seeking for David to be king over you.

18 "Now then, do it! For the LORD has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of My servant David I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.' "

19 And Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin; and in addition Abner went to speak in the hearing of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel and to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 ¶ Then Abner and twenty men with him came to David at Hebron. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

21 And Abner said to David, "Let me arise and go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may be king over all that your soul desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much spoil with them; but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace."

24 Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you; why then have you sent him away and he is already gone?"

25 "You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you and to learn of your going out and coming in, and to find out all that you are doing."

26 ¶ When Joab came out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David did not know it.

27 So when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him privately, and there he struck him in the belly so that he died on account of the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner.

29 "May it fall on the head of Joab and on all his father's house; and may there not fail from the house of Joab one who has a discharge, or who is a leper, or who takes hold of a distaff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread."

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner because he had put their brother Asahel to death in the battle at Gibeon.

31 ¶ Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your clothes and gird on sackcloth and lament before Abner." And King David walked behind the bier.

32 Thus they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the king chanted a lament for Abner and said,

"Should Abner die as a fool dies?"

34 "Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put in fetters;

As one falls before the wicked, you have fallen."

And all the people wept again over him.

35 Then all the people came to persuade David to eat bread while it was still day; but David vowed, saying, "May God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down."

36 Now all the people took note of it, and it ¹pleased them, just as everything the king did ²pleased all the people.

37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it had not been the will of the king to put Abner the son of Ner to death.

38 Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?"

39 "And I am ^aweak today, though anointed king; and these men ^bthe sons of Zeruah are too difficult for me. 'May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil.'"

CHAPTER 4

NOW when ¹Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, heard that ^aAbner had died in Hebron, ^{2b}he lost courage, and all Israel was disturbed.

2 And Saul's son had two men who were commanders of bands: the name of the one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin (for ^aBeeroth is also considered ^bpart of Benjamin).

3 and the Beerothites fled to ^aGittaim, and have been aliens there until this day).

4 ¹ Now ^aJonathan, Saul's son, had a son crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the ^breport of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And it happened that in her hurry to flee, he fell and became lame. And his name was ^{1c}Mephibosheth.

5 ¹ So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, departed and came to the house of ^aIsh-bosheth in the heat of the day while he was taking his mid-day rest.

7 Now when they came into the house, as he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him and killed him and beheaded him. And they took his head and ^{1a}traveled by way of the Arabah all night.

8 Then they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, "Behold, the head of Ish-bosheth, ^athe son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; thus the LORD has given my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and his ¹descendants."

9 ¹ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the LORD lives, ^awho has redeemed my life from all distress,

11 "How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed, shall I not now ^arequire his blood from your hand, and ¹destroy you from the earth?"

12 Then ^aDavid commanded the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and feet, and hung them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth ^band buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER 5

^a THEN all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and ¹said, "Behold, we are ^byour bone and your flesh.

2 "Previously, when Saul was king over us, ^ayou were the one who led Israel out and in. And the LORD said to you, ^bYou will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be ^aa ruler over Israel.' "

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David ^amade a covenant with them before the LORD at Hebron; then ^bthey anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was ^athirty years old when he became king, and ^bhe reigned forty years.

5 At Hebron ^ahe reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ ^aNow the king and his men went to ^bJerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, and they said to ¹David, "You shall not come in here, but the blind and lame shall turn you away"; ²thinking, "David cannot enter here."

7 Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, that is ^athe city of David.

8 And David said on that day, "Whoever would strike the Jebusites, let him reach the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul, through the water tunnel." Therefore they say, "The blind or the lame shall not come into the house."

9 So David lived in the stronghold, and called it ^athe city of David. And David built all around from the ^bMillo and inward.

10 And ^aDavid became greater and greater, for the LORD God of hosts was with him.

11 ¶ ^aThen Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees and carpenters and stonemasons; and ^bthey built a house for David.

12 And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

18 Now the Philistines came and spread themselves out in ^athe valley of Rephaim.

19 Then ^aDavid inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them into my hand?" And ^bthe LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand."

20 So David came to ^aBaal-perazim, and ¹defeated them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like the breakthrough of waters." Therefore he named that place ²Baal-perazim.

21 And they abandoned their idols there, so ^aDavid and his men carried them away.

22 ¶ Now ^athe Philistines came up once again and spread themselves out in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when ^aDavid inquired of the LORD, He said, "You shall not go directly up; circle around behind them and come at them in front of the ¹balsam trees.

24 "And it shall be, when ^ayou hear the sound of marching in the tops of the ¹balsam trees, then you shall act promptly, for then ^bthe LORD will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

25 Then David did so, just as the LORD had commanded him, and struck down the Philistines from ^{1a}Geba ^{2a}as far as ^bGezer.

CHAPTER 6

NOW David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose and went with all the people who were with him to ^{1a}Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God which is called by the ^bName, the very name of the LORD of hosts who is ^{2a}enthroned above the cherubim.

3 And they ^{1a}placed the ark of God on ^aa new cart that they might bring it from the house of Abinadab which was on the hill; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart.

4 So ^athey brought it with the ark of God from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking ahead of the ark.

5 Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel ^awere celebrating before the LORD ^bwith all kinds of instruments made of ^{1a}fir wood, and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets and cymbals.

6 ^aBut when they came to the ^athreshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah ^bbreached out toward the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen nearly upset it.

7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and ^aGod struck him down there for ^{1a}his irreverence; and he died there by the ark of God.

8 And David became angry because ^{1a}of the LORD's outburst against Uzzah, and that place is called ^{2a}Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 So ^aDavid was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

10 And David was unwilling to move the ark of the LORD into the city of David with him; but David took it aside to the house of ^aObed-edom the Gittite.

11 Thus the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD ^ablessed Obed-edom and all his household.

12 ^aNow it was told King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, on account of the ark of God." ^aAnd David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into ^bthe city of David with gladness.

13 And so it was, that when the ^abearers of the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ^box and a fatling.

14 And ^aDavid was dancing before the LORD with all his might, and David was ^{1a}wearing a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouting and the sound of the trumpet.

16 Then it happened as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David that ^aMichal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 So they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it ^ain its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it; and ^bDavid offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And when David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offering, ^ahe blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 Further, he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a cake of bread and one of dates and one of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed each to his house.

20 ^aBut when David returned to bless his household, Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, "How the king of Israel distinguished himself today! ^aHe uncovered himself today in the eyes of his servants' maids as one of the foolish ones shamelessly uncovers himself!"

21 So David said to Michal, "^aIt was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel; therefore I will celebrate before the LORD.

22 "And I will be more lightly esteemed than this and will be humble in my own eyes, but with the maids of whom you have spoken, with them I will be distinguished."

23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

CHAPTER 7

^a NOW it came about when the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest on every side from all his enemies,

2 that the king said to ^aNathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in ^ba house of cedar, but the ark of God ^cdwells within tent curtains."

3 And Nathan said to the king, "^aGo, do all that is in your mind, for the LORD is with you."

4 But it came about in the same night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

5 "Go and say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD, "^aAre you the one who should build Me a house to dwell in?

6 "For ^aI have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought up the sons of Israel from Egypt, even to this day; but I have been moving about ^bin a tent, even in a ^ctabernacle.

8 "Now therefore, thus you shall say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "^aI took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, ^bthat you should be ruler over My people Israel.

9 "And ^aI have been with you wherever you have gone and ^bhave cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a great name, like the names of the great men who are on the earth.

10 "I will also appoint a place for My people Israel and ^awill plant them, that they may live in their own place and not be disturbed again, ^bnor will the ^cwicked afflict them any more as formerly.

11 even ^afrom the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel; and ^bI will give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also declares to you that ^cthe LORD will make a house for you.

12 "^aWhen your days are complete and you ^blie down with your fathers, ^cI will raise up your ^ddescendant after you, who will come forth from ^eyou, and I will establish his kingdom.

15 but My lovingkindness shall not depart from him, ^aas I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

16 "And ^ayour house and your kingdom shall endure before ^bMe forever; your throne shall be established forever." " "

17 In accordance with all these words and all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

18 ¶ Then David the king went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, "Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me this far?"

19 "And yet this was insignificant in Thine eyes, O Lord God, for Thou hast spoken also of the house of Thy servant concerning the distant future. And this is the custom of man, O Lord God.

20 "And again what more can David say to Thee? For Thou knowest Thy servant, O Lord God!

21 "For the sake of Thy word, and according to Thine own heart, Thou hast done all this greatness to let Thy servant know.

22 "For this reason Thou art great, O Lord God; for there is none like Thee, and there is no God besides Thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 "And what one nation on the earth is like Thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people and to make a name for Himself, and to do a great thing for Thee and awesome things for Thy land, before Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed for Thyself from Egypt, from nations and their gods?

24 "For Thou hast established for Thyself Thy people Israel as Thine own people forever, and Thou, O LORD, hast become their God.

25 "Now therefore, O LORD God, the word that Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant and his house, confirm it forever, and do as Thou hast spoken,

26 that Thy name may be magnified forever, by saying, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel'; and may the house of Thy servant David be established before Thee.

27 "For Thou, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, hast made a revelation to Thy servant, saying, 'I will build you a house'; therefore Thy servant has found courage to pray this prayer to Thee.

28 "And now, O Lord God, Thou art God, and Thy words are truth, and Thou hast promised this good thing to Thy servant.

29 "Now therefore, may it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, that it may continue forever before Thee. For Thou, O Lord God, hast spoken; and with Thy blessing may the house of Thy servant be blessed forever."

CHAPTER 8

NOW after this it came about that David defeated the Philistines and subdued them; and David took control of the chief city from the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he defeated Moab, and measured them with the line, making them lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death and one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites became servants to David, bringing tribute.

3 ¶ Then David defeated Hadadezer, the son of Rehob king of Zobah, as he went to restore his rule at the River.

4 And David captured from him 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers; and David hamstringed the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for 100 chariots.

5 And when the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David killed 22,000 Arameans.

6 Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to David, bringing 7 And David took the shields of gold which were ¹carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from ¹Betah and from ^aBerothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a very large amount of bronze.

THEN David said, "Is there yet ¹anyone left of the house of Saul, ^athat I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you ^aZiba?" And he said, "I am your servant."

3 And the king said, "Is there not yet anyone of the house of Saul to whom I may show the ^akindness of God?" And Ziba said to the king, "^bThere is still a son of Jonathan who is crippled in both feet."

4 So the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is ^ain the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar."

5 Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 And ^aMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, came to David and ^bfell on his face and prostrated himself. And David said, "Mephibosheth." And he said, "Here is your servant!"

7 And David said to him, "Do not fear, for ^aI will surely show kindness to you for the sake of your father Jonathan, and ^bwill restore to you all the ¹land of your ²grandfather Saul; and ^cyou shall ³eat at my table regularly."

11 Then Ziba said to the king, "According ^ato all that my lord the king commands his servant so your servant will do." So Mephibosheth ate at ¹David's table as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for ^ahe ate at the king's table regularly. Now ^bhe was lame in both feet.

^aNOW it happened afterwards that ^bthe king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son became king in his place.

garments in the middle as far as their hips, and sent them away.

5 When they told it to David, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow, and then return."

6 ¶ Now when the sons of Ammon saw that ^athey had become odious to David, the sons of Ammon sent and ^bhired the Arameans of ^cBeth-rehob and the ^dArameans of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of ^aMaacah with 1,000 men, and the men of Tob with 12,000 men.

7 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army, the mighty men.

8 And the sons of Ammon came out and drew up in battle array ^aat the entrance of the ¹city, while the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of ^bTob and Maacah were by themselves in the field.

9 ¶ Now when Joab saw that ¹the battle was set against him in front and in the rear, he selected from all the choice men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Arameans.

10 But the remainder of the people he placed in the hand of Abishai his brother, and he arrayed them against the sons of Ammon.

11 And he said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me, but if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come to help you.

12 "Be strong, and let us show ourselves courageous for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God; and ^bmay the LORD do what is good in His sight."

13 So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Arameans, and ^athey fled before him.

14 When the sons of Ammon saw that the Arameans fled, they also fled before Abishai and entered the city. ^aThen Joab returned from fighting against the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ When the Arameans saw that they had been ¹defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 ^aAnd Hadadezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the ¹River, and they came to Helam; and ^bShobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer ²led them.

17 Now when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Arameans arrayed themselves to meet David and fought against him.

18 But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed ^a700 charioteers of the Arameans and 40,000 horsemen and struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

19 When all the kings, servants of Hadadezer, saw that they were ¹defeated by Israel, ^athey made peace with Israel and served them. So the Arameans feared to help the sons of Ammon anymore.

CHAPTER 11

^aTHEN it happened ^{1b}in the spring, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his servants with him and all Israel, and they destroyed the sons of Ammon and ^cbesieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ Now when evening came David arose from his bed and walked around on ^athe roof of the king's house, and from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful in appearance.

3 So David sent and inquired about the woman. And one said, "Is this not ^aBathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of ^bUriah the Hittite?"

Bathsheba, David's Great Sin.

4 And David sent messengers and took her, and when she came to him, ^ahe lay with her; ^band when she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "^aI am pregnant."

6 ¶ Then David sent to Joab, saying, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 When Uriah came to him, ^aDavid asked concerning the welfare of Joab and ¹the people and the state of the war.

8 Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and ^awash your feet." And Uriah went out of the king's house, and a present from the king ¹was sent out after him.

9 But Uriah slept ^aat the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

10 Now when they told David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

11 And Uriah said to David, "^aThe ark and Israel and Judah are staying in ¹temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and ^bthe servants of my lord are camping in the open field. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? By your life and the life of your soul, I will not do this thing."

12 Then David said to Uriah, "^aStay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the ¹next.

13 Now David called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he ^amade him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his 14 ¶ Now it came about in the morning that David ^awrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And ^ahe had written in the letter, saying, "Place Uriah in the front line of the ²fiercest battle and withdraw from him, ^bso that he may be struck down and die."

16 So it was as Joab kept watch on the city, that he put Uriah at the place where he knew there were valiant men.

17 And the men of the city went out and fought against Joab, and some of the people among David's servants fell; and ^aUriah the Hittite also died.

18 Then Joab sent and reported to David all the events of the war.

19 And he charged the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling all the events of the war to the king,

20 and if it happens that the king's wrath rises and he says to you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?'

21 'Who ^astruck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?'—then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.' "

22 ¶ So the messenger departed and came and reported to David all that Joab had sent him to tell.

23 And the messenger said to David, "The men prevailed against us and came out against us in the field, but we ¹pressed them as far as the entrance of the gate.

24 "Moreover, the archers shot at your servants from the wall;

25 Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab, 'Do not let this thing ¹displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another; make your battle against the city stronger and overthrow it'; and so encourage him."

26 ¶ Now when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, ^ashe mourned for her husband.

27 When the time of mourning was over, David sent and ¹brought her to his house and ^ashe became his wife; then she bore him a son. But ^bthe thing that David had done was evil in the sight of the LORD.

CHAPTER 12

THEN the LORD sent ^aNathan to David. And ^bhe came to him, and ¹said,

"There were two women in one city, the one rich and the other poor.

2 "The rich man had a great many flocks and herds.

3 "But the poor man had nothing except ^aone little ewe lamb

Which he bought and nourished;

And it grew up together with him and his children.

It would eat of his ¹bread and drink of his cup and lie in his bosom.

And was like a daughter to him.

4 "Now a traveler came to the rich man,

And he ¹was unwilling to take from his own flock or his own herd,

To prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him;

Rather he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."

5 Then David's anger burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, surely the man who has done this ^{1a}deserves to die.

6 "And he must make restitution for the lamb ^afourfold, because he did this thing and had no compassion."

7 "Nathan then said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel, ^bIt is I who anointed you king over Israel and it is I who delivered you from the hand of Saul.

8 "I also gave you ^ayour master's house and your master's wives into your ¹care, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added to you many more things like these!

9 "Why ^ahave you despised the word of the LORD by doing evil in His sight? ^bYou have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, ^chave taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the sons of Ammon.

10 "Now therefore, ^athe sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife."

11 "Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you from your own household; ^aI will even take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your companion, and he shall lie with your wives in ¹broad daylight.

12 "Indeed ^ayou did it secretly, but ^bI will do this thing before all Israel, and ¹under the sun."

13 Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has ^{1b}taken away your sin; you shall not die.

14 "However, because by this deed you have ^agiven occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born to you shall surely die."

15 So Nathan went to his house.

¶ Then the LORD struck the child that Uriah's ¹widow bore to David, so that he was very sick.

16 David therefore inquired of God for the child; and David ^afasted and went and ^blay all night on the ground.

17 And ^athe elders of his household stood beside him in order to raise him up from the ground, but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them.

18 Then it happened on the seventh day that the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Behold, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he did not listen to our voice. How then can we tell him that the child is dead, since he might do himself harm!"

19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; so David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

20 So David arose from the ground, ^awashed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he came into the house of the LORD and ^bworshiped. Then he came to his own house, and when he requested, they set food before him and he ate.

21 Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? ¹While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

22 And he said, "While the child was still alive, ^aI fasted and wept; for I said, ^bWho knows, the LORD may be gracious to me, that the child may live.'

23 "But now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? ^aI shall go to him, but ^bhe will not return to me."

24 ¶ Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her; and she gave birth to a son, and ¹he named him Solomon. Now the LORD loved him

25 and sent word through Nathan the prophet, and he named him ¹Jedidiah for the LORD's sake.

26 ¶ ^aNow Joab fought against ^bRabbah of the sons of Ammon, and captured the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, I have even captured the city of waters.

28 "Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together and camp against the city and capture it, lest I capture the city myself and it be named after me."

29 So David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, fought against it, and captured it.

30 Then ^ahe took the crown of ¹their king from his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and in it ²was a precious stone; and it was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city in great amounts.

31 He also brought out the people who were in it, and ^aset them under saws, sharp iron instruments, and iron axes, and made them pass through the brickkiln. And thus he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 13

NOW it was after this that ^aAbsalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was ^bTamar, and ^cAmnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so frustrated because of his sister Tamar that he made himself ill, for she was a virgin, and it seemed ¹hard to Amnon to do anything to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of ¹aShimeah, David's brother; and Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

4 And he said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so depressed morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Then Amnon said to him, "I am in love with Tamar, the sister of my brother Absalom."

5 Jonadab then said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill; when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me some food to eat, and let her prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat from her hand.'"

6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill; when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and ^amake me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."

7 ¶ Then David sent to the house for Tamar, saying, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, and he was lying down. And she took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

9 And she took the pan and ¹dished them out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "^aHave everyone go out from me." So everyone went out from him.

10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the ¹bedroom, that I may eat from your

11 When she brought them to him to eat, he ^atook hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

12 But she answered him, "No, my brother, do not violate me, for ^asuch a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this ^bdisgraceful thing!

13 "As for me, where could I ¹get rid of my reproach? And as for you, you will be like one of the ²fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for ^ahe will not withhold me from you."

14 However, he would not listen to ¹her; since he was stronger than she, he ^aviolated her and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her with a very great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Get up, go away!"

16 But she said to him, "No, because this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you have done to me!" Yet he would not listen to her.

17 Then he called his young man who attended him and said, "Now throw this woman out of my presence, and lock the door behind her."

18 Now she had on ^aa ¹long-sleeved garment; for in this manner the virgin daughters of the king dressed themselves in robes. Then his attendant took her out and locked the door behind her.

19 And ^aTamar put ¹ashes on her head, and ^btore her ²long-sleeved garment which was on her; and ^cshe put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.

your brother been with you? But now keep silent, my sister, he is your brother; do not take this matter to heart." So Tamar remained and was desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 Now when King David heard of all these matters, he was very angry.

22 But Absalom did not speak to Amnon ^aeither good or bad; for ^bAbsalom hated Amnon because he had violated his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ Now it came about after two full years that Absalom ^ahad sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king and said, "Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant."

25 But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, we should not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." Although he ¹urged him, he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then ^aAbsalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27 But when Absalom ¹urged him, he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, "See now, ^awhen Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then put him to death. Do not fear; have not I myself commanded you? Be courageous and be ¹valiant."

29 And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose and each mounted ^ahis mule and fled.

30 ¶ Now it was while they were on the way that the report came to David, saying, "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them is left."

31 Then the king arose, ^atore his clothes and ^blay on the ground; and all his servants were standing by with clothes torn.

32 And ^aJonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother, ¹responded, "Do not let my lord ²suppose they have put to death all the young men, the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead; because by the ³intent of Absalom this has been determined since the day that he violated his sister Tamar.

33 "Now therefore, do not let my lord the king ^atake the report to ¹heart, namely, ¹'all the king's sons are dead,' for only Amnon is dead."

34 ¶ Now ^aAbsalom had fled. And ^bthe young man who was the watchman raised his eyes and looked, and behold, many people were coming from the road behind him by the side of the mountain.

35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Behold, the king's sons have come; according to your servant's word, so it happened."

36 And it came about as soon as he had finished speaking, that behold, the king's sons came and lifted their voices and wept; and also the king and all his servants wept ¹very bitterly.

37 ¶ Now ^aAbsalom fled and went to ^bTalmai the son of Ammihud, the king of ^cGeshur. And David mourned for his son every day.

38 ^aSo Absalom had fled and gone to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 And the heart of King David longed to go out to Absalom; for ^ahe was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

CHAPTER 14

NOW Joab the son of Zeruah perceived that ^athe king's heart was inclined toward Absalom.

2 So Joab sent to ^aTekoa and ¹brought a wise woman from there and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments now, and do not ^banoint yourself with oil, but like a woman who has been mourning for the dead many days;

3 then go to the king and speak to him in this manner." So Joab put ^athe words in her mouth.

4 ¶ Now when the woman of Tekoa ¹spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and ^aprostrated herself and said, "^bHelp, O king."

5 And the king said to her, "What is your trouble?" And she ¹answered, "Truly I am a widow, for my husband is dead.

6 "And your maidservant had two sons, but the two of them struggled together in the field, and there was no ¹one to separate them, so one struck the other and killed him.

7 "Now behold, ^athe whole family has risen against your maidservant, and they say, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, ^band destroy the heir also.' Thus they will extinguish my coal which is left, so as to ¹leave my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."

8 ¶ Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

9 And the woman of Tekoa said to the king, "O my lord, the king, ^athe iniquity is on me and my father's house, but ^bthe king and his throne are guiltless."

13 And the woman said, "^aWhy then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring back ^bhis banished one."

and said, "As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. Indeed, it was ^ayour servant Joab who commanded me, and it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant;

20 in order to change the appearance of things your servant Joab has done this thing. But my lord is wise, ^alike the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the earth."

21 ¶ Then the king said to Joab, "Behold now, ^aI will surely do this thing; go therefore, bring back the young man Absalom."

22 And Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself and blessed the king; then Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, O my lord, the king, in that the king has performed the ¹request of his servant."

23 So Joab arose and went to ^aGeshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 However the king said, "Let him turn to ^ahis own house, and let him not see my face." So Absalom turned to his own house and did not see the king's face.

25 ¶ Now in all Israel was no one as handsome as Absalom, so highly praised; ^afrom the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no defect in him.

26 And when he ^acut the hair of his head (and it was at the end of every year that he cut it, for it was heavy on him so he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head at 200 shekels by the king's weight.

27 And ^ato Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was ^bTamar; she was a woman of beautiful appearance.

28 ¶ Now Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, ^aand did not see the king's face.

29 Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but he would not come to him. So he sent again a second time, but he would not come.

30 Therefore he said to his servants, "See, ^aJoab's ¹field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the ¹field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, came to Absalom at his house and said to him, "Why have your servants set my ¹field on fire?"

32 And Absalom answered Joab, "Behold, I sent for you, saying, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me still to be there." ' Now therefore, let me see the king's face; ^aand if there is iniquity in me, let him put me to death."

33 So when Joab came to the king and told him, he called for Absalom. Thus he came to the king and prostrated himself on his face to the ground before the king, and ^athe king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER 15

NOW it came about after this that ^aAbsalom provided for himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men as runners before him.

2 And Absalom used to rise early and ^astand beside the way to the gate; and it happened that when any man had a suit to come to the king for judgment, Absalom would call to him and say, "From what city are you?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."

3 Then Absalom would say to him, "See, ^ayour ¹claims are good and right, but no man listens to you on the part of the king."

4 Moreover, Absalom would say, "^aOh that one would appoint me judge in the land, then every man who has any suit or cause could come to me, and I would give him justice."

5 And it happened that when a man came near to prostrate himself before him, he would put out his hand and take hold of him and ^akiss him.

6 And in this manner Absalom dealt with all Israel who came to the king for judgment; ^aso Absalom stole away the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 ¶ Now it came about at the end of ¹forty years that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow which I have vowed to the LORD, in ^aHebron.

8 "For your servant ^avowed a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, saying, '^bIf the LORD shall indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.' "

9 And the king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, '^aAbsalom is king in Hebron.' "

11 Then two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, ^awho were invited and ^bwent ¹innocently, and they did not know anything.

12 And Absalom sent for ^aAhithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city ^bGiloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for ^cthe people increased continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ Then a messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are ¹with Absalom."

14 And David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "^aArise and let us flee, for otherwise none of us shall escape from Absalom. Go in haste, lest he overtake us quickly and bring down calamity on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

15 Then the king's servants said to the king, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king chooses."

16 So the king went out and all his household ¹with him. But ^athe king left ten concubines to keep the house.

17 And the king went out and all the people ¹with him, and they stopped at the last house.

18 Now all his servants passed on beside him, ^aall the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, ^bsix hundred men who had come ¹with him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then the king said to ^aIttai the Gittite, "Why will you also go with us? Return and remain with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile; return to your own place.

20 "You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander with us, while ^aI go where I will? Return and take back your brothers; ^bmercy and ¹truth be with you."

21 But Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely ^awherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there also your servant will be."

22 Therefore David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." So Ittai the Gittite passed over with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

23 While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people passed over. The king also passed over ^athe brook Kidron, and all the people passed over toward ^bthe way of the wilderness.

24 ¶ Now behold, ^aZadok also came, and all the Levites with him ^bcarrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God, and ^aAbiathar came up until all the people had finished passing from the city.

25 And the king said to Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the sight of the LORD, then ^aHe will bring me back again, and show me both it and ^bHis habitation.

26 "But if He should say thus, ^aI have no delight in you, behold, here I am, ^blet Him do to me as seems good ¹to Him."

27 The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Are you not ^aa seer? Return to the city in peace and your ^btwo sons with you, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 "See, I am going to wait ^aat the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."

29 Therefore Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem and remained there.

30 ¶ And David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went, and ^ahis head was covered and he walked ^bbarefoot. Then all the people who were with him each covered his head and went up weeping as they went.

31 Now someone told David, saying, "^aAhithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, I pray, ^bmake the counsel of Ahithophel foolishness."

32 It happened as David was coming to the summit, where God was worshiped, that behold, Hushai the ^aArchite met him with his ¹coat torn, and ²dust on his head.

33 And David said to him, "If you pass over with me, then you will be ^aa burden to me.

34 "But if you return to the city, and ^asay to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so I will now be your servant,' then you can thwart the counsel of Ahithophel for me.

35 "And are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? So it shall be that ^awhatever you hear from the king's house, you shall report to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 "Behold ^atheir two sons are with them there, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and ^bby them you shall send me everything that you hear."

37 So Hushai, ^aDavid's friend, came into the city, and ^bAbsalom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 16

NOW when David had passed ^aa little beyond the summit, behold, ^bZiba the servant of Mephibosheth met him ^cwith a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them were two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred clusters of raisins, a hundred summer fruits, and a jug of wine.

2 And the king said to Ziba, "Why do you have these?" And Ziba said, "^aThe donkeys are for the king's household to ride, and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine, ^bfor whoever is faint in the wilderness to drink."

3 Then the king said, "And where is ^ayour master's son?" And ^bZiba said to the king, "Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore the kingdom of my father to me.'"

4 So the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I prostrate myself; let me find favor in your sight, O my lord, the king!"

5 ¶ When King David came to ^aBahurim, behold, there came out from there a man of the family of the house of Saul ^bwhose name was Shimei, the son of Gera; he came out ^ccursing continually as he came.

6 And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David; and all the people and all the mighty men were at his right hand and at his left.

7 And thus Shimei said when he cursed, "Get out, get out, ^ayou man of bloodshed, and worthless fellow!"

8 "^aThe LORD has returned upon you all ^bthe bloodshed of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. And behold, you are taken in your own evil, for you are a man of bloodshed!"

9 ¶ Then ^aAbishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should ^bthis dead dog ^ccurse my lord the king? Let me go over now, and ^dcut off his head."

10 But the king said, "^aWhat have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah? ^bIf he curses, and if the LORD has told him, 'Curse David,' ^cthen who shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

11 Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Behold, ^amy son who came out from ^bme seeks my life; how much more now this Benjamite? Let him alone and let him curse, ^bfor the LORD has told him.

12 "Perhaps the LORD will look on my affliction and ^areturn good to me instead of his cursing this day."

13 So David and his men went on the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside parallel with him and as he went he cursed, and cast stones and threw dust at him.

14 And the king and all the people who were with him arrived weary and he refreshed himself there.

15 ¶ Then Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 Now it came about when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

18 Then Hushai said to Absalom, "No! For whom the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him I will remain.

19 "And besides, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence."

20 ¶ Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your advice. What shall we do?"

21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father. The hands of all who are with you will also be strengthened."

22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the advice of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if one inquired of the word of God; so was all the advice of Ahithophel regarded by both David and Absalom.

CHAPTER 17

FURTHERMORE, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Please let me choose 12,000 men that I may arise and pursue David tonight.

4 So the plan pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

5 ¶ Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear what he has to say."

6 When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Ahithophel has spoken thus. Shall we carry out his plan? If not, you speak."

7 So Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the advice that Ahithophel has given is not good."

8 Moreover, Hushai said, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men and they are fierce, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is an expert in warfare, and will not spend the night with the people.

9 "Behold, he has now hidden himself in one of the caves or in another place; and it will be when he falls on them at the first attack, that whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'

10 "And even the one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will completely lose heart; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man and those who are with him are valiant men.

11 "But I counsel that all Israel be surely gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea in abundance, and that you personally go into battle.

12 "So we shall come to him in one of the places where he can be found, and we will fall on him

13 "And if he withdraws into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will *drag it into the ¹valley until not even a small stone is found there."

14 Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For *the LORD had ordained to thwart the good counsel of Ahithophel, in order that the LORD might bring calamity on Absalom.

15 ¶ Then *Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "This is what Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and ¹this is what I have counseled.

17 *Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at ^bEn-rogel, and a maidservant would go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David, for they could not be seen entering the city.

And when they searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 ¶ And it came about after they had departed that they came up out of the well and went and told King David; and they said to David, "Arise and cross over the water quickly for thus Ahithophel has counseled against you."

22 Then David and all the people who were with him arose and crossed the Jordan; and by ¹dawn not even one remained who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not ¹followed, he ²saddled his donkey and arose and went to his home, to ^ahis city, and ^{3b}set his house in order, and ^cstrangled himself; thus he died and was buried in the grave of his father.

24 ¶ Then David came to *Mahanaim. And Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom set *Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was ¹Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of ^bNahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 And Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ Now when David had come to Mahanaim, Shobi *the son of Nahash from ^bRabbah of the sons of Ammon, ^cMachir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and ^dBarzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

28 brought *beds, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, parched grain, beans, lentils, parched seeds,

29 honey, curds, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David and for the people who were with him, *to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

CHAPTER 18

THEN David ¹numbered the people who were with him and ²set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2 And David sent the people out, ³one third under the ¹command of Joab, one third under the ¹command of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the ¹command of ¹Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I myself will surely go out with you also."

3 But the people said, "You should not go out; for if we indeed flee, they will not care about us, even if half of us die, they will not care about us. But ¹you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore now it is better that you be ready to help us from the city."

4 Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So ²the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and thousands.

5 And the king charged Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And ²all the people heard when the king charged all the commanders concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ Then the people went out into the field against Israel, and the battle took place in ²the forest of Ephraim.

7 And the people of Israel were ¹defeated there before the servants of David, and the slaughter there that day was great, 20,000 men.

8 For the battle there was spread over the whole countryside, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. And ²his head caught fast in the oak, so he was ¹left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him kept going.

10 When a certain man saw it, he told Joab and said, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

11 Then Joab said to the man who had told him, "Now behold, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? And I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt."

12 And the man said to Joab, "Even if I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not put out my hand against the king's son; for ²in our hearing the king charged you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Protect for me the young man Absalom!'

13 "Otherwise, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and ²there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof."

14 Then Joab said, "I will not ¹waste time here with you." ²So he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was yet alive in the ²midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men who carried Joab's armor gathered around and struck Absalom and killed him.

16 ¶ Then ²Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the people.

17 And they took Absalom and cast him into ¹a deep pit in the forest and ²erected over him a very great heap of stones. And ²all Israel fled, each to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and ²set up for himself a pillar which is in ²the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son ¹to preserve my name." So he named the pillar after his own name, and it is called Absalom's monument to this day.

19 ¶ Then ^aAhimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Please let me run and bring the king news ^bthat the LORD has ¹freed him from the hand of his enemies."

20 But Joab said to him, "You are not the man to carry news ¹this day, but you shall carry news another day; however, you shall carry no news today because the king's son is dead."

21 Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed to Joab and ran.

22 Now Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said once more to Joab, "But whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why would you run, my son, since ^ayou will have no reward for going?"

23 "But whatever happens," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and passed up the Cushite.

24 ¶ Now ^aDavid was sitting between the two gates; and ^bthe watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and raised his eyes and looked, and behold, a man running by himself.

25 And the watchman called and told the king. And the king said, "If he is by himself there is good news in his mouth." And he came nearer and nearer.

26 Then the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Behold, another man running by himself." And the king said, "This one also is bringing good news."

27 And the watchman said, "I think the running of the first one ^ais like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "This is a good man and comes with good news."

28 ¶ And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, "All is well." And ^ahe prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground. And he said, "Blessed is the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king."

29 And the king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant, and your servant, I saw a great tumult, but ^bI did not know what it was."

30 Then the king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.

31 ¶ And behold, the Cushite arrived, and the Cushite said, "Let my lord the king receive good news, for ^athe LORD has ¹freed you this day from the hand of all those who rose up against you."

32 Then the king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And the Cushite answered, "Let the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you for evil, be as that young man!"

33 ¹And the king was deeply moved and went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. And thus he said as he walked, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! ^bWould I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

CHAPTER 19

THEN it was told Joab, "Behold, ^athe king is weeping and mourns for Absalom."

2 And the ¹victory that day was turned to mourning for all the people, for the people heard it said that day, "The king is grieved for his son."

3 So the people went by stealth into the city that day, as people who are humiliated steal away when they flee in battle.

4 And the king ^acovered his face and ¹cried out with a loud voice, "bO my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

5 Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, "To-day you have covered with shame the faces of all your servants, who today have saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines,

6 by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you. For you have shown to-day that ¹princes and servants are nothing to you; for I know this day that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead to-day, then ²you would be pleased.

7 "Now therefore arise, go out and speak ¹kindly to your servants, for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, surely ^anot a man will pass the night with you, and this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now."

8 So the king arose and sat in the gate. When they told all the people, saying, "Behold, the king is ^asitting in the gate," then all the people came before the king.

¶ Now ^bIsrael had fled, each to his tent.

9 And all the people were quarreling throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "aThe king delivered us from the ¹hand of our enemies and ^bsaved us from the ¹hand of the Philistines, but now c he has fled out of the land from Absalom.

10 "However, Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now then, why are you silent about bringing the king back?"

11 ¶ Then King David sent to ^aZadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the word of all Israel has come to the king, even to his house?'

12 'You are my brothers; ^ayou are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?'

13 'And say to ^aAmasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? ^bMay God do so to me, and more also, if you will not be ^ccommander of the army before me continually ^din place of Joab.' "

14 Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Judah ^aas one man, so that they sent word to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants."

15 The king then returned and came as far as the Jordan. And Judah came to ^aGilgal in order to go to meet the king, to bring the king across the Jordan.

16 ¶ Then ^aShimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, with ^aZiba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they rushed to the Jordan before the king.

18 Then they kept crossing the ford to bring over the king's household, and to do what was good in his sight. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was about to cross the Jordan.

19 So he said to the king, "aLet not my lord consider me guilty, nor remember what your servant did wrong on the day when my lord the king came out from Jerusalem, so that the king should ¹take it to heart.

20 "For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore behold, I have come today, ^athe first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

22 David then said, "What have I to do with you, O sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be an adversary to me? Should any man be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today?"

23 And the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." Thus the king swore to him.

24 ¶ Then Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace.

25 And it was when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

26 So he answered, "O my lord, the king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself that I may ride on it and go with the king,' because your servant is lame.

27 Moreover, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is like the angel of God, therefore do what is good in your sight.

28 For all my father's household was nothing but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right do I have yet that I should complain anymore to the king?"

29 So the king said to him, "Why do you still speak of your affairs? I have decided, 'You and Ziba shall divide the land.' "

31 ¶ Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; and he went on to the Jordan with the king to escort him over the Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was very old, being eighty years old; and he had sustained the king while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said to Barzillai, "You cross over with me and I will sustain you in Jerusalem with me."

34 But Barzillai said to the king, "How long have I yet to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

35 "I am now eighty years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Or can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Or can I hear anymore the voice of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?"

36 "Your servant would merely cross over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king compensate me with this reward?"

37 "Please let your servant return, that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. However, here is your servant Chimham, let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your sight."

38 And the king answered, "Chimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your sight; and whatever you require of me, I will do for you."

39 All the people crossed over the Jordan and the king crossed too. The king then kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his place.

40 ¶ Now the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah and also ^ahalf the people of Israel ¹accompanied the king.

41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, "Why had our brothers ^bthe men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king and his household and all David's men with him over the Jordan?"

42 Then all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because ^athe king is a close relative to ¹us. Why then ²are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense, or has ³anything been taken for us?"

43 But the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, "We have ten parts in the king, therefore ¹we also have more claim on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt? Was it not ¹our advice first to bring back ¹our king?" Yet the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20

NOW ^aa worthless fellow happened to be there whose name was Sheba, the son of ^bBichri, a Benjamite; and he blew the trumpet and said,

"We have no portion in David,

Nor do we have inheritance in ^dthe son of Jesse; ^eEvery man to his tents, O Israel!"

2 So all the men of Israel ¹withdrew from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah ²remained steadfast to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.

keep the house, and placed them under guard and provided them with sustenance, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as widows.

4 ¶ Then the king said to ^aAmasa, "Call out the men of Judah for me within three days, and be present here yourself."

5 So Amasa went to call out the men of Judah, but he ^adelayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to ^aAbishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; ^btake your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he find for himself fortified cities and escape from our sight."

7 So Joab's men went out after him, ^aalong with the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the large stone which is in ^aGibeon, Amasa came ¹to meet them. Now Joab was ²dressed in his military attire, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; and as he went forward, it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And ^aJoab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa was not on guard against the sword which was in Joab's hand so ^ahe struck him in the belly with it and poured out his inward parts on the ground, and did not strike him again; and he died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 Now there stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, ^alet him follow Joab."

12 But Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he ¹removed Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

13 As soon as he was removed from the highway, all the men passed on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 Now he went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel even to Beth-maacah and all the Berites; and they were gathered together and also went after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in ^aAbel Beth-maacah, and ^bthey ¹cast up a mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab were wreaking destruction in order to topple the wall.

16 Then ^aa wise woman called from the city, "Hear, hear! Please tell Joab, 'Come here that I may speak with you.'"

17 So he approached her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he answered, "I am listening."

18 Then she spoke, saying, "Formerly they used to say, 'They will surely ask advice at Abel,' and thus they ended the dispute.

19 "I am of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. ^aYou are seeking to destroy a city even a mother in Israel. Why would you swallow up ^bthe inheritance of the LORD?"

20 And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up or destroy!

21 "Such is not the case. But a man from ^athe hill country of Ephraim, ^bSheba the son of Bichri

22 Then the woman ^awisely came to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. So ^bhe blew the trumpet, and they were dispersed from the city, each to his tent. Joab also returned to the king at Jerusalem.

23 ^aNow Joab was over the whole army of Israel, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

25 and Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and ^aAbiathar were priests;

26 and Ira the Jairite was also a priest to David.

CHAPTER 21

NOW there was ^aa famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and ^bDavid sought the presence of the LORD. And the LORD said, "It is for Saul and his bloody house, because he put the Gibeonites to death."

2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites, and ^athe sons of Israel ¹made a covenant with them, but Saul had sought to ²kill them in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah).

3 Thus David said to the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? And how can I make atonement that you may bless ^athe inheritance of the LORD?"

4 Then the Gibeonites said to him, "^aWe have no concern of silver or gold with Saul or his house, nor is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." And he said, "I will do for you whatever you say."

5 So they said to the king, "The man who consumed us, and who planned ¹to exterminate us from remaining within any border of Israel,

6 let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will ¹hang them ^abefore the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, ^bthe chosen of the LORD." And the king said, "I will give them."

7 ^c But the king spared ^aMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, ^bbecause of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Saul's son Jonathan.

8 So the king took the two sons of ^aRizpah the daughter of Aiah, Armoni and Mephibosheth whom she had born to Saul, and the five sons of ^{1b}Merab the daughter of Saul, whom she had born to Adriel the son of Barzillai the ^cMeholathite.

9 Then he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they ¹hanged them in the mountain before the LORD, so that the seven of them fell together; and they were put to death in the first days of harvest at ^athe beginning of barley harvest.

10 ^c ^aAnd Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until ¹it rained on them from the sky; and ^bshe ²allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 When it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done, 16 Then Ishbi-benob, who was ^aamong the descendants of the ¹giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of bronze in weight, ²was girded with a new sword, and he ³intended to kill David.

17 But ^aAbishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "^bYou shall not go out again with us to battle, that you may not extinguish ^cthe lamp of Israel."

18 ¶ ^aNow it came about after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then ^bSibbecai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was among the descendants of the ¹giant.

19 And there was war with the Philistines again at Gob, and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite ¹killed ²Goliath the Gittite, ^athe shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was war at Gath again, where there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also had been born to the giant.

21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, struck him down.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22

AND David spoke the words of this song to the LORD in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2 And he said,

"The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

3 My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;
My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge;
My savior, Thou dost save me from violence.

4 "I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
And I am saved from my enemies.

5 "For the waves of death encompassed me;
The torrents of destruction overwhelmed me;
6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.

7 "In my distress I called upon the LORD,
Yes, I cried to my God;
And from His temple He heard my voice,
And my cry for help came into His ears.

8 "Then the earth shook and quaked,
The foundations of heaven were trembling
And were shaken, because He was angry.

NOW these are the last words of David.

David the son of Jesse declares,

aAnd the man who was raised on high declares, bThe anointed of the God of Jacob,

And the sweet psalmist of Israel,

 And His word was on my tongue.

 When the tender grass with God?

For aHe has made an everlasting covenant with me,

Ordered in all things, and secured;

For all my salvation and all my desire,

Will He not indeed make it grow?

- 6 "aBut the worthless, every one of them will be thrust away like thorns,

Because they cannot be taken in hand;

- 7 But the man who touches them

 one of the three mighty men with 11 ¶ Now after him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered ¹into a troop, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he took his stand in the midst of the plot, defended it and struck the Philistines; and ^athe LORD brought about a great ¹victory.

13 ¶ Then three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David in the harvest time to the ^acave of Adullam, while the troop of the Philistines was camping in ^bthe valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then ^ain the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

15 ^aAnd David had a craving and said, "Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate!"

16 ^aSo the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but ^bpoured it out to the LORD;

17 and he said, "Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this. ^aShall I drink the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

18 ¶ And ^aAbishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was ^bchief of the ¹thirty. And he swung his spear against three hundred ²and killed them, and had a name as well as the three.

CHAPTER 24

NOW ^again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and it incited David against them to say, "Go, number Israel and Judah."

2 And the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Go about now through all the tribes of Israel, ^afrom Dan to Beersheba, and ^bregister the people, that I may know the number of the people."

3 But Joab said to the king,
"Now may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"

4 Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king, to ^bregister the people of Israel.

5 And they crossed the Jordan and camped in ^aAroer, on the through the whole land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave ^athe number of the ^bregistration of the people to the king; and there were in Israel ^beight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 ^a Now ^aDavid's heart
^btroubled him after he had numbered the people. So David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, please ^btake away the iniquity of Thy servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

11 When David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to ^athe prophet Gad, David's ^bseer, saying,

12 "Go and speak to David,
Thus the LORD says, "I am offering you three things; choose for yourself one of them, which I may do to you." "

13 So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, "Shall ^aseven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

14 Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us now fall into the hand of the LORD ^afor
His mercies are great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man."

15 ^a So ^athe LORD ^bsent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time; and seventy thousand men of the people ^bfrom Dan to Beersheba died.

16 ^aWhen the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, ^bthe LORD relented from the calamity, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough! Now relax your hand!" And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking down the people, and said, "Behold, ^ait is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong; but ^bthese sheep, what have they done? Please let Thy hand be against me and against my father's house."

18 ¶ So Gad came to David that day and said to him, "^aGo up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of ¹Araunah the Jebusite."

19 And David went up according to the word of Gad, just as the LORD had commanded.

20 And Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over toward him; and Araunah went out and bowed his face to the ground before the king.

21 Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, 24 However, the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price, for ^aI will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God ¹which cost me nothing." So ^bDavid bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ^aThus the LORD was moved by entreaty for the land, and the plague was held back from Israel.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

David in Old Age

NOW King David was old, advanced in age; and they covered him with clothes, but he could not keep warm.

2 So his servants said to him, "Let them seek a young virgin for my lord the king, and let her ¹attend the king and become his nurse; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm."

3 So they searched for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the ^aShunammite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the girl was very beautiful; and she became the king's nurse and served him, but the king did not ¹cohabit with her.

5 ¶ Now ^aAdonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." So ^bhe prepared for himself chariots and horsemen with fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had never ¹crossed him at any time by asking. "Why have you done so?" And he was also a very handsome man; and ²he was born after Absalom.

7 And ¹he had conferred with ^aJoab the son of Zeruiah and with ^bAbiathar the priest; and following ^cAdonijah they helped him.

8 But ^aZadok the priest, ^bBenaiah the son of Jeholada, ^cNathan the prophet, ^dShimei, Rei, and ^ethe mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fatlings by the ¹stone of Zohemoth, which is beside ^aEn-rogel; and he invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants.

10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, and ^aSolomon his brother.

11 ^aThen Nathan spoke to ^aBathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it?"

12 "So now come, please let me ^agive you counsel and save your life and the life of your son Solomon.

13 "Go ¹at once to King David and say to him, 'Have you not, my lord, O king, sworn to your maidservant, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?"

14 "Behold, while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

15 ^aSo Bathsheba went in to the king in the bedroom. Now ^athe king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was ministering to the king.

17 And she said to him, "My lord, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, saying, 'Surely your son Solomon shall be king after me and he shall sit on my throne.'

18 "And now, behold, Adonijah is king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know it.

19 "And ^ahe has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army; but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

20 "And as for you now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 "Otherwise it will come about, ^aas soon as my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered ¹offenders."

22 ^aAnd behold, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he prostrated himself ¹before the king with his face to the ground.

24 Then Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne'?"

25 "For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons and the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest, and behold, they are eating and drinking before him; and they say, 'Long live King Adonijah!'

26 "But me, even me your servant, and Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and your servant Solomon, he has not invited.

27 "Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not shown to your ¹servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

28 ¶ Then King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." And she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.

29 And the king vowed and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress,

30 surely as ^aI vowed to you by the LORD the God of Israel, saying, 'Your son Solomon shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place'; I will indeed do so this day."

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and prostrated herself ¹before the king and said, "May my lord King David live forever."

32 ¶ Then King David said, "Call to me ^aZadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." And they came into the king's presence.

33 And the king said to them, "Take with you ^athe servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to ^bGihon.

34 "And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet ^aanoint him there asking over Israel, and ^bblow the trumpet and say, 'Long live King Solomon!'

35 "Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne and be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! Thus may the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say.

throne greater than the throne of my lord King David!"

38 ¶ So ^aZadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, ^bthe Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and brought him to ^cGihon.

39 Zadok the priest then ^atook the horn of oil from the tent and ^banointed Solomon. Then they ^cblew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

40 And all the people went up after him, and the people ¹were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth ²shook at their noise.

41 ¶ Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard ^{it}, as they finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why ¹is the city making such an uproar?"

42 While he was still speaking, behold, ^aJonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. Then Adonijah said, "Come in, for ^byou are a valiant man and bring good news."

43 But Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

44 "The king has also sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king's mule.

45 "And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from there rejoicing, ^aso that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise which you have heard.

46 "Besides, ^aSolomon has even taken his seat on the throne of the kingdom.

47 "And moreover, the king's servants came to bless our lord

King David, saying, 'May ^ayour God make the name of Solomon better than your name and his throne greater than your throne!' And ^bthe king bowed himself on the bed.

48 "The king has also said thus, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who ^ahas granted one to sit on my throne today while my own eyes see it.' "

49 ¶ Then all the guests of Adonijah were terrified; and they arose and each went on his way.

50 And Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, and he arose, went and ^atook hold of the horns of the altar.

51 Now it was told Solomon, saying, "Behold, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon, for behold, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.' "

52 And Solomon said, "If he will be a worthy man, ^anot one of his hairs will fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he will die."

53 So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and prostrated himself ¹before King Solomon, and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

And he put the blood of war on his belt ²about his waist, and on his sandals ³on his feet.

9 "Now therefore, do not let him go unpunished, ^afor you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you will bring his gray hair down to ¹Sheol with blood."

10 ¶ Then ^aDavid slept with his fathers and was buried in ^bthe city of David.

11 And ^athe days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: ^bseven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

12 And ^aSolomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established.

13 ¶ Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Do you come peacefully?" And he said, "Peacefully."

14 Then he said, "I have something to say to you." And she said, "Speak."

15 So he said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel expected me to be king; however, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother's, for it was his from the LORD.

16 "And now I am making one request of you; do not refuse me." And she said to him, "Speak."

17 Then he said, "Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife."

18 And Bathsheba said, "Very well; I will speak to the king for you."

19 ¶ So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king arose to meet her, bowed before her, and sat on his throne; then he had a throne set for the king's mother, and she sat on his right.

20 Then she said, "I am making one small request of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you."

21 So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as a wife."

22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him also the kingdom—for he is my older brother—even for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!"

23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "May God do so to me and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life."

24 "Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house as He promised, surely Adonijah will be put to death today."

25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him so that he died.

26 ¶ Then to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth to your own field, for you deserve to die; but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the LORD God before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything with which my father was afflicted."

27 So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD, which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Now the news came to Joab, for Joab had followed Adonijah, although he had not followed Absalom. And Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD, and behold, he is beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall upon him."

30 So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus the king has said, 'Come out.'" But he said, "No, for I will die here." And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus spoke Joab, and thus he answered me."

31 And the king said to him, "Do as he has spoken and fall upon him and bury him, ^bthat you may remove from me and from my father's house the blood which Joab shed without cause.

32 "And ^athe LORD will return his blood on his own head, ^bbecause he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he and killed them with the sword, while my father David did not know it: ^cAbner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and ^dAmasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

33 "So shall their blood return on the head of Joab and on the head of his ¹descendants forever; but to David and his ¹descendants and his house and his throne, may there be peace from the LORD forever."

34 Then ^aBenaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell upon him and put him to death, and he was buried at his own house ^bin the wilderness.

35 And ^athe king appointed Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king appointed ^bZadok the priest ^cin the place of Abiathar.

36 ¶ Now the king sent and called for ^aShimei and said to him, "Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any place.

37 "For it will happen on the day you go out and ^across over the ¹brook Kidron, you will know for certain that you shall surely die; ^byour blood shall be on your own head."

38 Shimei then said to the king, "The word is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

39 ¶ But it came about at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away ^ato Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Behold, your servants are in Gath."

40 Then Shimei arose and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had returned.

42 So the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn you, saying, 'You will know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word which I have heard is good.'"

46 ^aSo the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell upon him so that he died. ^bThus the kingdom was established in the hands of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3

THEN ^aSolomon ¹formed a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter ^band brought her to the city of David, until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and ^cthe wall around Jerusalem.

2 ^aThe people were still sacrificing on the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days.

3 ¶ Now ^aSolomon loved the LORD, ^bwalking in the statutes of his father David, except he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 ^aAnd the king went to ^bGibeon to sacrifice there, ^cfor that was the great high place; Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

5 ^aIn Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon ^bin a dream at night; and God said, "Ask what you wish me to give you."

6 Then Solomon said, "^aThou hast shown great lovingkindness to Thy servant David my father, ^baccording as he walked before Thee in ¹truth and righteousness and uprightness of heart toward Thee; and ^cThou hast ²reserved for him this great lovingkindness, that Thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7^aAnd now, O LORD my God, ^aThou hast made Thy servant king in place of my father David, yet ^bI am but a little child; ^cI do not know how to go out or come in.

8^aAnd ^aThy servant is in the midst of Thy people which Thou hast chosen, ^ba great people who cannot be numbered or counted for multitude.

9^aSo ^agive Thy servant ¹an understanding heart to judge Thy people ^bto discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this ²great people of Thine?"

10 ¶ And ¹it was pleasing in the sight of the Lord that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing and have ^anot asked for yourself ¹long life, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have you asked for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself ²discernment to understand justice,

14^aAnd ^aif you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and commandments, as your father David walked, then I will ^bprolong your days."

15 ¶ Then ^aSolomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and ^bmade a feast for all his servants.

16 ¶ Then two women who were harlots came to the king and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, "Oh, my lord, ¹this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth to a child while she was in the house.

18^aAnd it happened on the third day after I gave birth, that this woman also gave birth to a child, and we were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, only the two of us in the house.

19^aAnd this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on it.

20^aSo she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your maid-servant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead son in my bosom.

21^aAnd when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, behold, he was dead; but when I looked at him carefully in the morning, behold, he was not my son, whom I had borne."

22 Then the other woman said, "No! For the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son." But ¹the first woman said, "No! For the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

23 ¶ Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son who is living, and your son is the dead one'; and ¹the other says, 'No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'"

24 And the king said, "Get me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other."

26 Then the woman whose child was the living one spoke to the king, for ¹she was deeply stirred over her son and said, "Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him." But the other said, "He shall be neither mine nor yours; divide him!"

27 Then the king answered and said, "Give ¹the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him. She is his mother."

28 When all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had ¹handed down, they feared the king; for ¹they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to ²administer justice.

6 and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labor.

7 ¶ And Solomon had twelve deputies over all Israel, who ¹provided for the king and his household; each man had to ²provide for a month in the year.

8 And these are their names: Ben-hur, in the ¹hill country of Ephraim;

9 Ben-deker in Makaz and ¹Shaalbim and ²Beth-shemesh and Elonbeth-hanan;

10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (¹Socoh was his and all the land of ²Hepher);

11 Ben-abinadab, in all ¹the ²height of Dor (Taphath the daughter of Solomon was his wife);

12 Baana the son of Ahilud, in ¹Taanach and Megiddo, and all ²Beth-shean which is beside ³Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-shean to ⁴Abel-meholah as far as the other side of ⁵Jokmeam;

13 Ben-geber, in ¹Ramoth-gilead (²the towns of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead were his; ³the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars were his);

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in ¹Mahanaim;

15 ¹Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also married Basemath the daughter of Solomon);

16 Baana the son of ¹Hushai, in Asher and ²Bealoth;

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar;

18 ¹Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin;

19 Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, ¹the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only deputy who was in the land.

20 ¶ ^aJudah and Israel were as numerous as the sand that is on the ¹seashore in abundance; they were eating and drinking and rejoicing.

21 ¶ ¹Now Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms ^bfrom the ²River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt; ^cthey brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's ¹provision for one day was thirty ²kors of fine flour and sixty ²kors of meal, 23 ten fat oxen, twenty ¹pasture-fed oxen, a hundred sheep besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowl.

24 For he had dominion over everything ¹west of the ²River, from Tiphseh even to ^aGaza, ^bover all the kings ¹west of the ²River; and ^che had peace on all sides around about him.

25 ^aSo Judah and Israel lived in safety, every man under his vine and his fig tree, ^bfrom Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ^aAnd Solomon had ¹40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen.

27 And those deputies ¹provided for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon's table, each in his month; they left nothing lacking.

28 They also brought barley and straw for the horses and ^aswift steeds to the place where it should be, each according to his charge.

29 ¶ Now ^aGod gave Solomon wisdom and very great discernment and breadth of ¹mind, ^blike the sand that is on the seashore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all ^athe sons of the east and ^ball the wisdom of Egypt.

Heman, ^aCalcol and ¹Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his ²fame was known in all the surrounding nations.

32 ^aHe also spoke 3,000 proverbs, and his songs were 1,005.

33 And he spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that grows on the wall; he spoke also of animals and birds and creeping things and fish.

34 And ¹men ^acame from all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

1a NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for ^bHiram had ²always been a friend of David.

2 Then ^aSolomon sent word to Hiram, saying,

3 "You know that ^aDavid my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 "But now ^athe LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor ¹misfortune.

5 "And behold, ^aI ¹intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he will build the house for My name.'

6 "Now therefore, command that they cut for me ^acedars from Lebanon, and my servants will be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you say, for you know that there is no one

7 ¶ And it came about when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people."

8 So Hiram sent word to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent me; I will do ¹what you desire concerning the cedar and cypress timber.

9 "My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts to go by sea ^ato the place where you ¹direct me, and I will have them broken up there, and you shall carry them away. Then ^byou shall accomplish my desire by giving food to my household."

10 So ¹Hiram ²gave Solomon ³as much as he desired of the cedar and cypress timber.

11 ^aSolomon then gave Hiram 20,000 ¹kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty ¹kors of beaten oil; thus Solomon would give Hiram year by year.

12 And ^athe LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as He ¹promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.

13 ¶ Now ^aKing Solomon ¹levied forced laborers from all Israel; and the forced laborers ²numbered 30,000 men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, 10,000 a month in relays; they were in Lebanon a month and two months at home. And ^aAdoniram was over the forced laborers.

15 Now ^aSolomon had 70,000 ¹transporters, and 80,000 hewers of stone in the mountains, 17 Then ^athe king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones.

18 So Solomon's builders and ¹Hiram's builders and ^athe Gebalites ²cut them, and prepared the timbers and the stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

^aNOW it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year after the sons of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv which is the second month, that he ¹began to build the house of the LORD.

2 As for the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty ¹cubits and its width twenty cubits and its height thirty cubits.

3 And the porch in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits ¹in length, ²corresponding to the width of the house, and its ³depth along the front of the house was ten cubits.

4 Also for the house ^ahe made windows with artistic frames.

5 And ^aagainst the wall of the house he built stories encompassing the walls of the house around both the nave and the ^binner sanctuary; thus he made ^cside chambers all around.

6 The lowest story was five cubits wide, and the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for on the outside he ¹made offsets in the wall of the house all around in order that the beams should not ²be inserted in the walls of the house.

7 And ^athe house, while it was being built, was built of stone ¹prepared at the quarry, and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built.

8 The doorway for the ¹lowest side chamber was on the right side of the house; and they would go up by winding stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.

9 So ^ahe built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and ¹planks of cedar.

10 He also built the stories against the whole house, each five ¹cubits high; and they ²were fastened to the house with timbers of cedar.

11 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon saying,

12 "Concerning this house which you are building, ^aif you will walk in My statutes and execute My ordinances and keep all My commandments by walking in them, then I will carry out My word with you which I spoke to David your father.

13 "And ^aI will dwell among the sons of Israel, and ^bwill not forsake My people Israel."

14 ¶ ^aSo Solomon built the house and finished it.

15 Then he ^abuilt the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the ¹ceiling he overlaid the walls on the inside with wood, and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress.

16 ^aAnd he built twenty cubits on the rear part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ¹ceiling; he built them for it on the inside as an inner sanctuary, even as ^bthe most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty ¹cubits long.

18 And there was cedar on the house within, carved in the shape of ^agourds and open flowers; all was cedar, there was no stone seen.

19 Then he prepared an inner sanctuary within the house in order to place there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And ¹the inner sanctuary was twenty cubits in length, twenty cubits in width, and twenty cubits in height, and he overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar with cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And he overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also ^athe whole altar which was by the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ ^aAlso in the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the end of one wing to the end of the other wing were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits; both the cherubim were of the same measure and the same form.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.

27 And he placed the cherubim in the midst of the inner house, and ^athe wings of the cherubim were spread out, so that the wing of the one was touching the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall. So their wings were touching each other in the center of the house.

28 He also overlaid the cherubim with gold.

29 ¶ Then he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved engravings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, inner and outer sanctuaries.

30 And he overlaid the floor of the house with gold, inner and outer sanctuaries.

31 And for the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood, the lintel and five-sided doorposts.

32 So he made two doors of olive wood, and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.

33 So also he made for the entrance of the nave four-sided doorposts of olive wood

34 and ^atwo doors of cypress wood; the two leaves of the one door turned on pivots, and the two leaves of the other door turned on pivots.

35 And he carved on it cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold evenly applied on the engraved work.

36 And ^ahe built the inner court with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

37 ¶ ^aIn the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv.

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished throughout all its parts and according to all its plans. So he was seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

NOW ^aSolomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 And ^ahe built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was 100 cubits and its width 50 cubits and its height 30 cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars with cedar beams on the pillars.

3 And it was paneled with cedar above the side chambers which were on the 45 pillars, 15 in each row.

4 And there were artistic window frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three ranks.

5 And all the doorways and doorposts had squared artistic frames, and window was opposite window in three ranks.

6 Then he made ^athe hall of pillars; its length was 50 cubits and its width 30 cubits, and a porch was in front of them and pillars and a ^bthreshold in front of them.

7 And he made the hall of the ^athrone where he was to judge, the hall of judgment, and ^bit was paneled with cedar from floor to floor.

8 And his house where he was to live, the other court inward from the hall, was of the same workmanship. ^aHe also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, ^bwhom Solomon had married.

9 ¶ All these were of costly stones, of stone cut according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside; even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court.

10 ¶ And the foundation was of costly stones, even large stones, stones of ten cubits and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, stone cut according to measure, and cedar.

12 So ^athe great court all around had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams even as the inner court of the house of the LORD, and ^bthe porch of the house.

13 ¶ Now ^aKing Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre.

14 ^aHe was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze; and ^bhe was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill for doing any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and ^cperformed all his work.

15 ¶ And he fashioned ^athe two pillars of bronze; ^beighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits ¹measured the circumference of both.

16 He also made two capitals of molten bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five ¹cubits and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

17 There were nets of network and twisted threads of chain-work for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital.

18 So he made the pillars, and two rows around on the one network to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and so he did for the other capital.

19 And the capitals which were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, four cubits.

20 And there were capitals on the two pillars, even above and close to the ¹rounded projection which was beside the network; and ^athe pomegranates numbered two hundred in rows around ²both capitals.

21 ^aThus he set up the pillars at the ^bporch of the nave; and he set up the right pillar and named it ¹Jachin, and he set up the left pillar and named it ²Boaz.

22 And on the top of the pillars was lily design. So the work of the pillars was finished.

23 ¶ ^aNow he made the sea of ^bcast metal ten cubits from brim to brim, circular in form, and its height was five cubits, and ¹thirty cubits in circumference.

the sea; the gourds were in two rows, cast ¹with the rest.

25 ^aIt stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east; and the sea was set on top of them, and all their rear parts turned inward.

26 And it was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, as a lily blossom; it could hold two thousand baths.

27 ¶ Then ^ahe made the ten stands of bronze; the length of each stand was four cubits and its width four cubits and its height three cubits.

28 And this was the design of the stands: they had borders, even borders between the ¹frames, 29 and on the borders which were between the ¹frames were lions, oxen and cherubim; and on the ¹frames there was a pedestal above, and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.

30 Now each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and its four feet had supports; beneath the basin were cast supports with wreaths at each side.

31 And its opening inside the crown at the top was a cubit, and its opening was round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its opening there were engravings, and their borders were square, not round.

32 And the four wheels were underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels were on the stand. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.

33 And the workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel. Their axles, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.

34 Now there were four supports at the four corners of each stand; its supports were part of the stand itself.

35 And on the top of the stand there was a circular form half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its borders were part of it.

36 And he engraved on the plates of its stays and on its borders, cherubim, lions and palm trees, according to the clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

37 He made the ten stands like this: all of them had one casting, one measure and one form.

38 And he made ten basins of bronze, one basin held forty baths; each basin was four cubits, and on each of the ten stands was one basin.

39 Then he set the stands, five on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea of cast metal on the right side of the house eastward toward the south.

40 Now Hiram made the basins and the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram finished doing all the work which he performed for King Solomon in the house of the LORD:

41 the two pillars and the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars;

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the tops of the pillars;

43 and the ten stands with the ten basins on the stands;

44 and the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea;

45 and the pails and the shovels and the bowls; even all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon in the house of the LORD were of polished bronze.

46 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.

47 And Solomon left all the utensils unweighed, because they were too many; the weight of the bronze could not be ascertained.

48 And Solomon made all the furniture which was in the house of the LORD: the golden altar and the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence;

49 and the lampstands, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary, of pure gold; and the flowers and the lamps and the tongs, of gold;

50 and the cups and the snuffers and the bowls and the spoons and the firepans, of pure gold; and the hinges both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, that is, of the nave, of gold.

51 Thus all the work that King Solomon performed in the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things dedicated by his father David, the silver and the gold and the utensils, and he put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers' households of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 Then all the elders of Israel came, and ^athe priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD and ^athe tent of meeting and all the holy utensils, which were in the tent, and the priests and the Levites brought them up.

5 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, ^awere with him before the ark, sacrificing ¹so many sheep and oxen they could not be counted or numbered.

6 Then ^athe priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD ^bto its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, to the most holy place, ^cunder the wings of the cherubim.

7 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim made a covering over the ark and its poles from above.

8 But ^athe poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; they are there to this day.

9 ^aThere was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where ^bthe LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came about when the priests came from the holy place, that ^athe cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11 so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 ¶ ^aThen Solomon said,

"The LORD has said that ^bHe would dwell in the thick cloud.

22 ¶ Then ^a Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and ^b spread out his hands toward heaven.

23 And he said, "O LORD, the

53 "For Thou hast separated them from all the peoples of the earth as Thine inheritance, ^aas Thou didst speak through Moses Thy servant, when Thou didst bring our fathers forth from Egypt, O Lord ¹God."

54 ¹"And it came about that when Solomon had finished praying this entire prayer and supplication to the LORD, ^bhe arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his ¹hands spread toward heaven.

55 And he stood and ^ablessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 62 ¶ ^aNow the king and all Israel with him ^boffered sacrifice before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. ^aSo the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 On the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD, because there he ^boffered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings; for ^athe bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 So ^aSolomon observed the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly ^bfrom the entrance of Hamath ^cto the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, for seven days and seven more days, even fourteen days.

CHAPTER 9

^a NOW it came about when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD, and ^bthe king's house, and ^call ¹that Solomon desired to do,

2 that ^athe LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said to him, "^aI have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built ^bby putting My name there forever, and ^cMy eyes and My heart will be there perpetually.

4 "And as for you, ^aif you will walk before Me as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and uprightness, doing according to all that I have commanded you and will keep My statutes and My ordinances,

7 ^athen I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them, and ^bthe house which I have consecrated for My name, I will ¹cast out of My sight. So Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all peoples.

8 "And this house will become ¹a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by will be astonished and hiss and say, ²"Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?"

9 "And they will say, ³"Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and adopted other gods and worshiped them and served them, therefore the LORD has brought all this adversity on them."

10 ¶ And it came about ⁴at the end of twenty years in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house

11 (Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber and gold according to all his desire), then King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 So Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they ⁵did not please him.

13 And he said, "What are these cities which you have given me, my brother?" So ⁶they were called the land of ⁷2a Cabul to this day.

14 ⁸And Hiram sent to the king 120 talents of gold.

15 ¶ Now this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon ⁹levied to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the ¹⁰Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, ¹¹Hazor, ¹²Megiddo, and ¹³Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer, and burned it with fire, and killed the ¹⁴Canaanites who lived in the city, and had ¹⁵given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 So Solomon rebuilt Gezer and the lower ¹⁶Beth-horon

21 ²³their descendants who were left after them in the land ²⁴whom the sons of Israel were unable to destroy utterly, ²⁵from them Solomon levied ²⁶forced laborers, even to this day.

22 But Solomon ²⁷did not make slaves of the sons of Israel; for they were men of war, his servants, his princes, his captains, his chariot commanders, and his horsemen.

23 ¶ These were the ²⁸chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, ²⁹who ruled over the people doing the work.

24 ¶ As soon as ³⁰Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her, ³¹then he built the Millo.

25 ¶ Now ³²three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD, burning incense with them ³³on the altar which was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ King Solomon also built a ³⁴fleet of ships in ³⁵Ezion-geber, which is near Elath on the shore of the ³⁶Red Sea, in the land of Edom.

27 ³⁷And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, sailors who knew the sea, along with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they went to ^aOphir, and took four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

NOW when the ^aqueen of ^bSheba heard about the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came ^cto test him with difficult questions.

2 So she came to Jerusalem with a very large retinue, with camels ^acarrying spices and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon ^aanswered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king which he did not ²explain to her.

4 When the queen of Sheba perceived all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built,

5 the food of his table, the seating of his servants, the attendance of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers, and ¹his stairway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

6 Then she said to the king, "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.

7 "Nevertheless I did not believe the ¹reports, until I came and my eyes had seen it. And behold, the half was not told me. You exceed in wisdom and prosperity the report which I heard.

8 "How ^ablessed are your men, how blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually and hear your wisdom.

9 "Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel; ^bbecause the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, ^cto do justice and righteousness."

10 And ^ashe gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and a very great amount of spices and precious stones. Never again did such abundance of spices come in as that which the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon.

11 ¹ And also the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a very great number of almag trees and precious stones.

12 And ^athe king made of the almag trees supports for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also lyres and harps for the singers; such almag trees have not come in again, nor have they been seen to this day.

13 ¹ And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she requested, besides what he gave her according to ¹his royal bounty. Then she turned and went to her own land ²together with her servants.

14 ¹ Now the weight of gold which came in to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold.

15 besides ^athat from the traders and the ¹wares of the merchants and all the kings of the ^aArabs and the governors of the country.

16 And ^aKing Solomon made 200 large shields of beaten gold, ¹using 600 shekels of gold on each large shield.

17 And he made ^a300 shields of beaten gold, ¹using three minas of gold on each shield, and ^bthe king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 Moreover, the king made a great throne of ^aivory and overlaid it with refined gold.

19 There were six steps to the throne and a round top to the throne at its rear, and ¹arms ²on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the ¹arms.

21 And all King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None was of silver; it was not considered ¹valuable in the days of Solomon.

22 For ^athe king had at sea the ships of Tarshish with the ships of Hiram; once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold and silver, ivory and apes and peacocks.

23 ¹ So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.

24 And all the earth was seeking the presence of Solomon, ^ato hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart.

25 And ^athey brought every man his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules, so much year by year.

CHAPTER 11

NOW ^aKing Solomon loved many foreign women along with the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,

2 from the nations concerning which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel, "^aYou shall not ¹associate with them, neither shall they ¹associate with you for they will surely turn your heart away after their gods." Solomon held fast to these in love.

3 ^aAnd he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away.

4 For it came about when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away after other gods and ^ahis heart was not ¹wholly devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.

5 For Solomon went after ^aAshtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and after ^bMilcom the detestable idol of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not follow the LORD fully, as David his father had done.

7 Then Solomon built a high place for ^aChemosh the detestable idol of Moab, on the mountain which is ¹east of Jerusalem, and for ^bMolech the detestable idol of the sons of Ammon.

8 Thus also he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 ¹ Now ^athe LORD was angry with Solomon ^bbecause his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, ^cwho had appeared to him twice,

10 and ^ahad commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods;

but he did not observe what the LORD had commanded.

11 So the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant.

12 "Nevertheless I will not do it in your days for the sake of your father David, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

13 "However, I will not tear away all the kingdom, but I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

14 ¶ Then the LORD raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the royal line in Edom.

15 For it came about, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, and had struck down every male in Edom

16 (for Joab and all Israel stayed there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom), 17 that Hadad fled to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, while Hadad was a young boy.

18 And they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and assigned him food and gave him land.

19 Now Hadad found great favor before Pharaoh, so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore his son Genubath, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 But when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, that I may go to my own country."

22 Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you are seeking to go to your own country?" And he answered, "Nothing; nevertheless you must surely let me go."

23 ¶ God also raised up another adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men to himself and became leader of a marauding band, after David slew them of Zobah; and they went to Damascus and stayed there, and reigned in Damascus.

25 So he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the evil that Hadad did; and he abhorred Israel and reigned over Aram.

26 ¶ Then Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also rebelled against the king.

27 Now this was the reason why he rebelled against the king: Solomon built the Millo, and closed up the breach of the city of his father David.

28 Now the man Jeroboam was a valiant warrior, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he appointed him over all the forced labor of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came about at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had clothed himself with a new cloak; and both of them were alone in the field.

30 Then ^aAhijah took hold of the new cloak which was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces.

31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Behold, ^aI will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and give you ten tribes

32 (^abut he will have one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, ^bthe city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel), 40 Solomon sought therefore to put Jeroboam to death; but Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt to ^aShishak king of Egypt, and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¶ ^aNow the rest of the act of Solomon and whatever he did and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 Thus ^athe time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 And Solomon ^aslept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and his son ^bRehoboam reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 12

^a THEN Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel has come to ^bShechem to make him king.

2 Now it came about ^awhen Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, that ¹he was living in Egypt (for he was yet in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon).

3 Then they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 "Your father made our yoke hard; now therefore lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

5 Then he said to them, "Depart for three days, then return to me." So the people departed.

6 ¶ And King Rehoboam ^aconsulted with the elders who had ¹served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying "How do you counsel me to answer this people?"

7 Then they spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to this people today, will serve them, I grant them their petition, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

8 But he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had given him, and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him.

9 So he said to them, "What counsel do you give that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

10 And the young men who grew up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to this people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us!' But you shall speak to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!'

11 'Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.'"

12 ¶ Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had directed, saying, "Return to me on the third day."

13 And the king answered the people harshly, for he forsook the advice of the elders which they had given him,

14 and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions."

15 So the king did not listen to the people; for it was a turn of events from the LORD, that He might establish His word, which the LORD spoke through Ahijah

16 ¶ When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying,

"What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse;

*To your tents, O Israel!

Now look after your own house, David!"

So Israel departed to their tents.

17 But as for the sons of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam made haste to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

20 And it came about when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. None but the tribe of Judah followed the house of David.

21 ¶ Now when Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 "Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people, saying,

24 Thus says the LORD, "You must not go up and fight against your relatives the sons of Israel; return every man to his house, for this thing has come from Me." " So they listened to the word of the LORD, and returned and went their way according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then ^aJeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived ¹there. And he went out from there and built ^bPenuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.

27 "¶ If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will return to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."

28 So the king ¹consulted, and ^amade two golden ^bcalves, and he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; ^cbehold your gods, O Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt."

29 And he set ^aone in ^bBethel, and the other he put in ^cDan.

30 Now ^athis thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan.

31 And ^ahe made houses on high places, and ^bmade priests from among ¹all the people who were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ¹instituted a feast in the eighth month on the fifteenth day of the month, ^alike the feast which is in Judah, and he ²went up to the altar; thus he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves which he had made. And he stationed in Bethel ^bthe priests of the high places which he had made.

33 Then he ¹went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had ^{2a}devised ³in his own heart; and he ²instituted a feast for the sons of Israel, and ¹went up to the altar ^bto burn ^aincense.

NOW behold, there came ^aa man of God from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD while Jeroboam was standing by the altar ^bto burn incense.

2 And ^ahe cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD, 'Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, ^bJosiah by name; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones shall be burned on you.'"

3 Then he gave a ¹sign the same day, saying, "¶ This is the ¹sign which the LORD has spoken, 'Behold, the altar shall be split apart and the ²ashes which are on it shall be poured out.'"

4 Now it came about when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him." But his hand which he stretched out against him dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself.

5 The altar also was split apart and the ¹ashes were poured out from the altar, according to the ²sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please ^{1a}entreat the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me." So ^bthe man of God ²entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him, and it became as it was before.

7 Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and ^aI will give you a reward."

8 But the man of God said to the king, "¶ If you were to give me half your house I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water in this place.

9 "For so ¹it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way which you came.' "

10 So he went another way, and did not return by the way which he came to Bethel.

11 ¶ Now ^aan old prophet was living in Bethel; and his ¹sons came and told him all the deeds which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words which he had spoken to the king, these also they related to their father.

12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" Now his sons ²had seen the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone.

13 Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it.

14 So he went after the man of God and found him sitting under ¹an oak; and he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am."

15 Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

16 And he said, "^aI cannot return with you, nor go with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

17 "For a command came to me ^aby the word of the LORD, 'You shall eat no bread, nor drink water there; do not return by going the way which you came.' "

18 And he said to him, "^aI also am a prophet like you, and ¹an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.' " But ^che lied to him.

19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house and drank water.

20 ¶ Now it came about, as they were sitting down at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back;

21 and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have ¹disobeyed the ²command of the LORD, and have not observed the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you,

22 but have returned and eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, 'Eat no bread and drink no water'; your body shall not come to the grave of your fathers.' "

23 And it came about after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 Now when he had gone, ^aa lion met him on the way and killed him, and his body was thrown on the road, with the donkey standing beside it; the lion also was standing beside the body.

25 And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown on the road, and the lion standing beside the body; so they came and told it in the city where ^athe old prophet lived.

26 ¶ Now when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard it, he said, "It is the man of God, who ¹disobeyed the ²command of the LORD; therefore the LORD has given him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him."

27 Then he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled it.

28 And he went and found his body thrown on the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the body; the lion had not eaten the body nor torn the donkey.

29 So the prophet took up the body of the man of God and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back and he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

31 And it came about after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I die, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones."

32 "For the thing shall surely come to pass which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria."

33 ¶ After this event Jeroboam did not return from his evil way, but again he made priests of the high places from among all the people; many who would, he ordained, to be priests of the high places.

34 And this event became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to blot it out and destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

AT that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Arise now, and disguise yourself so that they may not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh; behold, Ahijah the prophet is there, who spoke concerning me that I would be king over this people."

3 "And take ten loaves with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy."

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see for his eyes were dim because of his age.

5 Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Behold, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son, for he is sick. You shall say thus and thus to her, for it will be when she arrives that she will pretend to be another woman."

6 ¶ And it came about when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in the doorway, that he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam, why do you pretend to be another woman? For I am sent to you with a harsh message."

7 "Go, say to Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Because I exalted you from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel,

8 and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you—but yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My sight;

9 you also have done more evil than all who were before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger and have cast Me behind your back—

10 therefore behold, I am bringing calamity on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male person, both bond and free in Israel, and I will make a clear sweep of the house of Jeroboam as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone.

11 "Anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city the dogs will eat. And he who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat; for the LORD has spoken it."

12 "Now you arise, go to your house. ^aWhen your feet enter the city the child will die.

13 "And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for ¹he alone of Jeroboam's family shall come to the grave, because in him ^asomething good was found toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 "Moreover, ^athe LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam this day ¹and from now on.

15 "For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and ^aHe will uproot Israel from ^bthis good land which He gave to their fathers, and ^cwill scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, ^dbecause they have made their ¹Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 "And He will give up Israel ^aon account of the sins of Jeroboam, which he ¹committed and with which he made Israel to sin."

17 [¶] Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed and came to ^aTirzah. ^bAs she was entering the threshold of the house, the child died.

18 ^aAnd all Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 [¶] Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, ^ahow he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

20 And the time that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

21 [¶] Now Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ^bthe city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

22 ^aAnd Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they ^bprovoked Him to jealousy more than all that their fathers had done, with ¹the sins which they ²committed.

23 For they also built for themselves ^ahigh places and sacred ^bpillars and ^{1c}Asherim on every high hill and ^dbeneath every luxuriant tree.

24 And there were also ^amale cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

25 [¶] Now it came about in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, that Shishak the king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem.

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and ^ahe took everything, ^beven taking all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

27 So King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place, and ^acommitted them to the ¹care of the commanders of the ²guard who guarded the doorway of the king's house.

28 Then it happened as often as the king entered the house of the LORD, that the ¹guards would carry them and would bring them back into the ¹guards' room.

29 [¶] Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

30 ^aAnd there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and ^ahis mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. And Abijam his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 15

NOW in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was ^{1a}Maacah the daughter of ^{2b}Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father which he had committed before him; and ^ahis heart was not ¹wholly devoted to the LORD his God, like the heart of his father David.

4 But for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a ^alamp in Jerusalem, to raise up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem;

5 ^abecause David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, ^bexcept in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

6 ^aAnd there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 ¶ Now ^athe rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ^bAnd there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 ^aAnd Abijam slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son became king in his place.

9 ¶ So in the twentieth year of Jeroboam the king of Israel, Asa began to reign as king of Judah.

10 And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem; and ^ahis mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And ^aAsa did what was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father.

21 And it came about when Baasha heard of it that he ceased fortifying Ramah, and remained in Tirzah.

22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—none was exempt—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built. And King Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

23 ¶ Now the rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

25 Now Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father and in his sin which he made Israel sin.

27 Then Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.

28 So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

29 And it came about, as soon as he was king, he struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam any persons alive, until he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite.

which he made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 ¶ In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel at Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel sin.

CHAPTER 16

NOW the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

2 "Inasmuch as I exalted you from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made My people Israel sin, provoking Me to anger with their sins,

3 behold, I will consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 "Anyone of Baasha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat."

5 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

6 And Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son became king in his place.

7 Moreover, the word of the LORD through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani also came against Baasha and his household, both because of all the evil which he did in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with ^bthe work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because ^che struck ¹it.

8 ¶ In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel at Tirzah, and reigned two years.

9 And his servant ^aZimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was at Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, ^bwho was over the household at Tirzah.

10 Then Zimri went in and struck him and put him to death, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place.

11 And it came about, when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, that ^ahe ¹killed all the household of Baasha; he did not leave ²a single male, neither of his ³relatives nor of his friends.

12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, ^aaccording to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha through ^bJehu the prophet.

13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and which they made Israel sin, ^aprovoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their ¹idols.

14 ^aNow the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

15 ¶ In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days at Tirzah. Now the people were camped against ^aGibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people who were camped heard ¹it said, "Zimri has conspired and has also struck down the king." Therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came about, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire, and ^adied.

19 because of his sins which he sinned, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, ^awalking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, making Israel sin.

20 ^aNow the rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy which he ¹carried out, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

21 ¶ Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; the other half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri became king.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years; he reigned six years at ^aTirzah.

24 And he bought the hill ¹Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and named the city which he built ¹aSamaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.

25 And ^aOmri did evil in the sight of the LORD, and ^bacted more wickedly than all who were before him.

26 For he ^awalked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sins which he made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel with their ¹idols.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did and his might which he ¹showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son became king in his place.

29 ¶ Now Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD ^amore than all who were before him.

31 And it came about, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that ^ahe married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the ^bSidonians, and went to serve Baal and worshiped him.

32 So he erected an altar for Baal in ^athe house of Baal, which he built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab also made ^athe ¹Asherah. Thus ^bAhab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

34 ^aIn his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho; he laid its foundations with the loss of Abiram his first-born, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER 17

NOW Elijah the Tishbite, who was of ^{1a}the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab, "^bAs the LORD, the God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, surely ^cthere shall be neither dew nor rain these years, except by my word."

5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, which is ¹east of the Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he would drink from the brook.

7 And it happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

8 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

9 "Arise, go to ^aZarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there; behold, ^bI have commanded a widow there to provide for you."

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and ^ahe called to her and said, "Please get me a little water in a ¹jar, that I may drink."

11 And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

12 But she said, "^aAs the LORD your God lives, ^bI have no ¹bread, only a handful of flour in the ²bowl and a little oil in the jar, and behold, I am gathering ^{3a}a few sticks that I may go in and prepare for me and my son, that we may eat it and ^cdie."

13 Then Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go, do as you have said, but make me a little bread cake from ¹it first, and bring it out to me, and afterward you may make one for yourself and for your son.

14 "For thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'The ¹bowl of flour shall not be exhausted, nor shall the jar of oil ²be empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the face of the earth.' "

15 So she went and did according to the word of Elijah, and she and he and her household ate for many days.

16 The ¹bowl of flour was not exhausted nor did the jar of oil ²become empty, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through Elijah.

17 ¶ Now it came about after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his sickness was so severe, that there was no breath left in him.

18 So she said to Elijah, "What do I have to do with you, O ¹man of God? ¹You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance, and to put my son to death!"

19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." Then he took him from her bosom and carried him up to the upper room where he was living, and laid him on his own bed.

20 And he called to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, hast Thou also brought calamity to the widow with whom I am ¹staying, by causing her son to die?"

21 ^aThen he stretched himself upon the child three times, and called to the LORD, and said, "O LORD my God, I pray Thee, let this child's life return ¹to him."

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, ^aand the life of the child returned ¹to him and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, "See, your son is alive."

24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a

CHAPTER 18

NOW it came about ^aafter many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab, and ^bI will send rain on the face of the earth."

2 So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah ^awho was over the household. (Now Obadiah ^bfeared the LORD greatly;

4 for it came about, ^awhen Jezebel ¹destroyed the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave, and ^bprovided them with bread and water.)

5 Then Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys; perhaps we will find grass and keep the horses and mules alive, and not ¹have to kill some of the cattle."

6 So they divided the land between them to ¹survey it; Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 ¶ Now as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah ¹met him, ^aand he recognized him and fell on his face and said, "Is this you, Elijah my master?"

8 And he said to him, "It is I. Go, say to your master, 'Behold, Elijah is here.' "

9 And he said, "What ¹sin have I committed, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab, to put me to death?"

10 ^aAs the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to search for you; and when they said, 'He is not ¹here,' he made the kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you.

11 "And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your master, "Behold, Elijah is here."'

12 "And it will come about when I leave you ^athat the Spirit of the LORD will carry you where I do not know; so when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I your servant have ¹fear^{ed} the LORD from my youth.

13 "Has it not been told to my master what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, that I hid ^{1a}a hundred prophets of the LORD by fifties in a cave, and provided them with bread and water?

14 "And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your master, "Behold, Elijah is here"': he will then kill me."

15 And Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."

16 ¶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came about, when Ahab saw Elijah that ^aAhab said to him, "Is this you, you troubler of Israel?"

18 And he said, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, because ^ayou have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and ^byou have followed the Baals.

19 "Now then send and gather to me all Israel at ^aMount Carmel, ^btogether with 450 prophets of Baal and 400 prophets of ^cthe Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

20 ¶ So Ahab sent a message among all the sons of Israel, and brought the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came near to all the people and said, "How long will you ¹hesitate between two opinions? ^bIf the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him." But the people did not answer him a word.

22 Then Elijah said to the people, "I ^aalone am left a prophet of the LORD, but Baal's prophets are ^b450 men.

23 "Now let them give us two oxen; and let them choose one ox for themselves and cut it up, and place it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other ox, and lay it on the wood, and I will not put a fire under it.

24 "Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD, and ^athe God who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people answered and said, "That is a good idea."

25 ¶ So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one ox for yourselves and prepare it first for you are many, and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

26 Then they took the ox which ¹was given them and they prepared it and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon saying, "O Baal, answer us." But there was ^ano voice and no one answered. And they ²leaped about the altar which ³they made.

27 And it came about at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Call out with a loud voice, for he is a god; either he is occupied or gone aside, or is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and needs to be awakened."

28 So they cried with a loud voice and ^acut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until the blood gushed out on them.

29 And it came about when midday was past, that they ¹raved ^auntil the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice; but there was no voice, no one answered, and no ²one paid attention.

30 ¶ Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. And ^ahe repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name."

32 So with the stones he built an altar in ^athe name of the LORD, and he made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold two ¹measures of seed.

33 ^aThen he arranged the wood and cut the ox in pieces and laid it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four pitchers with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood."

34 And he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.

35 And the water flowed around the altar, and he also filled the trench with water.

36 Then it came about ^aat the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "^bO LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, today let it be known that ^cThou art God in Israel, and that I am Thy servant, and ^dthat I have done all these things at Thy word.

37 "Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that Thou, O LORD, art God, and that Thou hast turned their heart back again."

38 Then the ^afire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, "The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God."

40 Then Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; do not let one of them escape." So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to ^athe brook Kishon, ^band slew them there.

41 ¶ Now Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of the roar of a heavy shower."

42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of ^aCarmel; and he ^bcrouched down on the earth, and put his face between his knees.

43 And he said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." So he went up and looked and said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go back" seven times.

44 And it came about at the seventh time, that he said, "Behold, ^aa cloud as small as a man's hand is coming up from the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, '¹Prepare your chariot and go down, so that the heavy shower does not stop you.'"

45 So it came about in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy shower. And Ahab rode and went to ^aJezreel.

46 Then ^athe hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and ^bhe girded up his loins and ¹outran Ahab ²to Jezreel.

CHAPTER 19

NOW Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and ¹how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "^aSo may the gods do to me and even more, if I do not make your ¹life as the ¹life of one of them by tomorrow about this time."

3 And he ¹was afraid and arose and ran for his ²life and came to ^aBeersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a ¹juniper tree; and ^ahe requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take my ²life, for I am not better than my fathers."

5 And he lay down and slept under a ¹juniper tree; and behold, there was ^aan angel touching him, and he said to him, "Arise, eat."

6 Then he looked and behold, there was at his head a bread cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank and lay down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again a second time and touched him and said, "Arise, eat, because the journey is too great for you."

8 So he arose and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food ^aforty days and forty nights to ^bHoreb, the mountain of God.

9 ¶ Then he came there to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, ^athe word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

10 And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, ^btorn down Thine altars and killed Thy prophets with the sword. And ^cI alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

11 So He said, "Go forth, and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD was passing by! And ^ba great and strong wind was rending the mountains and breaking in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. 12 And after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire ^aa sound of a gentle blowing.

13 And it came about when Elijah heard it, that ^ahe wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, ^ba voice came to him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

14 Then he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, torn down Thine altars and killed Thy prophets with the sword. And I alone am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

15 ¶ And the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you have arrived, ^ayou shall anoint Hazael king over Aram;

16 and ^aJehu the son of Nimshi you shall anoint king over Israel; and ^bElisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place.

17 "And it shall come about, the ^aone who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu ^bshall put to death, and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall put to death.

18 "Yet I will leave 7,000 in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal and every mouth that has not ^bkissed him."

19 ¶ So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, while he was plowing with twelve pairs of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him and threw ^ahis mantle on him.

20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, "Please ^alet me kiss my father and my mother, then I will follow you." And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"

21 So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and ^aboiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah and ministered to him.

CHAPTER 20

NOW ^aBen-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army, ^band there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and ^cbesieged Samaria, and fought against it.

2 Then he sent messengers to the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-hadad,

3 'Your silver and your gold are mine; your most beautiful wives and children are also mine.' "

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "It is according to your word, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have."

5 Then the messengers returned and said, "Thus says ¹Ben-hadad, 'Surely, I sent to you saying, "You shall give me your silver and your gold and your wives and your children," 6 but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and it shall come about, ¹whatever is desirable in your eyes, they will ²take in their hand and carry away.' "

7 ¶ Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, "Please observe and ^asee how this man is looking for trouble; for he sent to me for my wives and my children and my silver and my gold, and I did not refuse him."

8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

10 And Ben-hadad sent to him and said, "May ^athe gods do so to me and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who ¹follow me."

11 Then the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, ^aLet not him who girds on his armor boast like him who takes it off.' "

12 And it came about when Ben-hadad heard this message, as ^ahe was drinking ¹with the kings in the ²temporary shelters, that he said to his servants, "Station yourselves." So they stationed themselves against the city.

13 ¶ Now behold, a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, ^aI will deliver them into your hand today, and ^byou shall know that I am the LORD.' "

14 And Ahab said, "By whom?" So he said, "Thus says the LORD, 'By the young men of the rulers of the provinces.' " Then he said, "Who shall ¹begin the battle?" And he ²answered, "You."

15 Then he mustered the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and there were 232; and after them he mustered all the people, even all the sons of Israel, 7,000.

16 ¶ And they went out at noon, while ^aBen-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the ¹temporary shelters ²with the thirty-two kings who helped him.

17 And the young men of the rulers of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out and they told him, saying, "Men have come out from Samaria."

18 ^aThen he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19 So these went out from the city, the young men of the rulers of the provinces, and the army which followed them.

20 And they ¹killed each his man; and the Arameans fled, and Israel pursued them, and Ben-hadad king of Aram escaped on a horse with horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out and ¹struck the horses and chariots, and ¹killed the Arameans with a great slaughter.

22 ¶ Then ^athe prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself and observe and see what you have to do; for ^bat the turn of the year the king of Aram will come up against you."

23 Now the servants of the king of Aram said to him, "^aTheir gods are gods of the mountains, therefore they were stronger than we; but rather let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they."

24 "And do this thing: remove the kings, each from his place, and put captains in their place, 25 and ¹muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so.

26 ¶ So it came about ^aat the turn of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to ^bAphek to fight against Israel.

27 And the sons of Israel were mustered and were provisioned and went to meet them; and the sons of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of goats, ^abut the Arameans filled the country.

28 Then ^aa man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because the Arameans have said, "^bThe LORD is a god of the mountains, but He is not a god of the valleys"; therefore ^cI will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

29 So they camped one over against the other seven days. And it came about that on the seventh day, the battle was joined, and the sons of Israel ¹killed of the Arameans 100,000 foot soldiers in one day.

30 But the rest fled to ^aAphek into the city, and the wall fell on 27,000 men who were left. And Ben-hadad fled and came into the city ^binto an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And ^ahis servants said to him, "Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings, please let us ^bput sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will save your ¹life."

32 So ^athey girded sackcloth on their loins and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "^bYour servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please let me live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

33 Now the men ¹took this as an omen, and quickly ²catching his word said, "Your brother Ben-hadad." Then he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben-hadad came out to him, and he ³took him up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said to him, "^aThe cities which my father took from your father I will restore, and you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria." Ahab said, "And I will let you go with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

35 ¶ Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to another by the word of the LORD, "Please strike me." But the man refused to strike him.

36 Then he said to him, "Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion will kill you." And as soon as he had departed from him a lion found him, and killed him.

37 Then he found another man and said, "Please strike me." And the man struck him, wounding him.

38 So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man; if for any reason he is missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'

40 "And while your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." And the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

41 Then he hastily took the bandage away from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

43 So the king of Israel went to his house sullen and vexed, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER 21

NOW it came about after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in Jezreel beside the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spoke to Naboth saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden because it is close beside my house, and I will give you a better vineyard than it in its place; if you like, I will give you the price of it in money."

3 But Naboth said to Ahab "The LORD forbid me that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

4 So Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed and turned away his face and ate no food.

5 ¶ But Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, "How is it that your spirit is so sullen that you are not eating food?"

6 So he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you a vineyard in its place.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

7 And Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now reign over Israel? Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be joyful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and sent letters to the elders and to the nobles who were living with Naboth in his city.

9 Now she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the people;

10 and seat two ^aworthless men before him, and let them testify against him, saying, ^b"You cursed God and the king." Then take him out and ^cstone him ¹to death."

11 ¶ So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent them.

12 They ^aproclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people.

13 Then the two worthless men came in and sat before him; and the worthless men testified against him, even against Naboth, before the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king." ^aSo they took him outside the city and stoned him ¹to death with stones.

14 Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and is dead."

15 And it came about when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

16 And it came about when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18 "Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, ^awho is in Samaria; behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth where he has gone down to take possession of it.

28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, say-

CHAPTER 22

AND ¹three years passed without war between Aram and Israel.

2 ^aAnd it came about in the third year, that ^bJehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 Now the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that ^aRamoth-gilead belongs to us, and we ¹are still doing nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram?"

4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?" And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "^aI am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

5 ¶ Moreover, Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire ¹first for the word of the LORD."

6 Then ^athe king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle or shall I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king."

7 But ^aJehoshaphat said, "Is there not yet a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of him?"

8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah." But Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "¹Bring quickly Micaiah son of Imlah."

10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and ^aall the prophets were prophesying before them.

11 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made ^ahorns of iron for himself and said, "Thus says the LORD, ^b'With these you shall gore the Arameans until they are consumed.'"

12 And all the prophets were prophesying thus, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and prosper, for the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

13 ¶ Then the messenger who went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, "Behold now, the words of the prophets are uniformly favorable to the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably."

14 But Micaiah said, "^aAs the LORD lives, what ^bthe LORD says to me, that I will speak."

15 When he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?" And he ¹answered him, "^aGo up and succeed, and the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

16 Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

17 So he said,

"I saw all Israel
Scattered on the mountains,

^aLike sheep which have no shepherd.

And the LORD said, 'These have no master.

Let each of them return to his house in peace.'"

18 Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

19 And Micaiah said, "Therefore, hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right and on His left.

20 "And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And one said this while another said that.

21 "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, 'I will entice him.'

22 "And the LORD said to him, 'How?' And he said, 'I will go out and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said, 'You are to entice him and also prevail. Go and do so.'

23 "Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has proclaimed disaster against you."

24 ¶ Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak to you?"

25 And Micaiah said, "Behold, you shall see on that day when you enter an inner room to hide yourself."

26 Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son;

27 and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this man in prison, and feed him sparingly with bread and water until I return safely."'

28 And Micaiah said, "If you indeed return safely the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Listen, all you people."

29 ¶ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

31 Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, "Do not fight with small or great, but with the king of Israel alone."

32 So it came about, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel," and they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 Then it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 ¶ Now a certain man drew his bow at random and struck the king of Israel in a joint of the armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around, and take me out of the fight; for I am severely wounded."

35 And the battle raged that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot in front of the Arameans, and died at evening, and the blood from the wound ran into the bottom of the chariot.

36 Then a cry passed throughout the army close to sunset, saying, "Every man to his city and every man to his country."

37 ¶ So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And they washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood (now the harlots bathed themselves there), according to the word of the LORD which He spoke.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house which he built and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

41 ¶ Now Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing right in the sight of the LORD. However, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense on the high places.

44 Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.

45 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat was not willing.

50 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS

Ahaziah's Messengers Meet Elijah

NOW Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 And Ahaziah fell through the lattice in his upper chamber which was in Samaria, and became ill. So he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this sickness."

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?'

4 "Now therefore thus says the LORD, 'You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'" Then Elijah departed.

5 ¶ When the messengers returned to him he said to them, "Why have you returned?"

6 And they said to him, "A man came up to meet us and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you and say to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.''"

7 And he said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?"

8 And they answered him, "He was a hairy man with a leather girdle bound about his loins." And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

9 ¶ Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him, and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he said to him, "O man of God, the king says, 'Come down.'"

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

11 So he again sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, "O man of God, thus says the king, 'Come down quickly.'"

12 And Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty." Then the fire of God

13 So he again sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. When the third captain of fifty went up, he came and bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and begged him and said to him, "O man of God, please let my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight."

14 Behold fire came down from heaven, and consumed the first two captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight."

15 And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.

16 Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron—is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word?—therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.'"

17 ¶ So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And because he had no son, Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

CHAPTER 2

AND it came about when the LORD was about to take up Elijah by a whirlwind to heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here please, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

3 Then ^athe sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over ¹you today?" And he said, "Yes, I know; be still."

4 And Elijah said to him, "Elisha, please ^astay here, for the LORD has sent me to ^bJericho." But he said, "^cAs the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

5 And ^athe sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, "^bDo you know that the LORD will take away your master from over ¹you today?" And he ²answered, "Yes, I know; be still."

6 Then Elijah said to him, "Please ^astay here, for the LORD has sent me to ^bthe Jordan." And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on.

7 ¶ Now ^afifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan.

8 And Elijah ^atook his mantle and folded it together and ^bstruck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

9 Now it came about when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you." And Elisha said, "Please, let a ^adouble portion of your spirit be upon me."

10 And he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you ^asee me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."

11 Then it came about as they were going along and talking, that behold, there appeared ^aa chariot of fire and horses of fire which separated the two off them. And Elijah went up by ^aa whirlwind to heaven.

12 And Elisha saw it and cried out, "^aMy father, my father, the ¹chariots of Israel and its horse-men!" And he saw him no more. Then ^bhe took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

13 He also took up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and returned and stood by the bank of the Jordan.

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters and said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" And when he also had ^astruck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha crossed over.

15 ¶ Now when ^athe sons of the prophets who were at Jericho opposite him saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said to him, "Behold now, there are with you servants fifty strong men, please let them go and search for your master; ¹perhaps ^athe Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "You shall not send."

17 But when ^athey urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send." They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched three days, but did not find him.

18 And they returned to him while he was staying at Jericho; and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go?'"

19 ¶ Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Behold now, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land ¹is unfruitful."

20 And he said, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt ¹in it." So they brought it to him.

21 And he went out to the spring of water, and ^athrew salt ¹in it and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I have ²purified these waters; there shall not be from there death or ³unfruitfulness any longer.'"

22 So the waters have been ¹purified to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

23 ¶ Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, young lads came out from the city and ^amocked him and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead!"

24 When he looked behind him and saw them, he ^acurled them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two lads of ¹their number.

25 And he went from there to ^aMount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER 3

NOW Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria ^ain the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and his mother; for ^ahe put away the sacred pillar of Baal ^bwhich his father had made.

3 Nevertheless, ^ahe clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, ^bwhich he made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4 ¶ Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder, and ^aused to pay the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams.

5 But it came about, ^awhen Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And King Jehoram went out of Samaria ¹at that time and mustered all Israel.

7 Then he went and sent word to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?" And he said, "I will go up; ^aI am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8 And he said, "Which way shall we go up?" And he ¹answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom."

9 So ^athe king of Israel went with ^bthe king of Judah and ^cthe king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey, and there was no water for the army or for the cattle that followed them.

10 Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

11 But Jehoshaphat said, "^aIs there not a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?" And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, "^bElisha the son of Shaphat is here, ^cwho used to pour water on the hands of Elijah."

12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 ¶ Now Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What do I have to do with you? ^aGo to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother." And the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to give them into the hand of Moab."

14 And Elisha said, "^aAs the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you.

15 "But now ^abring me a minstrel." And it came about, when the minstrel played, that ^bthe hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Make this valley full of trenches.'

17 "For thus says the LORD, 'You shall not see wind nor shall you see rain; yet that valley ^ashall be filled with water, so that you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your beasts.

18 'And this is but a ^aslight thing in the sight of the LORD; He shall also give the Moabites into your hand.

19 'Then you shall strike every fortified city and every choice city, and fell every good tree and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.' "

20 And it happened in the morning ^aabout the time of offering the sacrifice, that behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 ¶ Now all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them. And all who were able to ¹put on armor and older were summoned, and stood on the border.

22 And they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.

23 Then they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely fought together, and they have slain one another. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

24 But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites arose and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward ¹into the land, ²slaughtering the Moabites.

25 ^aThus they destroyed the cities; and each one threw a stone on every piece of good land and filled it. So they stopped all the springs of water and felled all the good trees, until in ^bKir-hareseth only they left its stones; however, the slingers went about it and struck it.

26 When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him 700 men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.

27 Then he took his oldest son who was to reign in his place and ^aoffered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And there came great wrath against Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4

NOW a certain woman of the wives of ^athe sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD; and ^bthe creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves."

2 And Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house except ^aa jar of oil."

3 Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels at large for yourself from all your neighbors, even empty vessels; do not get a few.

4 "And you shall go in and shut the door behind you and you sons, and pour out into all these vessels; and you shall set aside what is full."

5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons; they were bringing the vessels to her and she poured.

6 And it came about when ^athe vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not one vessel more." And the oil stopped.

7 Then she came and told ^athe man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on the rest."

8 ^a Now there came a day when Elisha passed over to ^aShunem, where there was a ¹prominent woman, and she persuaded him to eat ²food. And so it was, as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat ²food.

9 And she said to her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy ^aman of God passing by us continually.

10 "Please, let us ^amake a little walled upper chamber and let us set a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he can turn in there."

11 ¹One day he came there and turned in to the upper chamber and ²rested.

12 Then he said to ^aGehazi his servant, "Call this Shunamite." And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Behold, you have been ¹careful for us with all this ²care; what can I do for you? Would you be spoken for to the king or to the captain of the army?' " And she ³answered, "I live among my own people."

14 So he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gehazi ¹answered, "Truly she has no son and her husband is old."

15 And he said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

16 Then he said, "^aAt this season ¹next year you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord, O man of God, ^bdo not lie to your maidservant."

17 And the woman conceived and bore a son at that season ¹the next year, as Elisha had said to her.

18 ¹ When the child was grown, the day came that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said to his father, "My head, my head." And he said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."

20 When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her ¹lap until noon, and then died.

21 And she went up and ^alaid him on the bed of ^bthe man of God, and shut the door behind him, and went out.

22 Then she called to her husband and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and return."

23 And he said, "Why will you go to him today? It is neither ^anew moon nor sabbath." And she said, "It will be well."

24 Then she saddled a donkey and said to her servant, "Drive and go forward; do not slow down ¹the pace for me unless I tell you."

25 So she went and came to the man of God to ^aMount Carmel. And it came about when the man of God saw her at a distance, that he said to Gehazi his servant, "Behold, ¹yonder is the Shunamite.

26 "Please run now to meet her and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?' " And she ¹answered, "It is well."

27 When she came to the man of God ^ato the hill, she caught hold of his feet. And Gehazi came near to push her away; but the man of God said, "Let her alone, for her soul is ¹troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me."

28 Then she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me?'"

29 ¶ Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go your way; if you meet any man, do not salute him, and if anyone salutes you, do not answer him; and lay my staff on the lad's face."

30 And the mother of the lad said, "As the LORD lives and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." And he arose and followed her.

31 Then Gehazi passed on before them and laid the staff on the lad's face, but there was neither sound nor response. So he returned to meet him and told him, "The lad has not awakened."

32 When Elisha came into the house, behold the lad was dead and laid on his bed.

33 So he entered and shut the door behind them both, and prayed to the LORD.

34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child became warm.

35 Then he returned and walked in the house once back and forth, and went up and stretched himself on him; and the lad sneezed seven times and the lad opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Take up your son."

37 Then she went in and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground, and she took up her son and went out.

38 ¶ When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

39 Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, for they did not know what they were.

40 So they poured it out for the men to eat. And it came about as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out and said, "O man of God, there is death in the pot." And they were unable to eat.

41 But he said, "Now bring meal." And he threw it into the pot, and he said, "Pour it out for the people that they may eat." Then there was no harm in the pot.

42 ¶ Now a man came from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. And he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat."

43 And his attendant said, "What, shall I set this before a hundred men?" But he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left over.'"

44 So he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

NOW Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man with his master, and highly respected, because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man was also a valiant warrior, but he was a leper.

2 Now the Arameans had gone out in bands, and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said to her mistress, "I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his leprosy."

4 And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus spoke the girl who is from the land of Israel."

5 Then the king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." And he departed and took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold and ten changes of clothes.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "And now as this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may cure him of his leprosy."

7 And it came about when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? But consider now, and see how he is seeking a quarrel against me."

8 And it happened when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent word to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Now let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

9 So Naaman came with his horses and his chariots, and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you and you shall be clean."

11 But Naaman was furious and went away and said, "Behold, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and 12 "Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 "Then his servants came near and spoke to him and said, "My father, had the prophet told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

14 So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 ¶ When he returned to the man of God with all his company, and came and stood before him, he said, "Behold now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel; so please take a present from your servant now."

16 But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will take nothing." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, "If not, please let your servant at least be given two mules' load of earth; for your servant will no more offer burnt offering nor will he sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.

18 "In this matter may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon your servant in this matter."

19 And he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him some distance.

20 ¶ But ^aGehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, ¹thought, "Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean, ²by not receiving from his hands what he brought. ^bAs the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him."

21 So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him and said, "Is all well?"

22 And he said, "^aAll is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Behold, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from ^bthe hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and ^ctwo changes of clothes.'"

23 And Naaman said, "^aBe pleased to take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes, and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them before him.

24 When he came to the ¹hill, he took them from their hand and ^adeposited them in the house, and he sent the men away, and they departed.

25 But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" And he said, "^aYour servant went nowhere."

26 Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? ^aIs it a time to receive money and to receive clothes and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and oxen and male and female servants?"

27 "Therefore, the leprosy of Naaman shall cleave to you and to your ¹descendants forever." So he went out from his presence ^aa leper as white as snow.

CHAPTER 6

NOW ^athe sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Behold, now, the place before you where we are living is too limited for us."

2 "Please let us go to the Jordan and each of us take from there a beam, and let us make a place there for ourselves where we may live." So he said, "Go."

3 Then one said, "Please be willing to go with your servants." And he ¹answered, "I shall go."

4 So he went with them; and when they came to the Jordan they cut down trees.

5 But as one was felling a beam, ¹the axe head fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, my master! For it was borrowed."

6 Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And when he showed him the place, ^ahe cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

7 And he said, "Take it up for yourself." So he put out his hand and took it.

8 ¶ Now the king of Aram was warring against Israel; and he ¹counseled with his servants saying, "In such and such a place shall be my camp."

9 And ^athe man of God sent word to the king of Israel saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Arameans are coming down there."

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place about which the man of God had told him; thus he warned him, so that he guarded himself there, ¹more than once or twice.

11 Now the heart of the king of Aram was enraged over this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12 And one of his servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13 So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and take him." And it was told him, saying, "Behold, he is in ^aDothan."

14 And he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 ¶ Now when the attendant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was circling the city. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! ¹What shall we do?"

16 So he ¹answered, "^aDo not fear, for ^bthose who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17 Then Elisha prayed and said, "^aO LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." And the LORD opened the servant's eyes, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of ^bhorses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, "Strike this ¹people with blindness, I pray." So He ^astruck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 Then Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city; follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." And he brought them to Samaria.

20 ¶ And it came about when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, "^aO LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." So the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 Then the king of Israel when he saw them, said to Elisha, "^aMy father, shall I ¹kill them? Shall I ¹kill them?"

22 And he ¹answered, "You shall not ²kill them. Would you ^{2a}kill those you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? ^bSet bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master."

23 So he prepared a great feast for them; and when they had eaten and drunk he sent them away, and they went to their master. And ^athe marauding bands of Arameans did not come again into the land of Israel.

24 ¶ Now it came about after this, that ^aBen-hadad king of Aram gathered all his army and went up and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great ^afamine in Samaria; and behold, they besieged it, until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and a fourth of a ¹kab of dove's dung for five shekels of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27 And he said, "¹If the LORD does not help you, from where shall I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the wine press?"

28 And the king said to her, "^aWhat ¹is the matter with you?" And she ²answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'"

29 "^aSo we boiled my son and ate him; and I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

30 And it came about when the king heard the words of the woman, that ^ahe tore his clothes—now he was passing by on the wall—and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth ¹beneath on his ²body.

31 Then he said, "May ^aGod do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat ¹remains on him today."

32 ¶ Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and ^athe elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man from his presence; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you ^bsee how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and ¹hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33 And while he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him, and he said, "^aBehold, this evil is from the LORD; why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

CHAPTER 7

THEN Elisha said, "Listen to the word of the LORD; thus says the LORD, '^aTomorrow about this time a ¹measure of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.'"

2 And ^athe royal officer on whose hand the king was leaning answered the man of God and said, "Behold, ^bif the LORD should make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" Then he said, "Behold you shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat ¹of it."

3 ¶ Now there were four ^aleperous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why do we sit here until we die?"

4 "If we say, 'We will enter the city,' then the famine is in the city and we shall die there; and if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us ¹go over to ^athe camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die."

5 And they arose at twilight to go to the camp of the Arameans; when they came to the outskirts of the camp of the Arameans, behold, there was no one there.

6 For ^athe Lord had caused the army of the Arameans to hear a sound of chariots and a sound of horses, even the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, "Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us ^bthe kings of the Hittites and ^cthe kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us."

7 Therefore they ^aarose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents and their horses and their donkeys, even the camp just as it was, and fled for their life.

8 When these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they entered one tent and ate and drank, and ^acarried from there silver and gold and clothes, and went and hid ^{them}; and they returned and entered another tent and carried from there ^{also}, and went and hid ^{them}.

9 ¶ Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping silent; if we wait until morning light, punishment will ¹overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

10 So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Arameans, and behold, there was no one there, nor the voice of man, only the horses tied and the donkeys tied, and the tents just as they were."

11 And the gatekeepers called, and told ^{it} within the king's household.

12 Then the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "I will now tell you what the Arameans have done to us. They Behold, they will be in any case like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they will be in any case like all the multitude of Israel who have already perished, so let us send and see."

14 They took therefore two chariots with horses, and the king sent after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see."

15 And they went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the way was full of clothes and equipment, which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and told the king.

16 ^a So the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. Then a ¹measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel and two ¹measures of barley for a shekel, ^aaccording to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

NOW ^aElisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go ¹with your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn; for the ^bLORD has called for a famine, and ^cit shall even come on the land for seven years."

2 So the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God, and she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came about at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went out to ¹appeal to the king for her house and for her field.

4 Now the king was talking with ^aGehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please relate to me all the great things that Elisha has done."

5 And it came about, as he was relating to the king ^ahow he had restored to life the one who was dead, that behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life, ¹appealed to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

6 When the king asked the woman, she related it to him. So the king appointed for her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers and all the produce of the field from the day that she left the land even until now."

7 ¶ Then Elisha came to ^aDamascus. Now ^bBen-hadad king of Aram was sick, and it was told him, saying, "^cThe man of God has come here."

8 And the king said to ^aHazael, "^bTake a gift in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and ^cinquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

9 So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift in his hand, even every kind of good thing of Damascus, forty camels' loads; and he came and stood before him and said, "^aYour son Ben-hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

10 Then Elisha said to him, "^aGo, say to him, 'You shall surely recover,' but the ^bLORD has shown me that he will certainly die."

11 And he ¹fixed his gaze steadily on him ^auntil he was ashamed, and ^bthe man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, "Why does my lord weep?" Then he ¹answered, "Because ^aI know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel: their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword, and their little ones you ^bwill dash in pieces, and their women with child you will rip up."

13 Then Hazael said, "But what is your servant, ^awho is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?" And Elisha ¹answered, "^bThe LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

14 So he departed from Elisha and returned to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he ¹answered, "He told me that ^ayou would surely recover."

and dipped it in water and spread it on his face, ^aso that he died. And Hazael became king in his place.

16 ¶ Now in the fifth year of ^aJoram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then the king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king.

17 He was ^athirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for ^athe daughter of Ahab became his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 However, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, ^asince He had ¹promised him to give a ²lamp to him through his sons always.

20 ¶ In his days ^aEdom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 Then Joram crossed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him. And it came about that he arose by night and struck the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; ^abut his ¹army fled to their tents.

22 ^aSo Edom revolted ¹against Judah to this day. Then ^bLibnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

24 So Joram slept with his fathers, and ^awas buried with his fathers in the city of David; and ^bAhaziah his son became king in his place.

25 ¶ ^aIn the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.

26 *Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And *he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab had done, because he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28 Then he went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against *Hazeel king of Aram at ^bRamoth-gilead, and the Arameans ¹wounded Joram.

29 So *King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had ¹inflicted on him at ^bRamah, when he fought against Hazeel king of Aram. Then ^cAhaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was sick.

CHAPTER 9

NOW Elisha the prophet called one of *the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Gird up your loins, and ^ctake this flask of oil in your hand, and go to ^dRamoth-gilead.

2 "When you arrive there, ¹search out *Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in and ^{2b}bid him arise from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room.

3 "Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, 'Thus says the LORD, "I have anointed you king over Israel." ' Then open the door and flee and do not wait."

4 So *the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 When he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting, and he said, "I have a word for you, O captain." And Jehu said, "For which one of us?"

And he said, "For you, O captain."

6 And he arose and went into the house, and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 'And you shall strike the house of Ahab your master, ^athat I may avenge ^bthe blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, ^cat the hand of Jezebel.

8 'For the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and ^aI will cut off from Ahab ^bevery male person ^cboth bond and free in Israel.

9 'And ^aI will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and ^blike the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.

10 'And ^athe dogs shall eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and none shall bury her.' " Then he opened the door and fled.

11 ¶ Now Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this ^bmad fellow come to you?" And he said to them, "You know very well the man and his talk."

12 And they said, "It is a lie, tell us now." And he said, "Thus and thus he said to me, 'Thus says the LORD, "I have anointed you king over Israel." ' "

13 Then ^athey hurried and each man took his garment and placed it under him on the bare steps, and ^bblew the trumpet, saying, "Jehu is king!"

14 ¶ So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. ^aNow Joram ¹with all Israel was ²defending Ramoth-gilead against Hazeel king of Aram.

15 but *King ¹Joram had returned to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds which the Arameans had ²inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said, "If this is your mind, then let no one escape or³ leave the city to go tell it in Jezreel."

16 Then Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there. ^aAnd Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17 ¶ Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and he saw the ¹company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a ¹company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman and send him to meet them and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18 So a horseman went to meet him and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me." And the watchman ¹reported, "The messenger came to them, but he did not return."

19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu ¹answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn behind me."

20 And the watchman ¹reported, "He came even to them, and he did not return; and ^athe driving is like the driving of ^bJehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously."

21 ¶ Then ¹Joram said, "²Get ready." And they made his chariot ready. ^aAnd ¹Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu and found him in the ^{3b}property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came about, when ¹Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he ²answered, "What peace, ^aso long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?"

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

"^aThere is treachery, O Ahaziah!"

24 And ^aJehu ¹drew his bow with his full strength and ²shot Joram between his arms; and the arrow went ⁴through his heart, and he sank in his chariot.

25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, "Take him up and ^acast him into the ¹property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite, for I remember when ²you and I were riding together after Ahab his father, that the ^bLORD laid this ^coracle against him:

26 'Surely ^aI have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD 'and ^bI will repay you in this ¹property,' says the LORD. Now then, take and cast him into the ¹property, according to the word of the LORD."

27 ¶ ^aWhen Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued him and said, "Shoot him too, in the chariot." So they shot him at the ascent of Gur, which is at ^bIbleam. But he fled to Megiddo and died there.

28 ^aThen his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

29 ¶ Now in ^athe eleventh year of Joram, the son of Ahab Ahaziah became king over Judah.

30 ¶ When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and ^ashe painted her eyes and adorned her head, and looked out the window.

31 And as Jehu entered the gate, she said, "^aIs it ¹well, Zimri ²your master's murderer?"

32 Then he lifted up his face to the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" And two of three officials looked down at him.

33 And he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down and some of her blood was sprinkled kled on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her under foot.

34 When he came in, he ate and drank; and he said, "See now to ^athis cursed woman and bury her, for ^bshe is a king's daughter."

35 And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.

36 Therefore they returned and told him. And he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, '^aIn the ¹property of Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;

37 and ^athe corpse of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the ¹property of Jezreel, so they cannot say, 'This is Jezebel.'"

CHAPTER 10

NOW Ahab had seventy sons in ^aSamaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of the children of Ahab, saying,

2 "And now, ^awhen this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, ¹as well as the chariots and horses and a fortified city and the weapons,

3 select the best and ¹fittest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

4 But they feared greatly and said, "Behold, ^athe two kings did not stand before him; how then can we stand?"

5 And the one who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders, and the guardians of the children, sent word to Jehu, saying, "^aWe are your servants, all that you say to us we will do, we will not make any man king; do what is good in your sight."

6 Then he wrote a letter to them a second time saying, "If you are on my side, and you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow about this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them.

7 And it came about when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and ^aslaughtered them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him at Jezreel.

8 When the messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

9 Now it came about in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are ¹innocent; behold, ^aI conspired against my master and killed him, but ^bwho ²killed all these?"

10 "Know then that ^athere shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done ^bwhat He spoke ¹through His servant Elijah."

11 So Jehu ¹killed all who remained of the house of Ahab in ^aJezreel, and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, until he left him without a survivor.

12 ¹ Then he arose and departed, and went to Samaria. On the way while he was at ¹Beth-eked of the shepherds,

13 ^aJehu ¹met the ²relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, "Who are you?" And they ³answered, "We are the ²relatives of Ahaziah; and we have come down ⁴to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

14 And he said, "Take them alive." So they took them alive, and killed them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

15 ¶ Now when he had departed from there, he ¹met ^aJehonadab the son of ^bRechab coming to meet him; and he ²greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?" And Jehonadab ³answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, ^cgive me your hand." And he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, "Come with me and ^asee my zeal for the LORD." So ¹he made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, ^ahe ¹killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, ^baccording to the word of the LORD, which He spoke to Elijah.

18 ¶ Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, "^aAhab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

19 "And now, ^asummon all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers and all his priests; let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal; whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu did it in ¹cunning, in order that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, "^aSanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." And ^bthey proclaimed it.

21 Then Jehu sent ¹throughout Israel and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And when they went into ^athe house of Baal, the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.

22 And he said to the one who was ¹in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out garments for all the

23 And Jehu went into the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab; and he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search and see that there may be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshippers of Baal."

24 Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside, and he had said, "^aThe one who permits any of the men whom I bring into your hands to escape, ¹shall give up his life in exchange."

25 ¶ Then it came about, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the ¹guard and to the royal officers, "^bGo in, ²kill them; let none come out." And they ³killed them with the edge of the sword; and the ¹guard and the royal officers threw them out, and went to the ⁴inner room of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought out the sacred ^apillars of the house of Baal, and burned them.

27 They also broke down the sacred pillar of Baal and broke down the house of Baal, and ^amade it a latrine to this day.

28 Thus Jehu eradicated Baal out of Israel.

29 ¶ However, ^aas for the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat which he made Israel sin, from these Jehu did not depart, ^beven the ^bgolden calves that were at Bethel and that were at Dan.

30 And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, ^ayour sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

31 But Jehu ^awas not careful to walk in the law of the LORD the God of Israel, with all his heart; ^bhe did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel sin.

32 ¶ In those days the ^aLORD began to cut off portions ¹from Israel; and ^bHazael ²defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:

33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from ^aAroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even ^bGilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.

36 Now the ¹time which Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

CHAPTER 11

^aWHEN Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose and destroyed all the royal ¹offspring.

2 But Jehoshеba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, ^atook Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons who were being put to death, and placed him and his nurse in the bedroom. So they hid him from Athaliah, and he was not put to death.

3 So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the land.

4 ¶ ^aNow in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds of ^bthe Carites and of the ¹guard, and brought them to him in the house of the LORD. Then he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: ^aone third of you, who come in on the sabbath and keep watch over the king's house

6 (one third also shall be at the gate Sur, and one third at the gate behind the ¹guards), ²shall keep watch over the house for defense.

7 "And two parts of you, even all who go out on the sabbath, shall also keep watch over the house of the LORD for the king.

8 "Then you shall surround the king, each with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within the ranks shall be put to death. And ^abe with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."

9 ¶ So the captains of hundreds ^adid according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each one of them took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with those who were to go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And ^athe priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD.

11 And the ¹guards stood each with his weapons in his hand, from the right ²side of the house to the left ²side of the house, by the altar and by the house, around the king.

12 Then he brought the king's son out and ^aput the crown on him, and gave him ^bthe testimony; and they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

13 ¶ ^aWhen Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people in the house of the LORD.

14 And she looked and behold, the king was standing ^aby the pillar, according to the custom, with the captains and the ¹trumpeters beside the king; and ²all the people of the land rejoiced and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah ³tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were appointed over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out ¹between the ranks, and whoever follows her put to death with the sword." For the priest said, "Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD."

16 So they ¹seized her, and when she arrived at the horses' entrance of the king's house, she was ²put to death there.

17 ¶ Then ³Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people, also ⁴between the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went to ⁵the house of Baal, and tore it down; ⁶his altars and his images they broke in pieces thoroughly, and ⁷killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed ⁸officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the captains of hundreds and the ⁹Carites and the ¹⁰guards and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of ¹¹the gate of the ¹²guards to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 So ¹³all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet. For they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.

he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Jehoash did right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 Only ³the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

4 ¶ Then Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the sacred things ⁴which is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, both ⁵the money of each man's assessment and all the money ⁶which any man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD,

6 ¶ But it came about that in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash ⁸the priests had not repaired the damages of the house.

7 Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests and said to them, "Why do you not repair the damages of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your acquaintances, but pay it for the damages of the house.

8 So the priests agreed that they should take no more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the house.

9 ¶ But ⁹Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in its lid, and put it beside the altar on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money which was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And when they saw that there was much money in the chest, ¹⁰the king's scribe and the high priest came up and tied it in bags and counted the money which was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money which was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of the LORD;

12 and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the damages to the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 But there were not made for the house of the LORD silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD;

14 for they gave that to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover, they did not require an accounting from the men into whose hand they gave the money to pay to those who did the work, for they dealt faithfully.

16 The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of the LORD; it was for the priests.

17 Then Hazael king of Aram went up and fought against Gath and captured it, and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things and all the gold that was found among the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

19 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

20 And his servants arose and made a conspiracy, and struck down Joash at the house of Millo as he was going down to Silla.

21 For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 13

IN the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel at Samaria, and he reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel sin; he did not turn from them.

3 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael.

4 Then Jehoahaz entreated the favor of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them.

5 And the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans; and the sons of Israel lived in their tents as formerly.

6 Nevertheless they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel sin, but walked in them; and the Asherah also remained standing in Samaria.

7 For he left to Jehoahaz of the army not more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and 10,000 footmen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and ^amade them like the dust at threshing.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son became king in his place.

10 ¶ In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel sin, but he walked in ¹them.

12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

13 So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 ¶ When Elisha ¹became sick with the illness of which he was to die, Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over ²him and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows." So he ¹took a bow and arrows.

16 Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." And he put his hand on it, then Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands.

17 And he said, "Open the window toward the east," and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot!" And he shot. And he said, "The LORD's arrow of vic-

18 Then he said, "Take the arrows," and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground," and he struck three times and ¹stopped.

19 So ^athe man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck five or six times, then you would have struck Aram until you would have ¹destroyed it. But now you shall strike Aram ^bonly three times."

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. Now ^athe bands of the Moabites would invade the land in the spring of the year.

21 And as they were burying a man, behold, they saw a man raiding band; and they cast the man into the grave of Elisha. And when the man touched the bones of Elisha he ^arevived and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ Now ^aHazael king of Aram had oppressed Israel ^athe days of Jehoahaz.

23 But the ^aLORD was gracious to them and ^bhad compassion on them and turned to them because of ^cHis covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them or cast them from His presence until now.

24 When Hazael king of Aram died, Ben-hadad his son became king in his place.

25 Then ^aJehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again from the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken from the hand of Jehoash his father. ^bThree times Joash ¹defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER 14

^aIN the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel, ^bAm

Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah became king.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem.

3 And he did right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father; he did according to all that Joash his father had done.

4 Only ^athe high places were not taken away; ^bthe people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5 Now it came about, as soon as the kingdom was firmly in his hand, that he ¹killed his servants who had slain the king his father.

6 But the sons of the ¹slayers he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "^aThe fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, nor the sons be put to death for the fathers; but ^beach shall be put to death for his own sin."

7 He ¹killed of Edom in ^athe Valley of Salt 10,000 and took ^bSela by war, and named it ^cJoktheel to this day.

8 ^aThen Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "^bCome, let us face each other."

9 And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "^aThe thorn bush which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar which was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trampled the thorn bush.

10 ^a"You have indeed ¹defeated Edom, and ^byour heart has ²become proud. Enjoy your glory and stay at home; for why should you provoke trouble so that you, even you, should fall, and Judah with you?"

22 ^aHe built Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

23 ¹In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years.

27 And the ^aLORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

CHAPTER 16

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, ^aAhaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king.

2 ^aAhaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done.

4 And he ^asacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.

6 At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered ^aElath for Aram, and cleared the Judeans out of ¹Elath entirely; and the ²Arameans came to Elath, and have lived there to this day.

7 ¶ ^aSo Ahaz sent messengers to ^bTiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son; come up and deliver me from the ¹hand of the king of Aram, and from the ¹hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me."

8 And ^aAhaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house and sent a present to the king of Assyria.

9 ^aSo the king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus; and ^bcaptured it, and carried the people of it away into exile to ^cKir, and put Rezin to death.

10 ¶ Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet ^aTiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar which was at Damascus and King Ahaz sent to ^bUrijah the priest the ¹pattern of the altar and its model, according to all its workmanship.

11 So Urijah the priest built an altar; according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus; thus Urijah the priest made it ¹before the coming of King Ahaz from Damascus.

12 And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; then ^athe king approached the altar and ¹went up to it, 13 and ¹burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his libation and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

14 And ^athe bronze altar which was before the LORD, ¹he brought from the front of the house, from between ^bthis altar and the house of the LORD, and he put it on the north side of his altar.

15 Then King Ahaz ¹commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "Upon the great altar ²burn the morning burnt offering and he evening meal offering and he king's burnt offering and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their meal offering and their libations; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. But ³the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by."

16 So Urijah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

17 ¶ Then King Ahaz ^acut off the borders of the stands, and removed the laver from them; he also ^btook down the sea from the bronze oxen which were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone.

18 And the covered way for the sabbath which they had built in the house, and the outer entry of the king, he removed from the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written ^ain the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

Hoshea became his servant and paid him tribute.

4 But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, who had sent messengers to So king of Egypt and had offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year; so the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria invaded the whole land and went up to ^aSamaria and besieged it three years.

6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, ^athe king of Assyria captured Samaria and ^bcarried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and ^csettled them in Halah and Habor, on the river of ^dGozan, and ^ein the cities of the Medes.

7 ¶ Now ^athis came about, because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, ^bwho had brought them up from the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, ^cand they had ^dfeared other gods

8 and ^awalked in the ^bcustoms of the nations whom the LORD had driven out before the sons of Israel, and in ^cthe customs ^dof the kings of Israel which they had ^eintroduced.

9 And the sons of Israel ^ddid things secretly which were not right, against the LORD their God. Moreover, they built for themselves high places in all their towns, from ^awatchtower to fortified city.

10 And ^athey set for themselves sacred pillars and ^bAshe-rim on every high hill and under every green tree, 11 and there they burned incense on all the high places as the nations ^ddid which the LORD had carried away to exile before them; and they did evil things provoking the LORD.

12 And they served idols, ^aconcerning which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing."

13 Yet the ^aLORD warned Israel and Judah, ^bthrough all His prophets and ^cevery seer, saying, "^dTurn from your evil ways and keep My commandments, My statutes according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through My servants the prophets."

14 However, they did not listen, but ^astiffened their neck ¹like their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And ^athey rejected His statutes and ^bHis covenant which He made with their fathers, and His warnings with which He warned them. And ^cthey followed vanity and ^dbecame vain, and went after the nations which surrounded them, concerning which the ^eLORD had commanded them not to do like them.

16 And they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God and made for themselves molten images, even ^atwo calves, and ^bmade an ¹Asherah and ^cworshiped all the host of heaven and ^dserved Baal.

17 Then ^athey made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and ^bpracticed divination and enchantments, and ^csold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him.

18 So the LORD was very angry with Israel, and ^aremoved them from His ¹sight; ^bnone was left except the tribe of Judah.

19 ¶ Also ^aJudah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but ^bwalked in the ¹customs ²which Israel had ³introduced.

20 And the LORD rejected all the ¹descendants of Israel and afflicted them and ^agave them into the hand of plunderers, until 21 When ^aHe had torn Israel from the house of David, ^bHe made Jeroboam the son of Nebi king. Then ^cJeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD, and made them ¹commit great sin.

22 And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them.

23 ^auntil the LORD removed Israel from His sight, ^bas He spoke through all His servants the prophets. ^cSo Israel was carried away into exile from their own land to Assyria until this day.

24 ¶ ^aAnd the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon and from Cuthah and from ¹Avv and from ^cHamath and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel. So they possessed Samaria and lived in its cities.

25 And it came about at the beginning of their living there, that they ^adid not fear the LORD therefore the LORD sent lion among them which killed some of them.

26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nation whom you have carried away into exile in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the god of the land; so he has sent lions among them, and behold they kill them because they do not know the custom of the god of the land."

27 ¶ Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Take there one of the priests whom you carried away into ¹exile, and let ²him go and live there; and let him teach them the custom of the god of the land."

28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away into exile from Samaria came and lived at Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 But every nation still made gods of its own and put them ^ain the houses of the high places which the people of Samaria had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.

30 And ^athe men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and ^athe Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to ^bAdrammelech and Anammelech the gods of ^cSepharvaim.

32 ^aThey also feared the LORD and ^bappointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who acted for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD and served their own gods according to the custom of the nations from among whom they had been carried away into exile.

34 ¶ To this day they do according to the earlier customs: they do not fear the LORD, nor do they ¹follow their statutes or their ordinances or the law, or the commandments which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob, ^awhom He named Israel;

35 with whom the LORD made a covenant and commanded them, saying, "^aYou shall not fear other gods, nor ^bbow down yourselves to them nor ^cserve them nor sacrifice to them.

36" But the LORD, ^awho brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with ^ban outstretched arm, ^cHim you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow yourselves down, and to Him you shall sacrifice.

CHAPTER 18

NOW it came about ^ain the third year of Hoshea, the son of Elah king of Israel, that ^bHezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah became king.

2 He was ^atwenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

3 ^aAnd he did right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

4 ^aHe removed the high places and broke down the sacred pillars and cut down the ¹Asherah. He also broke in pieces ^bthe bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the sons of Israel burned incense to it; and it was called ²Nehushtan.

5 ^aHe trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; ^bso that after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among those who were before him.

6 For he ^aclung to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses.

7 ^aAnd the LORD was with him; wherever he went he prospered. And ^bhe rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.

8 ^aHe ¹defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from ^bwatchtower to fortified city.

9 ¶ Now it came about in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that ^aShalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they captured it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was ^athe ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was captured.

11 Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away into exile to Assyria, and put them in ^aHalah and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

12 because they ^adid not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded; they would neither listen, nor do it.

13 ¶ ^aNow in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them.

14 Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "^aI have done wrong. ¹Withdraw from me; whatever you ²impose on me I will bear." So the king of Assyria ³required of Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 And ^aHezekiah gave him all the silver which was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house.

16 At that time Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 ¶ Then the king of Assyria sent ^aTartan and Rab-saris and 18 When they called to the king, ^aEliakim the son of Hilkiah who was over the household and ^bShebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, came out to them.

19 Then Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What is the confidence that you ¹have?"

20 "You say (but they are ¹only empty words), 'I have counsel and strength for the war.' Now on whom do you rely, ^athat you have rebelled against me?"

21 "Now behold, you ¹rely on the staff of this crushed reed even on Egypt; on which if a man leans, it will go into his ²hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him.

22 "But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is not He whose high places and ^awhose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?"

23 "Now therefore, ¹come and make a bargain with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to send riders on them.

24 "How then can you ¹repulse one ²official of the least of my master's servants, and ³rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?"

25 "Have I now come up ¹without the LORD's approval against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.' " " "

26 ¶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, for we ¹understand it; and do not speak with us in ^{2a}Judean, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

27 But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, doomed to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

28 Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in Judean, ¹saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria."

29 "Thus says the king, ^a"Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from ¹my hand;

30 nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

31 "Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, ¹"Make your peace with me and come out to me, and eat ^aeach of his vine and each of his fig tree and drink each of the waters of his own cistern,

32 until I come and take you away ^ato a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live and not die." But do not listen to Hezekiah, when he misleads you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us."

33 "Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?"

36 But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

37 Then ^aEliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah ^bwith their clothes torn and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER 19

^aAND when King Hezekiah heard it, he ^btore his clothes, ^ccovered himself with sackcloth and entered the house of the LORD.

2 Then he sent Eliakim who was over the household with Shebna the scribe and the elders of the priests, ^acovered with sackcloth, to ^bIsaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and rejection; for children have come to birth, and there is no strength to deliver.'

4 ^aPerhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent ^bto reproach the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, offer a prayer for ^cthe remnant that is left.'

5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD, "Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the ^aservants of the king of Assyria ^bhave blasphemed Me.

7 "Behold, I will put a spirit in him so that ^ahe shall hear a rumor and return to his own land. And ^bI will make him fall by the sword in his own land."

8 ¶ Then Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against ^aLibnah, for he had heard that ¹the king had left ^bLachish.

9 When he heard them say concerning Tirhakah king of ¹Cush, "Behold, he has come out to fight against you," he sent messengers again to Hezekiah saying,

10 "Thus you shall say to Hezekiah king of ¹Judah, 'Do not ^alet your God in whom you trust deceive you saying, "^bJerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

11 'Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. So will you be ¹spared?

12 'Did the gods of ¹those nations which my fathers destroyed deliver them, even ^bGozan and ^cHaran and Rezech and ^dthe sons of Eden who were in Telassar?

13 'Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, and of Hena and Ivvah?'

14 ¶ Then ^aHezekiah took the ¹letter from the hand of the messengers and read it, and he went up to the house of the LORD and ²spread it out before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, ^awho art ¹enthroned above the cherubim, ^bThou art the God, Thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. Thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 "Incline Thine ear, O LORD, and hear; ^bopen Thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and listen to the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent ^cto reproach the living God.

17 "Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands

18 and have cast their gods into the fire, ^afor they were no gods but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them.

19 "And now, O LORD our God, I pray, deliver us from his hand ^athat all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou alone O ^bLORD, art God."

20 ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah saying "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, ^aI have heard you.'

21 "This is the word that the LORD has spoken against him:

'She has despised you and mocked you,

Mount Zion ¹survivors. ²The zeal of ²the LORD shall perform this.

32 "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, ¹"He shall not come to this city or shoot an arrow there; neither shall he come before it with a shield, nor throw up a mound against it.

33 ¹"By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city," declares the LORD.

34 ¹"For I will defend this city to save it for My own sake and ²for My servant David's sake."

35 ¶ "Then it happened that night that the angel of the LORD went out, and struck 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians; and when ¹men rose early in the morning, behold, all of them were ²dead.

36 So ¹Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home, and lived at ²Nineveh.

37 And it came about as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, that ¹Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword; and they escaped into ²the land of Ararat. And ³Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 20

IN those days Hezekiah became ¹mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, ²Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live."

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying,

3 ¹"Remember now, O LORD, I beseech Thee, ²how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in Thy sight." And ³Hezekiah wept ¹bitterly.

4 And it came about before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying.

5 "Return and say to ^aHezekiah the leader of My people. 'Thus says the LORD, the God of your father David, "bI have heard your prayer, cI have seen your tears; behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD.

6 "And I will add fifteen years to your ¹life, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and ^aI will defend this city for My own sake and for My servant David's sake."

7 Then Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs." And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 ¶ Now Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"

9 And Isaiah said, "aThis shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?"

10 So Hezekiah answered, "It is easy for the shadow to decline ten steps; no, but let the shadow turn backward ten steps."

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD, and ^aHe brought the shadow on the ¹stairway back ten steps by which it had gone down on the ¹stairway of Ahaz.

12 ¶ ^aAt that time ¹Berodach-baladan a son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them ^aall his treasure house, the silver and the gold and the spices and the precious oil and the house of his armor and all that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them.

14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say and from where have they come to you?" And Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, from Babylon."

15 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" So Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

16 ¶ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD.

17 'Behold, the days are coming when ^aall that is in your house, and all that your father have laid up in store to this day shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD.

18 'And some ^aof your son who shall issue from you, whom you shall beget, shall be taken away; and they shall become ^bofficials in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "

19 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is ^agood." For he ¹thought, "Is not so, if there shall be peace and truth in my days?"

20 ^aNow the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he ^bmade the pool and the conduit, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

21 ^aSo Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son became king in his place.

2 And ^ahe did evil in the sight of the LORD, ^baccording to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the sons of Israel.

3 For ^ahe rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and ^bhe erected altars for Baal and made an ^cAsherah, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and ^cworshiped all the host of heaven and served them.

4 And ^ahe built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "^bIn Jerusalem I will put My name."

5 For he built altars for ^aall the host of heaven in ^bthe two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And ^ahe made his son pass through the fire, ^bpracticed witchcraft and used divination, and dealt with mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD provoking Him to anger.

7 Then ^ahe set the carved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to his son Solomon, "^bIn this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.

8" And I ^awill not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them."

9 But they did not listen, and Manasseh ^aseduced them to do evil more than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the sons of Israel.

10 ¶ Now the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets, saying, who were before him, and ^chas also made Judah sin ^dwith his idols;

12 therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I am bringing such calamity on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, ^aboth his ears shall tingle.

13 ^aAnd I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

14 ^aAnd I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall become as plunder and spoil to all their enemies;

15 because they have done evil in My sight, and have been provoking Me to anger, since the day their fathers came from Egypt, even to this day.'

16 ¶ ^aMoreover, Manasseh shed very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin ^bwith which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 ^aNow the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did and his sin which he ^bcommitted, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

18 ^aAnd Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his own house, ^bin the garden of Uzza, and Amon his son became king in his place.

19 ¶ ^aAmon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, ^aas Manasseh his father had done.

21 For he walked in all the way that his father had walked, and served the idols that his father had served and worshiped them.

22 So ^ahe forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

23 And ^athe servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his own house.

24 Then ^athe people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his grave ^ain the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place.

CHAPTER 22

^aJOSIAH was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiyah of ^bBozkath.

2 And he did right in the sight of the LORD and walked in all the way of his father David, nor did he ^aturn aside to the right or to the left.

3 ¶ Now ^ait came about in the eighteenth year of King Josiah that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the LORD saying,

4 ^a"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest that he may ¹count the money brought in to the house of the LORD which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.

5 ^a"And let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD, and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD to repair the ¹damages of the house.

6 to the carpenters and the builders and the masons and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 ^a"Only ^ano accounting shall be made with them for the money delivered into their hands, for they deal faithfully."

8 ¶ Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, ^a"I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan who read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said ^a"Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD."

10 Moreover, Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it in the presence of the king.

11 And it came about when the king heard the words of the book of the law, that ^ahe tore his clothes.

12 Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, ^aAhikam the son of Shaphan, ^{1b}Achbor the son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant saying,

13 ^a"Go, inquire of the LORD for me and the people and all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for ^agreat is the wrath of the LORD that burns against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

14 ¶ So Hilkiah the priest Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of ^{1a}Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the ^bSecond Quarter); and they spoke to her.

And all the people ^centered into the covenant.

4 ^a Then the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest and ^athe priests of the second order and the ^bdoorkeepers, ^bto bring out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, for ^cAsherah, and for all the host of heaven; and ^che burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

5 And he did away with the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and in the surrounding area of Jerusalem, also those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations and to all the ^ahost of heaven.

6 And he brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and ^aground it to dust, and ^bthrew its dust on the graves of the ^ccommon people.

7 He also broke down the houses of the ^amale cult prostitutes which were in the house of the LORD, where ^bthe women were weaving ^changings for the Asherah.

8 Then he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from ^aGeba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates which were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city.

which were on one's left at the city gate.

9 Nevertheless ^athe priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10 ^aHe also defiled ¹Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, ^bthat no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire for ^cMolech.

11 And he did away with the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the ^asun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the official, which was in the precincts; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And ^athe altars which were on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and ^bthe altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down; and he ¹smashed them there, and ^cthrew their dust into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places which were before Jerusalem, which were on the right of ^athe mount of destruction which Solomon the king of Israel had built for ^bAshtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for ^cChemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon, the king defiled.

14 And ^ahe broke in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherim and ^bfilled their places with human bones.

15 ¶ Furthermore, ^athe altar that was at Bethel and the ^bhigh place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down. Then he ¹demolished its stones, ground them to dust, and burned the Asherah.

16 Now when Josiah turned he saw the graves that were there on the mountain, and he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned them on the altar and defiled it ^aaccording to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

17 Then he said, "What is this monument that I see?" And the men of the city told him, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar Bethel."

18 And he said, "Let him alone; let no one disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed ^awith the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

22 ^aSurely such a Passover had not been celebrated from the days of the judges who judge Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and of the kings of Judah.

23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was observed to the LORD in Jerusalem.

26 ¶ However, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath with which His anger burned against Judah, ^abecause of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him.

27 And the LORD said, "I will remove Judah also from My sight, ^aas I have removed Israel. And ^bI will cast off Jerusalem, this city which I have chosen, and the ¹temple of which I said, 'My name shall be there.' "

33 And ^aPharaoh Neco imprisoned him at ^bRiblah in the land of ^cHamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a fine of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh Neco made ^aEliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and ^bchanged his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away and ¹brought him to Egypt, and he died there.

35 So Jehoiakim ^agave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land in order to give the money at the ¹command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, each according to his valuation, to give it to Pharaoh Neco.

36 ¶ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiiah of Rumah.

37 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, ^aaccording to all that his fathers had done.

CHAPTER 24

^aIN his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years; then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the LORD sent against him ^abands of Chaldeans, ^bbands of Arameans, ^cbands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. So He sent them against Judah to destroy it, ^daccording to the word of the LORD, which He had spoken through His servants the prophets.

3 ^aSurely at the ¹command of the LORD it came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight ^bbecause of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done,

4 and ^aalso for the innocent blood which he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; and the LORD would not forgive.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

6 So ^aJehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

7 And ^athe king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, ^bfor the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from ^cthe brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates.

8 ¶ ^aJehoiachin was ^beighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, ^aaccording to all that his father had done.

10 ¶ At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it.

12 And ^aJehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his servants and his captains and his officials. So ^bthe king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And ^ahe carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and ^bcut in pieces all the vessels of gold ^cwhich Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, just as the LORD had said.

14 Then ^ahe led away into exile all Jerusalem and all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, ^bten thousand captives, and ^call the craftsmen and the smiths. None remained ^dexcept the poorest people of the land.

15 So ^ahe led Jehoiachin away into exile to Babylon; also the king's mother and the king's wives and his officials and the leading men of the land, he led away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of valor ^aseven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all strong and fit for war, and these the king of Babylon brought into exile to Babylon.

17 ^aThen the king of Babylon made ^bhis uncle Mattaniah, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 ¶ ^aZedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was ^bHamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, ^aaccording to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For ^athrough the anger of the LORD ^{this} came about in Jerusalem and Judah until He cast them out from His presence. And ^bZedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER 25

^a NOW it came about in the ninth year of his reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month that ^bNebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, camped against it, and ^cbuilt a siege wall all around ^dit.

2 So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

3 On the ninth day of the fourth month ^athe famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4 ^aThen the city was broken into, and all the men of war fled by night by way of the gate between the two walls beside ^bthe king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. And they went by way of the Arabah.

5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho and all his army was scattered from him.

6 Then they captured the king and brought him to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and he passed sentence on him.

7 And they slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, then put out the eyes of Zedekiah and bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.

8 ¶ Now on the seventh day of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

9 And he burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; even every great house he burned with fire.

10 So all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

11 Then the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the multitude, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away into exile.

12 But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

13 ¶ Now the bronze pillars which were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea which were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried the bronze to Babylon.

14 And they took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the bronze vessels which were used in temple service.

15 The captain of the guard also took away the firepans and the basins, what was fine gold and what was fine silver.

16 The two pillars, the one sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD—the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight.

17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a bronze capital was on it; the height of the capital was three cubits, with a network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze. And the second pillar was like these with network.

18 ¶ Then the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest, with the three officers of the temple.

19 And from the city he took one official who was overseer of the men of war, and five of the king's advisers who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

20 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

21 Then the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was led away into exile from its land.

22 ¶ Now as for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan over them.

24 And Gedaliah swore to them and their men and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you."

25 ¶ ^aBut it came about in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal ¹family, came ²with ten men and struck Gedaliah down so that he died along with the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

SO all Israel was enrolled by genealogies; and behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel. And ²Judah was carried away into exile to Babylon for their unfaithfulness.

2 ¶ ²Now the first who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites and ³the ¹temple servants.

3 And some of the sons of Judah, of the sons of Benjamin, and of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh lived in ^aJerusalem:

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, from the sons of Perez the ^ason of Judah.

17 ¶ Now the gatekeepers were ¹Shallum and Akkub and Talmon and Ahiman and their relatives (Shallum the chief 18 being stationed until now at ^athe king's gate to the east). These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the sons of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of ¹Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers had been over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance.

20 And ^aPhinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them previously, and the LORD was with him.

21 ^aZechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

22 All these who were chosen to be gatekeepers in the thresholds were 212. These were enrolled by genealogy in their villages, ^awhom David and Samuel the seer appointed ^bin their office of trust.

23 So they and their sons ¹had charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, even the house of the tent, as guards.

24 The gatekeepers were ¹on the four sides, to the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their relatives in their villages ^awere to come in every seven days from time to time to be with ¹them;

27 And they spent the night around the house of God, ^abecause the watch was ¹committed to them; and they were ²in charge of opening it morning by morning.

28 ¶ Now some of them ¹had charge of the utensils of service, for ²they counted them when they brought them in and when they took them out.

29 Some of them also were appointed over the furniture and over all the utensils of the sanctuary and ^aover the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices.

30 And some of ^athe sons of the priests prepared the mixing of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korahite, had ^athe ¹responsibility over the things which were baked in pans.

32 And some of their relatives of the sons of the Kohathites ^awere over the showbread to prepare it every sabbath.

33 ¶ Now these are ^athe singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the chambers of the temple free from other service; for they were ¹engaged ^bin their work day and night.

34 These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites according to their generations, chief men, ¹who lived in Jerusalem.

35 ¶ ^aAnd in Gibeon Jeiel the father of Gibeon lived, and his wife's name was Maacah,

CHAPTER 10

^a NOW the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, ^{1a}Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle became heavy against Saul, and the archers ¹overtook him; and he was wounded by the archers.

4 Then Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me." But his armor bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. ^aTherefore Saul took his sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died.

6 ^aThus Saul died with his three sons, and all those of his house died together.

7 ¶ When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them.

8 And it came about the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 ¶ So they stripped him and took his head and his armor and sent messengers around the land of the Philistines, to carry the good news to their idols and to the people.

10 And they put his armor in the house of their gods and fastened his head in the house of Dagon.

11 When all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 ¶ all the valiant men arose and took away the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD which he did not keep; and also ¶ because he asked counsel of a medium, making inquiry of it.

14 and did not inquire of the LORD. Therefore He killed him, and ¶ turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER 11

¶ THEN all Israel gathered to David at Hebron ¶ and said, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 "In times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, "You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be prince over My people Israel."

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and ¶ they anointed David king over Israel, ¶ according to the word of the LORD through Samuel.

4 ¶ Then David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (¶ that is, Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not enter here." Nevertheless David captured the stronghold of Zion (that is, the city of David).

6 Now David had said, "Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall be chief and commander." ¶ And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief.

7 Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore it was called the city of David.

8 And he ¶ built the city all around, from the ¶ Millo even to the surrounding area; and Joab ¶ repaired the rest of the city.

9 And ¶ David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ Now these are the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, ¶ according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And these constitute the list of the mighty men whom David had: ¶ Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, ¶ the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred ¶ whom he killed at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of ¶ Dodo, the Ahohite, who was ¶ one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at ¶ Pasdammim ¶ when the Philistines were gathered together there to battle, and there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled before the Philistines.

14 And they took their stand in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and struck down the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great ¹victory.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, while ^athe army of the Philistines was camping in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the stronghold, while ^athe garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem.

17 And David had a craving and said, "Oh that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

18 So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David; nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD;

19 and he said, "Be it far from me before my God that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of these men who went ¹at the risk of their lives? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

20 ¶ As for ¹Abshai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the ²thirty, and he swung his spear against three hundred ³and killed them; and he had a name as well as the ²thirty.

21 Of the three in the second rank he was the most honored, and became their commander; however, he did not attain to the first three.

22 ¶ ^aBenaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, mighty in deeds, struck down the ¹two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went

CHAPTER 12

^a NOW these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still restricted because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him in war.

2 They were equipped with bows, ^ausing both the right hand and the left to sling stones and to shoot arrows from the bow; ^bthey were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beraiah and Jehu the Anathothite,

4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty. ¹Then Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,

5 ¹Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, the Korahites,

7 and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 ¹ And from the Gadites there ¹came over to David in the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, who could handle shield and spear, and whose faces were like the faces of lions, and ^athey were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains.

9 Ezer was the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.

14 These of the sons of Gad were ¹captains of the army; ^ahe who was least was equal to a hundred and the greatest to a thousand.

15 ^aThese are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks and they put to flight all those in the valleys, both to the east and to the west.

16 ¹ Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you come peacefully to me to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no ¹wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look on it and decide."

18 Then ^athe Spirit ¹came upon ^bAmasai, who was the chief of the thirty, and he said,

"We are yours, O David,

And with you, O son of Jesse!

^cPeace, peace to you,

And peace to him who helps you;

Indeed, your God helps you!"

Then David received them and made them ²captains of the band.

19 ¹ From Manasseh also some defected to David, when he was about to go to battle with the Philistines against Saul. But they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines after consultation sent him away, saying, "At the cost of our heads he may defect to his master Saul."

20 As he went to Ziklag, there defected to him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, ¹captains of thousands who belonged to Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against ^athe band of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army.

22 For day by day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army ^alike the army of God.

23 ¶ Now these are the numbers of the ¹divisions equipped for war, ^awho came to David at Hebron, ^bto turn the kingdom of Saul to him, ^caccording to the ²word of the LORD.

24 The sons of Judah who bore shield and spear were 6,800, equipped for war.

25 Of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor for war, 7,100.

26 Of the sons of Levi 4,600.

27 Now Jehoiada was the leader of the house of Aaron, and with him were 3,700.

28 also ^aZadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains.

29 And of the sons of Benjamin, ^aSaul's kinsmen, 3,000; for until now ^bthe greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul.

30 And of the sons of Ephraim 20,800, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' households.

31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000, who were designated by name to come and make David king.

Supporters Gathered at Hebron.

^amen who understood the times with knowledge of what Israel should do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their kinsmen were at their command.

33 Of Zebulun, there were 50,000 who went out in the army, who could draw up in battle formation with all kinds of weapons of war and helped David ¹with ^aan undivided heart.

34 And of Naphtali there were 1,000 captains, and with them 37,000 with shield and spear.

35 And of the Danites who could draw up in battle formation, there were 28,600.

36 And of Asher there were 40,000 who went out in the army to draw up in battle formation.

37 And from the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, there were 120,000 with all kinds of weapons of war for the battle.

38 ¶ All these, being men of war, who could draw up in battle formation, came to Hebron with ^aa perfect heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one mind to make David king.

39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their kinsmen had prepared for them.

40 Moreover those who were near to them, even as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali ^abrought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and on oxen, great quantities of flour cakes, fig cakes and bunches of raisins, wine, oil, oxen and sheep. There was joy indeed in Israel.

CHAPTER 13

THEN David consulted with the captains of the thousands and the hundreds, ever with every leader.

2 And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us send everywhere to our kinsmen who remain in all the land of Israel, also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their cities with pasture lands, that they may meet with us;

3 and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, ^afor we did not seek it in the days of Saul."

4 Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 ^aSo David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, ^bto bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

6 ^aAnd David and all Israel went up to ^bBaalath, that is, to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD ^cwho is enthroned above the cherubim, where His name is called.

7 And they ^dcarried the ark of God on a new cart from ^ethe house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all ^ftheir might, ^geven with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 ^hWhen they came to ⁱthe threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, because the oxen nearly upset it.

10 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzza, so He struck him down ^jbecause he put out his hand to the ark; ^kand he died there before God.

11 Then David became angry because ^lof the LORD's outburst against Uzza; and he called that place ^mPerez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God home to me?"

13 So David did not take the ark with him to the city of David,

14 Thus the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months; and ^athe LORD blessed the family of Obed-edom with all that he had.

CHAPTER 14

^aNOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar trees, masons, and carpenters, to build a house for him.

2 And David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was highly exalted, for the sake of His people Israel.

3 ^hThen David took more wives at Jerusalem, and David ⁱbecame the father of more sons and daughters.

4 ^aAnd these are the names of the children ^bborn to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

5 Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,

6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,

7 Elishama, Beeliada and Eliphelet.

8 ^hWhen the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; and David heard of it and went out against them.

9 Now the Philistines had come and ^amade a raid in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? And wilt Thou give them into my hand?" Then the LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will give them into your hand."

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim, and David ^bdefeated them there; and David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like the breakthrough of waters." Therefore they named that place ^cBaal-perazim.

12 And they abandoned their gods there; so David gave the order and they were burned with fire.

13 ¶ And the Philistines made ^ayet another raid in the valley.

14 And David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around ¹behind them, and come at them in front of the ²balsam trees.

15 "And it shall be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God will have gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

16 And David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from ¹Gibeon even as far as Gezer.

17 Then the fame of David went out into all the lands; and ^athe LORD brought the fear of him on all the nations.

CHAPTER 15

NOW David built houses for himself in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and ^apitched a tent for it.

2 Then David said, "^aNo one is to carry the ark of God but the Levites; for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to Him forever."

3 And ^aDavid assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD ^bto its place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and ^athe Levites:

5 of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and 120 of his ¹relatives;

6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and 220 of his relatives;

11 Then David called for ^aZadok and ^bAbiathar the priests and for the Levites, for Uriel Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab, 12 and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' household of the Levites; ^aconsecrate yourselves both you and your relatives, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel ^bto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 "^aBecause you did not carry it at the first, the LORD our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance."

14 ^aSo the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the sons of ^athe Levites carried the ark of God on their shoulders, with the pole: thereon as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 ¶ Then David spoke to the chiefs of the Levites ^ato appoint their relatives the singers, with instruments of music, harps, lyres, loud-sounding cymbals, to raise sounds of joy.

17 So ^athe Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and from his relatives, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and from the sons of Merari their relatives, Ethan the son of Kushaiah,

18 and with them their relatives of the second rank, Zechariah, ¹Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to sound aloud cymbals of bronze;

20 and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with harps tuned to ^aalamoth;

21 and Mattithiah, Eliphehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to lead with lyres tuned to ^athe sheminith.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was in charge of the singing; he gave instruction in singing because he was skillful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, ^ablew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah also were gatekeepers for the ark.

25 ¶ ^aSo it was David, with the elders of Israel and the captains over thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from ^bthe house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came about because God was helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed ^aseven bulls and seven rams.

27 Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen with all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers and Chenaniah the leader of the singing with the singers. ^aDavid also wore an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the horn, with trumpets, with loud-sounding cymbals, with harps and lyres.

AND they brought in the ark of God and ^aplaced it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God.

2 When David had finished offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread and a portion of meat and a raisin cake.

4 ¶ And he appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the ark of the LORD, even to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:
